

TIME TO BE MERRY

Portland Will Have Carnival for Two Weeks.

FINE SPECTACLE TO BE GIVEN

Five Warships Will Join in Festivities-Illuminated Parade on Eve of Independence Day--Huge Tent in Multnomah Field.

That Portland is to have a great mid-Summer carnival is now assured. This Mardi-Gras and Festival will continue from June 28 until the evening of July 9, and during the two weeks there will not be a dull day for the visitor who may sojourn within the hospitable gates of the Rose City, as the Carnival Committee is determined to call the City of Portland.

Instead of one order of society having the management of and interest in the undertaking, it is under the management of the Federated Trades Council, an organization representing 54 trades unions, with more than 10,000 members, and a committee from the Fraternal Temple. This committee represents an organization composed of 34 different fraternal societies which have lodges in the city, having a total membership of more than 50,000. There is scarcely a family in the city that is not interested in the success of the undertaking. It is to be given at mid-Summer, just between seed and harvest season, thus insuring a large attendance from the country districts.

The general committee has secured the entire grounds of Multnomah field and has arranged for the greatest number of attractions ever known in the history of this city. The price of general admission will be but 25 cents, which will permit the visitor to witness the following attractions which will be conducted both afternoon and evening.

Spanning the Aerial Arch, or leaping the gap 42 feet wide, by a bicycle rider. This feat has been performed successfully by two performers in America.

The Electrical Fountain. Under the dazzling lights of many colors a beautiful woman will pose plastic and give a skirt dance. The sprays of water falling from the fountain over the colored lights are a wonderful spectacle.

The high dive, from a scaffold 90 feet down to the water, the electrical illumination being arranged to make the leap more difficult and daring.

The revolving trapeze performers, three female acrobats from Paris who are said to be the best in this line in the world. They are now giving exhibitions in New York.

The great spiral tower, never seen before on this coast.

Seven other equally well-known attractions. The show will be under a mammoth tent seating 10,000 people. Here will be two rings and between the two a platform for spectacular work.

There will be several parades, some of them illuminated parades, an innovation in this city. The Federated Trades Council and the fraternal associations are also arranging to manage the Fourth of July parade on June 27 to participate in the parade and the Fourth of July celebration. On this day there will be one of the greatest parades ever given in the city. On Saturday, the eve of the Fourth of July, there will be an illuminated parade, at an hour when the stores and business houses are mostly closed. There will be music and fireworks and a Mardi-Gras parade, like of which cannot witness outside of New Orleans; also a barbecue and dinner.

Special rates will be given by the railroads and boat lines and the attendance will be such as to test the ability of the city to entertain.

The business men are assisting the committee very liberally, and appreciate the fact that they will be asked to contribute but once for the Carnival and the Fourth of July Celebration. The Carnival Committee has agreed to care for the Fourth of July celebration out of the funds contributed.

STUNNED AND DROWNED.

Tragic Death of James L. Murray, Veteran of the Civil War.

James L. Murray, a Civil War veteran, who came to Portland two years ago from Michigan, met a horrible death during the early hours of yesterday morning by falling from the high railroad trestle at Second street and Hawthorne avenue. His body was found shortly after sunrise in three feet of stagnant water. Apparently, the man had been stunned by the fall and struggled in the shallow water, being unable to make his way to the banks of the pond. The old veteran was dressed in his Grand Army uniform.

The death is thought to have been entirely accidental. Murray is known to have attended a social early in the evening, and later to have been drinking more than he should have done. He was seen to cross the Madison-street bridge about midnight, and was not again seen alive. It appears as he had started to walk the trestle and lost his footing, falling into the water. The fact that there are no bridges on the body indicate that he was not struck by a train.

Coroner Finley was notified when the body was found, and it was taken from the water and removed to the Morgue. The police were notified, and a thorough investigation was made by Officer Hoseley, but there were no indications that the fatal fall was the result of anything but an accident.

William Murray, of Milwaukie, son of the dead man, was at once notified. He went to the Morgue, and, after learning the circumstances of the death, said he would not ask for an inquest. The dead man was 69 years old, and left a widow, five sons and a daughter, residing in Michigan. The funeral will be held tomorrow at 1:30 P. M. from Finley's chapel. Interment will be in Sellwood Cemetery.

IN DOUBT AS TO LAW.

Registration May Close Either Saturday, May 14, or Monday, May 16.

County Clerk Fields says he is in doubt whether he will close the registration books on Saturday, May 14, or Monday, May 16. The statute provides that registration shall begin on the first Monday in January and close on May 15 at 5 P. M. May 15 falls on Sunday this year, and Attorney General Crawford has written an opinion to the County Clerk of Benton County that this year registration must end on Saturday evening.

But some attorneys differ with this opinion and Mr. Fields has not yet decided to follow it, although he states that he will probably close the registration books next Saturday afternoon.

SPREADS THE INFECTION.

Smallpox Patient Roams Through the Courthouse, Sent by Policeman.

County Clerk Fields and his chief deputy, F. W. Frazer, were vaccinated yesterday morning by County Health Officer Dudley Evans, because Joseph Medley, a woodchopper, afflicted with a pronounced case of smallpox, paraded through the Courthouse and enjoyed the company of the Clerk and his deputy for some considerable length of time. Evans furnished everything about the building as best he could, and thought it was a wise precaution to inject a little vaccine into the arms of the Clerk and his deputy.

Medley, who has been following loads of wood to private houses from Herman's woodyard at Water and Columbia streets, was sent to the Courthouse by the policeman on that beat, and he roamed through the building upon his arrival, and finally landed in the County Clerk's office. Evans was at once sent for, when the man's condition was observed, and he ran him out in the yard and stood him up against the fence until he could telephone to William Beutepacher, the deputy city health officer, and have Medley conveyed to the posthouse.

FLOURING MILL FOR ST. JOHNS

W. B. Jones Sells Out in Spokane to Start in Portland.

A new flouring mill with 400 barrels daily capacity will be in running order on the river bank at St. Johns within five months. The builder, who has procured several acres of land and a space for wharfage, is now spending his time looking over the site, and will have building materials on the ground shortly. He is W. B. Jones, and he has incorporated with his sons in the Jones Milling Company.

Mr. Jones is an old milling man, and six months ago sold the mills of the Inland Empire and Milling Company, located in Spokane. Since that time he has been looking over the Coast for a good place to build another mill. He has said about Portland as a milling center, "This is the best place to build a mill. I have canvassed the situation thoroughly. It is the nearest to the wheat belt of any of the points accessible to the sea. I can do business here better than anywhere," he concluded.

Mr. Jones has been well known throughout the West as a careful business man. At one time he was a wholesale merchant in Missoula, Mont. He gives no reason for selling out at Spokane and locating here, except that it is to his interest. A 400-barrel daily output is not large, but mills rarely begin with a larger output.

PLAIN TALKS

About the Superb Pianos That Ellers Sell and Why They Keep Them.

Chickering, Weber, Kimball, Hazelton, Lester, Hobart M. Cable and twenty-five other reliable makes.

The greatest number of strictly highest-grade pianos that any concern, East or West can boast of handling. They are selected out of the best of makes, the selling of which has been urged upon Ellers Piano House by the manufacturers.

But in our immense business, we find plenty of demand for them all, and every one makes friends for us, as prices please toward the instruments.

Tones of pianos vary, just as the voices of fine singers, the qualities of some being more pleasing to one musical taste than those of others. Some possess tones which are rich and resonant, others are sweet and sympathetic, still others clear and bell-like, some again, strong and sparkling, etc., etc.

The unusual skill and experience is necessary to produce pianos which possess these various qualities in artistic degree, and this judgment is necessary in order to decide upon the pianos which possess true musical qualities in the highest degree, and which will be retained in the home through the many years which a good piano should.

THE KIMBALL, the piano that has won laurels where others failed, that meets every requirement in tone and appearance, and also in that other qualification, little less important, moderate price, as compared with its great excellence.

THE HAZELTON, among the oldest, most prominent, distinguished and thoroughly scientific makes, this piano belongs to the strictly first-class and artistic.

THE LITTLE, the piano that is designed by and built under the supervision of practical piano men, the product is a thoroughly modern, balanced piano, of a wonderfully musical tone, which is preferred by many musicians to pianos of greater price.

THE HOBART M. CABLE, a piano that instantly pleases both in tone and appearance, and is a masterpiece to please as long as it is possessed. Scores of people throughout the country speak enthusiastically of this piano, and by dealers the Hobart M. Cable is always found a great attraction.

These pianos, as well as every one sold by us, are fully guaranteed by the manufacturer, as well as by Ellers Piano House, and we further agree in writing to refund every cent paid if instrument fails in any way to fulfill all that is claimed.

Ellers Piano House, the store of large values, low prices and fair and liberal terms, is located at Washington street, corner Park. Other large stores San Francisco and Sacramento, Cal., Spokane and Seattle, Wash.

and confined to his house since Tuesday. He is now convalescing.

H. T. Hendryx, a prominent mining man of Sumpter, is a guest of the Portland. Ex-Governor T. T. Geer, who has been at the Imperial for a day or two, returned to Salem yesterday. He is now editor of the Salem Statesman.

Percy B. Kelly, of Albion, but I know positively that the Portland Club is planning to run this colony at the coming election. I will arrest every man who repeats, and I will also arrest those who have kept them here for that purpose. Most all these men are worthless, no-account persons, and they are here for no other purpose.

"I say this to give warning to both sides, and I think it is only fair to all concerned. They might as well know that I know what they are going to do."

"I cannot say that any other concern is trying to do the same thing, but I can speak positively of the Portland Club."

Explosion on Vanderbilt's Yacht. NEW YORK, May 7.—Three men were badly hurt today by the explosion of a battery on William K. Vanderbilt's turbine yacht Taranulua, near City Island, where the yacht was anchored. The men were cut and burned by the fire in the battery and were blown overboard by the explosion.
