Roosevelt Will Be at Oyster Bay Little During Summer.

FEW SPEECHES WILL BE MADE

President's Idea in Remaining at Capital During Heated Season Is to Be in Touch With Leaders.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.-It seems probable that President Roosevelt will be in Washington during the heat of the Presi-that he will be the nominee of his party for the Presidency, it is expected that he will return to Washington to receive the formal notification of his nomination. Soon thereafter he will return to Cyster Bay to remain there during the latter half of July and the whole of August. It is possible he may prolong his sojourn at his Summer home until the middle of Sep-tember, but not longer than that. He then will return to Washington, and re-then will return to Washington, and remain here during the campaign.

Many reasons have induced the President not to pass the entire Summer and Autumn in Oyster Bay. Chief among them is the necessity that he should be in close touch with the people of the country, particularly the leaders of the Republican party. This will be scarcely possible if he should remain in Oyster Bay during the campaign. Facilities of all kinds in the letty Long Island town in which is local the President's Summer home are limited. Crowds of even moderate proportions cannot be accommodated there, and it is inconvenient for visitors to reach the President even after they arto reach the President even after they ar-rive in the village, the President's home, Sagamore Hill, being three miles from sident Roosevelt will go to Oyster Bay early in November, in order to be there on election day. It is quite probable he will receive the returns from the election there, but this has not yet been determined definitely. Some time in the Sum-mer or Autumn the President will visit the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, but no time has been fixed for that visit. While it is possible he may make one of two short trips in the Summer, he has decided that he will no nothing in the nature of political campaigning.

Hoquiam Version of Dispute in Southwest Washington League.

HOQUIAM, Wash., Feb. 20.—(Special.)— A dispatch to The Oregonian stating that Hoquiam is to be dropped from the South-western Washington League this season has been published, and, as an effort is being made to "knock" the Hoquiam men, they desire the facts of last season's work to be known. Following is their story: The Hoquiam league toam led the pen-nant race through the season and won. If nant race through the season and won in out of the 18 games played. President Pink reversed one because Hoquiam did not play the Tacoma league team, which olympia brought down to this city. This Portland Club, 130 5th street.

protested game was given to Olympia, which afterward wanted to sell it to us. After the season had been finished and according to President Fink's decision, the race was a tie, Hoquism and Aberdeen were to play a series of three games and again Fink ordered the three games played on Aberdeen's grounds. An effort was made to change the schedule in order to give the tallenders a chance to overto give the tailenders a chance to over-haul the leaders, bug Hoquiam protested, and now they claim it is owing to our opposition last season they want to drop

The whole contention is because Ho-quiam will not stand for Pink as presi-dent, and, as he is aspiring for that po-sition, he is anxious. He telegraphed Ab-erdeen to see if it would stand for Che-halls, but it said "no." "Hoquiam" is the war cry. The upper teams ask for a con-cession of 50 per cent of the gate receipts, and, when it was looked into and found that Hoquiam's and Aberdeen's gates last season for the last sumes were over 4250 season for the last games were over 1250 each, Olympia 355 and Centralia 355, "not for a minute" said the harbor towns. "We are the drawing eards in this league and can make more money out of it, but if the people want a league, we will give them one if everything is just."

Washington during the heat of the Presidential campaign this year instead of at Oyster Bay, where it has been supposed he would remain for several months. The President has made tentative arrangements for the Summer and Autumn, and they include a comparatively brief so-fourn at Oyster Bay.

It is quite certain that the President himself will not go to Oyster Bay this year until after the convention. A few days, perhaps, after the convention. A few days, perhaps, after the convention, he will go to his Summer home. He will remain there, according to present arrangements for a week or ten days. Assuming that he will be the nominee of his party for the Presidency, it is expected that he will return to Washington to receive the Umpires Were Talked To. The F and K indoor baseball teams, which played a match game at the Arnory last night, have got themselves tied for first as kickers among a goodly col-lection of umpire persuaders. F won by 5 to 5, but winning was not the point of the game. It was to see which could in w Umpires Mackie and Daugherty most. Umpires Mackie and Daugherty most. Only the captains put up the smooth talk to the umpires until the fifth inning, when the teams were tied, and nobody was particularly displeased, though both were morally certain they had been handed a bunch. Then something happened to K's pitcher, and F made five runs. Men were making base runs right and left, and K saw this would never do, so whenever there was a chance to interfere with a decision the entire K team would rush at the umpires, while F would defend them, and there would be hot talk.

The two contesting teams are not known as cracks, but there were few errors, and it was a pitchers' battle throughout, except when the umpires came in for their

HARRIMAN MAY BE LET IN. Negotiations With Hill for Trackage to Puget Sound.

CHICAGO, Peb. 28.-Hill and Harriman interests are discussing the advisability of entering into closer relations in the Northwest with respect to an interchange of traffic, and it is understood the way has been paved for an agreement. The question of interchange of traffic between the Hill and Harriman lines in the Far West has been a live topic for Woods won, ar. Linge second, Collection to third; time, 1:55.

One mile, handleap-Horatius won, Gold Mr. Hill desires a shorter line into Portland than is provided by the Northern Pacific, and it is equally well known that Mr. Harritnan desires an entry into Tacoma and Senttle.

Both interests can obtain what they desire, provided they can reach a basis of exchange. The Northern Pacific now turns over considerable traffic to the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company at Wallula, Wash., and the Harriman line is compelled to deliver to the Northern Pacific at Portland a great deal of truffic destined for Seattle and Tacoma, From Wallula to Portland is 214 miles by the Harriman line, and 416 miles by the Hill route. Mr. Hill is therefore said to desire trackage right for the Northern Pasire trackage right for the Northern Pa-cific trains from Wallula into Portland. WILL CONFER WITH SHIPPERS Western Roads Ready to Discuss the Recent Advances in Rates.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.-Executive traffic officials of the Sante Fe and the Hill and the Harriman lines are arranging a meeting in Chicago with a half-dozen of the largest shippers in the country, with a view of discussing the recent advances which were made in the rates to the Pacific Coast. The shippers who have been invited to attend the conference are engaged' mainly in the iron and steel and lumber business, although other interests are to be represented, The meeting will be the result of objections which have been made to the increases which went into effect January 15. The advance on iron and steel and some of their products amounted to about 5 cents per 100 pounds, and the increase on lumber was material.
