HARK! THE REINDEERS ARE COMING!

Ten more days in which to crowd all the pleasures of Christmas shopping—It must be a pleasure if you buy here—May they be the happiest days you ever knew!—We are doing our part, doing it as earnestly and conscientiously as we know how—But you must hurry now:

for in the distance we hear tinkling of sleigh bells; old Santa's coming—You remember what the story book says: "More rapid than eagles, his coursers they came, And he whistled and shouted and called them by name— Now Dasher! now Dancer! now Prancer and Vixen! On Comet! on Cupid! on Dunder and Blitzen!" Portland never had quite such a pretty Christmas store before—No expense has been spared to make the Meier & Frank Store Holiday Headquarters in every sense of the word
