

SAVES MUCH MONEY

Washington Appropriation Bills Are Disapproved.

AMOUNT IS NEARLY $400,000

This Will Bring the Total Expenditures of the State Close to Its Total Estimated Revenue.

The section of the Lewis and Clark bill carrying an appropriation of $50,000 was vetoed by the Governor of Washington yesterday.

OLYMPIA, March 21.—Governor McBride today disapproved seven bills carrying appropriations in entirety and sections in two other appropriation bills, the amounts vetoed aggregating $389,962.11.

Hills vetoed in entirety were: The omnibus road bill, carrying $100,000, for the repair and construction of ten state roads and $100,000 for Highway Commissioner to be appointed by the Governor; the bill providing a bounty of 1 cent per pound on beet sugar manufactured within the state, and carrying a maximum appropriation of $100,000; the bill providing for the payment of $1 scalp bounty on coyotes, carrying a maximum appropriation of $50,000; the bill appropriating $10,000 for the establishment and maintenance of a branch Soldiers Home; the bill for the relief of E. G. Bickerton, appropriating $2000 for services in conducting an auction sale of state lands; the bill appropriating $40,500 for relief of Puget Sound Sawmill & Shingle Company, of Fairhaven, and the bill appropriating $200 for framing photographic groups of several Legislatures.

The bill providing for the exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Centennial in Portland is approved with the exception of two sections, one appropriating $50,000 and one providing for the issuance of certificates of indebtedness.

In the general appropriations bill the Governor disapproved items aggregating $7,306.73. Among them are entire appropriations for maintaining and extending a fish and oyster experimental station at Keyport, $14,540, and an agricultural experimental station at Puyallup, $12,000; appropriations for repayment of state taxes erroneously paid by Franklin, Spokane, Kittitas, Thurston and Yakima counties, amounting to $20,593.72; traveling library, $5000; Fire Marshal's office, $3500; geological survey, $10,000; State Historical Society, $5000; White Shield Home, Tacoma, $1500; salary of Superior Judge pro tem, $1500; Lake Crescent trout hatchery, $1000.

The total appropriations made by the Legislature out of the general fund was $2,877,319.94, and from special funds $76,852.72. Only one bill carrying an appropriation now remains in the Governor's hands—the tax commission bill, carrying $15,000. If this bill is approved, the total appropriations for the session will aggregate $2,892,324.66 from the general fund, with estimated revenues for the two years amounting to $2,900,000.

Two other bills not carrying appropriations are still in the Governor's hands. They are the local option liquor bill and bill taxing net proceeds of mines.

TEXT OF VETOS.

Measures That Met With the Governor's Disapproval.

OLYMPIA, Wash., March 21.—(Special.)—The full text of the several vetoes and partial vetoes of Governor McBride is as follows:

Hon. S. H. Nichols, Secretary of State.—I herewith transmit to you for filing in your office House bill No. 454, entitled "An act making appropriations for the maintenance of and construction of buildings and other improvements at, and other sundry expenses for the various state institutions and offices, and for the sundry civil expenses of the state government for the fiscal year beginning April 1, 1930, and ending March 31, 1931," with my approval, excepting the following items:

- Page 2, under head of "For Fire Marshal's Office": For per diem expenses, for Deputy Fire Marshal, $1,000.00; For buying records, stationery, postage and incidentals for office of State Fire Marshal, $50.00; For traveling expenses of State Fire Marshal, $50.00; Page 6, under head of "For Scientific Experimental Station": Salary of Superintendent, at $3000 per year, $4,000.00; Salary of assistant, at $1,000 per year, $1,000.00; General expenses at $1000 per year, $1,000.00; Laboratory, museum building, supplies, etc., $7,000.00; Page 6, under head of "For Experiment Station at Puyallup": Salaries and labor, $3,000.00; Laboratory, $700.00; Repairs and incidentals, $2,000.00; Farm machinery, supplies and incidentals, $1,200.00; Page 6, under head of "For Free Traveling Library": Maintenance, $5,000.00; Page 8, under head of "For Superior Court": Payment of salaries and expenses of Superior Judges pro tem, $1,200.00; Page 8, under head of "For Geological Survey": Maintenance, at $5000 per year, $10,000.00; Page 8: For White Shield Home, Tacoma, $1,500.00; Page 8: For State Historical Society, $5,000.00; Page 10: For relief of Franklin County, $5,237.72; For relief of Spokane County, $2,177.06; For relief of Kittitas County, $762.98; For relief of Thurston County, $1,541.49; For relief of Yakima County, $4,002.28; For Lake Crescent trout hatchery, $1,000.00.

The above specified items are disapproved for the reason that the condition of the state's finances is not such as to justify their approval. No doubt many of these items, perhaps all of them, are meritorious, but with the appropriations from the general fund exceeding the estimated revenues at least $600,000, I feel it incumbent upon me not to approve any item not strictly necessary. The controlling reason for not approving the items for the relief of the counties of Franklin, Spokane, Kittitas, Thurston and Yakima is this: These claims, if legal and binding upon the general fund, would exceed the estimated revenues at least $600,000, I feel it incumbent upon me not to approve any item not strictly necessary.

LEAGUE IS NOT ACTIVE

REFERENDUM MEETING AT ALBANY IS VERY SLIMLY ATTENDED.

Two Men Met With Judge Whitney and J. C. Cooper Looked In to See What Was Going On.

ALBANY, Or., March 21.—(Special.)—The much-talked-of Referendum League said to have organized in Linn County seems to be just a little short on the essential article of interest. At least that is the impression received by the Oregonian representative who attended the league meeting, or what was to have been a meeting, today.

It is not known whether the promoters of the referendum movement would meet in Judge J. J. Whitney's office at 10 o'clock this afternoon, but at the appointed hour the Judge was the sole representative of the league who was present. Later, two Linn County men came in, but none of those who were to have prepared the petitions, etc., were at the appointed meeting.

A Linn County farmer, who had agreed to circulate one of the petitions to refer the Lewis and Clark Fair appropriation to the people, said today that he was certain the petition would be largely signed in his locality, if it was circulated. But he added that many of the people who signed the petition would vote for the fair bill, if it came to a vote. He said the object was to give the people a chance to express their views on the matter.

J. C. Cooper, a member of the Lewis and Clark Fair board of directors, was in Albany today and attended the meeting. He had been to the meeting of the Referendum League to the two members of the league who were present Mr. Cooper said the fair bill was not afraid of having the fair bill killed by referring it to the people, but that such a move would cause unnecessary delay and would cause neighboring states to lose faith in the great Oregonian. He said that the referendum at this time would be inopportune and injudicious.

If today's meeting of the Referendum League is indicative of the interest in the referendum, the fair directors need have no apprehensions of trouble from this quarter. Indeed, if the Referendum League prospers at its present rate the fair will be a success. It is the past before the referendum machinery is put in motion.

The fact that a member of the league today suggested the idea of referring the appropriation to the people at the June election in the First Congressional District lends color to the supposition that the Referendum League is concealing a political club.

MARION IS FOR FAIR.

Sentiment in County is Generally Favorable.

SALEM, March 21.—(Special.)—Opposition to the Lewis and Clark Fair will find but small support in Marion County. Inquiries that were made by The Oregonian correspondent today among farmers who are active in the various precincts of the county for the purpose of doing their regular weekly shopping, shows that there is no general demand that the appropriation bill be submitted to a vote of the people. If it should be submitted it will be given a popular endorsement, so far as this county is concerned.

This is not saying that there is no opposition to the fair, but the sentiment in every precinct in the county there are a few who are opposed to the Lewis and Clark Fair. These do not, however, represent a majority of the voters, nor are they leaders in the development of the communities in which they live. As a rule, men who are interested in an enterprise of this kind are commercial and business interests of the state are desirous that the fair be held, and that no action be taken which will place Oregon in discredit in the eyes of the people of the rest of the nation.

So far as can be learned, no referendum petition has yet been placed in circulation in this county. There are some who are taking in favor of a referendum petition, and will sign such a paper if it is brought to them. Some of these, however, express the belief that if the fair bill is referred, it will receive a majority vote, and that the referendum is a needless expense. The fact that Multnomah and adjoining counties will cast tremendous majorities in favor of the fair, and that the more thickly settled sections of the state along the line of the Southern Pacific, and the O. R. & N. railroads, will also give the fair hearty support, leads to the conclusion that the adverse votes which may be expected to come from the interior districts will not be large enough to make the total vote defeat the fair.

In the portions of this county tributary to Salem, it is generally felt that the fair will be a success. The subscriptions to go toward building a fund to be used in the construction of a Courthouse, in the event that Clatskanie is successful. The following committee was appointed to solicit subscriptions: E. H. Hall, G. L. Perry, Steve Thichener, C. C. Covert and Norm Merrill. Dr. Hall, W. K. Kitchener and Mr. Phipps each subscribed $50 toward the fund before leaving the hall.

The push of the fair will be made by the county seat campaign, which was organized. The officers of the meeting were made officers of the push club.

WANTS COUNTY SEAT.

Clatskanie Will Make an Effort to Get Courthouse.

ST. HELENS, Or., March 21.—(Special.)—A special election county seat meeting was held at Clatskanie this afternoon. T. J. Phipps was chairman of the meeting, and C. L. Conyers secretary. Roush and the speakers were the following: Clatskanie as a desirable location for the county seat of Columbia County. Considerable feeling was expressed against making any combination with Rainier in the matter of voting for the location of the county seat.

It was decided to raise a bonus as an inducement to voters to cast their ballots toward Clatskanie. The subscriptions to go toward building a fund to be used in the construction of a Courthouse, in the event that Clatskanie is successful. The following committee was appointed to solicit subscriptions: E. H. Hall, G. L. Perry, Steve Thichener, C. C. Covert and Norm Merrill. Dr. Hall, W. K. Kitchener and Mr. Phipps each subscribed $50 toward the fund before leaving the hall.

Fatal Accident to a Young Girl Near Prosser.

THREAT OF LYNCHING.

BAKER CITY, Or., March 21.—The Armstrong murder case will be called for trial Monday, Judge Eakin having refused this morning to grant a writ of habeas corpus. Owing to the fact that but 11 names remain in the jury box of the regular panel, a special venire for a large number of jurors has been issued. The new jurors will be summoned from remote parts of the county, from sections far removed from the scene of the murder.

A piece of note paper was found in the County Clerk's office today, on which was a drawing of a knotted rope and the statement: "The murderer of Miss Ensminger, the murdered girl, and the above warning is supposed to have been left in the Clerk's office by some of the friends of the murderer girl.
