

MANY pleasant dances have been enjoyed this week, including the Nineteenth Century Club party, the Cinderellas, the hop given by the Third Infantry Band at the Armory, the Idlewild Club's initial entertainment, and the Cavaliers' dance at Parsons Hall on Friday.

Besides the dances there were a number of luncheons and card parties. Mrs. Young's bridge party on Thursday being an especially pleasant entertainment.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. E. B. Coman and the other officers of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian Church gave a tea, which was largely attended by the women of the congregation, and another successful church affair was an Epiphany party, given at St. David's parish house on Saturday evening, and ably managed by the Daughters of St. David.

A luncheon, which was beautifully arranged and in every way charming, was given Tuesday at the Hotel Portland by Mrs. Abe Meier and her mother, Mrs. Emanuel Eising, of New York.

In the center of the large oval table was a big basket of Kaloczin Augusta Victoria roses, and smaller baskets, containing white carnations and ferns were scattered about. Attached to each of these was a long-ended knot of pale green ribbon, these being cleverly made to serve as name cards.

Pale green tulip and lilies of the valley, with green and white electric lights also were daintily adjuncts of the decorations, and many handsome palms were arranged at the sides of the room.

After luncheon the guests played progressive whist. Mrs. Isaac White and Mrs. Joseph Oppenheimer winning the prizes.

Besides the hostesses those present were: Mrs. A. Meier, Mrs. Sigmund Frank, Mrs. Julius L. Meier, Mrs. F. Steinhardt, Mrs. Leon Hirsch, Mrs. S. Julius Maron, Mrs. Charles Feldensheimer, Mrs. E. Lipman, Mrs. I. N. Lipman, Mrs. Isaac Wasser, Mrs. Nathan Simon, Mrs. Linda Frank, Mrs. C. Feldensheimer, Mrs. Edward Ehrman, Mrs. I. N. Fieschner, Mrs. Isaac Lang, Mrs. August Overdorfer, Mrs. Gustave Simon, Mrs. Henry Hausman, Mrs. Joseph Oppenheimer, Mrs. Benjamin Steinhardt, Mrs. Fred Selzer, Mrs. Charles Rosenfeld.

The hop on Friday night at Vancouver barracks was one of the pleasantest of the informal dances given this winter. Nearly every one at the post was present, and there were also a number of guests from Portland, among them being General and Mrs. Abraham Hirsch, who were spending a few days in the city before leaving for Santa Barbara. They were the guests that evening of Colonel and Mrs. Hutton. Mrs. Hutton, who was from Portland, were entertained by Captain and Mrs. Evan M. Johnson. Miss Woolsey was the guest of Lieutenant and Mrs. Miller. Mrs. Fletcher and Miss Joseph were also at the dance and were entertained by Captain and Mrs. Walton. After the hop, General and Mrs. Funston gave a supper at their home, their guests being Mrs. Cullem, a sister of Mrs. Funston, Mrs. A. B. Johnson, Mrs. Gailard, Captain and Mrs. Johnston, Miss Johnston, Major Evans, Major Bethel, Lieutenant B. J. Mitchell, and Mr. Allen.

The Cinderellas' leap year party, given on Thursday at Parsons Hall was a very charming dance. Nearly all the men present were boutonniere of violets or lilies of the valley, ordered for them by girl friends, and while the dancing was in lace and chiffon asked them to dance they all found it a delightfully novel sensation.

Parsons' Orchestra played its most tuneful waltzes and two-steps, seated behind a screen of palms, and at each side of the stage were cozy corners, luxuriously furnished with Oriental rugs. Pussy willows in wicker stands and used in the ballroom decorations, and in the supper room the tables were ornamented with small pots of cyclamen and primroses. In the center was a graceful arrangement of palms.

Mrs. Richard Koerber, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd and Mrs. William MacMaster were the patronesses.

Captain Smith, of the Nineteenth Infantry, will give an interesting lecture on Tuesday, the subject being the experiences of the Nineteenth Infantry in the tropics. A pleasant informal gathering was held at Robert R. Evans' home this week. Music and cards were the amusement, followed later by a chaffing-dish supper.

Mrs. Arthur Brand, of San Francisco, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. L. W. Stiffon, was entertained at a charming red and green luncheon, given on Wednesday by Mrs. E. De Witt Connell. Mrs. Connell also entertained on Friday in honor of Miss Blanche Robinson and Miss Evelyn Steel.

The latest in a series of bridge parties being given at Portland houses was Mrs. John Eben Young's pleasant affair on Thursday afternoon, at which about 60 of her women friends were present. The prizes were won by Mrs. W. C. Alvord and Mrs. William MacMaster.

Miss Thornton, who has been the guest of Lieutenant and Mrs. Scrows for several months, expects to leave Wednesday for San Francisco. A cribbage party of eight was given by Miss Thompson on Tuesday.

Mrs. Evan M. Johnson gave a delightful tea Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Funston and her sister, Mrs. Cullem.

Colonel and Mrs. Richard Thompson gave a dinner to several friends on Wednesday.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

The Daughters of St. David's gave a most enjoyable Epiphany party at St. David's parish house on Saturday evening. It has been the custom of the Women's Guild to give this party to the congregation and their friends each year during the Epiphany season. This year the Daughters, an organization whose members are all under 15 years, and who are becoming famous for their good deeds, good looks and ability to do well whatever they undertake, asked and were cheerfully accorded the privilege of giving the Epiphany party. It is needless to say it was a success. Through the kind offices of Mrs. VanWaters and Mrs. Hawthorne art squares, draperies, pillows, etc., transformed the parish house into a cozy drawing-room. Interpreting the season for social intercourse was a fine literary and musical programme to which Judge Bullock and W. T. Gardner added their quota. At the close of the evening Mrs. VanWaters announced that the ring cake would be passed and requested that only those draw who wished to give the Epiphany party the following year. Great interest and amusement attached to the drawing of the ring. When probably two-thirds of the pieces had been drawn, Mrs. Frederick W. Berry found herself the fortunate possessor, and accordingly Dr. VanWaters announced that the next party would be given at her residence.

Orpha Temple No. 18, Rathbone Sisters, charmingly entertained on Wednesday evening, January 28, by a "house-warming" given by Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Baumgartner at their new home on East Twelfth street. The house was beautifully decorated with palms and Oregon holly, and the new home was much admired by the visitors. Progressive whist was played until 9 o'clock, when a delicious supper was served. The prizes at whist were won by Mrs. Martin, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Phil Gevurtz and W. W. Shinn. Music and games closed a most delightful evening. Mr. and Mrs. Baumgartner were the recipients of a beautiful remembrance from the members of Orpha Temple. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Doolittle, Mr. and Mrs. L. Greaves, Mrs. Robert Goodfellow, Mrs. M. Martin, Mrs. J. J. Bennett, Mrs. E. Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Miesner, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Gevurtz, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Supple, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Morse, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. E. Long, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Shinn, Mr. A. Bourke, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ingfield, Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Grace Wheeler, Mrs. Margaret von Olan, Miss Violet Ingfield, Mrs. Charles Olson, Miss Mand Olson, J. H. McKibbin and L. E. Johnson.

A new whist club, which includes some of the leading whist-players in the city, will hold its initial meeting in the rooms of the Western Academy of Music, Second and Morrison streets, on Monday evening. After a discussion as to the naming of the club, it was suggested that an Indian name would be appropriate, and finally it was voted to adopt "Halo-Wah-Wah," meaning "no talk," according to Mrs. Schlegel's clever idea. The meetings will be held the first and third Monday evenings of each month. The members are: Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Thornton, Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Schmeier, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. MacPherson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schlegel, Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald, Mrs. W. C. Florence Manion, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Church, Judge Alexander Sweet, Mr. and Mrs. Walter MacPherson, Mr. F. K. Kistner, Mr. and Mrs. B. Andrew, Miss Quackenbush, Dr. J. H. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Custer, Dr. and Mrs. Braden, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Katchings, Mr. and Mrs. Cook. The following officers were elected: Dr. E. H. Thornton, chairman; Dr. F. K. Kistner, secretary; Dr. Florence Sharp Manion, treasurer; committee on refreshments, Messrs. R. A. Thompson, J. F. Keist and Alexander Sweet.

Some very attractive gowns were worn at the Nineteenth Century Club's dance at Parsons Hall, on Wednesday evening, and the ballroom, which had tasteful decorations of evergreen and palms, made an extremely pretty picture.

Among several noticeably pretty black costumes, was one of black chiffon and spangles. The bodice and the yoke of the skirt were heavily spangled, the bodice being finished with a row of black and white trimmings, and the skirt with a row of black and white trimmings.

Another gown which everybody admired was a gown of blue and white, with a knotted fringe and a great deal of black and white trimmings.

A charming gown of point d'esprit was daintily trimmed with blue and white embroidered medallions, and another pretty gown was of pink crepe, elaborately hand-painted.

The music by Parsons' orchestra was excellent, and dancing was kept up until late. About 120 people were present.

At the reception held at the home of Mrs. Coman, on Wednesday, the decorations consisted of beautifully arranged hydrangeas, carnations, and palms. Mrs. Coman, who is president of the First Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society, received with Mrs. Albert E. Butterfield, Mrs. Emma Guild, Mrs. E. C. Coffey and Mrs. R. E. Bryan. At the table Mrs. L. Van duyn, Mrs. Frank Booth, Mrs. Kate Wendling and Mrs. R. M. Wilbur presided, assisted by Mrs. Frank Vanduy, Miss Leonard Klotzmann, Miss Bessie Church, Mrs. George B. Collins, Mrs. Frederick Cooper and Mrs. Guy Willis served fruit lemonade in the hall, and also assisting in entertaining were Mrs. George W. Hazen, Mrs. August G. Klotzmann, Mrs. George B. Collins, Mrs. W. W. Watt, and Mr. and Mrs. Alcorn, of Linnton. The occasion being also the anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Alcorn, many beautiful silver presents were in evidence, as well as other appropriate gifts. A sumptuous spread was served at 7 o'clock, and the remainder of the evening was given over to reminiscences, games and a jolly good time.

The Monday History Club gave a luncheon on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. McKenney, 64 Larabee street. Mrs. W. C. Puffer and Miss Mary Talbot, who will soon leave the city, were the guests of honor. The luncheon was served on the floor. There were very pretty decorations of evergreens, with the flags of all nations. The tables, with their beautiful settings and soft lighting, made a charming picture. After luncheon Mrs. A. L. Clarke read an interesting paper. Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Conant sang "The Lily and the Rose," after which Mrs. Puffer and Miss Talbot were presented with tokens of the club's friendship. Those present were: Mesdames Keimath, Samuel Connell, James Bell, J. E. Bennett, A. L. Clarke, George Cooper, George Booth, J. F. Finley, A. W. Goddard, Frank Grant, P. I. Packard, W. C. Puffer, King Wilson, D. K. Young, C. G. Tipton, Anna Welch, Emma H. Talbot, Mrs. David Grant, Searle, Stromman, Searle, Conant, Little, and the Misses Farrell, Talbot, Gibbs, Jessie Farrell and Ruth Connell.

A very delightful party was given last evening on board the British ship Cleopatra in honor of Captain Fritchard. Vocal solos by Miss Katie Gaffney and Miss Eva Shively, piano solo by Miss Minnie Shively, recitations by Captain Fritchard and the Epiphany party. It is needless to say it was a success. Through the kind offices of Mrs. VanWaters and Mrs. Hawthorne art squares, draperies, pillows, etc., transformed the parish house into a cozy drawing-room. Interpreting the season for social intercourse was a fine literary and musical programme to which Judge Bullock and W. T. Gardner added their quota. At the close of the evening Mrs. VanWaters announced that the ring cake would be passed and requested that only those draw who wished to give the Epiphany party the following year. Great interest and amusement attached to the drawing of the ring. When probably two-thirds of the pieces had been drawn, Mrs. Frederick W. Berry found herself the fortunate possessor, and accordingly Dr. VanWaters announced that the next party would be given at her residence.

Dr. J. R. Wilson, principal of Portland Academy, gave a lecture on "The Home in the Ideal" at the last meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, held at the home of Mrs. Robert Smith, Rev. C. E. Chase was present and introduced Dr. Wilson, whose address was greatly appreciated. Oregon holly, violets and white carnations were combined in Mrs. Smith's decorations, with very pretty effect. Some of the most charming events of the week was a progressive "Pitt" party given on Tuesday evening by Miss Louise Hutchins at her home on Portland Heights. The house was decorated with evergreens, ferns and flowers, among which were a number of palms and Oregon holly. The prizes were given, first honors being carried away by Miss Winifred Labbe. After the market on the different grain products of our Western States had been covered, and again by the enthusiastic investors, there came a lull in speculation, and they turned their attention to a delightful supper, served at tables lighted by dainty candelabra.

Mrs. S. Livesey gave a pleasant party on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Weir, of La Porte, Ind., who is the guest of Mrs. Brown, on East Alder street. The house was prettily decorated with white and red. Beautiful prizes were awarded to those holding the highest scores in the games played, the winners being Mrs. White, Miss Lake, Mrs. C. L. Ross and Mrs. Weir. The hostess was assisted in receiving by Mrs. W. C. McBride and Mrs. C. L. Ross; Miss Ethel Webb assisted in keeping score, while Mrs. E. L. House, Miss Schlegel and Miss Macomber assisted with the refreshments.

The beautiful home of Mrs. J. C. Butler, at 1067 East Morrison street was the scene of a merry curiosity party Friday night. The parlors were prettily decorated. Refreshments were served, with music interspersed. Much interest and merriment was manifested in thinking out the proper answers. Out of a possible 50 points, Mrs. E. L. House, Mrs. C. L. Ross and Miss Alba Fowler tied for first place with a score of 31. Mrs. Pettit finally won first prize by drawing a high card. Mrs. Butler assisted in entertaining by her daughter, Mrs. Edward Sheldie.

Mrs. P. L. Silvey entertained on Monday evening, in honor of Miss Mamie Barnes, who will leave for Los Angeles. The evening was merrily spent in playing the popular game of "pit." Among the guests were: Mrs. W. Redmond, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. G. Downing, Mrs. T. Holmes, Miss Holmes, Mrs. Gruber, Mrs. R. E. Keadler, Mrs. D. Sherrett, Mrs. A. A. Keadler, Mrs. Charles Keadler, Mrs. M. P. Purn, Mrs. E. E. Maston, Miss Maston, Mrs. E. L. G. McDermott, Mrs. Muriel Durenberger, Mrs. Mathiot and Mrs. Card.

The Third Infantry Band, Oregon National Guard, gave an extremely pleasant dance at the Armory on Tuesday evening. American flags and red, white and blue bunting brightened up the big drill hall, and the music was the pleasantest included the gay and popular two-steps "Uncle Sammy," "Jolly General," the waltzes "Lazare" and "Prince of Pilsen," and a new two-step, "The American Girl," composed by J. H. Everett, leader of the band.

The Misses Nina and Alma Mueller, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. T. Mueller, of 323 Union avenue, gave a very pleasant party to 35 of their young friends, on Tuesday, the occasion being the birthday anniversary of both little girls, who are aged 12 and 11 years, respectively. The afternoon was spent in music and games, and refreshments were served. Mrs. G. Jeffery, Mrs. G. Mosher and Miss H. Bhaedel assisted Mrs. Mueller in entertaining the children.

On Friday evening Mrs. J. A. Gowanlock gave a party in honor of her sister, Miss Belle Young, of Seattle, who has been visiting in Portland the past six weeks. The evening was pleasantly passed in music and games. The winners in the games were Frank Tomlinson, Valley Collins, Will Cooper and Roxanna White. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, and at 12 o'clock the merry company dispersed.

Miss Lila Nelson entertained a number of her friends on Friday evening in honor of her cousin, Miss Edna Faxon, of Eugene. The Scotch game "Kill Kennedy," was played with much interest, and several of the favorite Scottish ballads were sung by Miss Lila Rankin. There was also excellent instrumental music by Mr. Hopkins Jenkins and Miss Grenard. Later in the evening refreshments were daintily served.

Mrs. E. A. Lynde gave a pleasant birthday dinner on Tuesday afternoon at her home on Blarworth street in honor of Mrs. M. H. Myers, of Richmond. Those present were: Mrs. B. Godbey, Mrs. L. Shively, Mrs. J. Savinich, Mrs. D. H. Myers, Mrs. A. E. Myers, Mrs. N. E. Day, Mrs. J. Siegfried, Miss Louise Hammer, of Seattle, Miss Mand Godbey and Mrs. Wettaler.
