

PARSONS Hall was the scene of a brilliant gathering last Wednesday evening, the occasion being a birthday party given by Miss Nan Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Robertson, of 22 Twelfth street. It was the opening dance of many similar functions that will follow, now that the social season has begun, and will be remembered as one of the most pleasant and distinguished of them all. Immense tree ferns and palms were placed in the corners, along with huckle-berry vines. The stage was a bower of potted plants and ferns, the screens being concealed with nasturtiums. EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

At the residence of C. W. Tracy, 11 East Fourteenth street, on Thursday evening, a large company of the members of Winslow-Mende Circle No. 7, Ladies' G. A. R., met to give the old comrades and his family a surprise social gathering. It will be remembered that Mr. Tracy was one of the victims of the Morrison-street bridge accident, and has been confined to his house since that time, but has so far recovered as to give evidence of his old time cheerfulness. It is not his old time vigor and activity. The evening was spent in lively conversation interspersed with music by Miss Helen Newburg, present. Deep interest was occasioned by remarks by Comrade Daniel Clark in stating the object of the assembling of so many friends was to extend congratulations to Comrade Tracy and his family upon his recovery and relieve in a measure the monotony of long confinement. Those present were: David Clark, Thomas Anderson, A. W. Sebring, Mr. and Mrs. Van Orden, Mr. and Mrs. Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. George Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. B. B. Jones, J. L. Benedict, Mrs. Benedict, Mrs. P. N. Newburg, Miss Minnie Newburg, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Tracy, Mrs. Tibbets and family, Mrs. Crane and others.

About 300 women attended a pleasant reception given yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Bennett, 45 Tenth street, who entertained in Mrs. Alan Welch Smith's honor, her daughter, Miss Edna M. Smith, who recently arrived from Baltimore. Mr. Talbot and Miss Farrell assisted the hostess and Mrs. Smith in the reception party. The ladies of the sweetest, Mrs. Youngson and Miss Gibbs served the coffee in a bower of nasturtiums above the stairs, while the Misses Talbot, Jennie Parrott and Lewis acted as ushers to the incoming guests. The chief topic of conversation was the announcement of the engagement of Mrs. Bennett's youngest daughter, Edna, and Dr. Richard Langdon Neer, of Baltimore, whose appropriate and handsome gift on this occasion, of Armenian lace table decorations, won general admiration. The banquet was a happy occasion and full of congratulations for Miss Bennett.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Congregational Church held the first meeting of the season Wednesday afternoon, in the church parlors. The following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. I. W. Pratt; vice-president, Mrs. W. B. Knapp; Mrs. M. F. Henderson, Mrs. L. B. Gorb; recording secretary, Mrs. Cornelius Taylor; financial secretary, Mrs. P. Eggert; corresponding secretary, Mrs. B. Sigler; treasurer, Mrs. M. C. George. The society will hold its annual bazaar early in December.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Winslow celebrated their last wedding anniversary last night at their home on Mount Tabor. They were married in Oakland, Cal., September 1, 1883, and in honor of the anniversary about 40 of their friends met to observe properly the event. There was a hilarious clattering of the presents that accompanied the guests, and they consisted of "most everything."

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gustaf, of Woodlawn, gave an informal reception last Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. J. C. Mornington and Mr. Oliver Powers, of Searsville, Mo., who are paying them a brief visit. The parlors were beautifully decorated with roses and sweet peas. The evening was pleasantly spent, enjoying the game of fish. At 10 o'clock refreshments were served.

A very pleasant reception was tendered the new pastor of St. Mary's Church, Upper Albion, Rev. W. A. Daly, formerly of Salem, last Friday evening. A delightful musical programme of ten numbers was rendered by the committee. Father Carby introduced the new pastor, who spoke briefly to his parishioners. The attendance was large.

A very charming party was given at the home of Mr. R. H. Powers, 738 Minnesota avenue, Monday, in honor of Miss Alice Fadden, a guest from New Richmond, Wis. During the evening which was played. The first prize was awarded to Miss L. Stampler. Miss T. Donahue securing the consolation. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mautz entertained a party of children at their home in Sunnyside, Monday afternoon, in honor of their son, Carl's, fourth birthday. Dainty refreshments were served on the lawn. Music was rendered by Edison's phonograph, after which a picture was taken of the little folks.

The railway postal clerks and families were entertained at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose, 1414 Oneonta street, Woodlawn, Wednesday evening. The evening was devoted to games, after which refreshments were served. About thirty guests were present.
