SEATTLE, April 20.—(Special.)—Portland made more runs behind like Butler today than it has all season, and like won his game. That he did so is due to a mighty west by Castro, which drove the ball over the fence in the second inning, and the timeliest kind of a hit by Judge McCreedie. While the credit for winning the game must go to McCreedle, the credit for saving it belongs to Jack Drennan. With Smith on first in the ninth, due to well-placed hit, Frisk drove the ball out a well-placed hit, Frisk drove the ball dut about a quarter of a mile. He sent it out on a curve and, run as fast as Dren-nan might, the ball kept curving away from him. He finally got the tips of his fingers on the leather and hung on. He spoiled a sure home run for Frisk and saved the game, for Hall hit to Beck and Exceptions drove a virious grounder at Brashear drove a vicious grounder at
