

THE "DIFFERENT STORE"

OLDS, WORTMAN & KING

FIFTH & WASH-INGTON STS.

This Week Furnishes a Grand Climax

To the most successful Spring season this store ever saw. The entire store joins in one grand bargain acclaim for this week's wind-up of the great June sale. WE DO NOT ADVERTISE FOR FUN—Advertising costs like "fluffy" and we have neither time nor money to waste in a mere bombardment of words. People want the facts, and they are set forth here in the plainest possible manner. In simple but forcible words we tell you that NOW

We Must Close Out Our Spring and Summer Stocks Regardless of Costs, Values or Loss

And it is enough for you to know that this house never exaggerates or deceives in its statements, verbal or printed, to be sure that now indeed a golden opportunity awaits you here for money savings. No old stock from previous sales, but all new, fresh and desirable styles—strictly down-to-date merchandise at far below usual prices. We head the bargain news today with Glad Tidings of Our Annual Summer Sale of FOOTWEAR. The best and swiftest shoes in town are at Olds, Wortman & King's. That has been true all Summer, and the selling has passed all records. Now we are ready to reduce stocks—and to take any loss necessary to hasten the clearance. If we waited longer bargains would be less valuable to the wearers and the selling would be slow. The faster we can sell the goods, the less percentage of waste there is. READY! CHARGE! On the grandest Shoe bargains Portland ever knew. There will be no overcrowding—the daintiest little woman may pick and choose as comfortably as the "bargain fiend" the funny papers have created. We sell goods pleasantly, and rather than have counters overcrowded we move away goods not immediately needed and double the bargain space. This makes Olds, Wortman & King's the most comfortable store in the city, and now for the bargain price story. Divided into 15 lots and conveniently placed on a long counter in the rear center of the store, each lot plainly carded, you'll find as follows:

TALKING about the weather is a sign of mental emptiness. Stop it!

It's cold or hot or pleasant, wet or dry—entirely independent of any of us—and entirely and absolutely unchangeable by any of us.

There's something to do on every sort of a day—maybe to bail water out of the cellar if nothing else.

Summer is here, despite it all. Wheat has grown into a ripened crop not far south of us; we've had strawberries and the rest of the things. They grew. Why don't you?

Wonderful Hosiery Special

(First Floor)
A One-Day Sale—Monday Only

We have but a limited quantity, not more than enough for Monday selling—perhaps hardly enough to last all day, so we say COME EARLY FOR THESE. A lot of new, bright and handsome patterns ladies' hosiery—not an old pair in the lot—all fancies or black tops with fancy boots, also many of the popular openwork designs. Not a pair sold for less than 45c a pair, most of them were 65c, 75c and 90c—until sold out you may choose at, 29c

SPECIAL SALE OF ALBATROSS

(In dress goods section—first floor annex.)

All the popular shades included. This soft, stylish fabric, so much favored by women of good taste for the making of street and house gowns and waists, goes in the sale tomorrow in widths of 46 inches 75c values, at per 62c yard.

SILKS!

(First floor annex.)

Cloth of gold—an American-woven pongee, heavier than the Oriental weave, more body; white—no, not white, for the surface has the queer sheen that suggests a dash of gold stirred into the yarn. A fabric that will make up and wear most satisfactorily.

It's a pongee year—yes, for men, too. Look how pongee or linen-cloth is shown in the fine shirt!

This very great silk store was never so busy—and never so rich in stocks. Not pongees alone—the whole range of silken luxury. Business is practically doubling last year's record.

SILK EMBROIDERED DOT PONGEE—A very desirable line, new goods, 25 and 30 inches wide, value $1.50 yard, special this week at $1.09

Splendid showing checks in Louisiana and taffeta weaves, from the pin check to the large plaids.

Remember, we show at all times the best values in Taffeta Silks, crisp and lustrous silk that looks like silk, and wears like linen.

Special values in black Beau de Soie, for Monte Carlo coats, etc.

UNDERWEAR Everybody Needs

(First Floor)

Bought your real light underwear yet for the scorching hot days? Many folks wait until the mercury takes a high perch on the "bleachers" before they buy the thin underwear.

And stockings. Women's styles favor the open-work patterns, and black is most called for. Men's fancy socks are of lace like, and open-work styles are numerous.

Here are reasonable sorts of underwear and hosiery and boys' blouses.

Misses' Cream Cotton Union Suits, low neck, sleeveless, knee length. Values to 50c. Extra Special, suit, 19c

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR

Exceptional Values (Second Floor, Annex)

Trimmings varied enough to meet all demands of good taste. The garments are liberal in size. Work is not stinted. Machinery has outwitted hand-cunning greatly. Tucks and hemstitching are tedious to the hand. Yet the big machines fold tucks and hemstitch with as much ease as they tell a scam. One of the reasons why it saves to buy ready-made muslin underwear. Let this list hint of a storeful as reasonable in price—

Ladies' India silk undergarments in white, pink or blue, ally trimmed in fine Normandy Val lace in many styles, simple to the most elaborate. Entire stock this week at greatly reduced prices.

IN WOMAN'S REALM—Second Floor

The Ready for Wear Radically Reduced

The story is short, pithy and to the point here—in a nutshell it's "Everything Reduced."

Smart Walking or Street Suits

Distinguished looking Street Suits in great demand for tourists. The jackets beyond the commonplace in cut and make. A column of argument couldn't say more. Even the least expensive suit shows the workmanship of tailors of high skill. All the Suits that were $25 to $35, now $18.85

Silk and Lace Waists Reduced

With our own stayovers we've combined a belated lot of several dozen. An order that was given months ago has just arrived. Handwork is delicious, but the needleworker neither slights nor surries. The Waists are beautiful. Just in time for the season. Bargains that will be snapped up in no time. Occasion in lisle netting or beautiful and dainty lace and crepe-de-chene creations, and what woman does not?

Here's beauties in white and delicate colorings, allover white, white on blue, made with beautiful antique lace trimmings, for calling or theater occasions. Reduced as follows:
