Several, charming weddings have taken place in Portland during the week, and news was received of the marriage at Kansas City of Miss Sadie B. Bkinner and Benjamin L. Campbell. The young people became acquainted while both were attending Portland Academy, and of course they have a great many friends here. Mrs. Campbell is a sister of Mrs. James A. Lyman and Mrs. Besides France Warren, Miss Frank E. Dooly, of this city. Just now Mr. and Mrs. Campbell are making a tour of Mexico, and are expected to arrive in Portland for a short visit some time in the Spring.

Sunches of lities of the valley, tied with beavy green silk cord, were at the places of each of the ladies of the places of the places of each of the ladies, and the favors for the man were yellow rescheds. Daintily painted hearts served both as place cards and covers for the salted almend boxes. Besides Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Hosford, Mrs. and Mrs. W. B. Starr, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Starr, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. White, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Parke, Mr. and Mrs. City Just now Mrs. A Charming Juncheon was given yester.

An informal dance was given at the places of the ladies, and the favors for the ladies, of each of the ladies, and the favors for the time in the Spring.

Miss Cardin, of Scattle, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Maurice Cheal, and Miss Ballard, also of Scattle, who is visiting ton Home's series of monthly tean took place on Tuesday, when the old ladles of the home and the members of the board held a book social.

The Assembly of Tuesday night was the last large party of the Winter season, and everybody enjoyed it perhaps the more because of knowing that for 40 days only the simplest of entertainments are to be enjoyed.

The ballroom was beautifully decorated with calles and palms, and in the dising-room there were yellow and red tulips. A programme of delightful music was by Parsons orchestra, making danding very enjoyable.

Mrs. Allon Lewis, Mrs. Richard Kochler, Mrs. Zera Snow and Miss Pailing were patronesses. Mrs. Lewis were a were patroneses. A six beas such as trikingly handsome gown of cream lace, with a shoulder trimming of purple velvet flowers. A dainty costume of white shirred chiffon was worn by Mrs. Snow. Mrs. Koehler's gown was of black lace, and was exceedingly handsome. Miss and was exceedingly handsome. Miss Falling wore reliev brocade.

Mrs. Henry McCraken looked very distinguished in white slik, and Harry McCraken's flancee, Miss Ballie Slayden, who came from Spokane to attend the party, were a beautiful gown of white

Mrs. Frank B. Riley wore an exquisite gown of white not, trimmed in pink roses. A beautiful gown of heavy white satin, with yellow flowers in medallion effect, was worn by Mrs William Ir-win. Mrs. Walter B. Honeyman wore a handsome gown of black silk and lace. Mrs. Honeyman's niece, Miss Cunning-ham, who came home with her from Scotland, wore cream chiffon, with tiny black dots. Miss May Failing wore an elaborate gown of blue brocade.

of the prettiest gowns seen during tary, Mrs. Van Orden; treasurer, Mrs. evening, an elaborate affair of heavy Conroy. one of the pretitest givens seen during the evening, an elaborate affair of heavy three lace. Miss Lucy Sitton was winsome in alter moire velour and lace. Miss Latta Jordan was charming in pink hand-painted chiffon, with a shower bouquet of violets and illies of the valley. Miss Kate Fulling located very attractive in pale blue chiffon and lace. Miss Pierence Strong were a beceming xown of ds not, embroidered in gold.

Miss Harriet Calkins wore white silk ergandy, with selicate blue flowers. Miss Mary Sears wore a daintily becoming gown of pale green. Among the white gowns which are so becoming alike to girls and matrons, noticeably pretty ones were worn by Miss Elizabeth Strong, Mrs. Orville C. Pratt and Miss Rebecca

A rate of unclaimed packages, such as the Washington Postoffice heids yearly, was the very novel method devised for making money at Mrs. J. F. Batcheider's making money at Mrs. J. F. Batcheder's tea, given on Monday afternoon for the benefit of Trinity Episcopal Guild. Mrs. Batcheder has a charming way of entertaining that is quite individual, and her guests were delighted with her clever-ness in arranging her "dead-lotter office." Mrs. Francis Scaly was auctioneer of the packages, each one of which had a modest price marked on it, so that when one bid two dollars for a bundle found to contain a cretonne wall bag it was with full warning.

A package addressed to Mrs. L. W.
Ritton, "U. S. Collector of Bables for the Port of Portland," contained an amusing note from the sender, "Elbridge T.
Gerry," and a "nigger baby" pen wiper.
Mrs. Calvin Heilis was the highest bidder for a pretty red velvet opera bag, addressed to "Miss Playsoer," and Mrs.
Mins C. Gleason's purchase contained a daintily-made white finned jacket for a baby.

A flat purcel addressed to "Mrs. Goose A flat parses and resect to floorwille, Sky-Bocket County," contained a cheesecloth duster to "aweep the col-webs out of the aky." Other dusters were addressed to "Mrs. Nogiri, Kitchenville," and to "Mrs. Neverdone. After the sale Mrs. A. A. Morrison and Mrs. A. C. Panton served tea at a table which had pretty decorations of yellow camilies and maiden-hair ferm.

which had pretty decorations of yellow candles and maiden-hair fern.

Among those present were Mrs. R. B. Wilson, Mrs. C. H. Lewis, Mrs. James Failing, Mrs. G. C. Robinson, Grandma Munra, Mrs. George W. Weidler, Mrs. R. Glien, Mrs. George B. Hill, Mrs. H. M. Grant, Mrs. Edward Fleury, Mrs. J. P. Johnson, Mrs. S. D. Chamberlain, Mrs. John Tempis Grayson, Mrs. A. G. Barker, Mrs. James Muckle, Mrs. J. P. Johnson, Mrs. J. C. Caskey, Mrs. Anna Van Bensselser, Mrs. A. H. Birrell, Mrs. E. J. Godfrey, Mrs. Joseph N. Teal, Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. C. Lombardi, Mrs. A. R. Hill, Mrs. T. B. Kelm, Mrs. E. O. Mattorn, Mrs. C. H. Soencer, Mrs. R. Weekn, Mrs. J. B. Reed, Mrs. J. H. Woodward, Mrs. W. A. Gordon and Miss Lottle Sharlook.

. . . ite Labbe, Miss Etta Honeyman, Miss Muriel Williams, Miss Lalu Johnson Miss Lena Conningham, Miss Harriet Calkins, Miss Ethel Wenthworth, Miss Katherine Arnold and Miss Nan Voorhies.

Mrs. Frederick Eggert's dinner, given Mir. Frederick laggert's dinner, given at the Hobart-Curtis on Tuesday evening for her guest. Miss Ballard, of Seartie, was beautifully avranged and charming in every way. The colors were yellow and green, with a center decoration of yellow daffodd's and jonguils. Both candelabra and electric lights were green shaded.

A charming luncheon was given yester-day by Mrs. Prederick Eggert, for Miss Ballard. The table had as a centerplece a long bank of pale pink carmations, and all over the table violets were scattered.

Norton Friday evening for the young people. The hall looked very attractive trimmed in festoons of cedar, and a men Ballard, also of Scattle, who is visiting Mrs. Frederick Eggert, at the Hobart-Curtla, have been receiving a great deal of attention since their arrival, and several pleasant affairs have been given in their honor. Miss Ballard was the guest of honor at Miss Lill Carstens' eard party on Thursday, at a luncheon given on Friday by Mrs. D. W. Wakefield, and party on Thursday, at a luncheon given on Friday by Mrs. D. W. Wakefield, and a sevening a small bridge party jast evening, at which Miss Harriet Kinney, who was a classmate of Miss Ballard's at Stanford, was the hosters.

One of the most successful of the Patter of Message and the place of each guest were scattered. At the place of each guest was laid a long-stemmed pluk rosebud, and the horse was syread. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Hardy, Dr. and Mrs. Hardy, Dr. and Mrs. Hardy, Dr. and Mrs. Hardy, Dr. and Mrs. Miss Laura Cleland, Miss Laura North-up. Miss Daily Gaylord, Miss Desern. Miss Grace Warren, Miss Gertrude Pratt, Miss Elizabeth Watson, Miss Grace Warren, Miss Gertrude Pratt, Miss Elizabeth Watson, Miss Grace Warren, Miss Gertrude Pratt, Miss Elizabeth Watson, Miss Gertrude Pratt, Mi of Japanese innterns were dainty supper and there. At midnight a dainty supper On Wednesday evening last the ladies Holland, Ned Holland, Dr. Arch Stewart, of Winslow-Mend Circle, G. A. E., met Arnold Rothwell, Lloyd Wentworth, Mr.

> PORTLAND YOUNG COUPLE WEDDED IN KANSAS CITY

MISS SADIE B. SKINNER.

black dots. Mine of blue brocade.

Nearly all the young girls carried violets and lilles of the valley, and several had plak roses.

A charming California bride, Mrs. Jack
A charming California bride, Mrs. Jack Weifare of the circle. The officers elected were as follows: President, Mrs. Bredy; secretary at the home of Mrs. Hayden, on East Van Duzer, Mr. Lee, Charles Briggs, Sam

the evening, an elaborate attair of heavy tore lace. Miss Lacy Sitton was winsome in alus moire velour and lace. Miss Lauta Jordan was charming in pink hand-posited chiffon, with a shower bonquest of violets and illies of the vailey.
Miss Kato Fulling looked very attractive if pale blue chiffon and lace. Miss Fiorence Strong were a becoming gown of turqueize blue crepe, and Miss Miriam Strong were not over pink silk, with a huge bouquet of pink roses.

Miss Frances Lewis wore green chiffon, and her guest, Miss McClintock, of Pittsburg, were a pretty white gown.
A handsome gown of green popeline and seru point d'esprit, with pearl trimming, was worn by Miss Dosch. Miss Camille Dosch was strikingly pretty in yellow Brussels net, embroidered in gold.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerlinger, Jr., who are on their honeymoon trip in California, have been spending the week at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco. Their next stopping place will be Del Monte. While in San Francisco Mr. and Mrs. Gerlinger were entertained at several delightful dinners given by francisco Mr. and Mrs. Gerlinger were entertained at several delightful dinners given by francisco Mr. and Mrs. Gerlinger were entertained at several delightful dinners given by francisco Mr. and Mrs. Gerlinger were entertained at several delightful dinners given by francisco Mr. and Mrs. Gerlinger were entertained at several delightful dinners given by francisco Mr. and Mrs. Gerlinger were entertained at several delightful dinners given by francisco Mr. and Mrs. Gerlinger were entertained at several delightful dinners given by francisco Mr. and Mrs. Gerlinger were entertained at several delightful dinners given by francisco Mr. and Mrs. Gerlinger were entertained at several delightful dinners given by francisco Mr. and Mrs. B. Allen Lewis gave a dinner on Tuesday evenling in honor of their gaven by francisco Mr. and Mrs. L. Allen Lewis gave a dinner on Tuesday evenling in honor of their particular of the particular of the province of the province of t and Mr. Potts.

Mrs. Fleiding S. Keliy entertained sevcral of her young women friends very in-formally on Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Cardin, of Seattle, who is here visit-ing her sister, Mrs. Maurice Cheal.

Mrs. Henry McCraken entertained informally on Thursday afternoon, in honor of Miss Slayden.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. David S. Stearns entertained a number of their friends at their residence, 655 Belnt street, to celebrate their 20th wedding anniversary. The reception hall and Hying-room were beautifully decorated with red carnations, by and Oregon holly. with red carnations, by and oregon holly.

Smilax and white carnations made a pretty diningroom decoration. An entertaining programme included piano selections by Mrs. T. T. Davis and a violin solo by Mrs. Robert McDuffee, a solo, "The Holy City," by I. D. Boyer. In the dining-room Mrs. I. D. Boyer and Mrs. W. H. White served light refreshments, assist-ed by Miss Bessie Davis and Miss Effic Collins. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jacob McDuffee, Judge and Mrs. J. R. Cleiand, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Weeks, Mr. and Mrs. T. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Walter, Mr. and Mrs. Mack, Mr. 12. A guessing game and a "heart hunt"

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING AT RAINIER, OR.

MR. AND MRS. W. B. DOBELBOWER.

February 5, at their home, in Rainier, Or. Mr. Dobubower was born in Philadel-phia, September 26, 1820. In 1850 he crussed the plains in Oregin. Mrs. Dobel-hower (formerly Emily A. Tigard) was born in Cane Hill, Washington County, Ark,

January 8, 1856. She crossed the philm to Oregon in 1852. Mr. and Mrs. Dobel-bower were merried by the late Elder Barian in 1854, and settled on a dunnilist claim the same year in Washington County. Mr. Dobelbower satisfied in the Oregon Mounted Volunteers, and served in the Walla Walla and Takima Indian War of 1855 and 1856. He moved to Portland in 1862, worked at his trade as curpenter, and built living, with three grandchildren. They are both hale and hearty, and look forward

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Dobelbower celebrated their golden welding anniversary

Van Duzer, Mr. Lee, Charles Briggs, Sain Kerr, Frank Kerr, of Boise; Emmett Brown, James Lineay, Drake O'Relliy, Mr. Burpee, Dr. Mattson, Robert Mo-Craken, Roy Case Brandt Wickersham, Mr. Hamilton, of Michigan; Mr. Went-

The Oregon Society for the Emuncipation of India from Caste Slavery not last Wednesday evening at the residence of Judge and Mrs Seneca Smith, 63 Hall street, Judge Lionel R. Webster presidstreet. Judge Lionel R. Webster presiding. The attendance was large, and the organization is galping in membership. Communication has been established with the Central Indian Committee, and matters are in a very satisfactory way toward carrying on the work of the organization in Gregon. According to programme, the topic of the evening's discussion was devoted to "Child Marriage" in India. Dr. Thompson opened the subject with a brief paper, followed by a general discussion. Mr. Claussenius favored the meeting with a number of vocal selections, which were very much appreciated, and the recitations by the charming little girl. Adm. Stephenson, delighted every one present. Stephenson, delighted every one present. The kindly invitation of Judge and Mrs. Smith to the society to hold the next meeting at their residence was accepted, and the meeting set for Wodnesday, March 2, at 8 o'clock P. M.

The Girls' Cinch Club was delightfully entertained on Tuesday afternoon by Miss essie Church and Miss Helen Coman, at Hessie Church's home at East Eleventh and Miss Church's home at East Eleventh and Burnside streets. The score cards were heart shaped, in honor of St. Valentine, and decorated with tiny Cupids. Miss Ethel Shea and Miss Maud Hahn won the rizes and after these were awarded re-reshments, including heart-shaped ices were served. The club's next meeting will se held on March 1, at the home of Miss Helen Coman, 155 North Eighteenth street. Those present on Tuesday were: Mrs. H. E. Judge, Miss Edna Jefforry, Miss Edna Cannon, Miss Semele Groat, Miss Evelyn Fairbrother, Miss Julia Coman, Miss Edna Church, Miss Maud Hahn, Mrs. D. H. Palmer, Miss Lill Corstons, Miss Etty Stewart, Mrs. Belle Dulton, Miss Ethel Reed, Miss Lillian Loller and Mrs. Oscar took up the first part of the evening and pit and flinch the latter part. Miss Graves entertained with instrumental music, and Messra. Neeson, Kavanaugh and Ehears with vocal selections. Miss Lora Allen and Miss Julis Kavanaugh won the prizes for the "heart hunt." At it o'clock dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Donohue, Mrs. Harrow, the Misses Kavanaugh. Graves, Harrow, Allen, Julia Kavanaugh, Golden, Kelly, Messra. Smith, Avery, Shears, Kavanaugh, Neeson, Carson and Graves.

The Monday History Club met at the

The Monday History Club met at the home of Mrs. W. C. Puffer on Monday afternoon. French history, 1559 to 1850, was the topic for the afternoon, the lesson being led by Mrs. Keinath. Mrs. Grant, in an interesting paper took the club on a tramp through the Black Forest. Mrs. Finley read a paper on novel ways of entertaining guests. Mrs. Puffer read sketches from the litnerary of her intended trip shroad, and the ladies were shown her entire traveling outfit. Refreshments including delicious home-made candids were served. Fifteen invited guests were present, besides all the club members.

One of the pleasantest occasions of the season was the Valentine party of Miss Ethel Davis, which was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Glessner, 14 East Ninth street, north, on Friday evening. The spacious parlors were beautifully decorated with ivy and Oregon boily strung with crimson hearts. The diningroom was festooned in crimson, the table being illuminated by red candles in heart-shaped candlesticks. A feature of the occasion was the souvenir valentines for the guests, each containing an original verse. Games and music passed away the evening and dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. D. A. Doud and Mrs. C. G. Tipto entertained about 30 ladies Toesday after-noon at the home of Mrs. Doud, at Mt. Tabor. The spacious parlors were ef-fectively decorated in green and white. Dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Matie Billings entertained at he served late in the ever

The regular meeting of the Fortnight Club was held on Tuesday evening at the hone of the Misses Broughton. The study of Russian was continued and the foi-

A musical society to be connected with the Portland Woman's Club was organ-ized at the residence of Mrs. George C. Fianders, on Portland Heights, on Wed-nesday afternoon. The officers elected and President, Mrs. G. Songe C. Fianders, vice-president, Mrs. H. C. Frost; secre-tics Mrs. Arthur C. Swelli Pressure. rice, president, Mrs. B. C. Frost; secretary, Mrs. Arthur C. Newill; treasured Mrs. -..uson De Lude. The meetings with he held in the Seiling-Hirsch building a 10 o'clock on Saturday morning.

on, Mrs. Warren White and Mrs. J. D. Young.

Friday evening by the Frilathea Society of the Second Baptist Church. The room was beautifully decorated with hearts and Oregon holly. The postoffice was an at-tractive feature, every one receiving a valentine. A short programme was rendered, after which pit, flinch and other games were played. Punch, cake and chocolate were served during the evening.

Mrs. Ivy McMillen Glover entertained the Close Tillcurks on Thursday afternoon in a very delightful manner. Those pres-ent were: Mrs. F. S. Dunning, Mrs. W. S. Cuttler, Mrs. E. Story, Mrs. Charles Harding, Mrs. G. Wigg, Mrs. Wilcox, Miss Clark and Mrs. La Sche. The next mest-ing will be at the home of Mrs. Charles Harding, 277 Williams avenue.

The St. Lawrence Social Club gave its final whist party Tuesday evening, February 16. The whist prizes were won by Miss S. Quinn and George Cadwell. During the whist the Royal Italian Band played selections, which were greatly entered to the control of the work of the control of the work of the control of joyed. Vocal selections were given by Miss Elizabeth Harway and Frank D. Hennessy.

A pleasant event of Saturday, St. Val-

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller entertaine

On Wednesday a few friends in honor of Mrs. E. O. Gardner entertained in a charming manner with a "violet" evening, the decorations of the room, tables and favors emphasizing that idea. The Myrtie Chapter, No. 15, Order of the Eastern Star, gave the first of a series of whiat socials in Mesonic Temple on Fri-day evening of last week. The next party the valentine party given on Saturday afternoon by Miss Buckenmeyer and Miss

We Furnish Houses Complete From Attic to Basement on Little, Easy Payments

Stupendous Sale of Samples Just the sale hundreds of you have been waiting for, but such saving prices as none of you could have expected: $55.00 Birdseye Maple Dresser - Extra Large Square Mirror $55.00 Real Mahogany Dresser-Piano $35.00 Quartered Oak Dresser-French

Every Home Has a Place for One of These.

Streamers of each color were fastened to the chandeller and gracefully draped to each corner of the room and added to this was the beautiful untive holly, which with paims and flowers produced a charm-ing effect. Flinch was played and during the afternoon Mrs. Young played several selections on the piano, and Mrs. Puffer gave two of her entertaining recitations.

Miss Matie Billings entertained at her home during the past week with a delightful valentine party. The rooms were invisibly decorated with garlands of red hearts, the doorways and windows being draped in them also. Several games appropriate to St. Valentine's Day were much enjoyed. One which caused much amusement was interpreting of cipher valentine messages. Each guest received a dainty valentine, decorated with a min-lature Gibson head, the work of the Delicious refreshments were of Russian was continued and the fol-lowing papers read: "Russia and Japan and the Manchurian Situation," by Mrs. J. C. I.a Barre; "Uncle Sam and the Rus-sian Immigrant," by Mr. R. B. Carey; "The Trans-Siberian Railway," by Mr. Rigsby. Two musical numbers were ren-dered by Miss Ione Townsend. The club will be entertained by Miss Florence George, 616 Market street drive, on the svening of March 1.

pleasant meeting last week at the home of Mrs. F. M. Miles, 23 Hancock street. The study of the wanderings of Ulysses was study of the wanderings of Crysses was continued "Circe's Palaco," "The Sirens," "Scylla," "Charybdis," "The Island of Calypso," "King Allinous and Princess Nausicaa" were the subjects of carefully prepared talks by Mrs. W. B. Hall, Mrs.

a delightful valentine social was give

On Saturday evening Miss Nell Pinn and Miss Ellia Carlisie entertained the members of the East and West Whist Club at the residence of Mrs. Emma Watson, 182 and music and dancing were also enjoyed Seventeenth street. The highest score was 19 points by Mrs. Emma Porter. Fruit punch was served during the evening, and dainty refreshments followed the games. Pendant hearts, with a profusion of fern and Oregon helly, formed the decorations.

entine's eve, was a surprise party given Miss May Murphy, at her home, 5tl East Alder street. The evening was very pleas-antly spent in games and music. Late in the evening a delightful supper was served. The rooms were beautifully dec-orated for the occasion.

the members of the Portusals Club, all of whom are employes of the Oregon Rail-road & Navigation Company, on Tussialy. Mr. Miller, who was recently appointed chief clerk at Ainsworth dock, was pre-sented with a handsome armchair.

enjoyable evening was spent in playing sames and dancing.

will be given on Friday, March II.

About 50 children, dressed in the dain-tiest and flufficst of party clothes, enjoyed Polish, extra fine $40.00 Mahogany Dresser-Full Serpentine-Shaped Front.....

Sample Dressers and Bureaus

The arrival of new Spring goods demanding displayspace upon our sample floors impels price - inducements never justified before. Over 40 Samples, both in new arrival and from regular stock; there'll be no two alike; but the variety is great and the bargains beyond compare:

$35,00 Birdseye Maple Dresser-Several $37.50 Mahogany Dresser-Serpentine Front; Swell Sides

$30.00 Solid Oak Dresser-Large French $20,00 Mahoganized Maple Dresser-Dia-

$12.50 Fir Dresser-Golden Finish; Large

A Whole Week of It-Monday Till Saturday Night

COUPON

I. GEVURTZ & SONS HOME-FURNISHERS

173-175 FIRST STREET

219-225 YAMHILL STREET

Eclipse Steel Ranges, $35-Best on Earth-Hundreds Know It and Say It.

S. Rothwell was best man, and Miss Alice at the ceremony and at the wedding sup-per. Mrs. E. W. Walthew, the groom's mother, came from Seattle to attend the wedding. Covers were arranged for 20

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs.

Walthew will be at home at the Hotel Washington, Scattle.

An impressive wedding took place at Central Methodist Episcopal Church on Wednesday evening, when Miss Ethel May

Elliott, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Elliott, of this city, was married to Carl Burton Webb, of Goldendale, Wash. The church was artistically deco rated with Oregon grape, ivy and palms. Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," played by Miss Laura Jones, preceded the service, during which the bridal party stood ner's "Song to the Evening Star" was played very softly upon the violin by Mr George Wuest. The bride was a winsome rately tucked and ruffled. Both carried

Jeffery. There was nice music and pretty favors for the German, and a valentine for each member of the class. Ices and cake were served in the dining-room, which was prettily decorated.

The Auxiliary to the Ancient Order of Hibernians brought their pleasant series of parties to a close in the entertainment given on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. E. H. Deery. Whist was played, Miss Katie Corrigan and D. W. Lane win-ning the prizes. Old Gaelle songs were sung by D. J. Curran and William Can-

The Halo Wawa Whist Club met on Monday evening at the Western Academy of hiusic. The game of whist occupied the time very pleasanty, prines being awarded to Mrs. Frank Schlegel, Mr. Gordon, Dr. Florence Manion and F. A. Mac-Pherson. The club holds its meetings on the first and third Mondays of each worst.

The Hawthorne Duncing Club gave its first annual ball last Saturday evening in the hall of the Mulky building. Mrs. Owen Summers. Mrs. Dr. W. O. Manion, Mrs. Adrian Oakes and Mrs. L. M. Hubert were the patronesses for the entertainment, which was largely attended and extensive the patronesses. tremely pleasant.

The literary study class of the Hassalo street Congregational Church was enter-tained Tuesday evening by Miss McKercher. The reading was from "La and Elaine," with violin and plane English and Miss McKercher.

A valentine surprise party was given in honor of Miss Emily Reckard at her home, 433 Everett street. Games were played during the early part of the evening, and The rest of the evening was spent in sing-ing, music and dancing.

A delightful valentine party was given

A delightful valentine party was given by Miss Lucile Logan at her home, 184 Grand avenue. The house was prettily decorated with hearts and other red trimmings. During the evening games were played, and at a late hour dainty refreshtients were served.

until a late hour. One of the events of the week was the sixth party of the Merry Flinch Club. The hostusses, Miss Sarah Cole and the Misses Eva and Elva Johnson, entertained in a most enjoyable manner at the home of the carnations. The groom and his best man, William N. Clayton, were attended by Messra. John Wuest and George Hill. The Misses Johnson, 571 Enst Ash street. The clerks of the general delivery of the Postoffice were entertained on Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Buck, at their home on Vancouver avenue. Light refreshments brought to a close a most delightful evening. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Holman cele-brated their 20th wedding anniversary on Tuesday evening by giving a card party, at which a large number of their friends were delightfully entertained.

A surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jacobson at their new home, $40 East Couch last Friday evening. Flinch was the amusement of the evening and a dainty luncheon was served.

The Misses McClung entertained a party of friends on Saturday evening, at their residence, 356 Hancock sireet. The popular game of "pit" was played, and at II o'clock supper was served.

A merry evening was spent at the home of Miss Bertha Crosley, on St. Valentine's eve by a company of young people. Miss Louise Hislop and Miss Birdle Griswold assisted in entertaining.

Mrs. Cora Truax, of 1200 Union ava-nue, entertained at dinner last evening in honor of Miss Sarah Truax.

WEDDINGS. Walthew-Steel.

The wedding of Miss Evelyn Steel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Steel, to Harry Mason Walthew, of Seattle, was a simple ceremony in the pariors of Guilliaume, instead of the brilliant event ar-ranged to take place in the First Congre-gational Church. The change in the plans for the wedding was made on account for the wedding was made on account of the liness of Mrs. Steel.

The room where the ceremony took place was made to look exceedingly pretry with decorations of pains, Oregon holly, smiltar and against through which pink tulle was lightly druped. The chandeller was veited with smilax and the mantel and windows visit in Porland Mr. and Mrs. Webb will were banked with the Oregon holly.

HEADQUARTERS for GENUINE ALASKA SEALSKINS.

(LONDON DYE)

Highest Cash Price Paid for Raw Furs.

Mrs. William A, Knight played the wedleave for Goldendale, Wash., where they will be at home to their friends after ding march from "Lohengrin," at the be-ginning of the service, which was read by Dr. Edwin L. House, D. D., pastor of the First Congregational Church. Arnold March 10.

Bartlett-Swift.

The wedding of Miss Nina M. Swift, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hasle-wood, to Grovenor E. Bartlett, was S. Rothwell was best man, and Miss Alica Andrews was Miss Steel's maid of honor. The bride was lovely in white creps de chine, the bodice elaborately fagoted, shirred and tucked, and finished with a bertha of point lace. The skirt was made with a pointed yoke with perpendicular tucking, and outlined with fagoting. A pretty fullness at the botton was designed solemnized Sunday evening, February 14, at the residence of the bride ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. John Powell. The house was deco-rated with Oregon grape, and the ceremony was performed under a wedding bell of white and pink roses. The bride was beautifully attired in nun's veiling, trimmed in applique lace and pearls. She wore a tuile veil, fastened with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of bride's pretty fullness at the botton was designed to fall from bunches of white roses, these being placed about a foot from the bottom. Her ornament was a pendant of diamonds pearls and aqua matines, with a turquoise center, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and illes of the valley. Miss Andrews were pink slik crepe and carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations. roses, which was caught by Mrs. Roses Huggins. Miss Josephine Swift, clerctof the bride, acted a Tridesmald. She was attired in champagne-colored crope cechine, and carried a beautiful bouquet of chine, and carried a beautiful bouquet of pink carnations and smilax. Little Rosie Littlefield acted as flower girl, and was attired in white organdle. Clayton E. Leitzel acted as best man. As the bridal couple entered, Mrs. Blanche King played the wedding march. After the ceremony, Mrs. Records. pink carnations.
Only immediate relatives were present the wedding march. After the ceremony, Mra Heacock sang "O Promise Me." Supper was served at the home of the bride's parents. The dining-room was decorated with ivy and red hearts, with streamers of red and white from the center to the correct of guests at the supper, which was served at a pink and white table. Pink carnations and fulle were tastefully arranged on the table, and the sliver candelabra were pink ter to the corners of the table, and tied with bows of Nile green, Badollet-Sutherland. The wedding of Miss Lila Isabel Suther. land to Paul Badollet, of Astoria, took place on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sutherland, on West Park street. Rev. William S. Gilbert, paster of Calvary Presbyterian Church, performed the marriage ceremony. James Johnson, of Astorla, was best man, and Miss Sadio Jack-son was maid of honor. The bride wore a simple gown of cream voile and lace, with a bouquet of carnations. Miss Jackson nd the two little flower girls, Alice Rinkle contumes of organdie.

Only relatives were invited to the wed-under a beautiful wedding bell. The cere-mony was performed by Rev. W. B. Moore, of North Yamhill, assisted by Rev. F. S. Young and Rev. W. T. Kerr. Wagling, about 200 guests coming later in the

> A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever. Dr. T. Felix Gourand's Oriental Cronm, or Magical Beautifier. Removes Tan, Pimples, Freckler Rank, and Skin dis-ushers were Frank Buck and Ralph Stearns. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Mary Wiseman. After a short

283-285 Morrison

Cloaks and Sults

Important Sale of Suits

To make room for our new Spring purchases, we place on sale to morrow, regardless of cost, the balance of our Fall suits. Included in this sale you will find excellent styles and good materials. We consider them the best values ever offered.

LADIES' SPRING SUITS

New arrivals-and you are sure to like them. We have never shown handsomer styles. Among them are exquisite creations in basket cloth, etamines and mannish suitings, made with the new Eton jacket. All are elaborately trimmed and finely tailored. Prices from $18 to $40

All our Furs are greatly reduced. You can have a fur garment made to order or your old furs remodeled at one-third off the regular price.

HEADQUARTERS for GENUINE ALASKA SEALSKINS.