

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd celebrated their eighth wedding anniversary, and Dr. and Mrs. Edgar P. Hill, whose crys-Dr. and Mrs. Edgar F. Rill, whose trial anniversary came on Friday night, were given a delightful party by the members of Dr. Hill's congregation. A pleasant hanquet was held at the Young Women's Christian Association on Friday night by the "Blues," in honor of the "Reds," two divisions of the association Pass were used in the table decorations. The ceiling was covered with sliver myrwho have been holding a spirited membership contest.

The engagement of E. H. Sothern at the Marquam on Friday and Saturday was the occasion of many theater parties. Among those who entertained with box parties were: Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Charlton, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Linn, Frank Dekam, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Downing, and Mrs. L. Therkelson, in whose party were ber daughter, Miss Hazel Therkelson, who has just returned from California, and Mrs. Cleveland Rockwell,

Mrs. P. J. Mann gave a delightful breakfast on Wednesday at her home on South Third street. The table decorations were in red and were very pretty. Mrs. Mann's guests were Mrs. Edgar P. Hill, Mrs. D. P. Thompson, Mrs. C. A. Dolph, Mrs. Elijah Corbett, Mrs. I. Van Duyn, Mrs. Curry, Mrs. J. H. Woodward, Mrs. Samuel T. Lockwood, Mrs. Lockwood, of Pasadena, Mrs. John Forsyth, of San Francisco, Mrs. E. P. Mossman, Mrs. George Bates, Mrs. John A. Martin, Madame von Bolton, Miss Edith Nicholson, Mrs. Port, of California, Mrs. John

Miss Katherine Upsen Taft has been in town the past week, renewing acquaintances. Miss Taft will be remembered as the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Taft, who lived in Portland for about ten years and moved to Spokane some three years ago. She is now a very successful teacher of art in Brunot Hall, an Episcopal school for girls, at Spokane,

The annual installation of officers of the Portland Women's Club was held yes-terday, in the Selling-Hirsch building. After the installation, at which the re-tiring president, Mrs. Abigail Scott Duni-way, presided in her usual gractous man-ner, the club women held a reception.

The club's guests at the reception were the members of the City Federation of Women's Clubs, of which Mrs. Ross F. Hoyt is president. Wilder's orchestra played delightfully during the hours of played delightfully during the hours of the reception, and delicious ices and punch were served by the social committee, of which Mrs. George Cutting Flanders is chairman. The table had a very pretty decoration of La France roses. Mrs. Gile served ices and Mrs. Harry M. Cake pre-sided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Gile and Mrs. Cake were assisted in serving the guests by Mrs. James P. Moffett, Mrs. Webb, Mrs. W. H. Fear, Mrs. I. D. Boyer, Mrs. Adam Tilizer and Mrs. Hathaway. Mrs. Adam Tilper and Mrs. Hathaway.

One of the most delightful home enter-tainments of the week was given by Mrs. W. H. Jordan on Saturday night in honor umbine flags and banners. The follow James Jackson, Miss Jackson, Major and Mrs. W. W. Waterbury, Major and Mrs. J. M. Murphy, Captain and Mrs. George W. Mciver, Seventh United States In-fantry; Mr. Andrew Buchanan, Mr. J. W. Mr. J. W. White and Mise Virginia White, of Oak-land, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Strong, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Taylor, Jr., Mr. R. J. Dierke, Mr. Seymour, of Detroit, Mich.; Miss Belle McKee, Miss Nannie Barker, Mr. George Warren, Mr. Berkeley Klein, Mr. W. H. Jordan, Jr.

Miss Cenith Robertson and Miss Bella tobertson entertained delightfully on Wednesday evening, in honor of their sis-ter, Mrs John Campbell, who will leave tomorrow for Seattle. The house decorawere of red carnations and ferns. and the rooms were lighted with Japanese lanterns. After enjoying a pleasant game of whist and an informal programme of music and readings, centributed by Mrs. Fletcher Linn and Frank B. Riley, a dainty supper was ser delightful outdoor luncheon on Wednesday, at the golf links. The guests were: Mrs. Zera Snow, Mrs. Walter J. Burns, Mrs. George Good, Mrs. Allen Lewis, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Washburn, Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mrs. W. C. Langfitt, Mrs. C. J. Reed, Mrs. Robert Lewis, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. Holt Wilson, Mrs. Mather, Mrs. Frank Hart, Mrs. Frank Vipcant & Mrs. Frank Miss Martha Hoyt entertained with a Vincent du Mard, Mrs. Frederick Hopkins Miss Salile Lewis and Miss Williams.

A charming garden party was given by Mrs. J. N. Teal on Thursday afternoon, In honor of her sister, Miss Genevieve Thompson, who is at home for the Summer vacation. About 60 invitations were sent and during the afternoon the pretty lawn of the Teal residence had quite the appearance of "a rosebud garden of girls." pretty Summer gowns of the guests making a dainty picture against a ground of rose-twined treilises.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Goode gave a the-ter party at the Marquam Friday night to see Sothern in "If I Were King." The guests were entertained at supper after the theater in the grillroom of the Hotel Portland. Those in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd. Mr. and Mrs. Kollock, Mr. and Mrs. Goode, Miss von Destinon and Mr. Du Flon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd entertained at an exquisitely appointed and delightful dinner on Tuesday evening. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Burns, Mr. und Mrs. Rich-ard Kochler, Miss Williams, Miss Hen-rietta Falling, C. E. S. Wood and N. E.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Baptist Church gave an enjoyable social in the church parier last Friday night, to mark the close of their work for the Summer season. The pariors were prettily decorated, and the programme was a very

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lutke celebrated

207 Eleventh street. The house was very claborately and beautifully decorated. The reception hall was in tones of red, roses, sweet peas and ferns, in Indian baskets hung in every niche and corner. In the front parlor, which was in white and green, white carnations, Japanese Willies, and sweet the flowers. and green, white carnations, Japanese illilies and awest peas were the flowers used. In the front hay window where the host and hostess received their guests, the window draperies were garlanded with smilax; in the center of the arch was a huge wedding bell hung with white ribbons, on the sides being the figures "1875-1800" (silver letters). All was liberally sprinkled with diamond dust, producing a lovely and appropriate effect. The back parlor was a lovely bower of La France and Caroline Testout roses. The sitting-room was very attractive in soft tones of yellow. In the dining-room, green preyellow. In the dining-room, green pre-dominated. Here the gifts, which were numerous and beautiful, were displayed, and punch served at the pleasure of the guests. The dining-room on the ground tle and clematis. The side walls were hung with large mirrors and garlanded with cedar boughs, the whole producing a garden of woodland effect. Mrs. A. G.
Bachrodt, assisted by Miss Hector, had charge of the supper, assisted by ten young ladies. The place cards were done in pen and ink sketch, "A bridal pair" with silver border. Wilder's orchestra with silver border. Wilder's orchestra discoursed sweet and appropriate music during the entire evening. Those who responded to toasts were: Judge Cleland, J. M. Hodson and Mrs. M. B. Brooke. The young ladies who steisted in serving were: Misses Cleland, Ball, Banfield, Fritsch, Hadaway, Groat, Miller, Park, Miller, Watkins and Wickham,

One of the most delightful of the Summer receptions was given on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe and Mrs. S. B. Coe, assisted by Mrs. Dell Stuart and Mrs. S. W. Church.
Instead of being closed and gas lighted the house was open to the sun and air, and out on the veranda were placed numerous easy chairs, a couch drawd with merous easy chairs, a couch draped with gay Mexican serape, and small tea tables. There were roses everywhere, outside and in, and the entire effect of the decorations in, and the entire effect of the decorations was exceedingly pretty.

In the hall the flowers were red roses, and in one corner were stationed Wilder's orchestra, which played at intervals all afternoon. The parlor decorations were of marguerites, scarlet popples and sweet brier. The dining-room, which was especially admired, was decorated by Miss Anna Stuart La Prance roses and systems. Anna Stuart La France roses and syringa blossoms were in jars and Indian baskets on the sideboards and walls. On the table was a pretty combination, La France roses, pink satin ribbon and smilax. Ropes of smilax were carried from the chandeller to the corner of the table, and a wreath of smilax surrounded an ex-quisitely embroidered centerplece in the center of which was placed a cut-glass vase of La France roses.

Mrs. H. W. Coe wore a very beautiful gown of white crepe, elaborately trimmed with chiffon and lace medallions. Mrs. S. B. Coe wore a dainty gown of black gren-adine, with medallions of black lace. At the tea table Mrs. William L. Wood. Mrs. C. U. Gantenbein, Mrs. Charles Warrens and Mrs. James F. Ewing presided, as-sisted by Mss Parker, Miss George, Miss Anna Stuart, Mise Mary Wells, Miss Lutie Cake.

Punch was served by Miss Anwyld Jones and Miss Jessie George.

A delightful surprise party was ten-dered Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Roward at their residence, on Monday evening, the occa-sion being their wooden wedding anniversary. Many beautiful and appropriate presents were received. Progressive whist occupied the earlier part of the evening, while the latter part

W. H. Jordan on Saturday night in honor of Col. Jordan's 65th birthday anniversary. The comfortable Jordan residence on Williamette Heights was tastefully decorated for the affair with madenhair ferns, columbine fages and hanners. The follow.

W. M. Smith, Miss Cline and Mr. Stewart. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs A. L. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cline, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Kellogg, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stuart. Miss Treber, Miss May Howard, Miss Cline, the Misses Corinna and Lavinna Cline, Victor Smith, Chester Smith and Master Cecil Howard.

The Native Daughters were entertained Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Jennings-Miller, at Jennings' Landing, on the Willamette. The party, after a de-lightful trip on the steamer Leona, was served with a delicious luncheon under the grape arbor overlooking the river, the table being beautifully decorated. the table being beautifully decorated. After spending a pleasant afternoon the party returned on the boat, making a special trip to view the Williamette Falls, which they all enjoyed. The following guests were present: Mesdames E. E. Morgan, T. I. Richards, C. M. McRae, R. M. Drake, C. F. Smith, A. Tilser, A. M. Brown, E. M. Christensen, C. L. Bergevin, G. R. Struble, J. E. Cuillson, Misses Fola Richards, Subil Rooms, Events, S. Lenniers. Richards, Sybil Brown, Bronte S. Jennings and Master R. C. Smith.

One of the most charming of lawn par-One of the most charming of lawn par-ties was given last Thursday evening by the Misses Margaret and Eleanor Mann, at their home, Midway. The lawn was gay with Chinese lanterns. Marguerites and forms were used in profusion. The puriors were also exquisitely decorated with long-stemmed La France rosebuds and Indian baskets, filled with Marguer-ties. The young ladies were all it delicts. ites. The young ladies were all in dainty Summer gowns and the picture was an exceedingly pleasing one. There were games and music until a late hour, when delicious refreshments were served at tete-a-tete tables. The hostesses were tete-a-tete tables. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. D. J. McGill and Mrs.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Congregational Church beld a pleas-ant picnic on Tuesday in a grove adjoin-ing the residence of Mrs. T. H. Brinson, ing the residence of Mrs. T. H. Brinson, on the Mount Scott car line. After an interesting programme a dainty luncheon was served. The officers of the society, who were re-elected for the year, are as follows: President, Mrs. C. Bockwood and Mrs. T. H. Brinson; secretary, Mrs. C. P. Zigier; secretary of young people's work, Mrs. Gare fingular secretary. Miss Gage; finacinal secretary, Mrs. F. E.

The Alumni Association of the Portland The Alumni Association of the Portland High School entertained the June class on Thursday night, with a jolly trolley party on the Oregon City electric line. About 200 young people made the trip to Canemah Park, where dancing in the big pavilion was greatly enjoyed. Dr. Robert F. Wendling, whose term of office as president of the association has just ended, made a graceful speech of welcome to the June graduates. Lloyd Magnus, president of the June class responded, expressing pleasure in the entertainment and in membership in the association.

membership in the association. Miss Mae Pferdner gave a very pleas-ant whiat party on Monday evening, June III, the occasion being her 25th birthday. EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

About 30 guests were present, most of them members of Portland Circle, No. 55, Women of Woodcraft, of which Miss and Mrs. Robert Lutke celebrated a 25th anniversary of their wedding turday evening, June 30, at their home, some silver too set was presented to the ostess by her friends. Afterward light afreshments were served. The first prizes ere won by Mrs. Helen Hickman and W. Goertz, and the consolation prizes y Mr. W. Hoemer and Mrs. W. A. Grif-

Professor and Mrs. I. W. Pratt tendered a reception to Miss Porter and the members of the June graduating class. Failing School, on Tueeday evening, from 7 to 3. The class consisted of 46 members, and all were present. The house was very artistically decorated with ferns and flowers, and was fragrant with the scent of sweet peas and La France roses, making it a very pleasant place to spend a warm Summer evening. Mrs. Pratt was assisted in receiving by her daughter, Miss Gertrude Pratt.

Among the card parties given last week, one of the prettiest was the one given by Mrs. Herbert Holman, on Thursday, in honor of her sister, Mrs. Crellift, of Oakland, Cal., La France, Caroline Testout, Crimson Rambier and Paul Neyron roses were used on the decorations. Mrs. Buffum received the first prize, Mrs. William Lawrence the second, and Mrs. John Minto the consolation. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. E. L. Thompson, Mrs. A. L. Pease and Miss Frances Fuller. Pease and Miss Frances Fuller.

On Wednesday evening the young la-dies interested in the Morris Home for Consumptives had a sale of fancy ar-ticles for the fund, and quite a neat sum was realized. They have now #70 in the bank on interest. It is hoped that all friends will take an interest is this all friends will take an interest in this needed home for those afflicted with that most pitiable of all diseases. It is hoped that some time a donation of a few acres of land in some high, dry part of the city will be made for the site of the proposed institution.

The Omega Nu Sorority held the last initiation of the school term Friday even-ing. Those initiated were popular young women of the High School. After the initiation a delicious cherry banquet was served at the home of the Misses Walrath. Many toasts were given. Those initiated were Miss Cara Mastick, Miss Fannie Potter, Miss Carrie Holmes, Miss Daisy Dean and Miss Helen Hudson. The So-rority now has a membership of 24 young

WEDDINGS. Jones-Price.

On Wednesday, June 24, at 12 o'clock noon, Miss Edna L. Price and Mr. S. H. Jones were married at the First Presby-terian Church in Salem, Or. Rev. H. A. Ketchum, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony. The church was very elab-orately decorated for the occasion by the many admiring friends of the bride. From each of the chandellers to the columns on the sides of the room hung garlands of ivy and on the rostrum were many beautiful potted plants. Over the altar hung a garland of roses and under this a true lovers' knot of white tulls. On either side hung brass kettles filled with white syringus. As the clock struck the hour of 12, Mrs. F. A. Wiggins sang 'Thou art Like Unto a Flower,' at the close of which Miss Elma Weller played Lohengrin's wedding march. From the door beside the rostrum Rev. Mr. Ketchum entered the room followed by the group at tered the room, followed by the groom, at-tended by Rev. W. F. Shields, of Med-ford, as best man. Almost at the same moment, Miss Miriam Huelat, maid of honor, entered the church from the oppo-site side and was followed by the bride, leaning upon the arm of her uncle, Jus-tice Charles E. Wolverton. The minister took his position in front of the reserver. took his position in front of the rostrum took his position in front of the rostrum and slowly the two parties approached until the bride and groom met before him. The ceremony was performed in accordance with the usual ritualistic service. During the ceremony Miss Weller played "O Promise Me."

The bride work a sown of champagne

The bride wore a gown of champagne rolle, trimmed in point de alencon lace. She wore a white chiffon hat, trimmed with a single white ostrich plume, and hostess by her friends. Afterward light refreshments were served. The first prizes were won by Mrs. Helen Hickman and J. W. Goertz, and the consolation prizes by Mr. W. Hoemer and Mrs. W. A. Griffin.

Mrs. F. R. Stokes gave an elaborate afternoon entertainment on Tuesday in honor of Mise Myra Yocum, who is to be married to Mr. Alexander S. Pattulo on Tuesday. The floral decorations of the house were very beautiful. At the game of cinch, which was played during the early part of the afternoon, the prizes were won by Mrs. Hathaway, Miss Higgins and Miss Yocum. Assisting Mrs. Stokes in entertaining were Mrs. C. R. Thompson, of Astoria; Miss J. H. Smith, of Astoria, and Miss Thera Yocum.

Professor and Mrs. I. W. Pratt tendered a reception to Miss Porter and the members of the June graduating class. Falling School, on Tuesday evening, from the control of the prize and palms. The presents were numbers for the June graduating class. Falling School, on Tuesday evening, from the control of the prize and palms. The presents were numbers for the June graduating class. Falling School, on Tuesday evening, from the control of the prize and palms. The presents were numbers for the June graduating class. Falling School, on Tuesday evening, from the control of the prize and palms. The presents were numbers for the June graduating class. Falling School, on Tuesday evening, from the control of the prize and palms. The presents were numbers for the June graduating class. keeping, was decorated with Oregon grape, roses and palms. The presents were nu-merous and exceedingly beautiful, and many telegrams of congratulation were

Mrs. N. D. Singleton, sister of the bride, made a charming hostess during the day, receiving in a gown of light blue silk with land, and Mrs. Lillis is a Douglas County girl and a member of a well-known pio-neer family. They both enjoy a wide circle of acquaintances and friends throughout the state. They will be at home to their

A charming clover welding took place at the farmhouse of Mr. and Mrs. Alex-ander Thompson in the Waldo Hills, at noon on the last Wednesday in June. On noon on the last Wednesday in June. On that day two of their daughters were married—Roxana to Dr. Daniel G. Cfark, of Silverton, and Orla to Arthur J. Stimpson, of Portland. The ceremonies were performed by Rev. Mr. Evans, of California, and Rev. Mr. Zercher, of Salem, under the trees in a field of blossoming clover, the vows being taken under a large four-leaved clover suspended from overhandging branches. Just before the arrival of the bridal party vocal solos were sung, "The Four-Leaved Clover," by Miss Leila Cavanaugh, and "Clover Blossoms," by Mr. Harris Thompson. The bridal procession marched from the house white satin ribbon to the rustic altar down the avenue to the music of Wagner's over pink, carrying shower bouquets of clover blossoms, while two little flower girls scattered rose petals in their path. After the ceremony and congratulations a delicious luncheon was served to the assembled friends. Then Mr. and Mrs. Clark started to their home in Silverton and Mr. and Mrs. Stimpson to Eastern Occason where they will remain a short Oregon where they will remain a short time and then return to Portland. The brides' bouquets were caught by Miss Lella Cavanaugh and Miss Lida Thompson. The rings were secured by Miss Lida Thompson and Miss Ethel Thompson.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Stevenson, 230 East Ninth street, at 5 o'clock on Wednesday, June 24, when their daughter, Myrtelle, was united in marriage to Mr. Luke F. Knowiton, agent for the Southern Pacific at Albany.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. W. Plummer, of the First Evangelical Church, in the presence of relatives and intimate friends.

intimate friends.

Before the entrance of the bridal party, Miss Nettie M. Greer sang "Call Me Thine Own," followed by the wedding march, played by Miss Jessie Clopton.

The bride was given away by her father. She was attired in a beautiful gown of cream etamine, and were a pearl necklace, gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of Bride roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Iva Stevenson and Miss Letha Stevenson, cousin and sister of the bride. The maid of honor was Miss Della Withey. Their gowns were of white or. carried in her hand a shower bouquet of Withey. Their gowns were of white or-

WEDDED AT ST. LAWRENCE CHURCH WEDNESDAY.

bride's roses. The maid of honor was gandle, and they carried arm bouquets gowned in landsdowne, trimmed in lace, and wore a white picture hat. She carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations.
Mrs. Wolverton, aunt of the bride, wore a gown of gray poplin de sole, trimmed in embroidered chiffon applique, and carried a bouquet of lavender sweet peas.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of Justice and Mrs. Wol-verton, on Chemeketa street, to which only the immediate friends and relatives were invited. As the guests were leaving the bride's bouquet was thrown and was caught by Miss Vida Maston, of Albany. The ring fell to Miss Miriam Huelat. On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Jones left for San Francisco and other California points, where they will visit for neveral weeks. The bride is a niece of Justice and Mrs. Charles E. Wolverton, with whom she has made her home most of her life. She has made her nome most of her life. She is well known in Albany, where she formerly resided, and has a large circle of friends in Salem. Her popularity was well attested by the large number of beautiful and costly gifts which were presented to her on the day of her wedding. The street has been for the next five years. groom has been for the past five years the esteemed pastor of the First Presby-terian Church in Jacksonville, Or.

Lillis-Drain. At St. Lawrence Church, Wednesday morning, June 24, Mr. William P. Lillis, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Lillis, and Miss Belva Agnes Drain, daughter of the late Hon. and Mrs. John C. Drain, of Drain, were married. Promptly at $ o'clock the groom, with his brother, Mr. M. E. Isliis, groom, with his brother, Mr. M. E. Idilis, met the bride, who entered on the arm of her brother, Mr. O. D. Drain, at the altar rail, and the marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father J. C. Hughes, followed by the nuptials mass, the services being very beautiful and deeply impressive. Miss Lela Drain, as bridesmaid, wearing light blue slik organdle, and Miss Minnie Hand, as flower girl, wearing pink of pink carnations and roses. Mr. Chester Stevenson, brother of the bride, acted as best man. The pariors were decorated with ferns and wild syringa blossoms. After congratulations, dainty refresh-

Mr. and Mrs. Knowlton left for an extended trip to the South. They will be at home to their friends after July 25, at Albany. They were the recipients many beautiful gifts and telegrams

Gordon-Simmons.

Tuesday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Emily Hovey, in Eugena, Mr. Charles Arthur Burden and Miss Carrie May Hovey were married by the Rev. D. E. Loveridge, of the Epis-One of the prettiest of the June weddings was that of Miss Edith L. Simby the Rev. D. El. Loveridge, of the Episcopal Church, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The house was tastefully decorated with vines, ferns, paims and cut flowers. Promptly at $30 o'clock Miss Mary McCornack, at the piano, began the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, and the contracting parties took their position under a beautiful bower of vines and flowers and on a bed of roses. The bride was attended by Misses Eva Roach, of Portland; Stella Robinson, Ada Hendricks and Louise Yoran, as bridesmald, and Esther Humphrey, as flower girl. The groom was attended by Mr. F. A. Burden, of San Francisco. The bride was charming in a gown of white crepe de chine chiffon over taffeta silk, en traine, and veil caught in place with orange blossoms. She carmons and Mr. Ernest G. Gordon, which took place on the lawn at the residence of the bride's father, on Denver avenue, Portland, on Wednesday evening. June M. Rev. Dr. J. V. Milligan performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The number of relatives and friends. The bridal party was preceded across the lawn by Bela Lawrence and Berta Smedley, ecattering flowers in the way, to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Georgia Smedley. Miss Jeanette Fraser was bridesmald, and the groom was attended by Mr. Ernest Simmons, brother of the bride. Elaborate refresh-ments were served in the tastefully decoments were served in the tastefully deco-rated dining-room. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon will be at home after July 10, at 706 Girard street, University Park.

Dearborn-Brown.

St. Mary's Episcopal Church, of Eugene, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday evening, when Mr. Richard Harold Dearborn and Miss Isabel Brown, both of Eugene, were united in marriage. The church had been beautifully decorated for the occasion with flowers and ferns. Promptly at 8 o'clock the strains of Mendelssohn's 'Wedding March' were heard from the organ, and the bridal party entered the church, which was well filled with relatives and friends.

GREAT SUMMER SALE

CARPETS, All

Grades at Bargain Prices.

Carpet Rugs

1000 Ingrain Carpet

Samples, all wool,

yard long ..... 25c

In order to overcome the natural Summer duliness, we are offering every article in our immense establishment at an IMMENSE SAVING IN PRICE. Visit our immense establishment and get our WONDERFUL BARGAIN PRICES. It will pay both you and us.

Sitka

Refrigerator

Absolutely the most perfect made, quarter reduction in price.

A GREAT ROLL TOP

3-ft. Desk, reg. $20.00, sale $15.00 | 3.6 Desk, reg. $27.50, sale $20 4-ft. Desk, reg. $30.00, sale $22.50 | 5 ft. Desk, reg. $35, sale $25

Conover

Sewing Machines

Drop head, 10-year

any $60 machine . $20

173-175 FIRST. 219-227 YAMHILL

guarantee, equal

Eclipse Steel Range

and High Closet, warranted to give perfect satisfaction and to wear 15 yrs....$27.50

Prices and

Quality Talk

If you need a roll top deak now or advantage of these cut to the core

These desks are all made of the best selected Golden Oak, polished, finish. The automatic drawer locks are thrown open by an iron har. The top rolls easy and never binds or sticks. These desks are thoroughly high grade and warranted.

Sideboards

Quartered, polished

golden oak, regular

$35, special .....$20

Lace

Curt'ns

partment is full of dainty effects

great sale

Matting

Fine linen

warp mat-

tings, carterns-yd.

25c

Port'res

All the newest styles and prettiest colorings sale prices.

at great

The Home

prices.

Our Curtain de-

DANN ADJUSTABLE uo Larts The easy

$7.50

Sets

60 pieces, decorated

gold band, regular

$12, sale

$6.29

Blizzard

ICE EREAM

FREEZERS

The quickest freezer

2-qt..$1.25 3-qt..$1.55 4-qt...$1.75

The two usbers, Mr. H. W. Thompson and Mr. W. L. Whittlesey, proceeded up the aisle, followed by Miss Minnie Mc-

Claine and Miss Rose Hemberson, as Claine and Miss Rose Hemberson, as bridesmaids, and Miss Ada Hendricks, as maid of honor. The bride followed on the arm of her father. The bridegroom and best man, Mr. Chester G. Murphy, received the bride at the altar steps. The ring service of the Episcopal Church was read by Rev. D. E. Loveridge. The bride wore an imported gown of white crepe de chine, elaborately trimmed with handmade lace, and wore a veil. After the ceremony the bridal party was driven to the home of the bride's father, where a sumptious repeat was served to the relasumptious repast was served to the rela-tives and intimate friends of the bride and grooms. The happy couple departed the next morning for the mountains, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will be at home to their friends after September 15, at their home, 107 West Sixth street, Eugene, Or.

Anderson-Anderson.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, 945 Borthwick street, Wednesday evening, was solemnized the marriage of their daughter, Anna, to Carl S. Anderson, of Ispheming, Mich., Rev. G. O. Berglund officiating. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and refresh-ments were served. To the strains of the wedding march, played by the bride's youngest sister, Elizabeth Anderson, the bridal procession entered, led by the ushers, Mr. Gus Anderson and Mr. Ernest ushers, Mr. Gus Anderson and Mr. Ernest Bodin. The bridesmaids, Miss Sophia Anderson, sister of the bride, and her couein, Miss Hannah Johnson, of Chi-cago, were followed by the maid of honor, Miss Marie Anderson, the bride's sister. Little Miss Frances Johnson was flower girl. The bride was given away by her futher, and the groom was attended by Mr. Walstrom. The bride was prettily gowned in white silk muli, with long yell fastened with orange blossoms. She carried long-stemmed Bride roses.

The maid of honor wore white organdle over blue, and carried rosebuds. The bridesmaids wore gowns of blue

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left the following Thursday on their wedding tour, and will be at home to friends after August Helser-Lang.

One of the most notable weddings of the

One of the most notable weedings of the season was celebrated on Wednesday, at $ o'clock, at the First Presbyterian Church. The occasion was the marriage of Miss Cora Lucille Lang, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Lang, to Mr. William P. Helser, of Council Bluffa, Ia. The beautiful church interior was very simply decorated with paims, and a single vase of exputation of the painting of the council of the c crated with paims, and a single vase of exquisite La France roses was placed upon the communion table. The ushers were Mr. Samuel B. Young and Mr. James Cook. Mr. John H. Keating was best man, and Miss Semele Groat was maid of honor. After the service, at which Dr. Edgar P. Hill, D. D., officiated, the bridal party and a few very intimate friends were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lang on Eversti street. The house and white organdie.

Burden-Hovey.

1, at Ispheming, Mich.

made-

black applique.

Mr. Lillis was born and raised in Portactual cost,

Thompson-Stimpson and Thompson-Clark.

$20.00 Dinner

bridal procession marched from the house down an avenue of evergreens and mar-querities and under an arch of Oregon grape crowned by true lovers' knots of There the grooms were in wating. Miss Josephine Hibbard, of Portland, and Miss Edna Ponie, of Salem, were bridesmads for Miss Boxana, while Dr. Clark was atfor Miss Roxana, while Dr. Clark was at-tended by Mr. Harris Thompson as best man. Miss Oria's bridesmalds were Miss Gertrude Ewing, of Portland, and Miss Frances Belnap, of Corvalits. Dr. E. W. Stimpson, of Tacoma, acted as best man for his brother. The brides, gowned alike in white slik mull en train with filmy veile, carrying bouquets of brides roses, looked very winsome as they marched weating march beautifully rendered by Miss Lelia Cavanaugh. They were pre-ceded by the bridesmalds attired in white

Knowlton-Stevenson.

Church, in the presence of relatives and

CLOAKS

I. GEVURTZ & SONS

283-285 MORRISON STREET

A Pre-Inventory Offering

On July 6 our Semi-Annual Inventory is taken, and this bargain offering is to clear the shelves, if possible, before that event takes place.

Splendid Shirtwaist Values

 Regular $1.50 waist
 .80.95 Regular $3.50 waist
 .82.56 Regular 4.00 waist
 .3.00 Regular 2.50 waist
 .1.70 Regular 5.00 waist
 .3.05 Regular 5.00 waist

 Regular 3.00 waist
 .2.15 Regular 6.00 waist
 .4.85

Wash-Skirt Values

Every $2 Wash Skirt, the latest styles and materials .....

best styles and fab-

Every $2.50 Wash Skirt, all this season's

Every $3.25 and $3.50 Wash Skirt, many exclusive styles and mate

Every Tallor Sult at Actual Cost.

white crepe de chine, trimmed in lace and applique. Her vell was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white carnations. Miss Bernice Hicks, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Charles Stewart acted as best man.

A SKIN OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREYER Mrs. Paul Oglibee played the wedding march and the bridal couple took their station under a huge bell of Oregon grape and white roses. Rev. Mr. Simpson, of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, performed the ring ceremony. After congratulations the wedded party repaired to the dining-room where a dainty luncheon was served. The house was beautifully decorated, the parlor effect being white and green and the dining-room pink and green. Mr. and Mrs. Ogilbee will be at home after June 24, at 688 Clinton street.

Hibbard-Davis.

One of the most pleasant events of the week took place Wednesday evening. June 24, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Davis, in Medford, Or., when their eldest and only daughter, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lang, on Everett street. The house was decorated in an artistic manner with marguerites. The bride, who has been very popular in Portland and will be greatly missed, were point d'esprit and carried bride roses. The bouquet was tied with white satin ribbons, with the ends finished with sprays of stephanotis. Miss Groat wore a dainty costume of rosebud dimity, with a pink and white hat, and carried pink carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Lang left on the $30 train for a tour of California, after which they will go to their home at Council Bluffs.

Burden-Hovey. Bertha, was united in marriage to Josiah Hibbard, Rev. T. L. Crandall, of First Baptist Church, performing the ceremony. The pleasant home was beautifully dec orated for the occasion and after con-gratulations the party retired to the dining room, which was sumptuously decorated with roses, where delicate refreshments

Many beautiful and useful presents were received. Only immediate relatives were present. The bride is one of Medford's most charming and accomplished young ladies, while the groom is a son of Mrs. E. M. Rose, of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Hibbard left Wednesday night for Sisson, Cal., where they will reside during the

The wedding of Miss Bertha Hoopen-garner daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. garner daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Hoopengarner, to Joseph M. Rieg, of Seattle, took place June M at the home of the bride's parents. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present at the cercmony, at which Rev. J. F. Ghormley officiated. The pariors were tastefully decorated with roses and sweet peas, and the dining-room with marguerites and ferns. The bride was charmingly attred in white slik organdle, with trimmings of ribbon and lace. She wore orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. She was attended by Miss Bertha L. Crounse as maid of honor, who was becomingly gowned in white organdle, and carried pink carnations. Mr. E. L. Hoopengarner, brother of the bride, acted as best man. After a trip to British Columbia cities Mr. and Mrs. Rieg will return to Seattle, which will be their future home.

McKellips-Hamilton. over tarrets sink, en traine, and wil caught in place with orange blossoms. She carried bride roses. After the ceremony refreshments were served in the diningroom. Mr. and Mrs. Burden left the next morning on their wedding tour, which will extend to Winnipeg, Canada, after which they will return and reside in Eugene.

McKellips-Hamilton,

The marriage of C. M. McKellips and Miss Oilve Hamilton was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Johnson in Corvallis Wednesiay evening. In the pariors a floral altar had been placed. At 3 o'clock the groom, accompanied by Dr. E. J. Thompson, the officiating clergyman, approached the altar. Following At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Harriet H. Hicks, Wednesday evening, June IV, occurred the wedding of her daughter, Ethel Frances, to Aifred S. Ogilbee. The bride wore a handsome dress of

The Saxe treatment for eccess and acne, The only method in the United States that other decreased on the decreased of the decreased of the wooderful art, and guarantee the removal of smallpox pittings, viriakies, birth marks, freckies and all other facial blemians. Seeing is believing. Come and sections demonstrations at my office, 417 Abington big. Hours, 19 A. M. to 6 P. M. MNE. GERTRUDE SAXE.

VON MEYERINCK SCHOOL of MUSIC

541 FULTON ST. SAN FRANCISCO

The largest and best-equipped school on the Pacific Coast, offering all the advantages of Eastern and European conservatories for a thorough musical education. Pupils prepared

STAFF OF TEACHERS:

VOICE CULTURE .. Mrs. Anra von Meyerinck PIANO, HARMONY, COMPOSITION .... Mr. Fred Zech, Jr. VIOLIN ......Mr. W. F. Zech LECTURER ...... Mrs. Mary Fairweather Special teachers for languages (German, Italian and French), Physical Culture, Elecution, Fencing and Stage Dancing.

SPECIAL SUMMER COURSE

FOR TEACHERS PROSPECTUS UPON APPLICATION.