Grange Passes Resolution Pavoring Proposed Appropriation by the Legislature of $500,000 for Fair.

At the annual meeting of Evening Star Grange, No. 27, Patrons of Hus-bandry, held yesterday in Multnomah Hall, on the Section Line road, officers were installed and a resolution was passed in installed and a resolution was passed indorsing the proposed appropriation by the Legislature of $500,000 for the Lewis and Clark Fair. This resolution was accompanied with the provision that the State Grange should have representation on the commission appointed to see that the appropriation was properly expended.
There was a large attendance, and, it being the annual meeting, the business was important. A. F. Miller, master, prended. Mrs. H. L. Vail, secretary, read her annual report, which showed that 50 new members had been gained for the year, making the total membership 179. The financial report showed that $784 had been disbursed during the year, and that there was a balance of $100 in the treasury. Besides this showing the Grange treasury. Besides this showing the Grange acquired a building site costing $200. Mrs. J. W. Shattuck, state deputy and

Mrs. J. W. Shattuck, state deputy and member of Gresham Grange, then proceeded to install the following officers for the ensuing year: Worthy muster, Arthur F. Miller; overseer, Alonzo B. After the transaction of the routine business a motion was made that the Evening Star Grange indorse the proposed appropriation of $500,000 for the Lewis and Clark Exposition of 1965, provided that the State Grunge be given representation on the commission which shall supervise the expenditure. The motion brought out an Interesting discussion. It was shown that Oregon in general would benefit even more than Portland from this Fair. Fig-ures were displayed showing that Port-land had taxed herself heavily in maintaining a deep sea channel to the mouth of the Columbia River, besides meeting constant calls all for the benefit of the state at large. These facts were presented in answer to the statement that Portland was doing little for the state, and that the Fair was for a selfish purpose. Plympton Kelly opposed the resolution in a very vigorous speech. He declared himself as opposed to the Fair, and con-sidered that no good would come out of it. J. W. Shattuck, of Gresham, said that he was not opposed to the Fair nor the appropriation, provided the inequality of taxation was adjusted. He called atten-tion to the squandering of money on the Mulinomah County roads, C. Milam opposed the resolution. He considered the farmer was taxed too much. He also condemned the efforts made to secure immigration to Oregon, when so many here were unable to prosper. These were all the speakers in opposition to the resolu-

Mrs. P. Kelly made a sweeping and effective speech against the position taken by her husband, and declared herself in favor of the Fair, for the reason that it would develop the state and bring in a good class of people. It would be educa-tional and beneficial in all lines. Mrs. good class of people.

It all lines, Mrs. Helly said it would not look very well for the Evening Star Grange, the banner Grange of the state to fall behind in the procession, and expressed the hope that the resolution would prevail. Mrs. H. L. At that meeting some measures will be proposed for the purpose of providing an annex to the present build-ing, which is now overcrowded. It is an eight-now structure, but can hardly aceight-room structure, but can hardly accommodate the pupils of the district. A tax will have to be provided to pay inter-cet on the bonds and pay off some of them. The district is not a large one, and with the heavy bonded indebtedness it now carries, it will be a serious matter to vote a tax large enough to provide more room, and meet the interest on bonds. The meeting promises to be an interestit is said that many will op-past week has been one of interest to members of labor organizations. So-cial gatherings have been held for the purpose of bringing the members closer together, and frequent business meetings have been held for the purpose of talk-ing over the work of the coming year. The bartenders met on Tuesday planned for a general change in the method of running their union, and, if it succeeds, one of the most effective unions in the city will be the result.

Friday evening a social gathering was
