From the foothills to the bay,
It shall ring and float away;
It shall ring and float away;
Hall, Stanford, hall
Hall, Stanford, hall

The young men of the Stanford glee and mandolin club delighted a large audience at the Baker Theater on Friday night with an entertainment as fresh and spirited as a breeze off San Francisco Bay. The patronesses for the concert, who also received with Mr. and Mrs. Newell at the reception on Friday afternoon, were as follows: Mrs. A. E. Rockey, Mrs. Charles E. Stiton, Mrs. L. L. McArthur, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mrs. Charles F. Beebe, Mrs. W. C. Alford, Mrs. J. A. Staden and Mrs. E. F. Riley.

A charming party was given at the golf links on Monday evening, in honor of Captain Fred S. Sladen, U. S. A., one of the instructors in tactics at West Point, who is here to spend the holidays with his father, Captain J. S. Sladen. The holiday decorations of evergreen and ferns gave a look of holiday festivity to the pretty clubrooms, and delightful music was provided by Parsons orchestra. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. R. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Arthur Minott, Misses Laura King, Nan Wood, Amy Heitshu, Carrie Flanders, Rachel Joseph, Ball, Derickson, Inez Barrett, Alice Sisson, Sallie Lewis, Helen Lavelle, Kathleen Burns, Georgina Rockey, Messrs. T. Scott, Brooke, Bert Mackay, David Lewis, Hunt Lewis, Maurice Cheal, John Carson, Willis, J. Mel. Wood, Jones, Rodney Gilman and Robert L. Macleay. Dr. J. W. Hill entertained the members of the University of Oregon football team on Thursday evening at dinner at the Hill Military Academy. The dinner was a delightful one.

A reception of unusual interest to society was an at home given by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cotton Newell on Friday afternoon, at Bishop Scott Academy, to meet the Glee and Mandolin Clubs of Stanford University. About 400 guests were present.

The drawing-room and halls were lighted with electric lights, shaded with glowing Stanford red, and there was a general atmosphere of college good-fellowship and fun. Among the Stanford graduates and students present were Miss Sears, Miss Sobey, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Riley, Mr. Hugh J. Boyd, Mr. Ralph S. Flaher, Mr. Louis Gerlinger, Jr., Mr. Chester T. Murphy, Mr. E. C. Buckley, and Henry Little, who are home for the holidays. There were also present. The guests of honor were: Cleve Baker, leader of the Glee Club; L. C. Hawley, B. C. Nourse, G. H. Dearing, A. Perrin, B. C. Cox, Harry Scoville, H. Atkinson, Charles L. Firebaugh, G. Watkins, W. P. Whitaker, H. E. Bush, R. N. Park, George Van Orden, Arthur Hooper, Roy Keith, leader of the Mandolin Club; H. L. Morrison, F. L. Thayer, George Scoville, R. N. Collier, Norman Dole, James Knapp, Brooke Sharpe, T. E. Palmer and B. E. Byrne, monologist.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

A Christmas house party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rodgers, at their residence, 28 Thirty-ninth street, on the evening of December 24. The cozy home was tastefully decorated with holly and ivy, the festooning blending with the folds of a beautiful American flag, which was draped across the alcove between the dining and sitting-rooms.

Under an arch of small Indian baskets stood a lighted tree loaded with sweets and numerous useful and homey gifts for the juvenile guests. The distribution of these gifts, the most pleasant feature of the evening, was followed by the game of whist. The card score resulted in the victory of the first class, Mrs. E. C. Straus and Mrs. M. E. Buckley, the consolation prizes falling to Mrs. R. F. Straus and Mr. Straus Sr. A delicious luncheon was served. Music and games closed an evening of pleasure. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Straus, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Straus, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Straus, Mrs. E. R. Van Black, Mrs. C. Giger, Mrs. M. Buckley, Messrs. Harry Straus, Robert, Robert and Frank Rodgers, the Misses Bertha Straus, Emily and May Rodgers, Beulah Jones, Helen Straus and Master Lionel Buckley.

One of the most delightful dinner parties of the season was that given by Mr. and Mrs. George Steel, at their charming suburban residence, "Sun Echo," on Christmas day.

The home-like appearance of the rooms was rendered doubly attractive by the decorations of holly and Oregon grape. An enjoyable feature of the dinner was the cutting of a Christmas cake, made in Liverpool, after the famous English recipe, and brought over by Mrs. Harper, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Steel, on her recent return from England. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. George Steel, Mrs. Minna S. Harper, Misses Lillian Steel, Carrie De Arce, Susie Fanning, Etta Chamberlain and Viola Howenstein, of Portland; Miss Verona Price, of San Francisco; Misses Eva Meldrum and Louise Huntly, of Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Fuller entertained Tuesday evening at their home on Portland Heights. The principal amusement of the evening was the game of hearts. Mrs. Hanna, of Leeds, Mont., who is here visiting Mrs. Mason, was present and assisted the hostess in entertaining by playing a number of delightful selections upon the piano.

The Christmas decorations of Oregon evergreen and English holly were extremely pretty. Favors for the guests of the usual Oriental character, with miniature Chinese lanterns suspended therefrom. Everest's orchestra rendered 14 delightful selections, including the German. The patronesses were Mrs. A. M. Shannon, Mrs. F. B. Thorne and Mrs. George Fuller.

The members of Rembrandt Studio attended Christmas dinner at the Hotel Portland, where an enjoyable evening was passed. Guests were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tollman, Misses Elizabeth Victor, Ida Endicott, Lillian Johnson, Messrs. W. G. Cutbush, J. W. Baker, J. Messer, W. Simpson, J. Leroy, F. Smith.

The Cavaliers gave the second of a series of dances at Parsons hall, on Tuesday evening, December 23. A merry crowd of young people danced till late in the evening. The Cavaliers are composed of the following young men: William C. McCleave, Oliver G. Walker, Harold Howes, Arthur Rosenfeld, Edward J. Jeffrey, Amos E. King. The patronesses were: Mrs. P. E. Brigham, Mrs. E. E. Lytle, Mrs. S. Rosenfeld.

The John Ivey Water-Color Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Rapp last Saturday. In spite of the holiday season, a large number was present, and the afternoon was spent in copying studies of landscape and figures. The hostess had provided every convenience, and the meeting proved very enjoyable as well as instructive. The next meeting will be held on January 2, at the home of Mrs. Charles J. B. Malarsky, 710 East Burnside street, and the subject for study will be composition.

A pretty children's party was given by Mrs. J. C. Stuart last Friday, at her home, 27 1/2 Halley street. Mrs. Hirschberger assisted Mrs. Stuart, and with merry games and music the little folks spent a delightful afternoon. The parlor was prettily decorated with ferns and palms, and the dining-room was gay with red crepe paper festooned from the corners and meeting in the center. The pinkest of ice cream and cake was daintily served and enjoyed by about 20 little guests. As a souvenir, each child was presented with a box of candy.

A very pleasant dance was given by the Terpsichoreans on Christmas night at Park street. The holiday decorations were much in evidence in the ballroom, and in the dining-room, where late in the evening a dainty supper was served. Mrs. F. Rothchild, Mrs. C. Hanson and Mrs. B. Neustadter were the patronesses.

Miss Farrell and Miss Jessie Farrell entertained the members of Y. W. F. M. S., of Taylor-street Church, yesterday afternoon at their home, on West Park street. An interesting programme was given, and dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. J. Burnham, of the Couch School, gave her class (Fifth A grade) a Christmas present by taking them, Saturday, December 20, to the matinee at Baker's.

WEDDINGS.

Hayek-Gannon.
A very charming wedding was solemnized Christmas night at the home of Mrs. Josephine Gannon, the daughter, Stella M. and Mr. Frank Hayek, of Seattle, Wash., being the contracting parties. At 8:30 the wedding party entered the parlors to Mendelssohn's Wedding March. During the ceremony, at which Rev. Father Casey officiated, soft music was rendered, making the ceremony very impressive. The bride was attired in a blue crepe de chine over silk and carried pink chrysanthemums. Miss Josephine Gannon, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and wore a suit of brown poplin and carried yellow chrysanthemums. Little Marie Hartman, niece of the bride, was ring-bearer and was dressed in pink silk. The best man was Dr. B. M. Osterberg, of Seattle. Mr. G. M. Hartman gave the bride away. The parlors were artistically decorated with Oregon grape and holly. Dancing was enjoyed by the young people, at a late hour supper was served. The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful gifts. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Hayek will reside in Eastern Oregon.

Clark-Evans.

The marriage of Miss Jennie F. Evans to William C. Clark was solemnized Tuesday evening, December 23, by Rev. Dutton at the residence of Miss M. Cavalline, 141 West Park. The parlors were exquisitely embellished with ferns, Oregon grape and ivy. The bride was attired in a gown of white tulle, trimmed with applique, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Mr. Charles Myers was best man. Miss Richardson played Mendelssohn's Wedding March while the bridal party entered the room, where in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends they were united in marriage. After the ceremony, congratulatory remarks were received, and luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Clark will be at home at 331 Market street after January 1.

Meehan-Strahan.

A very pretty home wedding took place Christmas night at the home of Mrs. Cora Bell, East Sixth and Belmont streets. Dr. N. F. Meehan and Miss Iva Strahan were united in marriage. Rev. G. A. Taggart officiating. The parlors had been beautifully decorated with holly and carnations. At 8 o'clock the bride and groom, attended by Mr. and Mrs. Foulk, entered the parlors. The bride wore a pale green silk gown trimmed with white applique and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Many beautiful presents testified to the esteem in which the couple were held by friends. A delightful luncheon was served by the hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Meehan will reside in Portland.

Stockey-Wise.

At the home of Rev. G. W. Plumer, the officiating clergyman, 238 East Sixth street, Friday evening, December 26, occurred the wedding of Mr. Henry Stockey and Miss Sarah Elizabeth Wise, both of Milwaukie, Ore. The marriage was witnessed by only a few of their near friends.

Karker-Ha.

Sylvander J. Karker, of San Francisco, and Sarah E. S. Hall, of Portland, were united in marriage at 1:30, December 15, at the home of L. H. De Forde,

East Fourteenth, between Arkeny and Ash. Mr. Karker was formerly of Portland. The bride and groom were assisted in the ceremony by L. H. and Milne De Forde. Mr. and Mrs. Karker will depart soon for San Francisco and be at home at the International Hotel after January 1, 1903. Rev. W. G. Fisher, pastor of the First Church of the United Brethren in Christ, officiated.

Hayek-Gannon.

Mr. Frank Hayek and Miss Josephine Gannon were married on Christmas night at the home of the bride's parents, 260 Third street. The house was decorated very prettily, and a wedding supper was served. The bride, a very pretty and charming girl, was becomingly gowned in a traveling gown of dark blue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Casey. It will be interesting to a great

Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Currie, of 1044 Front street, celebrated their golden wedding Tuesday evening at the home of their son, W. A. Currie, Portland Heights. The late auspicious lines of Mrs. Currie prevented any elaborate celebration of the event, but the children of the happy couple and a few friends met to congratulate them, and wish them many happy returns of the day.

David Chalmers Currie and Margaret Walker Babbs were married December 23, 1852, at Albus, Ia. They crossed the plains by mule wagon in 1856, being six months on the way, and burying a child at La Grande. Their company came near being exterminated by hostile Indians, but a Indian council was finally agreed to save them alive. They arrived at Albany in September, 1856, where they lived until 1858, when they came to Portland, where they have since that time resided. Mr. and Mrs. Currie visited their old home in Iowa and other parts of the East a few years ago. Ten children have been born to them, seven boys and three girls, of whom one daughter and three sons are still living. They were all present to help their parents celebrate the 50th anniversary of their marriage.
