OUR GREAT REMNANT SALE

Odds and Ends of Good Things This Week at a Mere Fraction of Original Selling Price

This week will be devoted by us to disposing of a great accumulation of odds and ends and remnants of lines and materials which in the rush of the season's business have been overlooked. Mussed goods, slightly soiled materials, popular lines with but few items remaining, but all good and as desirable in quality and as popular as any goods we have offered. It is more to our advantage to clear them up and get them out of the way before stock-taking and the following rush of Spring goods than it is to hold them. We have therefore made prices on them with the single view of selling. Come in and examine them. You will immediately recognize their merit and exceeding cheapness.

Ladies' Waists

Here is a perfect carnival of opportunities to fit yourself out with pretty waists. There are values to $12.50, slightly mused with handling, that a little cleaning will make fresh and good as new, all to go at but a fraction of their original selling price. Here are prices:

Finest silk-finished, mercerized, Oxford waists, $6.50, $7.50, $10.00 and $12.50 values, each $1.98

$4.50 values, for each $1.13

Fine percale waists, 50c and 75c kinds 19c

Fine Oxford Cheviots, $1.75 kinds for 98c

Great Book Sale

Books you will be glad to get and prices you will be pleased to pay: This is a final winding up of our books for the season, a space-clearing enterprise in preparation for the great quantities of Spring goods which are arriving daily. These are books that are widely and constantly read, in handsome and attractive bindings, beautifully illustrated by celebrated artists, light reading and thoughtful works, books for the busy and books for the student, beside many charming tales for children.
