

The past week has been well filled with pleasant social affairs, including many charming wedding receptions, boat parties and commencement exercises. An interesting reception was given on Monday evening, at the First Presbyterian Church in honor of Miss Josephine Pettie, secretary of the Young People's department of the Woman's Presbyterian Board of Missions, and another important church event was the reception given at Taylor-street Methodist Church, on Friday night, in honor of the Taylor-street choir. Miss Clara Teal entertained informally on Wednesday afternoon, at her home on Everett street, in honor of Mrs. George S. Brooks, of Spokane. A dainty luncheon was given by Mrs. Orville C. Pratt, at the Hobart-Curtis, on Thursday, in honor of Miss Katherine Sisson. Another delightful affair given in honor of Miss Sisson was the dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Skinner, at the Guillaume.

The marriage, in Seattle, of Maurice Caldwell Chas. of this city, and Miss Margaret Cardin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Cardin, was one of the most elaborate weddings of the season. The groom's father, Rev. James Chas. of Port Angeles, performed the ceremony at St. Mark's Church, assisted by Rev. J. P. D. Lyle. The church was kept very beautifully decorated with palms, white carnations and narcissus. The bride wore white crepe de chine and duchesse lace, and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. Miss Edith Cardin, as maid of honor, wore white net over pink silk and carried white carnations. Miss Agnes Cardin, Miss May Cardin, Miss Clara and Miss Nellie Cardin, of Tacoma; Miss McGrath and Miss Reife, were the bridesmaids. They all wore dainty pink gowns, trimmed with tiny chiffon roses. Marjorie Flake and Sidney Hawley were the cushion-bearers. Mr. Chas.'s best man was H. Tronson, of this city, and the ushers were Richard Cardin and Edmund Cardin, of Tacoma, and Lewis Woodward, H. Ingle Arnold, Rothwell, Harry Walters and Sylvester Harrington were the ushers. After the wedding reception Mr. and Mrs. Chas. left for Victoria for a brief visit, after which they will be at home in Portland at the Norton.

The Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian Church gave a charming reception in the church parlors on Thursday from 3 until 5, in honor of Miss Easton, of San Francisco. Miss Easton has been prominent in Unitarian work on the Coast for a number of years, and is the first vice-president of the National Unitarian Alliance. The reception decorations were of the most splendid of La France roses and were exquisitely arranged. The table where Mrs. H. C. Wortman and Mrs. George Schaub served tea and cake had a long low centerpiece of roses and the tea table, over which Mrs. W. P. Olds presided, had as a centerpiece a big cut-glass vase of roses. Assisting in serving the guests was a group of girls in pretty white gowns. They were Miss Alta Smith, Miss Gladys Pilkington, Miss Geraldine Alken, Miss Ada McGowan and Miss Morton. Miss Easton wore a handsome gown of black silk. Mrs. George Crosswell Crossway wore a becoming gown of white moire and Mrs. G. G. Gammans and Miss W. Wynn Johnson, who received with Mrs. Crossway, wore very pretty costumes. Mrs. Gammans wore black grenadine, broadened with pink roses, and Mrs. Johnson wore a dainty dress of pink and white organdy. Mrs. Wortman wore a pretty combination of black and white, and Mrs. Olds wore a becoming costume of blue silk. Mrs. Schaub wore a dainty gown of white organdy.

Mrs. Herbert Hoyt's charming houseboat, "La Sista," which is moored on the east side of Rose Island, is a delightful rendezvous for her friends, who consider the hospitable craft a most ideal place to spend a summer day. On Friday Mrs. Hoyt entertained Mrs. Will Norton, Miss Grace Nicholson, Miss Agnes Hill and Miss Beatrice Hill at luncheon on the houseboat, and afterward the guests enjoyed themselves with taking kodak pictures and with mandolin and guitar.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

The members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club observed club day on Saturday afternoon by preaching a dramatized cutting from Tennyson's "The Princess." The entertainment, which was one of the prettiest of the year in club circles, was given at the home of Mrs. James Muckle, at No. 62 Ella street.

The rooms were lavishly decorated with roses, ferns and purple clematis, red roses being used in the reception hall and back parlor. The club colors—violet and black—were displayed in the dining-room in bowls of clematis and baskets of white roses placed in ever nook and corner. The first number of the program was a contralto solo by Miss Webb. "The Princess" was given by 13 of the club members, who had given a great deal of time and thought to the study of the play, under the direction of Miss Ethel Webb and Mrs. Merwin Pugh, the club president. The costuming was extremely pretty, and the grouping and tableaux were particularly pleasing. The songs were sprightly and the parts were well sustained.

The violet song in the last act was given by Miss Webb, whose voice is always heard with pleasure. The songs sung by the pupils was also very pleasing.

The cast is as follows:
Princess Ida.....Mrs. Merwin Pugh
Lady Peverell.....Mrs. E. E. Miller
Lady Blanche.....Mrs. Wm. Rowland
Mellon.....Miss Clara Muckle
Violet.....Miss James Muckle
The Prince.....Mrs. G. M. Glines
Florion.....Miss Lillian Fay
Cecil.....Mrs. H. T. Clark
Gemma.....Mrs. J. P. Young
Euse.....Miss Clara Muckle
Pupils.....Eight club members
Miss Cora Muckle, from the High School cast, kindly substituted for Mrs. Tabler as Mellon. Miss Nelly Kennedy was the accompanist, and Mrs. O. P. M. Jamison had charge of the chorus singing. Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

The members of the official board of Taylor-street Methodist Church gave an elaborate supper in the church parlors on Friday evening, in honor of the church choir.

The guests besides the choir were the members of the board and their wives, the members of the Pastors' Aid Society and their husbands. Roses were used in profusion in the decorations, which were very pretty. Mrs. Burnett, president of the Social Union, presided as hostess at the supper, at which there were interesting speeches by W. Y. Masters, Nathaniel Connel, Judge Caples, P. A. Jones, W. H. Beharrell, Mr. Paget and Dr. Talbot. Mr. McDonald made a graceful speech presenting Mr. Boyer, leader of the choir, with a beautiful silver berry spoon, engraved with a picture of Taylor-street Church. The souvenir is the gift of the official board. The guests of honor were as follows:

Mrs. W. H. Boyer, Miss Eola Bennett, Miss Grace Campbell, Miss Idella Marks, Miss Marion Winter, Miss Nettie Greer, Miss Bollman, Mrs. McKenna, Mrs. Bushong, Miss Hazel Pauline, Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, Miss Ethel Valleimier, Miss Beulah Caldwell, Miss Ella Buddemer, James McKinnon, P. M. Grant, W. R. Kaser, Charles Cutler, Stuart McGuire, Bert Farrall, M. A. Barker, C. M. Godfrey, Fred Pierce.

Mrs. George Lawrence, Jr., entertained at whist on Wednesday at her home on Flanders street, La France, Dr. Caroline Testout rosebuds and marguerites were arranged in the library and hall, and the dining-room was beautifully decorated.

WEDDED ON WEDNESDAY MORNING AT CATHEDRAL.

MR. AND MRS. H. W. McNAMARA.

with Jacquemont and Liberty roses. Miss Marion Stockpole won the first prize and Mrs. George Bates, the consolation. Mrs. Lawrence's guests were: Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, Mrs. C. R. Templeton, Mrs. Blair T. Scott, Mrs. Frank B. Riley, Mrs. Herbert Hoyt, Mrs. W. H. Grindstaff, Mrs. W. C. Lawrence, Mrs. W. H. Wallace, Mrs. Oscar Huber, Mrs. H. H. Northrup, Mrs. Edward Manning, Mrs. Otto Breyman, Mrs. James Thompson, Mrs. William Wood, Mrs. P. P. Price, Mrs. William Harder, Mrs. H. E. Coleman, Mrs. H. M. Carlock, Mrs. P. J. Mann, Mrs. George Bates, Mrs. P. Nitchy, Mrs. Frank Watkins, Mrs. T. B. Foster, Mrs. Benjamin Trankner, Mrs. George D. Schalk, Mrs. C. Lewis Mead, Miss Lambert, Miss Mabel Lawrence, Miss Lillie, Miss Wallace, Miss McCulloch, Miss Rummel, Miss Emma Elgen.

Thursday, June 11, from 4 to 6 P. M., Mrs. C. E. Campbell, residing at 500 East Couch street, entertained, the event being in celebration of her paper wedding anniversary. A box of delicious refreshments was served, and the evening was a most charming one. The prevailing tones, pink and white, the prevailing tones, together with masses of roses, were the decorations. A pretty feature of the later afternoon was the renewal of the marriage vows, followed by hearty congratulations. Mrs. Campbell looked delightful in a handsome gown, and proved herself a most charming hostess. The daintiest refreshments were served, including the proverbial "bride's cake." Following were the guests: Messrs. and Mrs. J. C. Woreckul, Rev. William E. Randall, Dr. J. H. Kessler, Mrs. L. C. Simpson, Misses Florence Hopp, Emma Finn, Mae E. Randall, Messrs. Oscar L. Voss, James W. Parsons and Master Lloyd Campbell.

A pleasant party was given Friday evening, June 12, at the home of Miss Edith Buchholz, 555 East Everett street, for the pleasure of the Junior graduating class of the Central School. After an enjoyable evening spent in various amusements the party proceeded to the dining-room, where a delicious repast was served. At a late hour the party dispersed. Those present were as follows: Miss Edith Case, Miss Irma Yeaton, Miss Beulah Bruce, Miss Gertrude Donahoe, Miss Ada White, Miss Blanche Quinn, Miss Edith Buchholz, Miss Ida Lury, Miss May Murray, Miss Gertrude Graham, Miss Mary Meyer and Miss Laura Haverdave; Dwight Miller, Eddie Page, John Schroder, Albert Kellman, Allen Bartick, Kenneth Goodale, Ray Watkins, Martin Higley, Ben Symson, George Newell and Otto Wray.

A jolly crowd of 30 enjoyed the pleasure of a launching party up the Willamette on the launch Imperial last Tuesday evening, guests of Messrs. Byron Hart, Will Pugh and Harry Lane. After a delightful trip up the river a stop was made at Milwaukie Park, where refreshments were served, those present being Misses Martha Sprenger, Grace Baldwin, Alma Churchley, Jennie Hansen, Gertrude Wetzlar, Ruth Lohner, Miss O'Donnell, Miss Sigurd, Miss Bradley, Miss Winters, Miss Sigmund, Miss Thorne and the Messrs. Schuch, Messrs. Ed DeKater, Roy Wenzelberg, Walter Gadsby, William Sandereck, Frank Smith, Charles Brundley, James O'Donnell, Louis Thompson, Alfred Kerrigan, Bob Garrettson, Sim Bennett.

An open-air meeting of the Multnomah Alliance, No. 4, was held Tuesday evening at the home of J. R. Burke, Eighteenth and East Pine streets. Chinese lanterns glowed among the branches of the trees, producing a charming effect, and an orchestra added sweet music to the scene. Stirring addresses were made by I. H. Ames, B. Lee Paget and Rev. J. M. Gurneys. Several recitations and musical numbers followed, which were well received by the large audience present.

Mrs. J. W. Hill entertained very informally on Tuesday afternoon at the Hill Military Academy in honor of Dr. Hill's sister, Mrs. George S. Brooks, of Spokane. The guests were all old friends of Mrs. Brooks, and they spent the afternoon very delightfully together. The drawing-rooms were beautifully decorated with Caroline Testout, La Marquis and Jacquemont roses. Delicious ice was served and Miss Helen MacEwan served punch.

Mrs. C. R. Donahoe and Mrs. George S. Ball entertained last week with a delightful luncheon and "high five" party. The luncheon table, which was spread in Mrs. Ball's pretty dining-room, had decorations of green and white and dainty hand-painted name cards. After luncheon the guests went over to Mrs. Donahoe's and played high five, the honors being awarded to Miss Knapp, Mrs. Manning and Mrs. Glafke. Mrs. E. E. Covert assisted delightfully in entertaining by singing.

Mrs. J. K. Locke gave a delightful whist party on Wednesday afternoon at her home on East Madison street. The house was decorated with exquisite La France, Caroline Testout and Gloire de Lyon roses. The first prize, a cut glass bon bon dish, was won by Mrs. J. Werlein, and the second, a dainty china plate, was awarded to Mrs. E. G. Clark.

Fruit punch was served all afternoon, and other refreshments were served later at tea-a-tete tables.

One of the most brilliant social events of the season was a farewell reception given on Wednesday afternoon June 10, by the ladies of the Fortnightly Club to their ex-president, Mrs. Laura A. Bradley, at the home of the president, Mrs. C. S. Williams. Mrs. Bradley will soon leave for Portland, where she expects to make her home.

Miss Buckenmeyer's shirtwaist party at Parsons Hall on Monday night was one of the most delightful of the series, and was largely attended.

A "dolley shower" in honor of Miss Mattie Annand was given by Miss Ethel Grenfell Saturday afternoon at her home.

Dr. Charles A. Macrum, of this city, was married in Eugene, on June 10, to Miss Stella Dorris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Dorris. The wedding took place at 9 o'clock in the morning, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dorris. The house was a picture of bridal daintiness and beauty, with lavish decorations of white roses and green foliage. Rev. D. E. Loveridge performed the beautiful Episcopal marriage service, standing in a rose-arched bower in a corner of the parlor. The bride's father gave her away and her matron of honor and bridesmaid were Mrs. Emma Dorris Thompson and Miss Carrie Friendly. B. Beckman, of Portland, was best man.

The bride wore a beautiful white gown and carried bride roses. The house was decorated throughout with roses. In the dining-room and red in the hall. After the ceremony all repaired to the dining-room, where a luncheon had been prepared. Many beautiful presents were received by the bride. The bride and groom were in the parlor, pink in the dining-room and red in the hall. After the ceremony all repaired to the dining-room, where a luncheon had been prepared. Many beautiful presents were received by the bride. The bride and groom were in the parlor, pink in the dining-room and red in the hall.

No announcement cards were sent, and at the wedding only very intimate friends were present. Dr. and Mrs. Macrum are making a tour of the Sound cities, and on their return will be at home at the Hotel Portland, after June 25.

On Wednesday evening, at the Church of the Redeemer, Pendleton, Or., Miss Mabel Nye, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nye, was married to Mr. Lachlan Macrum, of Eugene, by Rev. W. E. Forstner officiating. The church was very prettily decorated, and before the hour appointed for the ceremony the edifice was crowded by friends. As the wedding party reached the church Miss Jessie Hartman struck up the wedding march. The two ushers, E. P. Dodd and Fred Lampkin, proceeded up the aisle, followed by the maid of honor, Miss Eva Switzer and the bridesmaid, Miss Edna Thompson and Miss Nellie Cameron. Then came the bride on the arm of her father. In the meantime, the bridegroom and best man, Mr. Clarke, had reached the altar and stood ready to receive the bride at the altar steps. The ring service of the Episcopal Church was read. The bride wore white organdie in train, with veil and orange blossoms, and carried a large bouquet of bride roses.

THE LOCKWOOD-MITCHELL NUPTIALS

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Lockwood.

A very pretty wedding took place in the First Baptist Church Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock, when Miss Helen Mitchell was married to John Paul Lockwood, both of Portland. Dr. Alexander Blackburn officiating. The church was filled with friends and relatives of the bride and groom. Palm and beautiful blooming shrubs completely embellished the chancel, and heavy ropes of flowering garlands lined the central aisle. At precisely 6 o'clock the strains of the Lockwood "Wedding March" pealed forth from the matrimonial organ. William M. Wilder acting as organist. The ushers were: Mr. F. E. Bowen, Mr. A. C. Bancroft, Mr. A. H. Lowrey and Mr. R. C. Brown. Miss Hattie B. Mitchell and Miss Mary A. Mitchell acted as bridesmaids, and Miss Clara Lucile Gay was maid of honor. Master Lewis Wright was ringbearer. Lucile Dudley and Desile Boyer marched as flower girls. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. A. Mitchell, and the bride's brother, Mr. J. L. Mitchell, acted as best man. At the giving of the ring Dr. Koven's "O, Promise Me" was sung with beautiful effect by Mrs. Margarette Glines, accompanied by Mr. Wilder on the organ, who also played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" at the close. After the ceremony a wedding supper was given at the home of the bride's father, 709 Irving street. Mr. and Mrs. Lockwood will be at home to their friends after June 25, at their home, 984 Corbett street.

bride, a petite brunette, was beautiful in her gown of ivory wool crepe, nearly covered with rare old ivory lace belonging to her mother's trousseau. She carried an arm bouquet of Marchesa Nell roses. The bride was preceded by two little maids in white, Misses Helen and Alouise Bradley, who scattered rose petals from rustic baskets. Miss Vivian Cooley, as bridesmaid, wore a charming costume of cream white and carried Duchesse roses. After an informal reception the guests were seated at the rose-decorated tables and were served local, delicious Oregon strawberries, etc. A bountiful supply of wedding cake, tied up in dainty white parcels, was distributed among the guests. For the young ladies there were favors of tiny spoons tied with white ribbons. Many of the guests brought cameras, and after much merry chattering, various groups and views were taken.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Evans, formerly of Omaha. Both father and son are well known in Eastern railroad circles, and are at present with the Oregon Short Line, at Salt Lake City. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Scherer, and has spent ten years of her life in Portland. She is a granddaughter of the late Henry C. Benderson, one of the pioneer journalists of the Pacific Coast, an old-time editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, Sacramento Record-Union, Virginia City and Carson City, Nev., and Denver, Colo., newspapers. Her mother, before coming to Portland, was special writer on San Francisco dailies, and of late years is better known under a masculine nom de plume as a writer of graphic Western stories. Many beautiful and valuable gifts, coming from New York, San Francisco, Los Angeles, St. Louis, Omaha, Idaho, Oregon and Utah attest the kindly feeling and high esteem in which the young couple and their future parents are held. After a short trip, Mr. and Mrs. Evans will be at home at 415 East First South street, Salt Lake City, Utah.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Gregory, in East Medford, Wednesday, when their youngest daughter, Miss Thayer, was united in marriage to Mr. Peter Marion Kershaw. At 1 o'clock the bride and groom entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," played by Mrs. E. E. Gore. A bower of white roses had been arranged, under which the couple stood, while Rev. Mr. Shields, of the Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony. The bride was elegantly attired in a dress of white organdie and all-over lace, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The rooms were beautifully decorated with roses, white predominating in the parlor, pink in the dining-room and red in the hall. After the ceremony all repaired to the dining-room, where a luncheon had been prepared. Many beautiful presents were received by the bride. The bride and groom were in the parlor, pink in the dining-room and red in the hall. After the ceremony all repaired to the dining-room, where a luncheon had been prepared. Many beautiful presents were received by the bride. The bride and groom were in the parlor, pink in the dining-room and red in the hall.

Dr. Charles A. Macrum, of this city, was married in Eugene, on June 10, to Miss Stella Dorris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Dorris. The wedding took place at 9 o'clock in the morning, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dorris. The house was a picture of bridal daintiness and beauty, with lavish decorations of white roses and green foliage. Rev. D. E. Loveridge performed the beautiful Episcopal marriage service, standing in a rose-arched bower in a corner of the parlor. The bride's father gave her away and her matron of honor and bridesmaid were Mrs. Emma Dorris Thompson and Miss Carrie Friendly. B. Beckman, of Portland, was best man.

The bride wore a beautiful white gown and carried bride roses. The house was decorated throughout with roses. In the dining-room and red in the hall. After the ceremony all repaired to the dining-room, where a luncheon had been prepared. Many beautiful presents were received by the bride. The bride and groom were in the parlor, pink in the dining-room and red in the hall.

No announcement cards were sent, and at the wedding only very intimate friends were present. Dr. and Mrs. Macrum are making a tour of the Sound cities, and on their return will be at home at the Hotel Portland, after June 25.

On Wednesday evening, at the Church of the Redeemer, Pendleton, Or., Miss Mabel Nye, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nye, was married to Mr. Lachlan Macrum, of Eugene, by Rev. W. E. Forstner officiating. The church was very prettily decorated, and before the hour appointed for the ceremony the edifice was crowded by friends. As the wedding party reached the church Miss Jessie Hartman struck up the wedding march. The two ushers, E. P. Dodd and Fred Lampkin, proceeded up the aisle, followed by the maid of honor, Miss Eva Switzer and the bridesmaid, Miss Edna Thompson and Miss Nellie Cameron. Then came the bride on the arm of her father. In the meantime, the bridegroom and best man, Mr. Clarke, had reached the altar and stood ready to receive the bride at the altar steps. The ring service of the Episcopal Church was read. The bride wore white organdie in train, with veil and orange blossoms, and carried a large bouquet of bride roses.

ABOUT YOUR HALL

"THE INDEX TO THE HOME" Has it had its touch of Spring to vie with the beauty of your lawn? Your visitor's first impression of your home is gained in your hallway. May we suggest that we have some really excellent furniture that would grace and embellish any hall? This week, all the week, we apply SPECIAL REDUCED PRICES to everything in our house in the way of Hall Furniture.

A HALL TREE

Like this central one, of finest quartered oak, rubbed and polished of extra generous size, with French plate mirror, heavy bronze hooks, umbrella, hat and cane holder and drip pan, special $29.25

Another style $31.50
Yet another 24.50
One down to 16.50
And lower yet 10.50
All special reduced prices good for the week.

A HALL SEAT

In solid oak, elegant in design, more pleasing in effect in some halls than a tall tree; we quote special at $22.50
Another one at $15.50
And others somewhat lower.

MIRRORS TO MATCH

If your choice so elects and others in wealth of variety in finest solid polished oak—No shams should ever find lodgment in a hallway, but ever the best foot should be put foremost. Our special prices will bring them down to

$7.70, $8.10
$9.90, $10.80

Hall and Stair Carpets

ON SPECIAL SALE DURING THE WEEK

HOME FURNISHERS. I. GEVURTZ & SONS 173-175 First St., 219-227 Yamhill St.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids were blue, with large picture hats. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the Nye home on Water street, and the young couple left on the night train for their home in Tacoma.

Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Dorris, in Eugene, Dr. Charles Albert Macrum, of Portland, and Miss Stella Pitt Dorris, were married in the presence of a large number of friends. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. E. Loveridge of St. Mary's Episcopal Church. The house was elaborately decorated with the choicest foliage of the season. Promptly at the appointed hour the parties took their positions under a beautiful bower and on a rug of white roses. The bride was attended by Miss Carrie Friendly as bridesmaid and Miss Emma Thompson as matron of honor. The groom was attended by Mr. B. Beckman, of Portland, and Mrs. Charles McNary, of Salem, presided at the piano. After the ceremony an elaborate wedding dinner was served in the dining room. Besides many friends and relatives in the hall, the following guests from other points were present: Colonel Tucker, B. B. Beckman, Fred Davis, Misses Doris Clark and Henrietta Bauer, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brodough, of Portland; Mrs. Dr. Byrd and Mrs. Charles McNary, of Salem.

Percy M. Morse and Miss Margaret Godfrey were married on Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Rev. Dr. Edgar P. Hill performed the ceremony. The decorations were of La France and bride roses and marguerites. The house was lighted with very pretty effect, with a great many candles. Miss Victor played the wedding march and after the ceremony sang "O, Promise Me." Miss Helen Godfrey, the bride's sister, was maid of honor, and Miss Grace Woodward was bridesmaid. The groom was attended by George Godfrey and Fred Godfrey. The bride wore an exquisite gown of white chiffon and carried marguerites. She wore her mother's wedding veil, a treasured heirloom of several generations. Mr. and Mrs. Morse will be at home after July 10, at 244 Webster street.

At high noon Wednesday in Eugene the wedding ceremony uniting Mr. Frank Morrell and Miss La Verne Long as husband and wife was pronounced at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Strong Long. Rev. J. S. McCallum conducted the ceremony, which was attended by but a few invited guests. Mr. Morrell is employed by the Great Northern Railroad Company, with headquarters in Chicago, where the happy couple will reside. The bride is one of Eugene's popular young ladies, and leaves a host of friends in that city. They left Wednesday afternoon for Chicago, intending to stop at various points on the way.

Mr. I. D. Larimer, of Springfield, and Miss Edith Vincent, of Eugene, were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's brother, W. H. Vincent, Rev. Charles F. Woodward, of the Presbyterian Church, officiating. The wedding was a quiet one, only the intimate friends and relatives of the couple being present, but was nevertheless one of much interest to a large number of friends in the city, who wish them all happiness in their travels. Following the ceremony a delightful wedding banquet was given. Mr. and Mrs. Larimer will reside in Springfield.

The wedding of Miss Carrie E. White to Dr. W. W. Walker, which occurred here Wednesday night, was a select affair, only a few intimate friends and relatives being present. Miss White, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. White, of this city, has been prominent in social and musical affairs, while Dr. Walker is a local dentist. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents, Rev. W. G. Connel officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Walker left for San Francisco on Wednesday night's train. After visiting California points of interest Dr. and Mrs. Walker will return to make their home in Grant's Pass.

Among the week's weddings one of the prettiest was the marriage of H. W. McNamara to Miss Minnie Lynch. Father McDevitt performed the marriage ceremony. Mr. Miley was best man and Miss Hattie Smithson was bridesmaid. The bride wore a beautiful gown of point d'esprit over white tulle and carried bride roses. An elaborate wedding reception was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. McNamara on Wednesday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Smith. Mr. and Mrs. McNamara will be at home after June 20 at 426 Twelfth street.

There was a very pretty wedding at the home of the bride's mother, Hattie Hill, Or., on June 12. The contracting parties were B. E. Rees, of Walla Walla County, Washington, a graduate nurse of the Portland Sanitarium, and Miss Dollie Folkner, a member of the 1903 class of nurses of this same institution. The happy couple were joined in holy wedlock by Elder F. M. Burg, of this city. After a stay of a few weeks at Walla Walla, Mr. and Mrs. Rees will sail for Japan, where they will follow their profession.

Thursday evening, June 11, at the home of the bride's mother at McMinnville, Mrs. Fanny Roberts, Miss Osa Roberts and John R. Adams were united in marriage by President H. L. Boardman. Only very near friends were present. Both are very well known and exceedingly popular.

Wednesday morning, at 11 o'clock, at the residence of the archbishop, Rev. F. Kennedy officiating, H. D. McDonald and Miss Beatrice Edwards, of Knapville, Lewis County, Wash., were married. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the residence of a sister of the groom, Mrs. M. H. O'Connor, 25 Tillamook street. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will spend four days at Long Beach before leaving for their home in Washington.

At Vancouver, Wash., Saturday, June 6, in the pastor's study of the Presbyterian young people of McMinnville. Miss Rob- has resided here from her childhood. Mr. Adams is the oldest son of the late John F. Adams. Mr. and Mrs. Adams left on the early train Friday morning for their home in Adams.

George C. Hutton and Miss Sadie Agnes Foley were married on the morning of Wednesday, June 3, at the cathedral, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Father Kennedy. The attendants were M. A. Aldrich, the bride's father, Miss Geraldine Foley. At the completion of the ceremony the party drove to the bride's former home, where a delightful wedding breakfast was served. The young couple have taken up their residence at 451 Salmon street.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martin, at South Mount Taber, June 8, at 8:30 P. M., when Albert Perry Vail and Miss Clara Martin were married. Rev. S. E. Memminger performed the ceremony. The bride was very prettily gowned in white, and the rooms were decorated with roses. Many beautiful presents were received. After the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served.

Wednesday morning, at 11 o'clock, at the residence of the archbishop, Rev. F. Kennedy officiating, H. D. McDonald and Miss Beatrice Edwards, of Knapville, Lewis County, Wash., were married. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the residence of a sister of the groom, Mrs. M. H. O'Connor, 25 Tillamook street. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will spend four days at Long Beach before leaving for their home in Washington.

At Vancouver, Wash., Saturday, June 6, in the pastor's study of the Presbyterian

FURS CLOAKS AND SUITS

Silverfield's

283-285 MORRISON STREET

Extraordinary Reductions on Pedestrian Skirts

A special line of the popular Pedestrian Skirts, made in the latest mixed materials, in the season's best designs—regular $5.50 values—

Monday Only $3.65

A line of odds and ends in Shirts, waists, remarkable values to close out—

Monday Only 35c

Scientific Storage of Fur Garments Now is the time to put your fur garments away for the Summer. We have the latest facilities for the care of Furs. Charges are most reasonable.