DOMAIN OF MUSIC,

Heinrich Conried announces that after consultation with the board of directors of the New York Metropolitan Opera-house that the opera season would begin November 23, and would last 15 weeks.

"Parsifal" will be produced December 24, and will be repeated on nine consecutive Thursdays. According to the custom at Bayreuth, the opera will commence at 5 P. M., continuing until 7 P. M., when there will be an intermission of an hour and a half. The performance will then be re-sumed, closing at 11 o'clock, The price of the best seats is to be $10. The most ex-
