an Irishman, the proprietor and occu-pant of a two-acre Island, known as Emerald Island, near Bunker Hill land-ing, in the lower Columbia, was accident-ally drowned Wednesday. He had gone up to Stella, a lunding in Coal Creek slough, where there is a store and couple of saloona, to purchase some supplies, it is supposed that he also procured and drank some liquor, for he had not pro-ceeded far on his way home until in some way he fell overboard and was seen no more. He has lived in Emerald Island some B years, and used to be a father-man but had grown too old to follow any occupation. Several years ago he was married to Nancy Bogga, of Portland. Sell diamonds at a smaller profit than most jewelers. "WHY?" Because we sell so many. IT IS THE VOLUME OF BUSINESS we are after, and not to see how much we can make on a single stone. THIS HAS BEEN OUR Sell diamonds at a smaller profit POLICY since starting in business, barely two years ago, and WHAT HAS BEEN THE RESULT? WE ARE RUSHED with business, and during the past month have been forced to add new help. Our store is gradually getting too small. We have added a MANUFACTURING JEWELRY DE-FARTMENT, where jewelry of all kinds is made on short notice; also an EXPERT ENGRAVER. Thus we are able to do the best work in the short-
