MISSIONS BY PAULIST FATHERS.—The spiritual advantages of the Lenten season can be taken advantage of by all Catholics through the mission, which will be opened at high mass this morning at St. Mary's Cathedral by the Paulist Fathers, of New York and San Francisco. An especial effort had been made by the clergy of this state and California to obtain the best instructors for this work, and in Fathers Cullen, Smith and Wynn, who have come to Portland, they feel they have a power which will reach the penitential. Father Cullen is a particularly able speaker and a splendid instructor. After two weeks at St. Mary's the reverend fathers will go to St. Francis Church, Oak and East Eleventh, and begin a mission, which will last from Palm Sunday until Easter, after which they will visit points in the Willamette Valley. The Paulist Fathers' Order is a religious organization, founded by the venerable Father Hecker. It is made up largely of men who are converts to the Catholic Church, and their work is to give special instruction to Catholics and non-Catholics, setting forth and explaining the teachings of the Catholic Church.

SUNDAY CLUB AT THE Y. M. C. A.—Dr. Edgar P. Hill, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will speak to men at the Sunday Club in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium this afternoon. The subject is "The Adventure." Detmold's orchestra will give the usual half-hour programme of high-class music in the gymnasium. Professor Wilder and the male chorus will lead in a roasting song service, and the special numbers will consist of tenor solos by Lauren Pease. At 4:45 the study groups take up the discussion of the topic, "How to Become a Great Man," based on the teachings of Jesus. At 5:30 the fellowship lunch will be held in the gymnasium for which a charge of 10 cents is made. The afternoon programme begins at 7 and is free to all men.

FAMILY LOSS ALL IN FIRE.—Fire, caused by a defective fuse, destroyed J. S. Howe's cottage at Woodstock about 8 o'clock last night. No insurance covered the loss, which will amount to about $200. The cottage was located about two blocks beyond the terminus of the City & Suburban car line, out of the reach of protection from any fire department. The cottage was occupied by Charles Burghard and family, who lost everything in the fire. The case is a pitiful one, inasmuch as Mr. Burghard has been left almost penniless with a large family to provide for. A collection was taken among the neighbors after the fire and nearly $50 was realized to help the unfortunate family.

LEASING QUARTERS.—The Women's Exchange, which was started under the auspices of the Woman's Union early this year at 44 Washington street, will move into new and larger quarters about the first of April. It was found that the premises now occupied were too small for the needs of the Exchange. Several locations are available, and a choice will be made this week. The new quarters will be served for business men and women, and during the afternoon to accommodate shoppers. One feature will be the sale of home-cooked foods. The sale of needle work, useful and ornamental, will be conducted on a larger scale than heretofore.

RAISED WINTER CABBAGE.—Richard Scott has raised another fine crop of broccolo or winter cauliflower at his farm near Milwaukie. He has had fine broccolo all winter. In his garden are several varieties, and all have done well. It is a most remarkable sight to see the green plants growing in the garden during the coldest weather. The broccolo is a cauliflower, only much harder than the ordinary cauliflower.

IMPORTANT REAL ESTATE DEAL.—Messrs. O'Brien Bros. & O'Donnell yesterday purchased through Goldsmith & Co., real estate brokers, the quarter block 100x100 feet situated on the southwest corner of Tenth and Washington streets, with the three-story new building block thereon. The purchase price was $110,000 cash. This desirable property is considered by judges of value a splendid investment for the amount paid.

PHOTOGRAPHS OF OREGONIAN BUILDING.—A remarkably good picture of the Oregonian building has been made by J. F. Ford, of 27 1/2 Morrison street. The photograph was taken from the roof of the Meier & Frank building. Mr. Ford used a Zeiss convertible lens and a plate tilted. It will be added to his city views in his general collection of Oregon scenery, of which he has one of the largest in the state.

PAY TUESDAY AND GET REBATE.—Tuesday is the last day on which to pay taxes and obtain the benefit of the 3 per cent rebate. Tax collections during the week have been heavy, many large taxpayers paying by check. Taxpayers who only desire to make a one-half payment are not required to pay by Tuesday night, but only persons who wish to pay in full and get the benefit of the rebate.

JUDGE PIPES LECTURES ON LABEL LAW.—Judge Martin L. Pipes talked before the City Press Club last night on the law of labels. He had a large number of newspaper men who were becoming impressed with the gravity of the question and its importance to them. It was especially interesting to hear of the case after the talk the usual Press Club refreshments went around.

KNOCKDOWN COST $60. H. Ollenbeck is Fined for Striking a Chinese.

H. Ollenbeck, a pugilist, scored a knockdown a few evenings ago, which cost him $60 yesterday. Ollenbeck was found guilty by Municipal Judge Hogue of knocking down an inoffensive Chinese, and also of contempt of court. Fifty dollars was assessed in the first instance and $10 in the other, which was brought on by Ollenbeck's failure to appear in court when cited.

CHARLES PERRY came near to suffering for Ollenbeck's offense. The victim of the assault identified Perry as the man who struck him, but subsequent developments showed that Ollenbeck was the guilty one. He insisted that he thought the Chinaman was going to cut him with a knife, but from his own statements he had no other reason for so believing than that the Chinaman was walking up the street with one of his hands up the sleeve of the opposite arm.

In passing sentence Judge Hogue said he would give Ollenbeck the limit, as he had no patience with anyone who would deliberately knock down an inoffensive Chinaman. "Such offenses are becoming too frequent," the judge said, and he intends to do what he can to discourage such practices when the opportunity offers itself.

THEY ARE EXQUISITE. The Specially Designed, Low-Cost Barrett Lighting Fixtures.

Sometimes you want lighting fixtures that are really artistic and still you do not want to pay much money for them. The fear of large expense bothers many a lady who is about to remodel a room in her house and install new lighting fixtures. She loves the beautiful and the fine touches of art. She wants them in her home, and she shrinks from what she regards as inevitable, startling cost. That is a mistake, like other false impressions that are widely prevalent. That is precisely what Barrett Lighting Fixtures are. Delights in solving the problem of attaining artistic effects at small cost. Tell him the furnishings of the room, and he will design, or adapt the fixtures, and install them, and you will think it is a miracle. There is never a necessity of large expense. The grace, the appropriateness, the utility, the color, the form, if combined right, give life and art to the result, and, to you, are immensely pleased! And, believe us, the cost need not be high. These beautiful wares can cost as much as you desire, for there is no limit to varieties, but they can be absolutely beautiful at moderate outlay. We can prove this to you at any time.

SAYS HARMONY RULED. Chairman Peery Denies That Democrats Turned Down Sweek Faction.

L. T. Peery, chairman of the Democratic Central Committee, insists that the committee was entirely harmonious in preparing the primary ticket of that party. He does not know for sure whether the Sweek or anti-Sweek people will control the next convention, but, when asked about that matter last night, intimated that the anti-Sweek people will be on top.

"The executive committee," said Mr. Peery, "was entirely harmonious in its action. In every case where there were no contesting delegations the ticket nominated by the precinct caucus was filed. In a few precincts there were contesting delegations, and in these cases the ticket having the endorsement of the precinct committee was for that precinct was accepted and filed. In a number of precincts no meetings were held and no delegates elected. In these cases the committee exercised its prerogative under the law and named the delegates. The action of the committee was open and above-board, and will stand the closest scrutiny as to its fairness."

These facts are known to the Democrats of Portland, and can be known by any one sufficiently interested to investigate the matter. I should have ignored the published misrepresentations, but for the fact that Democrats in other sections of the state might be misled by them. The executive committee is composed of the party who advocate and practice clean politics, and its appeal to the party is on these grounds. It opposes all fusion and 'tingling alliances' with the Republican party or either of its factions in this county.

"I wish you would further state that the committee has not endorsed and will not advocate any particular candidate for any office or position."

Fleeing Thief Caught. William Rodgers is in custody as the result of an attempt to steal a suit of clothes from the clothing store of W. J. Benjamin, 23 North Sixth street. A last night, and on Monday morning he will answer in the Municipal Court to a charge of larceny from a dwelling. Benjamin saw Rodgers snatch the suit of clothes and immediately made after the fleeing thief. Watchman Jack Hoare happened along at the right time and gave chase, and Rodgers was promptly overhauled and taken to the police station.
