

DAUGHTERS OF ST. DAVID WHO PRESENTED THE COMEDY "AS GOOD AS GOLD" FOR THE BENEFIT OF THEIR CHURCH

NEWS OF SOCIETY

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 28

Payne, have gone to San Francisco and other California cities for a visit with relatives.

Professor D. W. Yoder, of Sumpter, is spending the summer in Salem, where he was for a number of years City Superintendent of Schools.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Nye, of Sacramento, were Salem visitors Thursday. Mr. Nye is private secretary to the Governor of California, and while here he was the guest of W. N. Galens, private secretary to Governor Chamberlain.

On Monday, June 1, at the home of the bride's parents in this city, Miss Minnie DeLong and Mr. E. C. Wells, of Spokane, were married by Rev. W. C. Kantner, of the Congregational Church. The newly married couple have gone to Spokane to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordan Purvine, who have been popular members of Salem social circles for a number of years, have returned to Portland, where Mr. Purvine has accepted a position in a shoe store.

Pendleton.

Mrs. David Ingram has returned from visiting relatives in Milton.

Rev. W. E. Potvin, passed a few days in Cove, Or., during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Klopfer have returned to their home in Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Weaver have returned from a month's visit with relatives in Spokane and Colfax.

Mrs. Edward Long has returned to her home in the Walla Walla Valley after a visit with relatives here.

Mrs. Laura Harpinger, of Fresno, Cal., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wesley Matlock, at her home on West Court street.

Mrs. Alma Hallock, who has been visiting friends in this city for two weeks, has returned to her home in Baker City.

Miss Miriam Strong left Monday for her home in Portland, where she will pass her summer vacation with her parents.

Miss Parrott, who has been a teacher for the past year in the public schools, has gone to Portland to spend her vacation.

Mrs. T. C. Warner and son Harold left Monday for Fort Wayne, Ind., where they will visit relatives for two or three months.

Mrs. W. T. Hlop entertained about 20 young people last week in honor of Miss Shepherd. The evening was given to cards and music.

Charles E. Chase and wife and Miss Ney, of Hartford, Conn., visited Mr. and Mrs. E. Judd and Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Judd for a few days.

Miss Bessie Switzer has returned from visiting in Portland. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Lowell, who will visit here for some time.

A pleasant dancing party was given Thursday evening by the young people in honor of Mr. Homer V. Carpenter, who has gone to Portland to reside.

Mrs. Helen Webb Marston and her pupils gave a pleasant musicale on Monday evening. The programme consisted of both vocal and instrumental music.

Rev. F. L. Forbes and family have gone to Seattle, where they will make their home for the future. Mr. Forbes having taken charge of the First Presbyterian Church there.

About 25 ladies of the Presbyterian Church passed the day Wednesday at the Raulston home, ten miles from Pendleton. They went by train as far as Eastland and there were met by Mr. and Mrs. Raulston with carriages and driven the remaining mile and a half. A very delicious luncheon was served in the spacious dining-room, all the guests being seated at one long table. A number of toasts were given and responded to, Mrs. C. J. Smith acting as toastmistress. All too soon the time for departure came and the ladies were compelled to leave in order to catch the train, that landed them safely in Pendleton at 6:30. All had a delightful time and would like to go again.

Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Davis are visiting at Sacramento, Cal.

Miss Viola Moore, of Grant's Pass, is visiting in Ashland.

Miss Anna Colvig, of Grant's Pass, is visiting in Ashland.

The Misses Vivian and Bessie Fuller, of Oakland, Cal., are visiting in Ashland.

Mrs. R. S. Barclay has returned from an extended visit with relatives at Vallejo, Cal.

Miss Lillian Patterson is visiting friends in San Francisco. She will be absent for a month.

Mrs. F. L. Lounsbury has returned to Portland from a stay of several weeks at Wagner Springs.

Mrs. A. R. Wilkins, nee Charlotte Pracht, is here from Dunsmuir, visiting her relatives and friends.

Dr. and Mrs. J. K. Reader leave here on the 10th inst. on their trip to Japan. They will sail on the Corea from San Francisco on the 15th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Van Sant entertained a number of their friends at a delightful lunch party at their home one evening during the week.

Mrs. Helen M. Sibley, Mrs. D. L. Rice and Miss Esther Sibley, of Ashland, attended the Cremer-Longenecker wedding at Grant's Pass Wednesday evening.

President B. F. Mulkey tendered a reception and banquet at the Hotel Oregon, Tuesday evening, to the class of '03 of the Normal, Platteau were laid for $5.

Miss Bertha Case, of San Francisco, where she is employed on the staff of the Chronicle, is visiting her sister, Miss Stella Case, of the Ashland State Normal.

George T. Watson and Miss Kate Emery, both of this city, were married at Jacksonville, Wednesday evening by Rev. A. J. Gillette. They will reside in Ashland.

Miss Lora M. Colton, formerly of this city, was married at Gardena, near Los Angeles, Cal., Wednesday of this week.

Mrs. E. E. Hines has gone to Portland to visit friends.

Mrs. Dr. Finch has gone to California to visit her parents for a month.

Miss Alice Wood entertained the Thursday Afternoon Club this week.

P. L. Cherry has returned from a month's visit to Southern California.

Mrs. Frank M. Gunn, of San Francisco, is in the city visiting with relatives.

Mrs. A. C. Levy, of San Francisco, is in the city, the guest of Mrs. Charles M. Cellar.

Mrs. Samuel Randall and son, of San Francisco, are spending the week visiting Mrs. Will Madison.

Mrs. Richard E. Carruthers and son are in the city to spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Tallant.

Mrs. Lena Huber and Miss Annie O'Brien, of Portland, are in the city, the guests of Mrs. D. B. Allen.

H. G. Ramsdell and Mrs. Ramsdell, of Portland, visited Rev. William Seymour Short a few days this week.

Angela, Cal., Wednesday of this week, to Mr. Jesse Norton. Rev. F. G. Strange, also formerly of this city, who was in attendance at the Presbyterian Assembly at Los Angeles, officiated at the wedding. The couple will reside at Los Angeles.

One of the very pleasant social gatherings of the week was the annual reunion of the Ashland High School Alumni Association at Pioneer Hall. Delicious refreshments were served and new officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: President, Blain Klum; vice-president, Miss Susie Himes; secretary-treasurer, Miss Laura Garrett.

Astoria.

Mrs. R. E. Hines has gone to Portland to visit friends.

Mrs. Dr. Finch has gone to California to visit her parents for a month.

Miss Alice Wood entertained the Thursday Afternoon Club this week.

P. L. Cherry has returned from a month's visit to Southern California.

Mrs. Frank M. Gunn, of San Francisco, is in the city visiting with relatives.

Mrs. A. C. Levy, of San Francisco, is in the city, the guest of Mrs. Charles M. Cellar.

Mrs. Samuel Randall and son, of San Francisco, are spending the week visiting Mrs. Will Madison.

Mrs. Richard E. Carruthers and son are in the city to spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Tallant.

Mrs. Lena Huber and Miss Annie O'Brien, of Portland, are in the city, the guests of Mrs. D. B. Allen.

H. G. Ramsdell and Mrs. Ramsdell, of Portland, visited Rev. William Seymour Short a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Anderson, of Oshkosh, Wis., are in the city on a visit to Captain and Mrs. Gunderson.

Mrs. Edward H. Streumeyer entertained a number of her friends Thursday evening at her residence on Grand avenue.

The Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal Church held their annual meeting Tuesday afternoon and elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: Mrs. G. H. George, president; Mrs. Harrison Allen, vice-president; Mrs. E. Streumeyer, secretary, and Mrs. Sophia Boelling, treasurer.

Mrs. George C. Flavel gave a reception to a large number of her friends Thursday afternoon. The parlors were elaborately decorated in pink and green, and the dining room in white and green. A stringed instrument orchestra played during the afternoon, and Miss Eliza Boelling presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Flavel was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Callender.

Mrs. M. F. Flavel, Mrs. C. H. Callender and the Misses Flavel, while Mesdames Wilkinson, A. J. Taylor, Follen and J. J. Wegler had charge of the dining-room, the Misses Cole, Lomberger, Tallant and Sutherland, all dressed in white, as their assistants.

Baker City.

Miss Myrtle James has returned from a pleasant visit to Salem.

Miss Vivian Place is visiting her friend, Miss Ella Coe. Miss Place formerly resided in this city.

Miss Anna Hanna has returned from California, where she has been visiting for several weeks.

Mrs. Maggie Cranston has gone to Grangerville, Idaho, where she will visit with relatives for a month.

John McEwen and Miss Mary McGovern were married, Monday morning at 6:30, at the Catholic Church in this city, by Rev. Father Desmaris.

Mrs. J. E. Foul, who has been away spending the winter and spring months at San Francisco and other Coast towns, has returned home for the summer.

Miss Belle Keeney, who taught in the South Baker School last term, and was re-elected for the ensuing term, has resigned to accept a position at Eugene.

Larkin A. Bligh and Mrs. Lillie M. Winchester were married at the residence of Mrs. George Eberts, of this city, by County Judge Travillon, Monday afternoon.

Mr. Guy Cooper and Miss Ida Jessup were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jessup, of this city, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, by Rev. J. R. Bell, of the Presbyterian Church, officiating.

E. A. Bond and Miss Runyon, both of this city, were married at Boise, Idaho, last week. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William Strang, of Boise, who is a brother of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Bond will continue to reside in this city.

Miss Lottie Tabor, who has been attending school at St. Helen's Hall, Portland, will spend the greater portion of her vacation with friends in this city.

Miss Jessie Bratton has returned home from Dallas, where she has been on a visit of several months' duration.

Oregon City.

Mrs. George Hoyce visited in Salem this week.

Miss LaBlanche Kantner, of Salem, is visiting here.

Mrs. J. W. Norris has returned from a visit in Seattle.

Mrs. J. W. Loder visited this week with friends at Salem and Albany.

Miss Grace Killard, of Heppner, visited Oregon City friends this week.

Miss Julia Failing, of Portland, was the Sunday guest of Miss Nellie Hart.

Mrs. Mary C. Kirk, of Canby, was the guest of Mrs. F. A. Slight this week.

Miss Neva Griswold, of Salem, was the guest of the Misses Caulfield this week.

Miss Constance Holland, of Portland, was the guest of Miss Elma Albright Monday.

Miss Edith Habersham, of Astoria, has returned home after a visit with Miss Veda Williams.

Mrs. Annie Fairweather, of Tacoma, was given a reception Tuesday afternoon by her sister, Mrs. R. B. Beattie, at whose home the former is visiting.

Mrs. E. Fellows, of Medford, visited this week with her brother, J. T. Apperson, at Parkplace.

Miss Angeline Truchot, of Kallapell, Mont., is a guest at the home of W. E. Pratt in this city.

On Tuesday, Isaac E. Cline and Phoebe Ralston were united in matrimony by Rev. E. S. Bolinger in this city.

The Shakespeare Club entertained a number of friends at the home of Miss Marjorie Caulfield Friday evening.

Mr. John H. Birchard and Miss Christina M. Seader were married by Rev. Mr. Bolinger in this city Monday, June 1.

Mrs. L. Scorgan, of this city, and A. D. Hill, of Parkplace, were married at the bride's home in this city Tuesday, June 2.

Medford.

Miss Jennie Woodford left recently for a month's visit with relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Comegys left Monday for Thornton, Wash., to remain permanently.

G. W. Starr and family, of Dallas, Or., arrived recently to visit his parents, E. W. Starr and family.

Mrs. B. F. Adkins left Wednesday for San Francisco to visit her daughter, Miss Ora, several weeks.

Attorney W. H. Parker returned Monday from Oakland, Cal., and will settle down once more among his Medford friends.

Mayor W. S. Crowell is taking a short vacation at the Rogue River Fish Hatchery, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Berrian.

Rev. W. F. Shields returned Saturday from Los Angeles, Cal., where he has been attending the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. John Ulrich and daughter, Miss Lucy, who have been visiting Cousin G. L. Lindley and family for the past month, left Sunday for their home in Godfrey, Ill.

Mr. Paul Van Sooy and wife, of Roseburg, are visiting here, the guests of Mr. Van Sooy's sister, Mrs. W. E. Russell and family. They will leave soon for Nevada.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bowen, of San Fernando, Mexico, arrived here Tuesday to visit with Mrs. Bowen's sister, Mrs. Dr. V. L. Cameron. They will visit during the summer with Dr. and Mrs. Cameron.

Mrs. J. H. Morris returned Sunday from several weeks' visit with friends in Portland. She was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Fern, who took part in a recital given there last week. Miss Norris will remain in Portland during the summer.

Eugene.

Miss Margaret Kinsey is visiting in Medford.

Miss Laura Miller is the guest of Portland friends.

Mrs. C. W. Lowe is visiting her mother in McMinnville.

D. Tilton and wife have gone to Ashland to spend the summer.

Lee McMillan, of Iowa, is visiting his cousin, Mrs. Norris Humphrey.

B. K. Lawson, of Cottage Grove, was a visitor in this city Wednesday.

Mrs. Thompson, nee Cora Gilbert, left Tuesday for Port Canby, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Osborn, of Salem, have come to Eugene to reside.

Wednesday and Friday Mrs. Sladden entertained a number of her friends.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. A. K. Patterson entertained a few of her friends.

Dr. and Mrs. M. L. York have just returned from a six weeks' sojourn in Chicago.

Professor E. E. Washburn, superintendent of Jacksonville schools, visited friends in this city Wednesday.

Misses Nina Wilkins and Ethel Williams have returned from a visit with Albany friends.

Mrs. H. E. Ankeny returned Wednesday from a visit to the Sterling mines in Southern Oregon.

Mrs. T. N. Boardman and son, of Orlando, Fla., are in this city in advance of her husband, who expects to locate here.

Friday evening Miss Tat Holmes, of Portland, and Miss Amy Dunn, lately returned from Stanford, were the guests of honor in a gathering at the home of Misses Grace and Cora Wood.

Roseburg.

J. W. Frazer has gone to Portland, where he will reside.

Mrs. H. T. McCallen is visiting relatives in Jacksonville.

Mrs. Morris Weber spent several days this week in Grant's Pass.

Albert Abraham and wife are visiting relatives in Portland this week.

Miss Leona Lenox, of Marshfield, Or., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Edith Reames.

Mrs. J. A. Jamieson, of Portland, is visiting her sister here, Mrs. E. R. Hanan.

Mrs. F. B. Waite has gone to The Dalles to visit her daughter, who is attending school there.

Mrs. T. H. Dunckley, of Chehalis, Wash., is visiting her parents, Dr. F. G. Oehme and wife.

E. R. Hanan and family and Mrs. J. A. Jamieson left Thursday for Klamath County to spend the summer.

Mrs. Oscar La Forest, after a visit with relatives here for the past month, has returned to her home in Los Angeles.

H. C. Rickett and wife returned this week from Denver, Colo., where they attended the trainmen's convention.

R. E. Veatch and wife returned this week from Pittsburg, Or., where Mr. Veatch attended the convention of conductors.

The Dalles.

Mrs. W. H. Moody has spent the week at Shaniko.

Miss Nan Cooper has gone to Hood River for the remainder of the season.

Miss Bessie Sulpes has returned from an extended visit with relatives in Walla Walla.

Mrs. Reuben Borton, of Grass Valley, has returned home after a short visit in this city.

Miss Evelyn Newman, of Portland, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in this city.

Miss Josephine Jenkins, of Portland, was the guest of Miss Vesta Bolton early in the week.

Mrs. F. P. Maya, Miss Maya, and Miss Helen McEwen, of Portland, returned home early in the week, after a short visit here with friends.

One of the handsomest parties of the season was given by Mrs. A. S. Bennett, Thursday evening, at her home on Fourth street. The spacious parlors and hall were beautifully decorated with a profusion of roses and honeysuckles, artistically disposed in every available space. About 35 young ladies were present. Mrs. Bennett was assisted in entertaining her guests by Mrs. Hugh Logan and Mrs. Alice Sheldon.

Albany.

Miss Letha Patton, of Halsey, is visiting in this city.

Miss Ruth Marshall, of Seattle, is the guest of Miss Bessie Rhodes.

Miss Nellie Hogue has returned from a several months' stay in Baker City.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woods, of Oroville, Cal., are in the city.

Miss Faye Cooley, of Brownsville, visited friends in Albany during the week.

Mrs. Homer A. Nelson entertained a few friends Thursday afternoon, June 4, at her home on Seventh and Ferry.

Misses Maude Morrison and Flo Nutting returned from California Monday.

where they attended the Y. W. C. A. convention.

Miss Alice Rosa entertained a number of her friends Friday afternoon, June 5, in honor of Miss Mattie Little, of Portland.

A party of young people went up the Willamette Thursday evening in the launch Screechowl. A delightful evening was spent. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Young, Misses Stewart, Simpson, Flink, Sox, Miller, Payne, Messrs. Barrett, Stellmacher, Stewart, Hornar, Sternberg, Atty.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Bethany Presbyterian Church, this city, Wednesday evening, June 3, the principal being G. W. A. F. Cramer and Miss Jean Longenecker, both of this place. The church was tastefully decorated, roses predominating. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. W. Hays, a brother-in-law of the bride, formerly pastor here, but now of the Marshall-Street Presbyterian Church, Portland, Or., assisted by Rev. W. G. Connell, of the local church.

The bride was escorted by her brother, Grace Hays, who acted as flower girl. As the bridal couple entered the church a double ladies' quartet sang Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus." A large number of invited guests were present. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Longenecker. The gifts were many and beautiful, cut glass and silver principally. Both parties are well known here. Mr. Cramer, a member of Cramer Bros., hardware dealers, has been prominent in church and social affairs for a number of years. The bride formerly lived in Cincinnati, O. The bridal party left on Thursday for a trip to Portland and Puget Sound points. They will make their home at Grant's Pass.

Mrs. J. E. Fulton, entertained 30 ladies at an afternoon tea Wednesday.

Miss Ivy Burton, of Independence, visited Corvallis friends during the week.

Miss Nellie Skelton, of Seattle, is visiting her brother, G. V. Skelton, in this city.

Mrs. E. B. Horning is at home again, after a long illness in St. Vincent's Hospital.

Mrs. F. L. Miller and little son have arrived home, after a two weeks' visit with Portland relatives.

Professor J. F. Fulton arrived Monday from Boston, where he has been doing post-graduate work for the past year at Harvard University.

Invitations are out for a small reception to be given Tuesday afternoon next, at the elegant new home of Mrs. A. L. Knisely, or College Hill, by Mrs. Knisely and Mrs. G. A. Covell.

Mrs. E. H. Taylor was hostess for a Congregational missionary tea Wednesday afternoon. Her guests numbered 63, and were pleasantly entertained with literary and musical programs. Ice and punch were served.

Miss Myrtle Lee is visiting friends in Independence this week.

Miss Nellie M. Burk left Monday for an extended visit in Tacoma.

Mr. Grant Robertson returned from Eastern Oregon this week.

Miss Vanche Dickinson left for Seattle for a summer's visit, on Tuesday.

Miss Emmerson, of Sheridan, is visiting at the home of Mr. John Dickinson and family.

Mrs. Owen and Mrs. Locke entertained the Lewis and Clark Club, Thursday. The attendance was large and some excellent reciting was rendered.

The vote for Goddess of Liberty has been very spirited, and six of the candidates are running very close. Those in the lead are Miss M. Kennedy, Miss Florence Burton, Miss Edith Owen, Miss

CELEBRATE TWENTY-FIFTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

DR. AND MRS. D. A. PAINE.

EUGENE, Or., June 6.—(Special.)—Thursday evening was the occasion of a delightful social event at the home of Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Paine. It was the 25th anniversary of their marriage, and they had invited a large number of friends to celebrate the event, which was done in a manner to be remembered by all present. Their beautiful home was elaborately decorated with an abundance of the choicest flowers of the season, and nothing was omitted for the pleasure of the guests.

Refreshments were served in the dining-room, where the tables were decorated in a manner suitable to the occasion.

Ruby Kelso, Miss Florence Burnett, of Independence, and Miss Eva Mulkey, of Monmouth. Monmouth has placed a new candidate in the field in Miss Mabel Whelock.

Heppner.

Miss Baker, of Colfax, is in the city.

George Henton, of this city, has gone to Walla Walla to reside.

Mrs. Elder gave a very pleasant dinner party on Thursday to a number of her friends.

Miss Emeline Farnsworth has returned to her home in this city, after an extended visit in California.

Mr. and Mrs