HARMONT SOUGHT AGAIN .- Letters were sent out yesterday by the Lewis and Clark retirin Expesition committee on women's work inviting prominent women of the state to follow. attend a conference to be held in the par-lors of the Perkins Hotel Thursday after-noon at 1:39 o'clock. At this conference the work of the Exposition committee will be discussed. It has been suggested that an exhibit of Alaska Indian baskets and of the Philippine women's handlwork be made. The meeting Thursday is to be held irrespective of the Woman's Club organizations, and an effort will be made at this time to bring about harmony be-tween the different organizations.

Miss WARE AGAIN HEARD FROM -- Miss Marie L. Ware telegraphs from San Fran-cisco as follows to Judge C. B. Bellinger, of the United States District Court: "Just read notice in Oregonian of my mysteri-ous disappearance from Oregon, which is not true. Will be at my home in Eugene on or before May 8." Every effort was on or before May S." Every effort was made by The Oregonian to ascertain the whereahouts of Miss Ware, and her friends very carefully refrained from giv-ing any information. There appeared to be a systematic effort on their part to keep the facts about her movements from the public. This gave rise to the stories of her dimensioned the stories of her disappearan
