You can tell the bargains by the big red tickets which we have placed on each cut-price article. This is an exceptional opportunity, for none of these goods are old style or shop worn. It is not our policy to keep goods on our floor until they become out-of-date. We'd rather get less than market price for them. It's your good luck we've marked them down before Christmas. We can't describe them all, but we are showing a few under the heading "Special Sale." Watch our windows every day.
