father. In the center of the room where the ceremony was performed they were met by the groom and his best man, Mr. Samuel J. Young, of Portland.

The very handsome bride wore a gown of white tulle and carried a large bouquet of white roses. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a sword.

The mother of the bride wore a gown of pale gray crepe and real lace.

After a dainty wedding supper, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison left for a trip to California, which will terminate in Los Angeles, their future home.

The bride is well known in Portland and San Francisco, where she is very popular in the younger society sets. The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful gifts and telegrams of congratulation.

Lewis-McBoyle.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening, June 17, at St. Stephen's Church, San Francisco, when Miss Mary Lucile McBoyle and Frank Hagen Lewis, of this city, were married. The color scheme was pink and white, and very artistically carried out by the friends of the bride. At 2:30 the bride entered on the arm of her father, Miss A. Belle McBoyle was maid of honor. Her gown was of pink crepe and white lace with antique lace. The bridesmaids were Miss Mabel Church and Miss Carolyn Hewson. Their gowns were of soft white tulle, and in their hair they wore wreaths of pink baby roses. They carried pink bouquets. A very pretty feature was the little flower girls, Misses Vera and Maud Sloan, and Miss Dorcas Hutchins of Honolulu. Their dresses were white with pink dots and pink ribbons. They carried baskets of pink rose petals, which were strewn along the path of the happy couple. Dr. Homer L. Keeney, of the city, acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Balch and Dr. H. E. Alderson were ushers. The bride's gown was white crepe with duchesse lace and pearl trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of white Canterbury bells. The groom is a popular young business man of this city. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride. They were the recipients of many beautiful presents.

Townsend-Jones.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth E. Jones at Independence at high noon June 17 when her daughter Hattie was united in marriage to Mr. George W. Townsend, of this city. Rev. E. J. Thompson performed the ceremony which was very impressive, and was solemnized in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends. The bride wore a gown of white tulle and carried a bouquet of white roses. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a sword. The bridesmaids were Misses Mary and Helen Jones. The ushers were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Balch and Dr. H. E. Alderson. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride. They were the recipients of many beautiful presents.
