

formed by Rev. William S. Short, of the Grace Episcopal Church, 28, and Mrs. Gallagher left for a short wedding trip in the evening and upon their return will make Astoria their future home.

Boytan-Robeson.

A pleasant home wedding occurred at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, November 26, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Jennie A. Robeson, 475 East Burnside street, when Miss Beata Robeson was united in marriage to Mr. George L. Boytan, Rev. Mr. Turner of Walla Walla, officiating. Promptly at the appointed hour the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march announced the approach of the bride party. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of blue tulle trimmed with white lace, and carried a beautiful bouquet of bride roses. The parlor was decorated with white chrysanthemums and ferns. Many handsome presents were received. Dainty refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Boytan will be at home to their friends after December 10, at 508 East Ankeny street.

Smith-Graham.
Henry M. Smith and Margaret E. Graham were married on Thursday, November 27, at 1 o'clock, at the manse of Calvary Presbyterian Church, Rev. William S. Gilbert officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will live at 620 Ellis street.

Krink-Tomlinson.
Miss May Tomlinson and Mr. Edward Krink were married last Wednesday evening by Dr. T. L. Elliot, of the First Unitarian Church. They will reside in East Portland.

Mattoon-Austin.
At the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. R. R. Dunlap, at Highland, Mr. Harry Mattoon and Miss Francis Austin were married on November 21.

ENGAGEMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Freedman announce the engagement of their daughter Gertrude to Maynard Brody, of Des Moines, Iowa; at home, Sunday, December 7, from 2 to 5 P. M., at 422 Burnside street.

The engagement is announced of Miss Helen Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Johnson, of Boeton, to Huntington Johnson, of Portland, Or.

COMING EVENTS.

The Wisteria Club will give a whist party at St. Francis Hall Thursday evening, December 4.

The New Century Dancing Club will be at home to its members on Wednesday evening, December 3, at Parsons Hall.

Century Union, No. 27, of the Order of Washington, will give a ball December 5 at the Willamette Hall, Second and Yamhill.

Dr. Jacob Vossanger, rabbi of the Temple Emanuel, will announce the next lecture to Portland, Monday, December 8, to address the Council of Jewish Women, of this city.

The Centennial Club will give their next party on Tuesday evening, December 2, at Parsons Hall. The patronesses will be Mrs. R. O. Stecher, Mrs. J. W. Gruess and Mrs. J. E. Kelly.

Invitations were issued last week by the Quil Que Solt Club for the third of its series of dancing parties, at Parsons Hall, Friday, December 5. The patronesses are Mrs. J. L. Wallis, Mrs. L. M. Hubert and Mrs. A. F. Bernard.

St. Patrick's Whist Club will hold another of its meetings on next Tuesday evening, December 1, in the church parlor, Ninth and Myrtle streets. All lovers of the game are cordially invited to attend, and an enjoyable time is assured.

The William G. Elliot Fraternity, of the Unitarian Church, will give the next lecture of their series to be given on Tuesday evening, December 2. Mrs. Coburn is to give this lecture, which will be on the subject of "Our Trade in the Oregon Territory."

A very pleasant whist party was given by Miss Marion Morey at Logus Hall on Friday evening, November 25. The patronesses were Mrs. Irving and E. Vadsma. Mrs. Daugherty and Mr. Baker. A delightful lunch was served, after which the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing and music.

Company F, of the Third Regiment of the Oregon National Guard will give its annual ball, December 8, at the Armory. The affair will be a very elaborate one, and the evening will be a very enjoyable one. A party will be given by Company D, and the regimental ball for next Spring is already being talked of.

Prosperity Camp, No. 26, Woodmen of the World, will give a social hop in the Catholic Foresters hall, Sixth and Washington streets, next Thursday night. The committee is composed of W. P. Lillis, C. C. Bradley, W. L. Chapman, J. H. Emmert and W. G. Kraemer.

The ladies of St. Lawrence Church are preparing to hold a fancy bazaar in St. Lawrence hall, Third and Sherman streets, December 5, 10 and 11, for the benefit of the church library. Fancy work of all kinds will be on sale. A pink tea will be given the opening afternoon. No admission fee will be charged.

The Nineteen Hundred Club entertained at a very pleasant party, on Saturday evening, November 22, at Parsons Hall. The music by Parsons Orchestra was new and pretty, and the dancing was much enjoyed. About 100 people were present. The next party of the Nineteen Hundred Club will be given some time between Christmas and New Year's.

A very pleasant social entertainment of the week was given on Wednesday evening at the Concordia Club. The special feature of the affair was the imitation of side shows of a country fair. Tents containing these side shows lined the walls of the ballroom, which was lighted by a great many gray lanterns. Dancing and a supper also added to the amusement of the guests.

Miss Annie Ditchburn, a talented young musician of Portland, made her debut in Eugene on Tuesday evening, November 25, at the Christian Church. Miss Ditchburn was assisted by Miss Louise Moran, vocalist, and Arthur Louis Frazer, pianist. The programme included a monologue, "The Veteran and His Grandson," impersonation, "Up-to-Date Little Girl," the frat scene and potpourri scene, "Romeo and Juliet," dramatic story, "The Moon Rose," impersonation, "The Lovers' Quarrel," "A Christmas Memory," by James Whitcomb Riley; and scene I, act IV, from "King John."

The First Congregational bazaar, to be held next Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons and evenings, will present new and unusual attractions. The housekeepers' booth, besides a varied stock of household supplies, will have on sale the "Souvenir Cook Book" of 150 choice and reliable recipes, price 45 cents. A large consignment of jewelry of guaranteed standard quality just received from Eastern factories—brooches, rings, stick pins, etc.—will be sold at astonishingly low prices. High art needlework and hand painting at the fancy work booth, the season's Wedding evening, November 26, at the home of Mrs. McCowan, Lovejoy, Twenty-third street, occurred the marriage of Professor Elmer E. Campton and Miss Jeannette Read. Rev. William E. Randall, of the Second Baptist Church, officiating. A score of friends of the happy couple attended the ceremony. The home of the young people is established in Albina, where they will soon be at home to their friends.

Furvis-Ecks.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the residence of Mrs. Barbara Mayo, East Twentieth street, on Wednesday, November 26. The contracting parties were Mr. Henry T. Purvis and Miss Sophia Ecks, both of whom are well known and highly respected by a large circle of friends. The ceremony was performed by Dr. A. Thompson, pastor of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church.

Gallagher-Burkholder.

Mr. Samuel M. Gallagher and Miss Marie Burkholder were married in Astoria at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the parlors of the Mansell, in the presence of a few friends. The ceremony was per-

I. GEVURTZ & SONS THE HOME FURNISHERS

173-175 First Street—219 to 227 Yamhill Street.

Conover Sewing Machines, strictly high-grade, drop head, every improvement, $20.00.

High-grade Gold Watches sold at extraordinary low prices on easy payments of $1.00 per week.

The Great Eclipse Line of Steel Ranges and Heaters THE BEST ON EARTH!

Prize Eclipse Airtight The Most Up-to-Date

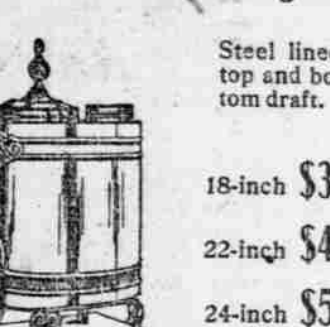

Heating Stove made, combining every improvement, using less fuel and giving more heat than any stove made; cast-iron top, bottom and inside; sectional lining; nickel swing top, rails and knobs; warranted 5 years. $7.50

Eclipse Oak Heater

The Most Perfect Oak Heater Made. Body made of Woods best planished steel, fire-pot made of very best iron securely riveted to body; coal or wood grates. $11.00

Russia-Iron Airtight

Steel lined, top and bottom draft. 18-inch $3.25 22-inch $4.50 24-inch $5.50

Each One Guaranteed Eclipse Steel Ranges King of Ranges

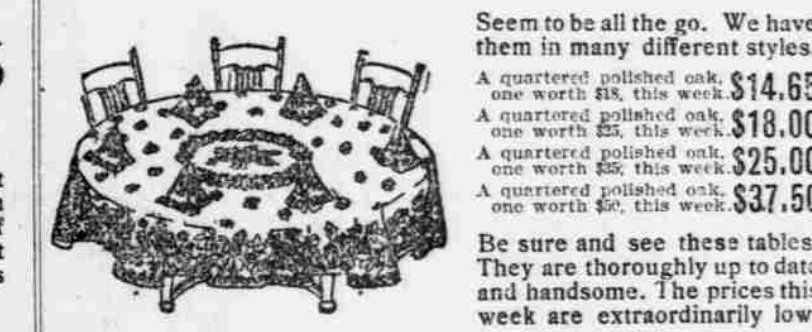

The best bakers, the quickest cooks, always give satisfaction, warranted 15 years, 4-hole No. 8 Eclipse steel range and high closet. $27.50

Startling Values Money-Saving Prices Beautiful Up-to-date Patterns

GOOD BRUSSELS CARPET at 65c a YARD

ROUND EXTENSION TABLES

Seem to be all the go. We have them in many different styles. A quartered polished oak, one worth $18, this week, $14.65 A quartered polished oak, one worth $22, this week, $18.00 A quartered polished oak, one worth $25, this week, $25.00 A quartered polished oak, one worth $30, this week, $37.50 Be sure and see these tables. They are thoroughly up to date and handsome. The prices this week are extraordinarily low.

latest in handkerchiefs, neckwear and other dainties at the novelty booth, and at the candy booth home-made confectionery and French candies. Instrumental music will add to the pleasure of the occasion. Admission free Tuesday afternoon and evening and Wednesday afternoon. On Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock entertainment, consisting of music, instrumental and vocal; a reading and a farce entitled "The Thief of Time," which will be furnished by young people, to which an admission fee of 10 cents will be charged.

One of the most attractive features of the week will be the Unitarian bazaar, which will open Thursday evening at 7 o'clock in the Unitarian chapel. Great preparations have been made, and the ladies feel confident that the bazaar will eclipse all former efforts. The housekeeping booth is in charge of Mrs. M. A. McLaren, assisted by Mrs. W. A. Buchanan, Mrs. J. D. Hart and Mrs. R. L. Lamson. Mrs. C. H. Dewey, assisted by Mrs. D. J. Moore, will preside over the fancy work booth. Toothsome candies will be sold by Mrs. T. H. Edwards. Works of art will be exhibited by Mrs. A. F. Tyler; dolls by Mrs. J. L. Wallis; and a booth containing articles of their own manufacture. Refreshments will be served in the parlors by Mrs. N. R. Cox, assisted by Mrs. Bailey and others.

The Quil Que Solt Club has issued invitations for a dance at Parsons Hall Friday night.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Miss Clementine Sells, of Boise, is visiting Mrs. S. M. Sells.

C. C. Merton, of McMinnville, is spending a few days in the city.

Mrs. J. B. Pridoux has gone to visit friends at Grass Valley, Cal.

Miss Jeannette Mitchell is at home to her friends at 90 Hill street.

Mrs. H. E. Judge returned Monday from a short trip to Southern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Ball, of Seattle, are visiting relatives in Portland.

Miss Dolie Ankeny, of Eugene, is a guest of Mrs. Harriet K. McArthur.

Misses Beale and Mrs. Fuch, of McMinnville, are in the city, visiting friends.

Mrs. P. Avery and Mrs. Charles Hout, of Corvallis, are visiting friends in the city.

Misses Carrie and Edith Rosenblatt will leave Monday for California to spend the Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Friendly and the Misses Friendly, of Eugene, are at the Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Gevurtz will be at home at their new residence, 25 Tenth street, today, 2 to 5 P. M.

Lillian L. Stone, who has been visiting relatives in San Francisco, returned home Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Ellen Drake will spend the Winter with her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Ahern, in Seattle, Wash.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Roney entertained delightfully at dinner on Thanksgiving day. The dinner was to 13 guests.

The Miss Norma, Ruby and Elma Hendricks, of Eugene, were in the city to attend the football game Thursday.

Mrs. D. J. Moriarty, of South Dakota, is here on a two weeks' visit to her mother, Mrs. C. H. Bateman, at 24 Clay street.

Miss M. L. Allen, of Salem, Or., who recently returned from an extended trip East, is visiting relatives at 25 Seiwold street.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Gevurtz will be at home at their new residence, 25 Tenth street, Sunday afternoon, November 30, from 2 to 5 P. M.

Arthur Brand, a well-known young actor torney of San Francisco, is spending several days in Portland, the guest of his sister, Mrs. Frank B. Riley.

Miss Ethel A. K. Fox, who has been visiting at the home of her brother, C. H. Fox, 9 East Sixteenth street, for almost two months, left on Friday night. Miss Fox goes to Victoria, B. C., for two weeks, and from there to London, Canada, where she resides.

At the Women's Union.

Miss Hattie Gaskell left yesterday for a case of professional nursing.

Miss E. Victor was the guest of Mrs. J. L. Lohman at Thanksgiving.

Miss E. Victor was the guest of Mrs. J. L. Lohman at Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Cheney and Mrs. Morse spent Thanksgiving at a friend's in the city.

Miss Virtie Cawley has been staying at the Union for several days this week.

Fred A. Carothers, of Salem, was the guest of his sister, Miss E. Carothers, at lunch yesterday.

Mrs. E. B. White, Miss Luse and Miss Douthett were guests of the Union at dinner Thanksgiving day.

Miss J. Thompson was over to Vancouver on Thursday enjoying Thanksgiving hospitality at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. D. Bowles.

Dance at the Women's Union.

An informal dance was given by the young ladies of the Women's Union on Friday evening, which proved very enjoyable. The dining-room had been prettily decorated with ivy and ferns, and presented an extremely attractive appearance. Refreshments were served in the library and sitting-room. At midnight the invited guests departed, expressing their appreciation in high terms for the evening's festivity.

The National Holiday Bazaar.

The national holiday bazaar, given by the Women's Auxiliary of Trinity Church, representing the National holidays of the year, will be held in the parish house, Fifth and Oak streets, Wednesday and Thursday, December 3 and 4. An excellent lunch served on each day from 11:30 to 2 P. M.; price, 25 cents.

Art Exhibition.

Frederic C. Torrey, of Victoria, Atkins & Torrey, announces the final week of his annual season to close Saturday night, December 6, at 8 o'clock, at the parish house, Fifth and Oak streets, 25c. Paintings in oil and water color, etchings, engravings and a selection of attractive framed pictures desirable for holiday gifts.

Either Way Goes.

We sell everything in ladies' and men's wearing apparel, furniture, watches, trunks, umbrellas and all kinds of household goods for cash or on very easy terms. Eastern Outfitting Company, 288-290 Washington street.

H. B. Litt.

More of those beautiful Du Barry coats at $30 and $35; also several new shipments of walking skirts and suits, ranging in price from $20 to $50; good values.

H. B. Litt.

For the better goods of women's and misses' garments.

Salem.

Mrs. R. H. Leabo is visiting in Portland.

Mrs. A. A. Jessup visited relatives at Independence this week.

Judge and Mrs. C. S. Wolverton spent Thanksgiving in Albany.

Mrs. C. A. Park spent the week visiting friends in Portland.

Mr. C. D. Tillson and Miss Myrtle Williams were married last Wednesday evening.

Leaders in Fur Fashions

Established 1870.

G. P. Rummelin & Sons

126 Second St., near Washington

Alaska Sealskins

OUR SPECIALTY.

FUR COATS AND JACKETS

Broadtail with Royal Ermine collar and revers—Broadtail Persian with natural dark sable collar and revers—Otter, Beaver, Mink, Astrachan, Seal, etc., etc., in all the newest effects.

FUR BOAS AND MUFFS

In the newest shapes—made in all stylish furs.

Fur Trimmings Fur Collarettes Robes and Rugs Feather Boas Fur Capes

SEND FOR CATALOGUE

293-285 Morrison St. Portland, Or. 1316 Second Ave. Seattle, Wash.

THE XMAS GIFT

WHAT handsomer, more serviceable or better appreciated Xmas gift is there than an attractive Fur Jacket, Boa, Collarette or Cape? Our garments will be found to have that superiority of quality, exclusiveness of style, and excellence of workmanship so much desired by dignified dressers, while the reasonableness of our price is a matter of constant comment among our many patrons.

Genuine Alaska Sealskins

OUR SPECIALTY

SEND FOR OUR HANDSOME CATALOGUE

Lipman Wolfers Co.

Great Special Sale OF Ladies' Monte Carlo Coats

This Season's Most Popular $20.00 and $25.00

MONTE CARLO COATS

Tomorrow and Tuesday only

AT 16.25

The assortment comprises over one hundred high-class Monte Carlo coats. Colors are black, tan and castor. Plain tailored and fancy trimmed styles. With and without capes. Every coat lined with fine satin. Phenomenal bargains at $16.25.

SEE FULL PAGE ADVERTISEMENT ON PAGE 9

Lipman Wolfers Co.

Great Special Sale OF Ladies' Monte Carlo Coats

This Season's Most Popular $20.00 and $25.00

MONTE CARLO COATS

Tomorrow and Tuesday only

AT 16.25

The assortment comprises over one hundred high-class Monte Carlo coats. Colors are black, tan and castor. Plain tailored and fancy trimmed styles. With and without capes. Every coat lined with fine satin. Phenomenal bargains at $16.25.

SEE FULL PAGE ADVERTISEMENT ON PAGE 9

Lipman Wolfers Co.