Shadow pantomime of an intensely real-

Our store, like the weather the past week, has every appearance of Spring. Seas of dainty embroideries and laces, snowy muslins, wash goods and silks, suggest an infinite variety of fresh, charming summer garments for just the trouble of making. A woman cannot have too many of these things when the hot weather comes and there is no better time to make them up than now. Our display in ready-made garments, shirtwaists, suits, jackets and undermuslins, already large and beautiful, bids fair to rival anything we have heretofore done. The showing now is the newest and finest. In our shoe department we have studied comfort and quality as well as style and are prepared to supply every want for ladies, men and children. Our men's furnishings section has been filling up with new things very rapidly this week. You will find here now a good supply of representative Spring styles, in white and colored shirts, ties, cuffs, collars and sweaters. It needs but a glance at our dress goods section to convince you of its completeness and we are glad to show you the beauty of quality and weaves. Visit our store and learn what is latest and newest.

charming dressed in white mull, as she performed the duties of ringbearer.

The parlors were artistically decorated with Oregon grape and ferns. Many beautiful presents were received, also a number of telegrams from distant friends. The bride was ushered in on the arm of her father, while the groom was escorted by his sister, Miss H. Cohen. After luncheon, the newly married couple departed for San Francisco, their future home.

The bride and groom were very popular among people of this city. The groom has for several years been in the employ of the Blumauer-Frank Drug Company.

Cutter-Downs.
A pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Mark's Church Monday morning when Miss Cordelia Downs and Lieutenant Leonard T. Cutter, of the United States revenue cutter service, were united in marriage. Only the members of the families and intimate friends were present. After a wedding breakfast the bridal couple left for San Francisco and Southern California, where they will remain a month. On their return they will make their home at Fort Townsend. Mrs. Cutter is the youngest daughter of the late George D. Downs, a pioneer lumberman of Port Townsend, and Mrs. H. A. Downs. The groom is in charge of the launches in the revenue cutter service on the Sound.

Thompson-Glass.
Wednesday last, at high noon, the bride's home at Dilley, Or., was the scene of a pretty wedding, which united the lives of Miss Edythe Glass and Mr. Clinton Page Thompson. The beautiful ring ceremony was performed. Rev. Daniel Staver officiating. Miss Evelyn Alexander was bridesmaid, and Harvey Glass, brother of the bride, was best man. The newly wedded couple departed on the afternoon train for Pullman, their future home, where he is a prominent business man.

Reed-Johnson.
A home wedding occurred in Salem Wednesday afternoon, February 13, 1903, when Miss Effie Johnson, of this city, and Mr. Ralph R. Reed, of Portland, were married. After a short visit in the Southern part of the state, Mr. and Mrs. Reed will locate in Portland.

Latourell-Wilson.
On Wednesday, February 13, at the home of Mr. C. R. Davis, in Irvington, Mr. Richard J. Latourell, of Latourell, Falls, was married to Miss Annie M. Wilson, of Portland. Rev. H. S. Templeton performed the ceremony.

Hamblet-Anderson.
Eugene D. Hamblet, of Portland, and Josefa M. Anderson, of Marshalltown, Ia., were united in marriage Thursday evening at the residence of Mrs. A. E. Wheeler on Fifth street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. L. Young.

Correy-Worsham.
The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Gideon

Stolz, at Salem, was the scene of a pretty home wedding on Wednesday evening of this week, when Miss May Worsham, of Salem, was wedded to Stephen A. D. Corey, of Union County. Mr. and Mrs. Corey left Thursday afternoon for their home in Union County.

EVENTS OF WEEK.
Shadow pantomime of an intensely realistic and amusing order was the method of entertainment at a jolly little affair given Friday night at the Unitarian chapel by the members of William G. Elliot Fraternity. After the shadow play, which was arranged by Mrs. George C. Cressney and Miss Knox, a chafing dish supper was served.

In the pantomime the characters were Miss Mabel, her lovers, honest Albert and sentimental Charley, and Miss Mabel's mother. During the progress of the pantomime the story of Miss Mabel's flirtation with Charley and final marriage to Albert was read by Miss Knox. The performers were Miss Bessie Jones, Miss Grace Burnett, Miss Bernice Stewart and Mrs. Burnett.

When the first story was finished Miss Madrona Whitfield and C. H. Meussdorfer, Jr., posed in illustration of a song, "Tit for Tat," by Miss Gates.

The Current Events Club of the First Congregational Church will meet Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The programme will consist of a review of representative German composers. It follows:

Handel (oratorio)—Paper, Mrs. Alma Rodgers; "Here Let My Tears Flow" (Binaldo), Miss E. C. McClung; "Aria from Esio," Paul Westinger.

Beethoven (symphony)—Paper, Mrs. M. H. Bennett; "Sonata Pathetique," Miss Ella M. Connelly.

Mozart (opera)—Paper, Frank T. Woodward;

"Drink to Me With Thine Eyes," Mr. Holdon; "Fantasia" C minor (1782), Miss Clausen.

Schubert (song)—Paper, Miss A. L. Packer; "Impromptu," opus 142, Miss Bettinger, group of "Lieder," Miss Elizabeth Bonn.

Schumann (piano)—Paper, Miss Rockwood; "Die beiden Grenadiere," Paul Westinger; "Nachstücke," opus 22, No. 4, Miss Ella M. Connelly.

Current music—Richard Strauss (orchestration), paper, Miss Bonn.

Eliza Spaulding's Cabin, No. 1, Native Daughters, will meet the next social afternoon, Tuesday, February 24, at the home of Mrs. Charles F. Smith, 246 Clackamas, near Ross street. All members of the cabin are invited to attend these meetings.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian Church will give an old folks' social tomorrow evening at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Edgar P. Hill, 464 Alder street.

An important meeting of the Indo-American Woman's League will be held Monday at 2:30 P. M. at the residence of Mrs. A. S. Dunway at 402 Market street.

The Young ladies of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, corner First and Gibbs streets, are arranging for a patriotic entertainment to be given Monday evening. Mr. N. C. Oviatt will make a patriotic speech, and Mr. Martin Pratt will speak about the Philippines. Mildred Riggs and Miss Shelley have prepared recitations, and a large chorus is being trained to sing patriotic songs. No admission will be charged and all are invited.

Next Wednesday evening, February 25, Corinthian Chapter, O. E. S., will give a farce entitled "Sister Masons," in the Masonic Hall, corner of Third and Alder streets.

The King's Daughters Circle of Trinity Church are making preparations for their annual entertainment, to be held soon after Easter.

Ladies Invited.
Ladies are invited to call at Robinson & Co.'s, 238 Washington street, in the Perkins Hotel building, and see the Spring styles of Phipps & Atchison's tailored hats. Respectfully, Robinson & Co.
