

the evening, and superb bouquets were brought by many of the guests. Mrs. N. A. Ambrose, of Woodlawn, and Mrs. Charles Whitner, of Thirty-sixth and East Taylor, brought exceptionally large bouquets, and a prize was given to Mrs. O. V. Bodley for the most artistically arranged collection. Flower arrangements and other similar pastimes filled in the evening. Mrs. Magney is the wife of a prominent Omaha attorney, and Miss Bradshaw is a popular member of the Omaha public school teaching corps.

A pleasant surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. D. Nelson, at their home, 545 Front street, last Thursday evening. The evening was occupied with music and dancing. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Streight, Mrs. Muldoon, Mrs. Dobson, Mrs. F. R. Jacobson, Mrs. Limerick, Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. M. Cotton, Misses Nora Lawer, Rose Revermann, Mae McCarthy, Ella McCarty, Theresa Farman, B. Joyce, Mary Strohmeyer, Nellie Muldoon; Messrs. J. McCarron, D. W. Lane, D. L. Curran, F. Kane, J. Douglas, J. O'Farrell, M. Mathers.

Mr. James Ambrose gave a large party on Friday evening, in honor of Miss Mollie Coeman, of Salem, who is visiting Miss Corinne Sheldon. At Ross Island, where the party landed, a bonfire was built and a jolly picnic luncheon spread on the grass. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Holman, Miss Jane Owen, Miss Ella Benjamin, of San Jose; Miss Parthenia Duket, Miss Corinne Sheldon, Miss Sylvia Knight, Miss Catherine, Mrs. Will Morton, Ed Lamerson, J. Dowling, Theron Poston and McLean.

Mrs. A. L. Petty, of 221 McMillen street, gave a successful surprise party on Tuesday evening, August 25, in honor of Mr. J. W. Kirk's birthday. Miss Laura Warner and S. B. Klahn contributed some excellent music. Those present were: Misses Zoe McClung, Mary Nye, Winthrop Mills, Laura Warner, Mabel Went, Josephine Kopp and Agnes Lyons; Messrs. D. J. Curran, William McCree, E. C. Adams, Samuel Thompson, S. B. Klahn, J. W. Kirk and J. W. Wetmore.

WEDDINGS.

Mansfield-Vigors.

Among the August weddings one of the most charming was the marriage of Miss Agnes Vigors, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Vigors, to Mr. Donald Mansfield, first officer of the British ship Indravell. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. Cummings Bruce, of the Seamen's Institute, last Thursday evening, at St. Stephen's Chapel. The best man was Mr. John Polding Byrne, an officer of the Indravell, and the bride was attended by Miss Matilda Weiss. The bride looked charming in a gown of point d'esprit over white tulle with veil and orange blossoms, and a shower bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid wore white over pink and carried pink carnations. The groom and his best man were in uniform, as were two of the ushers, Captain Craven and Chief Engineer Campbell, of the Indravell. The other two ushers were Mr. John Tracy and Mr. George Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield held a reception at the residence of Mrs. M. A. Humbel, 46 Third street, which was attended by the officers of the Indravell and a large number of other friends. Dainty refreshments were served. Both church and residence were tastefully decorated with English ivy, palms, ferns and sweet peas. Mr. Mansfield's nationality was recognized by the use of the British flag draped with the Stars and Stripes. Many handsome presents were received, among them some beautiful silver from the officers of Mr. Mansfield's ship. The bride's bouquet, which she threw from the stairway, was caught by the bridesmaid.

Dick-Timms.

One of the most interesting of the late summer weddings was the marriage of Miss Emma Timms, daughter of Major and Mrs. Harvey Mann Timms, to Mr. Paul Stephens Dick. The wedding was on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Major and Mrs. Timms, at Hillsdale, the Rev. E. T. Allen, assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, performing the ceremony. There was no best man and there were no bridesmaids, the only attendant being Miss Gertrude Timms, the bride's sister. Miss Irene Timms played the wedding march from "Lobengrin" at the beginning of the service, and later Miss Marion Brodie played several delightful selections. White crepe and tulle were the materials of the bride's gown, with which was worn a tulle veil and orange blossoms. Miss Timms, the maid-of-honor, wore a dainty costume of pink rosebud mousseline, with bouquet of pink roses. Red satins and pink and white roses and sweet peas were the flowers used in the decorations, which were very pretty. The house was illuminated by candles, shaded in the colors of the local decoration. The veranda, which was enclosed with vines and flowers, was carpeted and lighted by Japanese lanterns. Mr. and Mrs. Dick will be at home after September 3 at 35 Northrup street. No cards.

Weymouth-Allen.

Miss Josephine M. Allen, eldest daughter of Mrs. T. H. Crang, was married on Tuesday afternoon to Mr. Charles Mitchell Weymouth, of Portland, Rev. J. R. Simpson, pastor of St. Mark's, performed the marriage ceremony in the presence of a few intimate friends at the bride's home on East Thirty-third street. As the bride party came downstairs Miss Harriett Woodhouse, Mendocino's wedding march. The bride, who is a very pretty blonde, and her three girl attendants made a very pretty picture. The bride's dress was a dainty one of white albatross and tulle lace, with a bouquet of white roses. Miss Lu Allen, the bride's sister, was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Frances Hastings, of Portland, and Miss Della Holt. Captain T. H. Crang gave the bride away and Mr. Will Crichton was best man. Among the guests at the wedding were Captain and Mrs. L. B. Hastings, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Van Dusen, of Astoria, and Mrs. Mary E. McKenney, of Forest Grove. Mr. and Mrs. Weymouth went away yesterday for a visit to the beaches and will return in about a month.

Pressay-Cox.

Mr. Arthur L. Pressay of Oregon City and Miss Mary Cox, recently from Kansas City, Mo., were married in the parlors of the St. Charles Hotel, Portland, at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, August 26, by Rev. P. K. Hammond, of St. Paul's Episcopal Church of Oregon City officiated at the service, which was attended by only a few of the intimate friends of the young couple. Palms and cut flowers were the decorations in the parlors where the ceremony was performed, the principals standing in a corner of the room that was entirely surrounded by palms. Miss Hede Block of Oregon City played the wedding march, during which the bride party, preceded by the little Miss Helen Fanno of Portland, the ring-bearer, entered the apartments. Following the service, the guests repaired to the dining room, where a wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Pressay have returned to Oregon City, and will make their home on the Jacobs ranch, near the Falls City.

Kling-Morrin.

The wedding of Miss Norma Blanche Morrin, daughter of Mr. Morrin, to Mr. Frederick Albert Kling was celebrated on Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, 383 Sixth street. The house was decorated artistically with ferns, ivy and roses. During the evening an informal reception was held. Before the departure for their new home, 38 Grant street, the bride threw her bouquet, which was caught by Miss Nellie Cain. Mr. and Mrs. Cain will be at home to their friends after September 30.

Cain-Gleiblich.

Last Wednesday evening at St. Lawrence's Church Rev. J. C. Hughes united in matrimony Mr. Andrew L. Cain and Miss Kate Edna Gleiblich, both well-known young people of this city. The bride wore a becoming white gown and

ANOTHER REMARKABLE EVENT

Tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock our doors swing open with the GREATEST DRESSER OFFERING in recent Portland History. We have held many long-to-be-remembered special weekly sales, but this one bids fair to out-do all our past efforts; and we wish to say right here for the benefit of those who have not been numbered among the lucky ones in the past, and at the same time impress upon our regular and steady customers, that by watching our ads. you will realize the retail supremacy of this mammoth store more forcibly than ever before. Each and every week will herald good tidings of some striking special at cost, and sometimes way below.

Two weeks ago we set the people wondering how on earth we did business by offering one thousand dining chairs at exactly half price—and not one was left. Last week was the great carpet sale, and we will have to ask the people to kindly have patience if we do not deliver your carpets just when ordered. The people took us at our word, and we were completely overdone far beyond our fondest expectations. But this week's offerings are greater still.

This beautiful regular $18.00 Dresser for this week only at $11.00

Same as cut and made of best hardwood in golden oak or mahogany finish, with large French bevel mirror, diamond shape, size 28x24; or oval, square or oblong French plate; two top drawers, swell front, elegantly finished.

Don't confuse this with the cheap, soft wood ones as this is the best Eastern hardwood and is not to be matched anywhere for a cent less than $18.00—and good value at that, but while this one thousand lasts this week, one to a customer, $11.00 — $11.00 — $11.00

WOULDN'T IT MAKE YOU SMILE?

If you were to be the lucky one to receive the beautiful Lady's Writing Desk absolutely free? One of these will appear in each of our ads in all the papers for the next month. The one cutting out and bringing the most of these coupons to the store between now and Oct. 1 will receive the desk free. You can see it in our window.

carried bride roses. She was given away by her father, John Gleiblich. Miss Katharine Cain acted as bridesmaid, and J. C. Maloney was best man. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents, 383 Sixth street. The house was decorated artistically with ferns, ivy and roses. During the evening an informal reception was held. Before the departure for their new home, 38 Grant street, the bride threw her bouquet, which was caught by Miss Nellie Cain. Mr. and Mrs. Cain will be at home to their friends after September 30.

Mills-Sutherland.
An Astoria wedding in which many Portland people were interested was the marriage of Miss Sadie Sutherland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Sutherland, to Mr. Roland Mills. The ceremony took place at the Sutherland home on Franklin avenue, on Wednesday, August 26, Rev. Henry Marcotte officiating. Miss Lila Sutherland was her sister's maid of honor, and Paul Badollet was best man. The ushers were: Frank Woodfield, Dell Scully, Randall Reed and Charles Stockton. After the wedding supper and reception, which came after, Mr. and Mrs. Mills came to Portland on the evening train. They expect to continue their honeymoon journey to the Sound cities.

Currie-Callahan.
On Wednesday evening, August 26, at 8 o'clock, at their home, 715 Front street, occurred the marriage of Mary A. Callahan to Thomas W. Currie, of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. T. Allen, of the First Presbyterian Church. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Vilet. The bride wore a gown of white and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations.

Gosliner-Samuel.
The wedding of Miss Estelle Blanche Samuel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Samuel, to Mr. Herbert J. Gosliner, of San Francisco, took place yesterday afternoon at 6:29 o'clock at the bride's home on Twelfth street. Dr. Stephen S. Wise performed the ceremony.

LIEUTENANT W. B. GRAHAM WEDS MISS PEARL CARTWRIGHT

A large assemblage gathered at the First Congregational Church, Berkeley, Cal., on the evening of August 22, when Miss Pearl Cartwright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Graham, Twentieth United States Infantry, was married to Lieutenant W. B. Graham, of the Twentieth Infantry, of Fort Albatraz, acting as best man, and the four ushers were Lieutenants Ernest C. Brigham and Edward M. Shindick, of the Prentiss artillery corps, and Lieutenants Lear and West, of the Eleventh Infantry.

The church was artistically draped with American flags, and feathery bamboo foliage decorated the chancel. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. T. Bate, of the theological seminary.

After the ceremony the bride party repaired to the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Greene, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, where a wedding supper was served.

Mrs. Graham is the daughter of the late J. C. Cartwright, of Berkeley. She has spent a year in the Orient, where she met Lieutenant Graham, and there the romance began which culminated in the wedding of Saturday evening.

Lieutenant Graham has seen four years of Army life in Cuba and the Philippines, and has been much campaigning. The past year he has spent at Fort Albatraz, where he was promoted to his present rank, and assigned to the Twentieth Infantry with headquarters at Berkeley, near Chicago.

A wedding trip to Monterey, where Lieutenant Graham's old regiment is stationed, and after visiting other points of interest in California, Lieutenant and Mrs. Graham will go to Fort Sheridan, where they will spend the winter.

SEVERAL pleasant informal affairs were given at the golf links during the week, including a dinner given by Mrs. W. B. Ayer and another given by Mrs. Sally Lewis. Miss Mead entertained delightfully at the clubhouse both on Tuesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Tarpley entertained last evening with a buffet party, given at their charming ranch home, "Tillamook," near University Park.

Mrs. Joseph K. Clark gave an informal luncheon on Thursday in honor of her guests, Mrs. Cunningham and Miss Birdseye, of Butte, Mont. The crawfish course was served on the veranda and the dainty menu which followed was served in the dining-room. The table looked extremely pretty, with decorations of nasturtiums, magnolias and green gaiter ribbons. There was a large bowl in the center of the table filled with flowers, and besides the central decorations four smaller bowls set upon handsome delfts. Besides the guests of honor, Mrs. Clark entertained Mrs. Tyler Woodward, Mrs. William Honeyman, Mrs. Richard R. Hoge, Mrs. A. E. Rockey, Mrs. Harrington, Mrs. Griewood, Mrs. Walter Mackay, Mrs. S. M. Luchas, Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. Kewler, Mrs. Belle Dalton, Mrs. Combs, Mrs. O. P. Paxton, Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. D. W. Wakefield, Mrs. H. F. Bartels and Miss Alice Samsbury.

Captain Gibbs, of the United States Signal Corps, and Mrs. Gibbs, who have just returned from Alaska, were entertained at dinner on Thursday evening by Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Rockey. Captain and Mrs. Gibbs are now awaiting orders at Vancouver Barracks.

Many Portland people were among the guests at the reception at Vancouver Barracks on Wednesday evening by Colonel Huston, the post commander, in honor of the officers of the warships Concord and Marblehead. The Naval officers, officers of the Third Regiment, Oregon National Guard and the other invited guests were met at the ferry by Captain Johnson, post Adjutant, and escorted in carriages to the post.

Colonel and Mrs. Huston received the guests, assisted by Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Walton. The women present were some very handsome young women, and as the officers were in full dress uniform, the ballroom, with its gay draperies of the National colors, made a brilliant picture.

The music for dancing was by the Nineteenth Infantry Band.

The affair continued until midnight, when the Portland people departed for the boat, and was one of the most delightful events in the annals of the post. Among those present were: Colonel and Mrs. McCracken, Mrs. Hornsby, of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Ebert, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Johnson and Miss Kitty Johnson, Mrs. Bole, Mrs. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Laidlaw, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Rose Palmer, Mrs. W. D. Smith, Miss Brown, Miss Rosenstern.

Captain Perkins, senior officer of the Concord and Marblehead, Masters Brooks and Skilworth, Navigators Army and Scales, Surgeons Bell and Parnell, Lieutenant Lander, U. S. Marine Corps; Major Reed, U. S. A., Eastern District, Davis and Pope, Colonel Richmond, Colonel Pratt, Colonel Orimes, of Fort Flagler; Major Dwyer, Major Hammer, Major Davis, Major Evans, Captain Howard, Captain Johnson, Captain Walton, Captain Hawthorne, Captain Enosch, Captain Smith, Lieutenant Miller, Lieutenant Cecil, Colonel Gantenbein, of the Third Regiment, Oregon National Guard, Major Mendenhall, Major Baker, Captain Knapp, Adjutant-Captain Mears, Captain Dunbar, Captain Scott, Captain Smith, Lieutenant Wilson, Lieutenant Platts, Lieutenant Gould, Lieutenant Shrews, Mr. James McWood, Colonel McCracken, Mr. Whitney Boies, Mr. B. W. Stone and Mr. J. A. Horan.

The party of Portland Hunt Club members who left two weeks ago for an outing on horseback have arrived home, after making a trip of 32 miles. They all enjoyed their rides along the picturesque Coast Mountain trails immensely, and were all well browed from being constantly out of doors.

In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Cronin, Mrs. F. G. Buffum, Miss Shogren, Miss Mabel Lawrence, K. T. Chase, Ralph Jenkins and L. Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Fulton were most delightfully entertained at luncheon on board the Marblehead on Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Fulton are housekeeping at 66 North Twenty-first street, where they will be delighted to receive their friends.

A delightful informal dinner and circus party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Blair Scott to several friends, in honor of Minister John Barrett.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Monday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hennig, 511 Clay street, a delightful surprise party was given in honor of their son Sidney's 17th birthday. The parlors were beautifully decorated with roses and trailing asparagus. In the dining-room the national colors prevailed. The table was under a canopy of red, white and blue, and charmingly decorated, the crowning effect being the delicious birthday cake. Dainty refreshments were served in the dining-room. During the evening several instrumental solos were rendered by Miss G. Rockwell, Miss M. Gillen and Mr. F. Lucas. Miss

ANNOUNCEMENT

GROWING PATRONAGE—gratefully attributed by Madame Vaughn, Graduate Doctor of Dermatology, to kind words spoken by successfully treated patients—compels her to remove to larger quarters. New offices and treatment rooms will be opened on the third floor of the McKay Building, Third Street near Stark, Sept. 4th, and a select private sanatorium, in the residence district, in charge of a graduate Bellevue Hospital nurse, established for out-of-town patients and residents desiring seclusion and privacy during treatment. Madame Vaughn avails herself of this opportunity to thank the many friends and patrons who have rendered her phenomenal success possible during her short sojourn in Portland, and pledges herself in the future—as in the past—to employ only the same scientific methods, free from deception or fakement, in treating all cases of skin, facial or scalp trouble confided to her care.

Present Offices: Room 303-9-10 McKay Building.
