

HE WEEK'S social affairs have been quite informal, including, however, a number of extremely pleasant home entertainments and several dances. Mrs. John Young entertained the Bridge Club. on Tuesday. Mrs. F. S. Morris entertained at cards on the afternoons of Friday and Saturday. Miss Delta Watson entertained the Girls' Cinch Club at one of its most pleasant meetings, and another pleasant afternoon entertainment was a tea given yesterday afternoon by Miss Jessie Far-

. . . Last Saturday the people of the post spent a very pleasant evening at the Of-facers' Club, The large rooms were artis-tically decorated with dogwood and Blacs. Supper was served in the poolroom, where the decorations on the table were red and white, Mesdames Huston, Davis and John-son received the guests. The Nineteenth Infantry Band played, and a number of songs were sung.

Mrs. Hadsell entertained the post ladies Mins. Hadsell entertained the post ladies at cards last week. The guests were: Mesdames Gore, Serrios, Miller, Huston, Ebert, Thompson, Walton and Farmer, and Misses Febiger, Thompson, Johnson, Wilcox and Bonnell Vilcox and Bonnell. Dr. and Mrs. Taylor, of Vancouver, have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter to Lieutenant Walter R. Wilson, A. C., on Thursday, May 12, at 8 o'clock.

Great interest is being manifested in the concert that is to be given on May 12 in the post hall for the benefit of the Army Belief Association. Many tickets have already been sold, Among those who take part are Misses Funston and Davis, Major and Mrs. Goe and Lieutenant Terrion. Major Goe is at present in Fort Morrison. Wright on an examining board.

J. A. Sladen, Mrs. Arthur Cotton Newlik J. A. Shaden, Mrs. Artnur Cotton Newait, Miss Abby McElroy, Miss Anna Stuart, Mrs. Katherine Brand, Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox, Mrs. Felix Friedlander, Mrs. Ed-ward Failing, Mrs. E. G. Jones, Miss Von Bolton, Miss Harris, Mrs. W. H. Hawkins, Mrs. W. H. Hawkins, Mrs. W. H. Hawkins, Mrs. W. H. Hawkins, Mrs. 2010, 2010 Mrs. E. P. Mossman, Mrs. Clarence Vea-sie, Mrs. Herbert W. Cardwell, Mrs. Barl C. Bronaugh, Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Frank Billey. Helon Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Frank Riley, Mrs. S. Lipman, Mrs. Edward Ehrman, Mrs. Loenberg, Mrs. Sigmond Sichel, Miss McConnell, Mrs. Alexander Bernstein, Mrs. F. P. Maya, Mrs. P. L. Willis, Miss Cooper, of the Chemawa Indian School; Mrs. Hobert Livingstone, Mrs. Fleicher Linn, Mrs. Orville C. Pratt, Miss Ruth Smith, Miss Ruth Maxwell, Miss Carlotta Parker, Miss Katherine Falling, Miss Lena Canningham, Miss Burnham, Mrs. Paul Desah, Mrs. Willam MacRae, Mrs. Walter MacKay, Mrs. Charles Kamm, Mrs. J. Myrick, Mrs. W. H. Beharrell, Miss Frances Lewis, Mrs. F. M. Warren, Miss Frances Lewis, Mrs. F. M. Warren, Miss Frances Lewis, Mrs. F. M. Warren, with rapt attention. The programme follows:

Vocal sold

ection

Hearts was the game played at Mrs. F. S. Morris' card party on Friday affer-noon. There were about 30 guests, all of whom enjoyed the afternoon thoroughly. The decorations were of white carnations cedar and Oregon holly. Punch was served during the game and later, dainty Mrs. Morris wore a handsome gown of black lace over white satin, and Miss Morris was lovely in pink accordion-plafted chiffon over white chiffon, with trimining of Valenciennes lace. Miss Etta Honeyman won the first prize-a blue and white cup, silver mounted.

Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster en-tertained a company of young people at dinner and bridge at the golf links on Thursday evening. White lilacs made a very pretty table decoration, and the fa-vors for the guests were dainty bunches of lilies of the valley. The prizes at bridge were won by Miss McClintock and Mr. Lewis. The guests included Miss Lewis, Miss Flanders, Miss Lou Flanders, Miss Wood, Miss Sibson, Miss Khr. Miss Miss Wood, Miss Sibson, Miss King, Miss Emma Failing, Miss Whalley, Miss Burns, Miss McClintock, Dr. Jeffords, Mesars, Murray, Glean, Macleay, Mackay, Heebe, Harry Corbett, Grelle, Thales Linthicum and Hunt Lewis.

The Baby Home's annual tea was held at the Home yesterday afternoon, with a group of charming young society girls and matrons at the tea table. The decora-tions were of illaca, arranged in fragrant masses of purple and white, and the en-tire Home, which at present is giving a comfortable shelter to 22 babies, was in holiday trim for the visitors. Assisting Mrs. W. D. Skinner and Mrs. H. G. Twomey, who poured tea, were Mrs. Katherine Brand, Miss Ethel Went-worth, Miss Imogene Stuart and Miss Harriet Calkins. At the candy table were Mrs. Kulliam C. Morrison and Miss Helen Morrison. The Baby Home's annual tea was held at the Home yesterday afternoon, with a group of charming young society girls and matrons at the tea table. The decora-

Mrs. William Ho Mrs. William Honeyman chaperoned a gay tallyho party given yesterday by Miss Etta Honeyman. The start was made at 2:30 o'clock, and the drive to the Honeyman country place, below Scap-poose, was as delightful as high spirits Honeyman country place, below Scap-pose, was as delightful as high spirits and fine weather could make it. Those in the party were Miss Ruth Smith, Miss Hazel Crocker, Miss Inez Barrett, Miss Fanny Brown, Miss Katherine Woolsey, Miss Ruth Maxwell, Miss Laura Jordan, Miss Honeyman, Mr. Dave Honeyman, Mr. Chester Murphy, Mr. Marion Dolph, Mr. Tom Robertson, Mr. Emimett Brown, Mr. Jordan Zan, Mr. Arnold Rothwell and Mr. Brandt Wickersham. Miss Dittenhofer, of New York, and brown.

THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN, PORTLAND, MAY 8, 1904.

quite a number of new members were enrolled. The auxiliary may well feel proud of the work it has accomplighed since its organization only two months Silverfields FURS, CLOAKS, SUITS 283-285 Morrison Street ago. The address by Mrs. Trumbull, who is The address by Mrs. Trumbull, who is a member of the Chlid Labor Commis-sion, was very interesting. She made some very pointed remarks, which con-tained much food for thought, the ladies being especially interested in the refer-ence to the Consumers' League label. Mrs. Trumbull pointing out the Portland stores which carry goods bearing that label. Mr. Rogers' address on "The Union Label and the Benefits to Be De-rived From the Ladies' Auxiliary," was a masterly effort, and was listened to with rapt attention. GREAT REMOVAL SALE A Sale Without a Parallel-This phenomenal Bargain Festival is now in active progress. To purchase such needful garments at such a saving and at this time should prove of intense interest to all intending purchasers. WE MUST MOVE-SO MUST OUR STOCK Our Cloak and Suit Department is going to move to the second floor of our NEW STORE, which will occupy the corner of Fourth and Morrison We will retain the second and third floors of our present location, devoting this entire space to the retailing of "All that women dust Mrs. Weinberger and Miss Lewis. Mr. Hugh Gian and children wear." We INTEND to open our new store with an entire new stock. Will these prices accomplish it? nlaston Printers and dust Secty and Miss Emma Shopa, a solo Mis Staw ress Mrs. Trumball Control Quartet Economy Is Expressed by These Prices on Tailored Suits The Oregon Society for the Emancipa-tion of India from Caste Biavery met last Wednesday evening at the residence of Judge and Mrs. Seneca Smith, 434 Hall street, Mrs. O. N. Denny presiding. Among other matters transacted, a number of letters were read from Soami Ram, who is now on his way to Budfalo N. 4 alm The splendid values will commend themselves to every woman who sees them. All garments this Spring's importations. $13.65 $14.85 is now on his way to Buffalo, N. X.; also from Lucknow, East India, where the ob-jects and methods of the Oregon Society are attracting much attention. A recent number of the Lucknow Advocate which has just been received, devoted two col-umns to the movement in Oregon, and the editor has also written to the society. An excellent assortment of the season's best regular A special line of swagger Spring Suits, valued as high as $25.00. $27.00 suit values. $23.85 $26.50 umns to the movement in Oregon, and the editor has also written to the society, expressing the gratitude of his country-men for the interest manifested here in improving their degiorable condition. The secretary was authorized to communicate to the editor of the Advocate that ar-rangements are practically completed for placing one or two Hindu students at either Corvallis or Eugene, where they will be maintained by the Oregon Society during their studies. The literary programme of the evening A most charming collection of Voiles, Cheviots and Beautiful $35.00 Spring Suits, remarkably striking all other favored fabrics made into a number of styles, latest colorings, richly embellished. To see stylish Spring Suits regularly valued at $40.00. is to admire them. A grand value. 39.95 $34.65 The literary programme of the evening consisted of a paper on the most prac-ticable method of assisting India, by Mrs. Taylor, a number of musical selections by Miss Mae E. Gove and Miss Lillian The regular $60.00 Suits have created intense ad-Some direct copies of genuine Parisian models, miration from the most fastidious dressers. These made in all the popular materials. Now on sale Madison, and recitations by Miss Bertha Matlock. The programme was very en-tertaining, and the recitations by Miss at the cost of production. These are $50.00 Suits. are style creations of the master designers. Matlock were especially fine. Judge and Mrs. Smith invited the soci-ety to hold its next meeting at their resi-Extraordinary Prices on Removal Sale Neckwear Removal Sale Feather Great Cotton Shirtwaist Value Boa Value Special Silk Waists A special line of stylish White Waists of good quality taffeta. Regular $6.50 dence; the invitation was accepted, and genuine African Ostrich A line of slightly damaged Waists, The latest in turnovers, lace collars, The the meeting set for Wednesday evening. May 18, at 8 o'clock. ruching, in fact all the daintiest of Feather Boas, in all colors. The in all the lastest styles and popular the new neckwear. Regular 35c and kind that will stay curled. Regular now$4.85 materials, in white and colors. A The members of Company K. Third Infantry, held its fifth annual smoker 50c values $20.00 values most exceptional value at just Infantry, held its fifth annual smoker at the Armory on Tuesday evening. This being one of the popular com-panies of the regiment, the affair was largely attended by friends of the or-ganization. Light refreshments was served in army, style and the following programme rendered: Boxing. Privates Cavanaugh and Perkins; recitation. Private C. McFarland; violin solo, Pri-vate J. H. Kennedy: solo. Private B $14.85 Line of stylish Silk Waists. Regular $8.50, now at $6.15. 25 Cents Half Price FURS REDUCED SILVERFIELD'S SILVERFIELD'S Gilbert explained their progress up to and through the Golden Age and the decadence, illustrating each step by reference to the casts, in a manner very greatly appreciated. This closes the work of the club for the year. ing. Their guests were Captain and Mrs. Crowe, Mrs. Tooley, of Vancou-ver; Captain Garick and Captain La Mont. arrived in Portland on Friday and expect vate J. H. Kennedy; solo, Private B. Winneman; recitation, Thomas Dela-ney; boxing, Corporals Vandeleur and of white point d'esprit, trimmed with lace and Insertion. She carried a bouquet of bride roses. During the reception a de-licious luncheon was served. Among the relatives present were Mr. and Mrs. Ben E. Snipes and Mrs. E. Parrott Pond, uncle and aunts of the bride, from Seat-tic. Early in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter departed for a short trip. For a time they will make their home with Mr. and Mrs. Parrott, where they will be at home to their friends after May 10. to remain permanently, Mrs. Albert Pfeifer is expected home from Palo Alto in about three weeks. Douglass; ragtime selection by A. Ho-ben. The company officers are: Capben. The company officers are: Cap-tain, R. O. Scott; First Lieutenant, A. E. Jenkins; Second Lieutenant, B. L. Doble. The organization is rapidly J. H. Carter and wife were given a pleasant surprise party Monday night by a number of their friends. The oc-casion was the first anniversary of their- wedding. Mr. Carter is the edi-tor and manhger of the Tradesman. A very interesting entertainment was given on Monday evening, May 2. by Winslow-Meade Circle, Ladies G. A. R., with the following neurosciences G. A. American Lake with the maximum strength of 65 men. Mrs. Edward Alden Beals arrived home from Hot Springs on Thursday. R., with the following programme: Rec-itation, Miss Ella Dickson; banjo solo, Mrs. J. C. Pritchard entertained the Forestry Association on Tuesday after-noon at her home on East Couch street. At this meeing Mrs. Katherine A. Daly was elected delegate from the associa-tion to the biennial convention of Wom-en's Clubs, to be held in St. Louis. Mrs. Daly, who expects to leave on May 11, Even in place of the president Mrs. A Rien-Crick. Master Harold Nicholas; recitation, Mr WEDDINGS. Delzel; reading, Comrade Clark; violin solo, Miss Barker; reclintion, Mrs. Whiteside; vocal solo, Mr. Athey. The audience showed its appreciation by frequent encores. The entertainment Zimmerman-Wright. singer. The Spokane Spokesman-Review of last M. L. Asher left on Monday evening for a six weeks' tour of Southern Cali-Wednesday gives the following account of was a financial success. the marriage of W. H. Zimmerman, of this city, to Miss Wright, of Spokane: fornia. Miss Bella Seigel, of New York, is vis-iting Mrs. L. Rosenthal, 211 Sixth Surrounded by American Beauty roses and palms, W. H. Zimmarman, of Port-iand, and Miss Eilda Wright, of Spokane, were married last night at the home of the bride's parents, 924 Maple street, by Dean Robert Perine, of All Saints' Cathe-

The members of the Mary and Mar-tha Society of Mizpah Presbyterian Church gave a successful entertain-ment on Tuesday evening, directed by Miss Emma Howatson. Those taking part were the members of a zither club, ied by Mrs. M. B. Palacios, Mrs. Ethel Field, Miss Just. Miss Florence Jack-son, Mr. Henry Lettow, Miss Baker, Miss Maldon Kelly, Master Thomas Dobson, Mr. Arthur Butterworth and Miss Joy. a certificate of membership, sent by Mrs. Dimies T. S. Dennison, of New York. Among those present at Mrs. Pritchard's on Tuesday were: Mrs. Starah A. Evans, Mrs. A. H. Breyman, Mrs. A. T. Webb, Mrs. Nins Larowe and Mrs. Andrews. The Carpe Diem Club's first annual dance, given at the new Woodmen Hall on Monday evening, was attended by dral.

Rien-Crick. A quiet but pretty home wedding was that of Miss Ray Rien and Jack Crick of San Francisco, which took place on Tuesday evening, May 3, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Rien, 49 Third street, Rev. Adolph Abbey officiated. The wed-ding march from Lobengrin was played superbly by Miss Clara Fleshman as the bridal party approached. The bride, who was very prettily gowned and carried bride's roses, was attended by her sister. Miss Tinnie Rien. Harry Simon of Seattle acted as best man. The parlors and dining-room were beautifully deco-rated in Oregon holly and illacs, the color scheme being white and green. A sumpscheme being white and green. A sump-tuous supper was served to about 60 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Crick will live in Seattle.

Freum-Roberts.

Miss Frances Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Roberts, magner of sair, saturday evening to Andrew J. Fraum, the wedding taking place at the family home at Fulton. The Rev. Mr. Burk-holder, of the Fulton Methodist Church, Winter in California. Mr. and Mrs. John K. Kollock and officiated. The bride is a beautiful and accomplished young woman and a mem-ber of a well-known ploneer family. Her Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd are at the Country Club cottage at Hood River. wedding gown was of pearl crepe de o Miss Lucille Johnson, who recently went to New York City, writes home that she intends going to Europe June 1. and lace. Miss Susie Eller, the maid of honor, wore white silk, and the bride's little niece, Vada Ward, who carried the ring, was also daintily dressed in white. The guests at the wedding were rela-Mrs. T. Kretman and daughters, Ea-her and May, are visiting in San Franther and May, are visiting cisco, and are staying at 410 Van Ness tives and a few intimate friends. Mr. avenue. and Mrs. Freum will be at home at their new residence in Fujton after May 10.

Woltring-McClintick.

The marriage of Mr. Bernard H. Walt-ring and Miss Josephine McClintick was of the many relatives and friends of the Hunter-Gumm.

Twenty-eighth street, on Thursday even of the Third Presbyterian Church, offi-

Loder-Cotter.

Mrs. Annette Cotter announces the may

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Mrs. W. J. Royce, of Eugene, is visiting

Miss Lena Johnson spent Sunday with

Miss Estella Robbins, of Salem, is the ciated.

friends in the city.

friends in Hillsboro,

Mrs. H. K. Hines is the guest of Mrs. George P. Crowell at Hood River.

Miss Ruby Montgomery left on Tues-day for Eugene and San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Harder are guesta of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bristoi at Rose-

Mrs. S. A. Heilner, of Baker City, is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Bis-street.

Mrs. W. H. Alexander, of Eugene, is the guest of Mrs. L. J. Hicks, 448 East Couch street. Miss Minnie A. Dutcher left last Thurs-day evening for a few weeks visit in

San Francisco. Mrs. H. G. Twomey, of Sait Lakt City, is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Finley Morrison Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Lewis, of Irvington, left this week for California for a Mrs. A. C. Bailey and Ella J. Bailey returned last week after spending the Ffoulks and Miss Ffoulks, of San San Francisco, the sister and mother of Dr. Ffoulks, are now visiting at the bar racks. Mrs. Dyer has returned from San Fran clsco, where she was called by the sudden death of her brother. Miss Dunne, of Portland, was the guest of Colonel and Mrs. Huston for several days this week.

Monday evening Captain and Mrs. Gra-ham had a delightful reception in honor of Lieutenant and Mrs. Allen who have Just returned from their wedding trip. The house was elaborately decorated in green and white, Captain and Mrs. Graham and Lieutenant and Mrs. Allen re-ceived in the bay window, which was massed with dogwood blossoms. Mrs. Graham was gowned in white creps de chine and Mrs. Allen in white satin. The supper table was decorated with large bows of red ribbon and sliver candiebrae with red shades. Mrs. Huston and Mrs. Goe served the refreshments and Mrs. Johnson werved the punch. The guests General and Mrs. Funston, Colonel and Mrs. Huston, Colonel and Mrs. Hodg-son, Colonel and Mrs. Thompson, Captain and Mrs. Walton, Major and Mrs. Davis, Captain and Mrs. Howard, Captain and Mrs. Enochs, Lieutenant and Mrs. Mrs. Enochs, Lieutenant and Mrs. Mitchell, Major and Mrs. Hammer, Lieutenant and Mrs. Miller, Lleutenant and Mrs. Mygott, Lieutenant and Mrs. Fen ner, Captain and Mrs. Murphy, Chaplain and Mrs. Smith, Major Erne, Captain Kenly, Dr. Ffoulks, Dr. Wood, Dr. Morse Major Bethel, Capitaln Heims, Lieutenant Mitchell, Lieutenant Allen, Lieutenant Taylor, Lieutenant Smith, Lieutenant Tellotsen and Lieutenant Sager.

Captain and Mrs. Wreen have gone East Lieutenant Taylor, who has been for ome weeks at American Lake building a target range, has returned. Admiral Barclay, of the Navy, visited the barracks on Thursday, and was given a salute of 11 guns by the field artillery, also a review of the Nineteenth Infantry. A complimentary hop will be given Friday evening for Lieutenant and Mrs. Aller

Great interest is being taken in the field-day sports, which will be for three days, May 19, 30 and 21. From 15 to 25 men will be sent from every post in the depart-ment to participate in the events. Many officers will also visit the post at this time and a hop is to be given in the post hall in their honor on the evening of May II. . . .

That the study of advanced methods in That the study of advanced methods in cookery is becoming as much of a fad as bridge has been evident by the large au-diences at Miss Farmor's demonstration lectures, given under the auspices of the Young Women's Christian Association Cooking School. A great many young girls, as well as matrons, have attended. On Friday there were two boxes filled with girls of the June class from Portland Academy, and at Miss Farmer's matinee prestering there were rows and rows of yesterday there were rows and rows of pink-cheeked people, with wide hair rib-bons, from St. Mary's Academy, St. Helen's Hall, and Mrs. Allen's School, all pink-cheeked people, with wide hair rib-bobs, from St. Mary's Academy, St. Helen's Hall, and Mrs. Allen's School, all bury with notobooks and pencils. The forme department of the Woman's Club has done a great deal to help the cooking school committee in its enter-prise, Mrs. Sarah A. Evans and Dr. Mae Cardwell being especially active. On the Y. W. C. A committee are Mrs. W. J. Honeyman, Mrs. James Failing, Mrs. James McRobert, Mrs. M. A. Dalton, Mrs. Dell Stuart, Mrs. Jesse Walbrath, Mrs.

Miss Dittenhofer, of New York, and Mins Hess, of San Francisco, were guests of honor at a delightful card party given on Friday by Mrs. Benjamin Neustadter. The games of 500 and euchre were played, the prizes, exquisite places of ivory, being won by Miss Hess, Miss Hez-ter, Miss Marx and Miss Lauer. Mrs. Neustadter's guests were: Miss Mabel Beck, Miss Mae Oppenheimer, Miss Fra-ger, Miss Iallian Myers Miss Cora Mary ger, Miss Lillian Myers, Miss Cora Marx, Miss Barbara Lauer, Miss Henrietta Lauer, Miss Emma Baum, Miss Florence Koshland, Mrs. Sol Baum, Mrs. Emanuel Sichel. A brilliant dinner party was given at the Hotel Portland on Wednesday night by Mr. Rothbarth, whose guests were: Mrs. A. J. Meler, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Meier, Mr. and Mrs. F. Steinhardt, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hirsch, Mr. and Mrs. Isam White, Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund Frank, Mr.

and Mrs. Abe Meier, and Miss Dittenhofer. The parlors were elaborately decorated and flowers on the table were American Beauty roses and valley lilles, with a center vase of Scotch broom.

Mrs. Ludwig Hirsch entertained at dinner on Tuesday in hunor of Miss Sel of Holse; Miss Dittenhofer, of New Yo and Mr. A. Rothbarth, of New York, 7 The table was exquisitely decorated with lilles of the valley, and in the center was a miniature fountain, with a pond, in which floated tiny swans and goldfish.

Miss Katherine Woolsey, who was one of the attendants at the wedding of Miss Cardin and Mr. Swain, in Tacoma, was delightfully entertained during her stay on Puget Sound. She was the guest of honor last week at an elaborate dinner given by Mrs. L. O. Loomis.

. . .

Miss Harriet Calkins has invited Mrs. Katherine Brand and Miss Imogene Stuart to be her guests on the lighthouse-tender Heather's next trip north, sailing on Thursday. They will be away about a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lutke entertained informally at dinner on Tuesday. The table was daintily decorated with carnations.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

100

white satin ribbons, swung from the white satin ribbons, swung from the central chandeller, as at former Carpe Diem parties. The music was by Ever-est's orchestra. The patronesses were Mrs. George F. Fuller. Mrs. F. B. Thorn, Mrs. Hollis Alger and Mrs. J. H. Thatcher. Mrs. Fuller wore a becom-ing gown of pale blue silk and lace. Mrs. Thorn's gown was of a soft white wool material. Mrs. Alger wore chamgne-colored silk and lace, and Mrs. atcher also wore a pretty shade of

. . .

The First Regiment Band, Woodmen of the World, gave a ball at the Armory on Friday evening, with bril-liant decorations of electric lights and evergreen. Over the band-stand were the illuminated words, "First Regi-ment, W. O. W., Greeting," set in a lyre frame. Before dancing commenced a brief concert was given, the band be-ing led by W. F. Weber. The music for the dance was by an excellent orfor the dance was by an excellent or-chestra, the members of which are also members of the band. A large part of the success of the affair is due the efforts of Herbert F. Stilles, who managed it. About 500 people were present. . . . On Saturday evening, April 30, about 50 friends of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Allen, of Tremont Pince, gave them a com-plete surprise in honor of their twen-tieth anniversary. The bride and groom of 20 years were presented with a din-ner set of beautiful china, the presenta-tion being made by Mr. J. F. Huggins. Misses Lora and Fern Allen entertained the guests with some exceptionally good music, both vocal and instrumental, after which the wedding supper was served. As the hands of the clock were pointing toward the wee small hours, the guests departed, all wishing Mr. and Mrs. Allen a continuance of happiness and health.

Mrs. Emma Porter entertained the East and West Whist Club at her home, 555 Washington street, on Wednesday evening, giving her guests a most en-joyable evening. The parlors were beautifully decorated with purple and white illacs and Oregon grape. Five tables of progressive whist were played, which resulted in a tie between Miss Reynolds and Mr. Charles E. Lockwood, each having a credit of 12 points. Delicious refreshments served at the close of the games. were

Oregon Rose Camp, 1881, R. N. of A., gave a delightful party on Tuesday, May 3, at their hall, on Seventeenth and Marshall streets, assisted by and Marshall streets, assisted by the Oregon Grape Dramatic Club, which produced the drama, "A Father's Curse; or, Driven From Home." fol-lowed by the farce, "My Neighbor's Wife," in a very clever manner. A dance followed the performance. The hall was crowded with friends of the ama-teur actors, whose dramatic success greatly pleased their audience. the very interesting programme has been arranged. No admission fee will be charged, and all friends of the circle

Mrs. J. Allen Gilbert gave a most in-structive lecture before the Tuesday Afternoon Club last week upon "Greek Sculpture" at the Art Association rooms. Beginning with the early ef-fort of the Greelans toward art, Mrs.

...... The Wonder Whist Club was delightfully entertained on Wednesday afterat the residence of Mrs. Nora Card, 440 Failing street. Progressive whist was enjoyed until a late hour, after which refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. E. S. Seely. The prizes were won by Mrs. E. E. Masten and Mrs. Ida Ellis.

. . . On Friday evening the Wm. G. Eliot Fraternity of the Unitarian Church beid a literary meeting at the resi-dence of the Misses Eliot, on West Park street. The special topic was "Wait Whitman." The pleasing literary programme for the year has been arranged Miss Carlotta Parker, chairman of the literary committee.

The Centennial Girls gave their clos ing party at Parsons Hall on Tuesday ing party There were especially prov-evening. There were especially prov-decorations in red and green, and ex-cellent music. There was quite a large attendance, and the party was much attendance. The hostesses were Miss enjoyed. The hostesses were Miss cellent music. There was quite a large attendance, and the party was much enjoyed. The hostesses were Miss Myrite Long, Miss Graryce Baldwin.

The "Pleasant Afternoon" of Central Baptist Church met with Mrs. Arthur Fraser Wednesday afternoon of last week. A musical programme preceded a business session, in which it was decided to give a free entertainment and sale of aprons and other articles Monday even ins. May 16, at the new Woodmen hall, in East Sixth street.

George Wright Woman's Relief Corps No. 2, gave another of its delightful whist parties at Eagles' Hall on Satur-day evening, April 30. The tables were well filled, and the game was much enjoyed. The next whist party will be held at Mulkey Hall, corner Morrison and Second streets, the time to be announced later. . . .

Mrs. E. P. Waite and Mrs. Harry O'Relily entertained at cards on Mon-day afternoon and evening at Mrs. Waite's home on Northrup street. Cinch was the game played during both af-ternooh and evening, and the guests spent a most delightful time.

The Geranium Club was entertained The Geranium Chub was entertained by Mrs. Emma Phillips on Wednesday afternoon, May 4. The usual whist was played until 4 o'clock, when re-freshments were served. The winners of the prizes were Mrs. Etta Short and Mrs. Mattle Cline.

. . . At the literary meeting of the Wom-an's Alliance of the Unitarian Church held on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur read a delightful pa-per on "Edward Everett Hale." A dis-cussion followed . . The St. Lawrence Social Club gave one of their enjoyable socials Wednes-day evening. May 4. First prizes in whist were won by Miss M. Washer and Mr. William Sheahan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Anderson enter-tained a number of their friends in a

4

Promptly at 8:30 Mr. Zimmerman, the bridegroom, accompanied by his best man, Otto Prael, of Portland came down are cordially invited to be present.

the stairs and took his position near lise paims to await his bride. The mail of honor, Miss Mac Wright, a sister of the bride, dressed in white, with a bunch of An erican Beauty roses pluned to have besom, followed the bridegroom and his best man. The bride, on the arm of her father, M. D. Wright, followed. She was dressed in a simple gray traveling dress or breadcioth. Dean Perine, in the white robus of the Federand Church followed or breaddloth. Dean Perine, in the while rober of the Episcopal Church, followed. The bride, still leaning on the arm of her father, took her position beside the bridegroom, and with Dean Perine pro-nouncing the wedding serivce of the church, Miss Elida Wright became the wife of W. H. Zimmerman. Both the bridegroom and the bride are well known in Spokane and on the Coast. Mr. Zimmerman is the Northwest-ern agent for the Goodyear Rubber Comern agent for the Goodvear Rubber Com-He is in Spokane during the Sum-

and when she came to Spokane with het

Miss Iva M. James and Roy H. Ric were married Sunday, May 1, at high noon, at the residence of the bride's parents at Pratum, Marion County. The parents at Pratum, Marion County. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. A. Gordon, pastor of the Leslie M. E. Church, Salem. The room where the wedding took place was profusoly dec-orated with ferns and apple bioseoms. The bride, who is one of the most pop-ular young women in the Pratum neigh-borhood, was very charmingly attired in cream volle and carried a large shower bouquet of white carnations. After the ceremony an elaborate wedding dinner was served, the diningroom being hand-somely decorated with cherry and apple bioseoms. A large number of friends from Salem and different parts of the county were present. The bride is the daughter were present. The bride is the Caughter of T. C. James, a prosperous farmer at Pratum, and the groom is the son of Hon. F. J. Rice, of the same place.

home.

Carpenter-Parrott.

A pretty May day wedding was the marriage of Miss Frances Effelaine Par-rott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Parrott, to Mr. John Wallace Carpenter. Rev. W. B. Hollingshead officiated. Just previous to the ceremony Mrs. E. S. Mil-ler sang very sweetly "Oh. Promise Me." her mang very sweetly "Oh, Promise Me." She was accompanied by Mrs. W. B. Hollingshead. During the impressive ser-vice the bridal couple stood beneath an arch made of ropes of evergreen and dogwood blossoms. The bride was attired in a dainty gown very pleasant manner on Friday evenMrs. J. M. Lawrence and Mise Marion, who have been visiting Portland and Ore-gon City friends, returned last week to Deschutes.

Mrs. Laura Harris has returned to her home at Eugene, having spent sev-eral days with her sister, Mrs. T. J. Craig, of this city.

solemnized at St. Lawrence Church Wednesday, May 4. Rev. J. C. Hughes performed the marilage ceremony and celebrated nuptial mass in the presence ny and Miss Hattle K. Ellery has just returned rom a two weeks' vacation in Spokane, where she was the guest of Mrs. A. E.

Guerin, nec Somers. Mrs. T. D. Stimson and daughter, who have been spending the Winter with Mrs. Fred W. Prehn, left for their home in Minnesota Wednesday.

Mrs. E. H. Shapard, who came to Port-land to be present at the wedding of her elster, Miss Lucy Failing, returned on Monday to Hood River.

Miss May Perkins and Miss Estell Robbins will leave shortly for San Francisco, where they will spend the Summer visit-ing friends and relatives.

Ing at 8 o'clock, when her daughter, Dasle Dolores, was united in marriage to Roswell Garland Hinter, only relatives being present. Rev. A. J. Montgomery, Mrs. Charles Hussey has recently re-turned from several months' visit in California, and will be at home Tues-days at 557 Madison street.

Miss Maud Grace and Miss Grace Kern have returned from Kelso, accompanied by Mrs. J. S. Robb, who will be the guest of Miss Grace for the week. riage of her daughter, Ethel Annette, to Mr. Arthur Buxton Loder, of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Lathrop, who were married here recently, have been visiting in the Willamette Valley, return-ing to Portland on Thursday.

Rsv. George Croswell Cressey, D. D., of the First Unitarian Church, has been invited to deliver the baccalaureate sermon at the State Normal School at Monmouth.

Dr. George A. Torgler left Thursday morning for a trip to Japan and other Oriental ports. He goes as ship surgeon on the P. & A. S. S. Co.'s steamer Indraamha, and will be gone about three

Mrs H. W. Lemcke of Los Angeles is isiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L.

WHY THE ACTRESS ATTRACTS

It is an exception when the actress of ability enters her profession with natural beauty of face or form. The desire for success, the intoxication of strife for recognition, the thrill caused by appiause, the satisfaction of doing one's best and without thought of failure, these are constant companions of more or less intensity, but not natural beauty. Unconsciously, her costumes are studied as to colors, cut and style to suit her particular complexion, form and spirit. Her hair has great care, and the opinions of expert artists in this line are had in order to hide defects or accentuate natural conditions of beauty. So it is with the hands, necks, arms and facial complexion-they have intelli-

So it is with the name, here's mine and so its and a new root with new intermediate in the intermediate in the intermediate in the intermediate in the intermediate intermediate in the intermediate int

A large number of handsome and costly presents were given the bride and groom. Lue happy couple will reside at Pratum, where they have furnished a very pretty guest of Miss May Perkins. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Strauhal have gone to the beach for the Summer. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Watkins arrived on Friday from Boise, Idaho. Miss Maude Reynolds returned on Mon day from a brief visit in Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. A. Smith, of Bolse, or the many relatives and thends of the bride and groom. Miss Minnie Woltring was the bridesmald and Mr. Joseph Walt-ring acted as best man. Miss Mattie Kelly presided at the organ and played the wedding march. After the ceremony ner months, and in the Winty makes his headquarters in Portland. The bride was born in Idaho. She re-ceived part of her education in Idaho, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Waltring, 250 Arthur street. A very quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. S. E. Gumm, 9 East