

The beautiful grounds of the Dekum residence, at Thirteenth and Morrison streets, was the scene of a charming fete on Friday evening, given for the benefit of the Patton Home for Old Ladies, one of Portland's most popular charities. A "sweet lavender garden party" the affair was called, and very suitably, for the name of lavender always brings up a vision of gentle old ladies with sweet faces, framed in shining gray hair, under dainty lavender-scented caps. The lavender booth, which was the prettiest combination of lavender and white imaginable, was in charge of Mrs. A. N. Shannon, assisted by Mrs. Toomey and Miss Florence Morrison. Here were sold fragrant little bouquets of lavender, tied with dainty bows of ribbon.

The arrangement of the Chinese lanterns among the trees and about the booth was exceedingly pretty. One of the canopy booths was a big Japanese umbrella, from which hung a fringe of gay little Chinese lanterns. This booth was presided over by Mrs. Amelia Sherman, Miss Barton and Miss Loring. The other canopy booth was also made very gay and attractive with a drapery of the National colors, and was in charge of Mrs. F. H. Stow, Mrs. T. T. Strain and Mrs. L. B. Gill. In a secluded spot among the trees was an alluring gypsy village, where a quartet of slyly told the most wonderful fortunes, and were consequently numerous patrons. Ice cream was served by a number of girls in white summer gowns. They were: Miss Haught, Miss Ada Soule, Miss Lillie Barnes, Miss Lydia Ritter, Miss Hazel Phillips, Miss Esther Robinson, Miss Laura Clarke, Miss Peultner, Miss Neillie Poulter, Miss Stiles, Miss Ruth Belding, Miss Blaindell, Miss Cutler, Miss Mildred Waldrath. Mrs. Dekum was assisted in the management of the fete by Mrs. J. H. Davis, Mrs. F. A. Daly, Mrs. A. N. Shannon, Mrs. A. Neppach, Mrs. L. M. Davis, Mrs. E. Sherman, Mrs. Overbaugh, Mrs. Will Nickel, Mrs. E. W. Rowe and Mrs. F. H. Stow.

A Woman Writer Says:

"The clever woman has one or more street dresses that are preferably of the style known as 'tailor-made,' with neat-fitting coat, carefully hung skirt, soft blouse or shirtwaist, which she will wear for church, traveling and shopping."

"If asked further, she probably would have said: 'My friends, of the Vienna Tailoring Company can give you best results in design, material and workmanship. You get the benefit of his wide experience as a designer of ladies' suits, and you are sure to be pleased with the results if you give him your order. He now has the new Fall styles and an unsurpassed line of fabrics.'"

A Woman's Crime

No woman with true MOTHERLY feelings would inflict punishment upon an innocent child. Yet that is what many a woman in her ignorance is doing daily. She nourishes the life entrusted to her care with WEAK and contaminated blood. With no vital force to give, can she expect to bring into existence a human being that will be aught but a burden and a care? The greatest crime a woman can commit before God or man is to become a mother if she herself is weak or debilitated. Let me talk with you about this matter of your health. I have made the diseases of women a specialty for years. I know how to treat and cure you. No embarrassing examinations, and no matter whether you are a mother or ever hope to be, your first duty to yourself is to secure perfect health. Write me fully if you cannot call. I will answer in perfect confidence.
