In the presence of 7500 people the Multiomah Fair Association closed one of the nost successful and brilliant race meets in the history of Portland. Only three of the eight events carded went wrong and considering that it was "get-away day"— a day when the good things are usually pulled off, the day was the best of the week. The upsets to the talent's way of thinking was not due to "jobs." It was simply a case where the horses that won were in better form than those selected the public as favorites, and no one no left the track at the close of the last race can truthfully say that they did not get a run for their money, not only yesterday, but every day during the

Perhaps in no city on the Coast has the public's interests been so well guarded as they have by the officials of the association. No better evidence of this is need-ed than that which Presiding Judge Skinher and Mr. Leighton did yesterday after-noon, when they refused to allow George McDonald to ride his own horse, Resigned in the third race, a four furiong affair. There were only three starters, Dusty Rhodes, Roseleaf and Resigned. Money poured in on the pretty 2-year-old Roseleaf, and on form and past performances there was really no reason for it, for Resigned is the best colt. When Mr. Skinner called for the odds on the betting, he did not like the complexion, and he at once set McDonald down and put up Buxton, the best boy riding at Irvington. McDonald made a roar, but he was quietly told to take his noise and go away, He tried to have Poretto ride, but this also Judge Skinner refused. Buxton landed Resigned in front, but it was really the brilliant ride that the clever little fellow gave the Figaro filly that sent her in front of the gallant little Roseleaf, made a very game struggle for first e. McDonald claimed to have bet $300 on his mare to win, but the figures in the books did not indicate anything of the sort. While Mr. Skinner did not think the race was fixed, he was not willing to take a chance, and he thought it the best way to protect everybody by putting up Buxton. When it was found that it was Buxton and not McDonald that was to ride the mare, the tide-of money that was floating in on Roseleaf stopped and the market was flooded with Resigned money at 2 to 5. The race was a battle all through the route of four furiongs, with Roseleaf leading until they were within ten yeards of the wire, when Buxton let of Resigned, and she poked her head front of Overgrowth's daughter.

Le Roi Captures 2:08 Pace. Le Roj, the steady-going son of Altaont, won a very brilliant victory when captured the Ryan purse in the 2:08 ice. Sam Bowers, according to the he captured the Ryan purse. The captured the Ryan purse is the pace. Sam Bowers, according to the wise ones, had the race won and when he failed after giving only one finash of his old form, he sent a hig bunch of money glimmering. In the first heat, it was Lee Luknown-Unknown. (Payne) 4 2 Sunrise Unknown-Unknown. (Payne) 4 2 Bol and Zolock fighting like demons. It was a driver's race from the moment turned into the stretch, and Heritage into the stretch in the stretch they turned into the stretch, and Heri-man, who was driving Zolock, made Childs fairly carry Le Roi under the wire in order to win. Sam Bowers finished first in the second heat, and once again his friends thought there was nothing to the race but Bowers, and they again sent their money in on him. Lance sent Bowers to the front rounding the first turn, but Le Roi and Zolock were after him so hot that they burned him up, and he broke so badly that he was almost pulled to a walk before he was again at his stride, and the best he could do was to finish inside the flag, with Le Rol trav-eling easy. Neither of the heats were paced within the time—the best being Package Surprises the Unwise.

Package was a surprise to the unwise but he was there with the goods and won the Gammie special purse, breezing. A lot of money layers liked Idol and Phil N., because he was a Bonner get, but the best they got was a run for their money, for the best the two horses could do was a split in second and third money, for Package simply made a runaway of it in two straight heats.

Black Cloud and Limb of the Law were the ruling favorites in the Diamond sell-ing five-furiong event. Limb of the Law ed at 3 to 2, but the steady stream of money that poured in on him forced him slown to 6 to 5, and he went to the post at that figure. Black Cloud sold at 3 to 5, with Vince and Montoya as second choice. Vince, because of his unsteadiness, did not get as heavy a play as Montoya, but he was up to his race, and the ride that McClees gave him was the best piece of work the boy has done for a long time. In spite of being tangled up in the barrier ribbon for almost half the distance, Mc-Clees rode Vince out and beat Limb of the Law by almost a length. The best that Chorn could do with Montoya was to land him in the money. This was another of the upsets, for a host of people could see no other horse but Limb of the Law. The Toiler Disappoints Backers,

The Toller disappointed his backers in the six-furlong race for the Adams purse He was a heavily played favorite at 3 to 2, and he did not get a call during the running. He got off badly, and was never up at any time. Tom Fox and Mr. Robson were also well fancied. Mr. Robson fin-ished second to Claudator's corking first. with Casdale third. There was no justification for The Toller being favorite over such good horses as were racing against him, but the talent seemed to want him hadly, and they backed him heavily.

Classis Takes Spencer Handleap. Misty's Pride and Clivoso, with Queen T. Included, gave the betters an awful aping in the Spencer Handicap for four bumping in the Spencer Plantacap to four furiouss. While both finished in the money, they were not close enough to Classis, who won, to force David to give the bay gelding a battle. Misty's Pride carried lots of money at 4 to 5, with Chyoso at even odds and Queen T. at 3 to 2 Judge Thomas carried a lot of wagers placed by those who liked him for place, but, after leading for a time, he faded away. Queen T delighted those whose money she carried by jumping out in front, but she gave way to Thomas, and he in turn gave way to Classis, who, when called on by David, rushed out and took the lead and finished breezing.

Fossil Wins Irvington Handleap. ossil, that sturdy son of Fresno, aped out in time and won the Irvington Handicap, carrying the top weight and traveling over a route that was far from his liking. He beat such good horses as American League baseball club, and de-Ohlo Girl. Chub. Dewey and Burdock at sires to devote himself entirely to its de-their own distance, and in doing so even surprised his owners, Parker and Twaites, who did not believe the horse had a chance. He would have raced before, but in the exercise over the track he seemed to tire badly, and he showed no such to tire badly, and he showed no such speed as he did today. Buxton gave Fossil a famous ride. For more than half the journey he carried Fossil back in fifth position, and did not begin to ride him until passing the half-mile post. Going into the last turn, he was back third, with Dewey and Chub leading, but once lined out for the wire he set sail for the front and won from Dewey by half a length. Chub, a hot favorite, was third. a length. Chub, a hot favorite, was third E. M. Lazarus Wins Hunt Club Race.

Great interest was centered in the Hunt Club race for a mile. It was the closing race of the meeting, but not a person present made a move to go home until the race was over. E. M. Lazarus, for the second time this week, captured the silver cup, which was presented to the winner by the association. There were four entries. Mr. Lazarus rode Frank Pearce; Mr. O'Brien, Filibuster; Mr. Mc. Grath, Windward, and Mr. McCommon Jim Bozeman, Mr. Lazarus won the race easily, taking the lead from Bozeman as they raced down the back stretch. Mr McGrath also won a silver cup by land-ing Windward second. Bozeman, after de-laying the start and forcing Judge Mc-Carthy to abandon the barrier in order to get the horses away, for the first quarier looked as if he would win the race in a romp, but he closed up and quit at the half and finished back with Filibuster, who could not travel the route and carry the 185 pounds imposed upon him by Mr.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Sept. 26.-The opening game of the season on Soldiers Field was won by Harvard from Williams today, by a score of 17 to 0. The game was replete with brilliant plays, the Harvard backs doing excellent work individually. Both teams relied on the old-style playing, using only simple line bucks and short-end runs. Williams made little gain through the Harvard line, and was forced to punt on almost every trial. On the other hand, the crimson team gained at will through all parts of their opponents' line.

SEATTLE, Sept. 26.—(Special.)—Shields was taken out of the game today just in time to win for Portland. He was very wild, and in the eighth inning Byers led off with a three-base hit. Smith singled and after Brashear had connected with another long triple, Loucks was sent in to finish. He shut Seattle out without a run or a hit. Biewett was hit hard and the hits came in clusters. Two drives by Hollingsworth, another pair by Francis and a pair of doubles by Danny Shea came when most needed and put the visitors far away to the good. Shields got busy in the third by filling up the sacks on passes. A couple of files to the outfield scored

A couple of files to the outfield scored two runs. Again in the fifth, he loaded up the bases, and one hit was good for two more runs. The long hits in the eighth account for the other three. Portland played fine ball behind Shields or he would have been beaten to a pulp. Blake was useless in right field, so he and Nadeau switched with good results. Tumley was hit in the arm in Friday's game, so he could not play today. Huriburt fielded all right in center but was helpless with the bat. He threw yan Bure out at the plate after catching Van Burg out at the plate after catching a long fly making a perfect throw. The support accorded Blewett by McCarthy and Jansing was simply disgraceful and made the pitcher nervous. The score:
