

Meier & Frank Company's Monday Store News

This store is a natural gathering point for the folk of the great Northwest. You keep pretty well in touch with it, find out a great many things in your goings and comings without the aid of store talks. But there are certain sections which you must make it a point to visit tomorrow, particularly if you would have the opportunity to buy some of the grandest values in Silks, Underwear, Carpets, Rugs, Ribbons, Table Linens, Crockery, Silverware, Cut Glass and a few other lines—bargains of the first magnitude—some from our regular stock, others gathered in the Eastern markets by our own representatives. A page full of facts and figures that will bring to our counters an enthusiastic throng of shoppers bright and early tomorrow morning. Wade through this mass of offerings carefully. The closer you study them the better they grow—not a dull item on the whole page.

Splendid Garment Bargains

Do you read the news apathetically or do you swell with enthusiasm? Certainly the latter if crowds are any criterion. But we want to catch more of you—those who have not yet discovered this garment store. It is gaining new friends every store-minute, of course—but are you one? That's the point. All we can do is go on printing and trust to luck. Today's news tells of bargains—unusual bargains—in the best class of apparel we ever had.
