

YOUR MONEY GOES

Swiftly enough, of course. It's a peculiarity of money. But while it's going you can rest assured that it is bringing you adequate returns. That's why you should trade here. You can get your money back if you want it, but you will most probably prefer the goods to the money, especially at these prices.

Do You Agree With Us?
We would not make light of a serious question, but we would speak seriously of the light question. You ought to think of this matter seriously. It concerns the efficiency of your work and the health of your eyes. The Cost of Comfort

It isn't a very expensive matter to be comfortable these chilly mornings if you put up an Eclipse Airtight. They will positively pay for themselves this Winter in the saving of wood. And think of the comfort to get up mornings and find the bottom of your stove a mass of live coals, and your room nice and warm. It has the patent heavy cast sectional lining 12 inches high, which makes it outlast three or four ordinary airtights. Is same as cut, and elegantly nickel trimmed. Every one warranted special values at $8.50 $10.00

$9.00 $11.00

Don't Forget to See Our $3.50 Airtight

These elegant airtight heaters are a neat little design, made of best Russian iron, heavy steel-lined, and has a double check draft, which makes it the greatest wood-saver known.

The afternoon, The exercises opened with prayer by Rev. L. E. Rockwell, D. D., Presiding Elder of the Portland District. Mrs. Dell Stuart, presiding, made an interesting address and statement setting forth the plans for the Deaconess work, and for the establishment of the Deaconess Home in Portland, at the close of which she welcomed and introduced the new deaconesses, Miss Adella Haynes, who made a brief response to the welcome, and Miss Mabel Lamb, who gave a most interesting account of "The Deaconess in Training," being an account of the study, the work and the home life of the deaconess while taking the course of study in the training school. There was also present another graduate deaconess, Miss Mullen, now on duty at the Crittenton Home in this city. Miss Mullen was formerly superintendent of the Deaconess Home in Buffalo, N. Y.
