

FAIR OPENS MONDAY

Livestock Exhibit and Races Two Big Features.

CATTLE OF FINEST QUALITY

State Fair Promises to Be Better Than Ever—Aggregate of Purse Offered Never Was Greater—New Judges of Stock.

SALEM, Sept. 12.—(Special.)—The two big features of the Oregon State Fair, which opens Monday morning, will be the exhibit of livestock and the races. There will be on the grounds 300 head of fine blooded cattle representing nine distinct breeds. These cattle will all be pedigreed, for that is essential to their entrance to the competition in that department.

The races will be the finest ever witnessed on Lone Oak track. The aggregate of the purses that have been offered is greater than ever before. Some of the latest horses in the West are entered in the various events. Among records made on the track by horses that will compete in the different races are the following: Half-mile, 6:48; five-eighths in 1:54; mile in 4:14; mile and one-eighth in 1:58, which is within three seconds of the world's record.

The arrival of several carloads of exhibits at the grounds today, and the consequent bustle in adjusting the different exhibits in the spaces to which they had been assigned ordinarily would have created much confusion, but President Wehring, Secretary Wisdom and J. H. Settlemier, George F. Chandler and Jasper Wilkins, members of the board, were personally in attendance and directed the work.

The board has been crowded in preparing for the racehorses and livestock exhibit. By the most vigorous work provision has been made for the racehorses, but the livestock cannot all be accommodated as the board desires. Officers and members of the exhibit of livestock this year is superior to that of last year. There are three herds of Herefords, two of Short-horn and several other smaller herds of other breeds on the grounds. Secretary Wisdom says that the cattle are equal in quality to any he saw in Chicago last Winter, and are equal to any stock exhibit to be seen in the United States. This feature alone is well worth a visit to the show.

N. H. Gentry, of Sedalia, Mo., will judge the beef grades, while Professor Carby, of Madras, Wis., will make the awards in the dairy herds. The employment of Eastern judges to pass upon the stock at the fair will be an entirely new departure for Oregon. It will be an educational feature for the breeders, who will have the satisfaction of having their cattle passed upon by competent Eastern judges.

Robert Leighton, of Vancouver, B. C., and Charles Jeffrey, of Spokane, will be the presiding officers and starters at the racecourse again this year. They held the same positions a year ago, and gave universal satisfaction. The poultry exhibits will be passed upon by W. W. Browning, of Oregon, Utah, who has had years been a noted judge at the poultry shows in the Northwest.

The campground, adjoining the fair grounds and buildings, is being appropriated by numerous campers. There are more campers than usual.

MOUNT ANGEL COLLEGE OPENS.

Flattering Prospects for a Large Attendance This Year.

MOUNT ANGEL, Or., Sept. 12.—(Special.)—Last Monday Mount Angel College began its 14th year, with an attendance that augured uncommonly well for the coming season. Although the advertised opening date was September 8, classes were not actually resumed until the next morning, when the day began with divine services. Besides the regular, O. S. B., affiliating, and the regular influx of old students there is a large proportion of new arrivals this year, and it is more than likely that the institution will be taxed to its full capacity as the term advances.

The magnificent new stone college is now nearing completion, and when it is finished the structure will be one of the most pretentious homes of learning in the country. The Rev. Father Thomas, prior of the Benedictine Fathers, is supervising the work with great interest. Having made a careful study of the requirements of the modern institution, he has determined that the new college shall have the very best of facilities, nothing being spared that will tend to the welfare of the student.

The academy in charge of the Benedictine Sisters has also a large attendance of girls and young women, many of whom, besides taking the regular course, will study elocution and music.

MARKETABLE GRANITE IN BAKER.

Said to Be Equal to the Best Imported Grades, but Harder.

BAKER CITY, Or., Sept. 12.—(Special.)—W. C. Brock, of Walla Walla, was in the city yesterday looking after the interests of the Northwestern Granite Company, of which he is secretary. This company owns a large granite quarry near Baker, in this county, and is the only granite quarry in this part of the state from which merchantable granite can be obtained. This quarry was recently discovered, and is now being opened up. Blocks of the material almost any size, and free from flaws, even in grain and color, can be taken out. It is very hard and susceptible of a very high polish. It is now being placed on the market for use in the manufacture of headstones and monuments. Stone-masons pronounce it in every way equal to the finest imported granite, although harder to work.

BORAH SCORES VICTORY

IDAHO SENATORIAL CANDIDATE CARRIES EVERY PRECINCT.

Defeated Republican Faction Made Vicious Attack on State Platform Relating to Tariff Plank.

BOISE, Idaho, Sept. 12.—(Special.)—Scidmore has any candidate secured such a victory here as that secured today in the Republican primaries by W. E. Borah, candidate for the Senate.

The opposition was well organized, but it could make no headway against the tide. It was led by ex-Surveyor-General Perrault, the old Shoup leader, and General G. M. Parsons. They hired a great number of carriages, and made a struggle for their lives, but they at no time were in the running.

Yesterday they issued a circular appealing to the voters, in which there was a vicious attack upon the Republican state platform, this being done in an effort to weaken Mr. Borah, the author of several planks in the platform that have aroused much comment. That part of the address read:

"No person connected with this movement for cleaner and better politics has been last week of Charles Wood and Charles Weiser, two cafe waiters, who were attempting to pass gilded nickels in the belt that they were to be used as jewelry. Tarrant, to whom the waiters gave the coins to be gilded, maintains that they represented to him that the money was to be used as charms or watch fobs."

MIDDLE-OF-THE-ROADERS WIN.

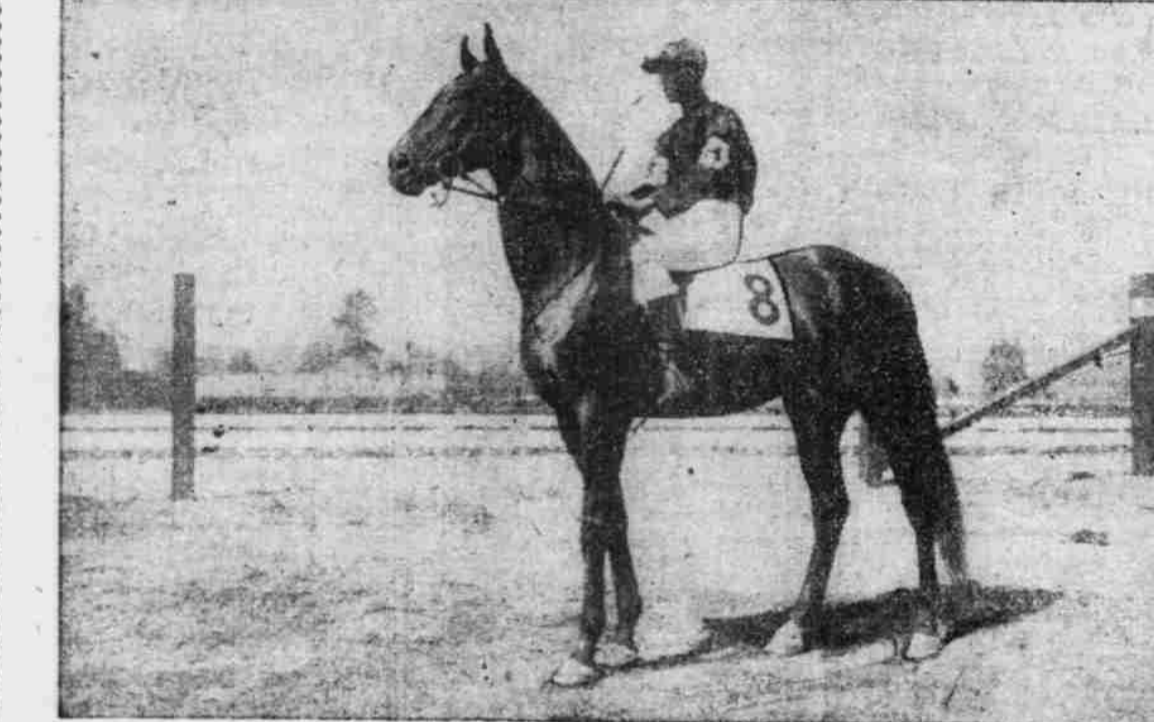

Coffee Wing of the Spokane Populists Control County Convention.

SPOKANE, Wash., Sept. 12.—(Special.)—The Coffee wing of the Populist party held control of the county convention here today, and ousted the Shine faction, winning out for a straight middle-of-the-road Populist ticket, which was adopted after the Shine faction had bolted the convention.

The Coffee wing is that element which wanted no affiliation with Democrats, because they gave no recognition to the Populists. The leader, John Coffeen, was a recent aspirant for Chief of Police under Mayor Byrne, but the Council refused to confirm him, and for four months there was a deadlock.

P. C. Shine led the faction which wished to have the Democratic ticket endorsed, and the Populist organization is practically put out of business. Coffeen put in his

IDAHO MINING CASE ARGUED.

Stem-Winder Claims Are in the San Carlos Vein.

BOISE, Idaho, Sept. 12.—(Special.)—Before Judge Beatty in the United States Court, what is designated as the new Stem-Winder case was argued today. This is an injunction brought by the Bunker Hill & Sullivan Company against the Empire State Idaho Company, to restrain the latter company from taking ore from the San Carlos claim.

The plaintiff company is the owner of the Stem-Winder claim, at Wardner. It claims to be the owner of the ore body in the San Carlos vein within the lines of the Stem-Winder. It has been decided that the Last Chance, owned by the Empire State Idaho Company, which intervenes between the Bunker Hill Company, claims its right can be picked up beyond the Last Chance.

The case was argued on two points. The defense entered a demurrer, setting up that the relief sought should have been asked for, and the point determined in a previous case. The demurrer was overruled. The Judge then, for the defense, moved to have the restraining order heretofore issued dissolved. This was resisted by M. A. Folsom for the Bunker Hill Company.

The court refused to dissolve the injunction, after which Judge Beatty opened the matter to a rehearing, and again granted a restraining order. This was to put the matter in shape to be appealed.

There was considerable testimony introduced. E. J. Roberts, manager of the Empire State Idaho Company, was here, and also Manager A. Burch, of the Bunker Hill Company.

SEATTLE JEWELERS ARRESTED.

Charged With Counterfeiting, by Passing Gilded Nickels.

SEATTLE, Sept. 12.—Joseph, Albert and Markus Mayer, of the firm of Mayer Bros., manufacturing jewelers, and William B. Tarrant, a traveling salesman, were arrested here today by United States Secret Service Agent Bell, accused of counterfeiting, and held in $200 bail each to appear for preliminary examination.

The arrests are the sequel to the apprehension last week of Charles Wood and Charles Weiser, two cafe waiters, who were attempting to pass gilded nickels in the belt that they were to be used as jewelry. Tarrant, to whom the waiters gave the coins to be gilded, maintains that they represented to him that the money was to be used as charms or watch fobs.

PREPARED FOR THE HOLD-UP.

Pendleton Man Hears Highwayman and Drops Fur in Grass.

PENDELTON, Or., Sept. 12.—(Special.)—While Harry Mayberry, a Pilot Rock sheepherder, and a companion were passing the Washington & Columbia River Railroad stockyards, in this city, at 10 o'clock last night, they were approached from behind by a suspicious-looking man, who presented a gun and ordered their hands up. Mayberry expected a hold-up, and dropped his purse, which was well filled, in the grass by the sidewalk. When their hands were up the highwayman, who was masked, went through their pockets, but secured only 75 cents and some private papers of no value to the robber. After the robber disappeared Mayberry returned and secured his purse. There is no clue to the identity of the highwayman.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Sept. 12.—Announcement was made at the university this morning that Astronomer C. D. Perrine has discovered a new comet at the Lick Observatory. It is now in the 11th magnitude, with a well-defined nucleus of the 11th magnitude, and has a bushy tail, which can be traced to the southwest.
