By a score of 6 to 2, the Browns revenged themselves on the Siwash horde pesterday afternoon. Loucks, who proved such an easy mark on Wednesday, was a complete mystery yesterday after he fairly settled down to work, and the team gave him the best of support. The game was marred by con-tinual wrangles between the players and Umpire Levy, into which the spectators butted without sufficient warrant. The trouble originated in the second half of the first inning and Levy was unmercifully grilled during the remainder of the game In the beginning he was right, but the vehement demonstration seemed to worry him and he tried to satisfy the howling dervishes in the grandstand by trimming his decisions to suit them. This seems to be Levy's weakness. He lacks decision. In the first Van Buren bunted and outran the ball to first, but turned to the left. He the ball to first, but turned to the left. He attempted to recover by turning again to the right, but the umpire called him out after Brashear had the ball on him. The decision raised a storm of hisses and protests and Van Buren seemed inclined to commit assault and battery upon Mr.

Levy. The decision stood, however, and thereafter Levy tried to placate the hostiles by hinsed decisions, but succeeded in making himself only the more unpopular.

The game started badly for Vigneux's men With Seattle up, Lumley went out from second to first on a short grounder, Mohier got his base on balls and Smith drove a long fly into right field, advancing Mohler to third. Brashear sacrificed and Mohler came in for a score, while Smith went to second. Zinssar was hit by a pitched ball, while Janeing made a pretty hit to center, scoring Smith, and McCarthy went out from the pitcher to first. The row over Van Buren's out at first marked the last half of the first inning nd the Browns were retired in one, two,

Seattle did no better in the second. Loucks fanning Blewett while Wilson and Lumley falled to reach first.

The Browns got into the game in dead carnest in this inning. Francis made a safe bit and on a wild throw by Blewett got safely to third. Hollingsworth flew out to center, while Francis scored. Elsey bit safely, but was caught trying to steal second, and Raidy flew out to left field. The score stood thus 1 to 2 in Seattle's favor until the last of the fifth, when Raidy scored for Portland on an error, tleing the score.

locals chalked up two more in the sixth and struck their gait. After that there was no stopping them. In this inning, for Scattle, Brashear went out at first, Zinssar flew out so third and Jan-sing struck out. With the Browns at the bat, Van Buren drove the ball down the third-base line for a safety. Nadeau sacrificed and sent Van to second. Francis rapped out a three-barger, which scored Van Buren. Hollingsworth hit to center and went out, while Elsey's safety sent Francis in home. Raidy swatted the rall, advancing Elsey to second, and Shear retired the side by a long fly into Zinssar's

Van Buren, who starred all through th game, scored again in the seventh, making it 5 to 2. In this inning Seattle had a chance, but with the bases full Smith flew out and shattered all hope for the visitors Brashear's error in the eighth enabled Hollingsworth to score, and with the figures at 5 to 2 the game ended, three Si-wash batters retiring in rotation.

Owing to the threatening weather there was a small attendance, but it is expected that with Morris in the box today the capacity of stand and bleachers will b The detailed score: PORTLAND.

There has been general complaint af There has been general complaint af the lack of good racing in this city, and the public is race-hungry. With good weather, there will be a large attendance, not only from Portland, but from the surrounding towns.

Some of the best strings on the Pacific Coast will be here for the meet, including that of W. G. Durfee, of Los Angeles, which includes the famous mare Sweet

Marie and his fast gelding, Zolock. These horses and many other which are entered for the Irvington meet participated in the Salem races last week. An ugly scandal grew out of the alleged pulling of Sweet Marie at Salem last Thursday, but horsemen generally are of the opinion that Durthen generally are of the common that Dur-fee will not be barred by reason of it. It is now probable that during the week Mack Mack, Ollie M. and Sweet Marle

Mack Mack, Oilie M. and Sweet Marle will all start in the same events, and the question of the superiority of the cracks be determined. This would be the biggest thing in the racing line seen in the Northwest in years. The managers give and that each day's card will be finished by 5:15. Furthermore, they guarantee that every race will be a contest, and that there will be no "funny business."

More than $12,000 has been expended on the track, grandstand and stables, and everything is in ship-shape condition. The stock show will bring some of the best herds in the state here, including the famous Ladd Jerseys. The prize-win-ners in the cattle, horse, hog and sheep classes at Salem last week will be here, in addition to many other entries, and reeders are coming from all quarters of the state.

Valuable premiums will be awarded in the following classes: Horses for Contest. Class 3—Crydesdales and English shires. Class 3—French and English coach, Reveland bays and backneys.

THE WASHINGTON

THE SCENIC HOTEL OF THE WORLD

This magnificent Tourist Hotel is This magnificent Tourist Hotel is Seattle's most prominent architectural feature—being situated upon the highest point of land in the down-town district—300 feet above sea level. It is, however, easy of access by private tramway, by regular hotel conveyance, by street car or by carriage. The scenery from the Washingtod is the most superb to be found on the Pacific coast. The appointments and furnishings of the Washington are entirely modern and high-class; the culsine and service most satisfactory. The rates are exceedingly reasonable for a fashionable tourist hotel.
