Pacific Coast Association Invites Passenger Agents--B. H. Trumbull, of Portland, Elected President-Next Meeting at San Jose.

ASHLAND, Or., Feb. 30 -(Staff correpondence.)-The fourth annual conven-ion of the Pacific Coast Association of tion of the Pacific Coast Association of Traffic Agents opened at this city this afternoon, with an attendance of nearly 100 delegates. A large amount of business was transacted, and an adjourned session will be held tomorrow morning. Oregon, Washington and British Columbia were represented by about 45 delegates and their wives, and California by about 50 delegates and their wives. The citizens of Ashiand received the visitors from the coast with true Oregon hospitality. They were met with a hearty welcome, ban-queted and made to enjoy themselves at a ball.

Besides disposing of routine business the association extended an invitation to the American Association of Traveling Pas-enger Agents to hold its 1905 convention Portland, and ordered the appointment of a committee to carry the invitation to the next meeting at the City of Mexico. San Jose, Cal., was selected as the next place of meeting, and the following off-

The first order of business was the report of the treasurer and secretary, showing an increase in membership, but a deficit in the treasury of nearly $100. The financial status of the association was a subject for considerable discussion, it subject for considerable discussion, it being isarned that district No. 2, of North-ern California, was delinquent for 1902. This was found to be due to confused records, and they were ordered straightened out. When the election of officers was called for, it was made evident that California was intent upon having J. H. O'Neill, of Portland, fill the office of president, but he declined, and the election resulted as above mentioned. San Jose was selected as risk best place of meeting with a shout. Some other millior matters were attended to and the association adjourned until to-motrow morning. From S to 9.2. M, the guests enjoyed a

Rules in Two Damage Suits.

ASTORIA, Or., Feb. 20.-(Special.)--Judge McBride handed down two decishows today on motions which were argued before him a few days ago. One was in the damage case of William Martin vs. John Reid, and the motion to strike out portions of the complaint was granted. An amended complaint was filed this after-noon and the defendant was allowed until next Friday to answer.

The other decision was in the case of Charlotte Grimberg vs. The Columbia River Packers' Association and the mo-tion to make the complaint more definite was denied. The suit is to recover $5000 for the death of Emanuel Grimberg, who was killed by falling from aloft on the ship St. Nichoias, and the accident is al-leged to have occurred through the breaking of some portion of the ship's rigging.
