GOCIETY

THE ABSENCE of a great number of those prominent in social life in Portland has made the past week a omparatively quiet one with the excep- were: of the younger set, which has been having one of the greatest times of the season. The reception given by the Irvington Lawn Tennis Club last Saturday night is still talked of as one of the most easant of recent events, as the Irvington ladies proved charming hostesses and the gentlemen equally gracious hosts. The presence of the officers of the visiting erships added to the succes of the event.

Miss Nan Wood is being delightfully entertained in New York, where she has been since the Roosevelt-Robinson wedling, in which she partcipated as bridesmaid. The eight bridesmuids at this wedding wore white muslin gowns, lace trimmed, white picture hats trimmed in pink, and soft pink boas. They also wore the turquoise necklaces which were the gifts of the bride to her attendants. Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, the wife of the President, were gray gauze with trimmings of lace and chiffon.

This has been a gala week for the Borority girls of Portland, and the visiting delegates to the seventh annual conclave of the Delta lota Chi, which has been in session here. The girls of the Eta Chapter of this city have been the hostesses of the week, and were ably assisted by other Sororities and fraternities of the various schools. An uninterrupted round of amusements, which began Monday night with the reception at the home of Miss May Bachelor and ended Saturday night with a straw ride to the Cleveland ranch, where Miss Maud Cleveland entertained them with a dinner and old-fashioned country dance, gave the visitors nor the home girls any dull minutes, and tory of the Borority.

Five hundred invitations were issued for the bachelor reception and it was an en-The Sorority colors, lavender, green and white, were used in deco ns, sweet peas, tulie and ferns being utilized for the purpose. Wilder's string quartet furnished the music. A pienic and supper dance was the entertainment pro-vided for Tuesday night, the well-known hospitality of the Holbrook farm being extended for the occasion. Dr. Millard Holbrook and Samuel Holbrook were assisted in entertaining by the Pi Delta Kappa. The guests went down on the Jessie Harkins at 5:30, and were rowed up the river from Holbrook's landing to the farm. A country supper was served on the illuminated lawn, and an old-fash loned country dance enjoyed afterward, Parson's orchestra furnishing the music. The members of the Delta lota Chi present were the Misses May Bachelor, Frances Bachelor, Semele Groat, Ethel Pike Banks, Ethel Shea, Delta Watson, Marian Chase Jessle Chase, Edna Pike, Leia Goddard, Edna Church, Grace Carter, Daisy Bradford, Evolyn Rigier, Frances Gill, Jane Owen, Eleanor Wesco, Dorothy Moore, Lorena Stranhal, Maude Cleveland, Anna Shea, Nina Guthrie, Leila Guthrie, Mabel Wood, Belle Cunningham, Mattie Williams, of San Jose; Helen Worsham, Frances Burkhalter, of Los Angeles; Lillie Bogie, Margaret Allan, of Senttle; Agnes Kloeckner, of Spokane; Margaret Stewart, Alice Gowan, of San Francisco. The members of Pi Delta Kappa: Roy Fields, Arthur Fields, Joe Fenrey, Plowden Stott, Ben Norden, Dr. Millard Holbrook, Sam Holbrook, Bert Dunbar, Harry Gaylord, Howard Gaylord, Arthur Murphy, Albert Young, Elmer Young, Ralph Holman, Curtis Sargent, Banner Brooke, Mr. Butler. Among the other guests were Oliver Jeffreys, Edward Jeffreys, W. W. Banks and John Wheeler

Wednesday night the Eta Chapter gave a ball at Parsons Hall, which was a brilliant affair and well attended. College decorations, made the hall look unusually gay, to which the dainty Summer gowns of the young ladies added materially. Peach and apple blossoms were used in the supper-room, giving it the appearance of early Spring. Souvenir programmes done in water colors were a pretty feature of the evening. The chaperones were Mrs. Frank Rigler, Mrs. C. J. Groat and Mrs. A. R. Church. Fifty were in attendance at the luncheor tendered the visitors Thursday at the Fortland by the Dix girls. The table was arranged in T-shape and was elaborately decorated. The place cards were unusually definity and appropriate, being of white, by definity and appropriate, being of white, Dr. and Mrs. Ewin Lincoln House and with small gold keys attached by lavender ribbons, which held the Dix seal in gold. Mrs. Balley, Mr. and Mrs. Eaton; Mesdiss Ethel Shes sang after the luncheon. The Zeta Pal, of Omega Nu, entertained of the Hill Military Academy was one of the most successful affairs of the week-if any distinction can be made. The decorations were all after the Japanese idea, and the programmes were printed on small Japanese lans. The linium hand furnished the music. The barge party given by the Gamma Eta Kappa fraternity Friday night was a novel affair, including an imprompto vau deville show on the island and a Dutch hunch. The party danced all the way home. The straw ride to Cleveland's ranch was but a repellition of the many nts of the week, each of which was entirely successful and thoroughly

The guests of honor at the various gath-rings have been: Misses Lity Vogie, Pranous Megrath and Mabel Allen, of our Chapter, Seattle, Wash; Misses Agnes Kosckner, Hazel Brickell and Margaret Bean, of Lambda Chapter, Spo-Wash ; Missey Helen Worsham, Prances Burkhalter, of Gamma Chapter, Los Angeles: Misses Retta Jones, Mortha Williams and Jean Weston, of Alpha Chapter, San Jose, Cal.; Misses Margaret Stewart and Alice Gowan, of Reta Chap-ter, San Francisco, Cal.; Misses Margaret Clark and May McKenzie, of Freeno, Cal. Most of the delegates will return home the first of the week the first of the week.

The following extract from a St. Louis paper is in regard to the two young Bavarian princes who are traveling in America incognito and are now enjoying the hospitality of St. Louis. Miss Margaret Montgomery, who is mentioned as leading the dance with the Prince, is one of Portland's fair daughters, and is spending the Summer with her mother, the Barnar, the Summer with her mother. Thursday, July 7. After tacking a quitter of the Barnar, the game of "senses" world's Fair. The eldest Prince has was played. Delicious home-made candy,

Thursday evening at the Venetian water festival, Graf, or Count, Wartenburg, as he is called, and his brother were in the boat is called, and his brother were in the boat with Dr. Lewald, the ladies in the boat being Miss Montgomery and Miss Morgaret Montgomery. After the festival the party went to the German house and an imprompts dance followed. Those present were Miss Blackwell, Miss Pangborn, the Misses Montgomery, Miss Catiln and Miss Wickham. Miss Margaret Montgomery had the pleasure of leading the dance with the young man.

Lieutenant Elair and Lieutenant Mel, of the monitor Wyoming, gave a dinner Tuesday night which was attended by Tuesday night which was attended by Miss Wyman, Miss Coman, Miss Lucy Chamberlain, Miss Laura Dunne, Miss Marlon Chase, Miss Maud Hahn, Dr. Charles Chamberlain, Lieutenants Morton, Baird, W. T. Conn and H. de F. Mel. The appointments of the dinner were perfect, and the affair one of the most delightful of the many entertainments given by these jovial officers during their visit to this

George Eastman entertained at a small dinner party at Elton Court Thursday night in honor of the visiting delegates to the Delth Iota Chi from Loe Angeles, the party afterward attending the dance at the Hill Military Armory. His guests were: Miss Helen Worsham, Miss Frances Burkhalter, Miss Semele Groat. George Woods, of Astoria, and George Bracket, Mrs. Groat chaperoned the hop for young people at the Waverly golf links last Saturday night. The veranda was brillantly illuminated and the decorations of ferns, Oregon grape and marguerites were dainty and effective. About 30 couples were present.

Lieutenant Conn, of the Paul Jones, gave a small dinner party on board ship Friday night, his guests being Miss Chamberlain, Miss Marion Chase, Miss Isabei Wyman, Miss Julia Coman, Dr. Charles Chamberlain, Lieutenant Biair and Lieu-tenant Dodd. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. E. B. Cannon.

The lawn fete given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Burns, 123 North Nineteenth street. Friday night for the beneat of the Seamen's Institute, was in charge of representative society people of Portland and was a very pretty affair.

Miss Hahn, of Twenty-fourth and Marshall streets, entertained at a small din-ner party Monday night, the guests attending the theater after dinner.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK,

A delightful Fourth of July party, des ignated in the invitations issued, a triotic evening and general jollifica dered by Miss Ethel Jones and Mr was tendered by Miss Ethel Jones and Mr. Fred W. Jones to their respective friends at their residence, 718 East Burnside street, Saturday evening, July 2. Patriotic songs were of course a leading feature, and were rendered with feeling and around the piano, Mr. George H. Hough ton making an acceptable accompanist, Popular ballads and comic songs by such well-known society sololsts as Miss Berthe Royal and Messrs. George Eastman Stuart, McGuire and Fred W. Jones were also greatly appreciated.

Following the musical programme an adjournment was made to the illuminated porch, and with the assistance of several willing aides a perfect fusiliade of fire-works, with frequent red-fire accompaniment, was maintained for over an hour. Following this a collation was served on the lawn under festions of overhanging lanterns of many varied colors and de-signs. A 20-foot table, specially con-structed for the event, draped with flag cover and napkins comfortably accom-modated the little company of merry peo-ple who participated at the repast. With the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" as a fitting finale, the patriotic evening was Among those present were the Misses Saidie Knapp, Lou Allen, Reta Al-ien, Berthn Royal, Laura Fields, Lucy Fields, Arvilla McGuire, Sidney Bates Camilla Hers, Olive Gould, Dora Gould Camilla Hers, Olive Gould, Dorn Gould and Neille Maxon, and the Messra. George Eastman, Stuart McGuire, Fred Drake, Walter Allen, Bert Allen, Milton Wersch-kul, Leslie Werschkul, Stanley Werschkul, George H. Houghton, Roland B. Lloyd, Jr., and James Ellis. A party of young people prominent in church and musical circles went for an outing on the Fourth to the Tualatin River, and relate a funny story of how the entire crowd, divided into two parties, got a ducking in the river at the a row, while the remainder of the growd perched themselves on a log on the bank to watch them. When the boat reached the rapids, it was found that it was leaking badly, and the rowers lost control of it for a few minutes. It looked for a minute as thugh there was going to be minute as thugh there was going to be an accident, and the crowd on the log, with eyes fastened on the boat, leaned over a bit too far, and their treacherous seat rolled over, dropping them into the water, just about the instant that the oc-cupants of the beat got a similar ducking. No one was injured, and the drying-out process around a camp fire was amusing, the trip home necessarily being postumed the trip home necessarily being postponed Young People's Society of the First Congregational Church celebrated the Fourth with an outing at Council Crest, where a bonfire was built, supper served and fireworks were enjoyed. The party left at $ P. M. and returned at 10:30 o'clock. dames La Barre, Willis and Rabbitt.

Miss Clara Brown, Miss Jesste Brown,
Miss Alda Broughton, Miss Lekin, Miss
Collier, Miss Ross, Miss Kesler, the Misses Helen, Alice and Gertrude Hutchinsen, Miss Johnston, Miss Barr; Messrs, Woods, Walter, Colwin, Clark, Carey, Baton, Ray, Nelson, McCorkle and Barr.

A reception was given at the home of Mrs. Eva Pilisbury, 25 East Taylor, on Friday evening, July 1, in honor of Miss Edith Lewis, a recent graduate of the Central School. The reception was tendered by Mrs. Pilisbury's Sunday school class, of which Miss Edith is a member. Games and music enlivened the evening, and refreshments were served at 10:30, Miss Gertrude Pilisbury assisting in the erving and entertainme Olya Halingby, Grace Beach, Margaret Thomas, Katle Hickling, Lillie and Min-nie Bartman, Jessie Turner, Neva Ellis and Ellen and Lucy Lutz.

Grammar School gave their semi-armus reception Friday evening, July 1, in know of the June, '64 class. The reception was held in the hall of the school, which was artistically transformed into a minis-ture garden and beautifully festioned with Chinese lunterns.

with Chinese lanterns.

The stage upon which the M graduates sat was desporated with the class colors, gold and white, intertwined with key. In one corner of the hall was a booth covered with key, and lighted with lanterns, where punch was served. After a short but delightful programme games were enjoyed until a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Butterfield gave a house party for Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Richardson, of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Clock, of Portland, at their seasids home on July 4. Mr. and Mrs. Richardson will leave for the East Thursday morning, July 7.

The Kensington Club was entertained Mrs. Mary Phelps Montgomery, at the was played. Delicious home-made candy, fruit punch and cake was served, by the hostees. The next meeting will be a picture. tauqua session.

A reception was tendered Mrs. Bertle Smith, who was recently elected department president of the Women's Relief Corps of Oregon, at Summer Post, G. A. R. Hall, Saturday evening. There was a large attendance of members from both post and corps. Remarks were made by M. L. Pratt, J. W. Ogibee, I. McCowan and others, and a pleasing talk was made by Mrs. Smith. She will attend the meet-ing of the National encampment of the Women's Reliff Corps as delegate from the Department of Oregon. the Department of Oregon.

A pleasant surprise was tendered Mr. John Touhey, Wednesday evening, July 6, at the residence of his parents, 564 birthday. The house was prettily decorated with Virginia creeper and bunting, the porch being strung with Japanese innterna. The evening was pleasantly spent in card-playing and vocal and inlanterne. strumental music, a delicious supper ba-ing served about 10:30 o'clock. Ices and punch were served at a late hour.

Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Moore entertained in delightful fashion recently at their beautiful residence. East Twelfth and Morrison streets, the guests being members of the Tillicum Chautauqua Society. The rooms were artistically decorated with choice rosebuds. After the plans for the coming year had been discussed, a pleasure week received hour was passed. The hostesses ant social hour was passed. The hostess served light refreshments. There was a large attendance and all highly appreci-ated Dr. and Mrs. Moore's hospitality.

Mrs. R. P. Graham entertained about 80 of her friends at cards July 1, at her hor in Irvington. The rooms were beautifully rated, the National colors, red rambler roses and sweet peas being used.

Mrs. Graham was assisted in serving ices by Miss Clara McGill, Miss Frances Richmond and Miss Pearl Hungerford. Mrs.

Hungerford won first prize, a pretty bonbon dish. Mrs. Webster won second prige, a souvenir spoon.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Dunlap recently celebrated their golden wedding at their Highland home. Religious services and reminiscences made a delightful occasion.
Rev. Mr. Dunlap was licensed to preach in 1845, and joined the Missouri conference in 1845. He subsequently labored in California and Washington, being the second Methodist Episcopal minister to preach in Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. J. H. James entertained a number of her lady friends at her residence, 500 Montgomery street, on Friday afternoon. The time was spent in testable felicities, musical selections and social pastimes. Among those present Mrs. J. G. Shipley, Mrs. Amelia Milem, Mrs. J. O. Riggs, Mrs. W. M. Simpson, Mrs. S. W. Gill, Mrs. R. L. Cate, Mrs F H. Fleming, Miss

The children of the Boy's and Girl's Aid The ice cream cakes and fire institution, for which the management wishes to extend sincere thanks. The children had a jolly time and did not retire until quite a late hour. . . .

week was held at Hawthorne Park Ture-day afternoon, the occasion being the reg-ular missionary meeting of the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church Society, the women rendering a very delightful pro-gramme. The missionary tea Tuesday, July 19, will be held at the residence of Mrs. R. R. Steele.

Miss Ciara Pommer, who graduated from the Harrison School this year, entertained Friday evening at her home, 500 Montgomery street. The decarations were confined to the class colors, red and

The members of the Sunday School of the First United Presbyterian Church en-joyed their annual picule, Monday, at Estacada, the young people starting at 9:20 A. M. and returning at 7:30 P. M., after a most delightful outing, sway from the noise of the city. There were 150 persons in attendance.

A delightful launching party was given this week under the direction of Chester Walton and Charles Nachand, the guests being mostly Congregational young peo-ple. The company enjoyed a trip up the river and during the evening a dainty supper was served, 18 persons being in at-

Mrs. J. Smith entertained the member of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian Church last Tuesday at her residence, Laurel street, Portland Heights, A most delightful hour was passed, fol-lowed by dainty refreshments.

Rev. C. A. Wooddy, D. D., and wife celebrated the 5th anniversary of their marriage on June 28 at their home in

Mrs. Harry Holzman entertained the friends of her little son, Jack, last Tuesday afternoon, in honor of his 3d birth-

Children's Home Picnic.

Among the various festivities for the Fourth, the one for the Children's Home ully arranged in every detail-proved a collification for the little folks, without single accident.

Transportation over the lines of the ity & Suburban and Portland Railway Companies was generously presented the Home inmates, numbering 45 children (five having previously gone with parents for the day) and five adults. After a good breakfast, dishes washed, 45 bels aired and made, this number of people boarded the "S" car at 8 A. M., and at First and Washington took the Portland Railway car in waiting for Columbia. Railway car in waiting for Columbia Beach, opposite Vancouver. The ride is a fine one through an interesting coun try and over a wonderful stretch of treatle. Just before reaching the ferry at the Columbia River a stop was made, where all allighted. The children (the larger ones assisting the smaller, as well as carrying baskets of luncheon) marched in two and twos to the beautiful sundy beach but a few rods away and "eam; was pitched" on the commodious ennyas covered platform, where later the hinch was strend upon two long tables, with benches for sears. The menu consisted of sandwiches, cheese, pickies, young onloge, boiled eggs, potato salad, cochles, figs and dried pours as sweetmeats, with ruspberry syrup as a drink for the littie ones, and "campfire" coffee for the grown-ups, served with paper plates and napkins, was, after a devotional moment spent in concert, greatly enjoyed.

The view from this long sandy beach, showing the green bills across the grand old Columbia, where skirts Vancouver and the United States Barracks, makes a picture selious seen. Columbia Beach has promise of soon becoming one of the city's most favorite resorts, offering excellent bathing and swimming facilities.

cellent bathing and swimming facilities, as well as camping conveniences. Having no undertow or guicksand, it is an ideal place for children. The frolic of these children wading about both forenoon and afternoon (20 minutes at each), with "Only to your knees" ringing in their ears, was a merry accompanimen to the "song of the waves" that came in from an occasional passing steamer the Vancouver side. Firecrackers, bor fire to destroy all debris from the lunch racing on the beach, sand mounditches, caves, forts, etc., enter tained all until 6 o'clock, when the re turn trip was begun. At home, after a beds were found as a haven of rest where dreams of fireworks which were promised for the evening of the 5th might be enjoyed.

WEDDINGS.

Hartman-Gray.

One of the most prominent social events of the year in Astoria was the marriage of Miss Mary Alice Gray to Mr. George A. Hartman, Jr., of Pendleton, on Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. H. D. Gray. The bride's mother, Mrs. J. H. D. Gray. The large double parlors were very prettily decorated in white and green, while smilax, white tulie and white flowers formed an arch with a lovers' knot, under which the bridal couple stood. Miss Jessie Hartman, sister of the groom, played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride looked very beautiful in her handsome gown of cream crepe over cream bride looked very beautiful in her handsome gown of cream crepe over cream silk, as she walked through the daisy chain to the archway, where she was given away by her mother, Mrs. J. H. D.
Gray. Miss Sallie B. Gray was the maid of honor and Mr. Roy Ritner, of Pendieton, best man. Rev. William Seymour Short performed the wedding ceremony in the presence of a few friends and the relatives of the contracting parties. The relatives of the contracting parties. The Morgan, Louise Gray, Anne Biesen, Eliza-beth Milne and Eva Froom, all gowned in prefty light dresses. After the ceremony a dainty wedding luncheon was served in the large diningroom, which was decorated with white carnations, ferns, smilax, roses and huckleberry vines, and was illu-minated with green shaded candles in cut glass candlesticks. Mr. and Mrs. Hartman left on the evening train for Port-land, and from there they will proceed to Newport, where they will spend a few weeks before returning to their future home in Pendleton. Among those who attended the wedding from out of the city were Mrs. J. C. Bell, Mrs. D. J. Zan, Mrs. R. E. Davis and Robert Davis, Jr., of Portiand, and Mr. and Mrs. George A. Hartman, parents of the groom; Miss #### Jessie Hartman, Mr. Fred Hartman, Mrs. Sturgis and Mr. Cressie Sturgis, of Pen-Warriner-Bunker.

A very pretty home wedding took place on Wednesday at high noon at the residence of Mrs. Valentine W. Tomkins, Irvington, when Miss Emma-lyn Alice Bunker was married to Mr. Frank T. Warriner, first officer of U. Frank T. Warriner, first officer of U. S. S. Columbine. The parlor and dining-room were decorated with ferns, syringa and ocean spray. Miss Mary Otto sang very sweetly and effectively "Lord, Who at Cana's Wedding Feast," as the bridal party entered the parlor and stood under a canopy formed of the American and British flags. Rev. Henry Marcotte, of Westminster Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony. The bride was charming in a beautiful gown of ivery white silk volle, with tuile vail, caught with smilax. She carried a shower bouquet of lax. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. The bride's only attendants were her two little nlees. Elleen and Alice Tomkins, who were dainty frocks of pale blue and pale Tomkine was best man: After a deliand a few intimate friends were pres-

Seeley-Woodward.

On Thursday evening, July 7, a qu wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Woodward, when May-annah, their only child, was married to Rev. Boudinot Seeley, of Wilmington, Del. Dr. Edgar P. Hill, of the First Presbyterian Church, performed the marriage ceremony. Only the relatives of the bride and groom were present, but numerous and sincere were the congratulations and tokens of friendship from a host of friends in Oregon and in the East. The Montgomery street.

Were confined to the clars colors, red and white. Music and games occupied the first part of the evening, and after light refreshments dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

decorations in the result decorations of the college associations of the bride and groom, the colors of Wellesley and Williams being beautifully blended and united with orange blossoms. The analysis of the library was drawingroom was decorated with over 300 La France roses, while the library was beautiful in red roses, and the diningroom was a bower of green and white. Oregon spoke her own praises in over 1000 rose and in sweet peas, Oregon bolly, maiden hair and native elematis. The bride' gown was a delicate creation in white lace and artistic, myrtle and carnations and white satin, completed by the conand white satin, completed by the ventional veil and orange blossoms. and Mrs. Seeley left on the 11:60 train for Seattle, where they take the Alaska steamer for the North. From Victoria ding march was played by Mrs. they return to the East via the Canadian M. Crawford. Mr. and Mrs. I. Pacific, visiting many points of interest on their way.

Staples-Dofflemeyer.

On the 6th inst., at 9 P. M., at the Second United Evangelical Church, this city, Mr. William J. Staples and Miss Lenn Dofflemeyer were married, in the presence of quite a number of invited friends. Rev. J. Bowersox officiated. The bride was gowned in white organdle, and was given away by her father, who, with the bridal parties, accompanied her to the altar. Earl and Hazel Dofflemeyer, the little sister and brother of the bride, acted as page and flower girl, and the couple were at-tended by Mrs. Myrtle Stratton and Miss Linzie Severens as bridesmaids and Mr. Herbert Stratton and Mr. Max Kiser as groomsmen. Immediately following the impressive ceremony the happy couple and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Deffiemeyer, 741 Mississippi avenue. There they received the hearty congratulations of their friends. After a visit to Albany they will return to this city.

Langford-Steffen.

The marriage of Miss Ella May Steffen, daughter of Mrs. Laura E. Steffen, to Edward H. Langford, was solemnized Wednesday, June 2, at 8 P. M., at the residence of the bride's mother, the ceremony being performed by Rev. William Fowell, of the Episcopal Church. The various anartments were daintill ambal. liam Powell, of the Episcopal Church. The various apartments were delittily embelished in pink, with La France buds. The bride was very winsome in a gown of champagne etamine over taffets. She carried bride roses. Her sister, Miss Laurene Steffen, as bridesmaid, wore white organdle, and carried bridesmaid roses. Nelson Walker was best man. At the close of the service, attended by relatives, light refreshments were served. Many handsome gifts were received by the popular young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Langford returned this week from a trip to Seattle and Victoria.

Middlebrooks-Nickum

One of the prettiest weddings of the assect took place at the home of Capizin and Mrs. J. M. Nickum, at Wilsburg, Thursday evening, June 30, at 2 o'clock when their eldest daughter. Miss Bess.

A. Middlebrooks, of Portland. The pere mony was performed on the lawn under a canopy of pink and white roses. Bev. David Thompson, of the Sellwood Presby-terian Church, officiated. The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played by Professor Cumpston. Miss Cecesia O'Brien and Mr. U. H. Maxwell were the bouquet of white carnations. The brides maid were brown creps de Paris over taffets, and carried pink carnations. Af-ter the caromony an informations. ter the ceremony an informal reception was held and light refreshments were served. As the newly married couple were leaving the bride threw her bouquet which was caught by Miss Cecell O'Brien.

A pretty wedding took place Wednesday, June 29, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Poehler, when their eldest daughter, Marie, was married to Charles Kalk, Rev. Marie, was married to Charles Kalk, Rev. A. Krause officiating. The bride was charming in white silk, carrying white carnations. Her veil was held in place with orange blossoms. Miss Rose, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Mr. Emile Kalk was best mas. At $250 the brides party marched into the parlor to the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin," played by Martha, sister of the bride. Under an arch of try and white geranium, the ceremony was performed. geranium, the ceremony was performed. After the congratulations a dainty supper was served. About 75 guests were present. The young couple received many beautiful and useful present. At a late hour they departed for their future home.

Mackay-Dungan. Cak Hill Farm, near North Yamhill, was the scene of a pretty wedding on July 4. The bride, Miss Anna Mackay, of Aberdeen, Scotland, was becomingly attired in a gorgeous lavender silk gown. The groom, Mr. William Duncan, is a prominent stockman of North Yambill, They were attended by Miss Grace Booth and Mr. William Robertson, while the pretty little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown was flower girl. The wedthe beautiful service, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, after which a bountiful repast was served, followed by dancing. About 50 guests were in attendance, and the presents were many and costly. Mr. and Mrs. Duncan will reside at Oak Hill

A very pretty wedding took place Wed-nesday, June 19, at high noon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bertram, of Dayton, Or., at which time their daughter Wesa A., was united in marriage with Leonard A. Rossner, only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Rossner. The bridal party en-tered the parior to the strains of the wedding march, rendered by Miss Nina wedding march, rendered by allss Nina Baxter, and the impressive ring service was read by Rev. J. Bowersox, of Portland. After the ceremony the wedding party, consisting of a large number of relatives and friends, partook of a delightful banquet, after took of a delightful banquet, after which Mr. and Mrs. Rossner departed on the afternoon train for Portland, going thence to McMinnville, where they will reside.

Stevens-Dightman.

Mr. Albert Stevens of this city, was married June 20 to Miss Adelaide Margaret Dightman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dightman, the wedding taking place at the residence of Mr. taking place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Dightman. Friday Harbor. Wash. The ceremony was read by Rev. William J. Sharp, of the Presbyterian Church. Little Alice King and Floyd Carter were ringbearers, and Mrs. John King and Warren Dightman were attendants. Miss Agnes Wright played the wedding march. The bride played the wedding march. The bride wore a dainty gown of white mousse-line de sole, and carried bride resebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will reside in Portland. Maddux-Peterson.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the First Christian Church by Rev. Bruce Wolverton Saturday, June 25, the con-tracting parties being Miss Mills Eleanor Peterson and Mr. Clifford Wright Maddux. Miss Violet Myers acted as maid of honor, while Mr. James T. Welch was Society had their Fourth of July celebra-tion Wednesday evening at the Receiving pink mull, and they carried white sweet best man. The bride looked charming in a champagne-colored silk. Miss Myers wore cious weeding breakfast Mr. and Mrs.

Warriner departed for an extended weeding trip to British Columbia and Southeast Alaska. They will make their future home in Astoria. Only relatives to one of Portland's popular restaurants, where a dainty luncheon was served.

Millar-Adams. A very pretty home wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Adams 519 Brooklyn street, July 3, at 1 o'clock when their sister, Miss Anna Adams, of Franklin, Neb., was united in marriage to Mr. Alex S. Millar, of Ketchikan, Alaska. Rev. Jerome R. McGlade, of Mixpah Pres-byterian Church, officiated. Miss Hattie McPherson was bridesmaid and Harold Boehmer best man. The decorations were of fern, Oregon holly and pink and white flowers. The bride carried a beautiful bouquet of carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Millar left on the afternoon train for Ketchikan, Alaska, where they will make their future home. Larsen-Onssdorff.

A pretty wedding was solemnised at the home of Mrs. Bird B. Clarke, 245 East Thirty-seventh street, last week Miss Mary Onsdorff and Mr. Gus Larsen, both of Vancouver, being the con-tracting parties. The decorations of this wedding were especially beautiful mony was performed under a large floral bell made of the same flowers Rev. T. F. Brown officiating. The wed went to Long Beach to spend their hon-

Sharp-Brown.

Announcement has been received of the marriage of Miss Edna E. Brown, formerly of this state, to Milton H. Sharp, which was solemnized two weeks ago Misscuri. The bride is well known this city, having taught school in this country for several years. Last year she went East and entered the junior class at Kirksville, Mo., of the American Scho of Osteopathy, becoming acquainted with her classmate, Mr. Sharp. Mr. and Mrs. Sharp will continue their studies at college, graduating in the class of 186. They expect to make their future home in Missouri.

Mr. Archey Campbell, of Portland, was married last Wednesday to Miss Ora M. Rogers, of Aberdeen, Wash, the marriage taking place at 9:30 A. M. at the residence of James Carter, Rev. C. H. McDermoth performing the mony. The wedding was quite infor-mal, only the family of the bride being present After a short trip to points of interest on the Sound Mr. and Mrs. Campbell have returned to Portland to reside.

At noon on Saturday, July 2,

miet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Leroy, when their only daughter, Flora, was married to Mr A. R. Draper. Mr. and Mrs. Draper left on the afternoon train for Pugst Sound, where they will visit for several weeks before going East. They will be at home in September at MI East Ankeny street. No cards.

July 4, at Wilsonville, Clackamas Co.

ty, Oregon, the public wedding of Mr Albert E. Welch and Miss Louise A. Mor Albert E. Weich and Allis Louise A. 3. rie was solemnised by Rev. Mr. Olein of the Hood View Congregational Chu Mr. Albert Carnehil inted as best man Mise Mabel Seely accompanied the br Mr. and Mrs. Welch will reside at

Clayton-Wood.

William Wyman Clayton and Miss Cath

*

DAILY 2:30 P.M. 7:30 P. M.

2:30 P. M 7:30 P. M.

COMMENCING MONDAY, JULY 11th THE ENTIRE STOCK OF

Cloaks, Suits, Jackets, Waists, Ladies' Neckwear, Etc.

Will be sold at Public Auction without limit or reserve, as we are determined to dispose of our entire stock before our removal into our new store. Ladies, don't miss this sale as it is well known that we carry the highest grade goods made and every article is warranted. Be on hand and have first choice. You can call daily from 8 to 12 A. M., select any article desired and it will be put up for you at the Auction Sale and sold for what it will

We will refit any garment bought at Auction free of charge.

SILVERFIELD'S

P. S.—Remodeling and Repairing of Furs at Summer prices. Headquarters for genuine Alaska Sealskins (London Dye).

Grant street. They will reside at 801 First street, and will be at home after No cards.

Hewes-Smith. Mr. H. I. Hewes, of Roseburg, and Miss

Donna L. Smith, of Michigan, were mar-ried at the manse of Calvary Presbyterian Church at 3 P. M., Rev. William S. Chibert officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Hewes will live at Roseburg. - Dubois- Borland. The marriage of Mr. Francois Dubois and Ella Boriand, of this city, was sol-emnized Monday, July 4, at the Hotel Columbia, Vancouver, Wash. After the service Mr. and Mrs. Dubois returned to Wilson-Catching.

Mr. R. Catching and Miss Anna M. Wil-son were married at the manse of Calvary Presbyterian Church Saturday, July 2, at 8:20 P. M., Rev. William S. Gilbert of-

Lutz-Canuto. Miss Tillie Canuto, formerly of Portland. Or., was united in marriage to Mr. Clarence A. Lutz, of New York City, June 22

ENGAGEMENTS.

Mrs. John D. Mansfield, of San Fran cisco, announces the engagement of he youngest sister, Louise M. Stepher this city, to George E. Kumpe, First Lieutenant of the Twenty-eighth Infan try Regiment, United States Army,

COMING EVENTS.

Mr. L. Charles Sparks will open his class in vocal culture July 15 at 150 North

Twenty-second street. SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Mrs. Deaver is also at Seaside

Mrs. J. Fleischner is visiting in Sa Francisco. Mrs. Hannah Blumauer and son are at Tioga for the Summer

Miss Grace Bloodgood went Miss Bertha Hacheney is visiting Miss Helen Werlein at Tioga. for a two weeks' vacation

Mrs. Dr. W. O. Ogle is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Harry H. Holaman. Miss Helen Fanno has gone to Hood River to spend the Summer months, Mr. William Allan Hoover and wife (nee Morreson) have returned home. Miss Belle Sharpe left for Long Beach July 5, to remain about 10 days. Mrs. M. C. Mace and children have taken a cottage at Seaside for the sea-Miss Alma Bowman, a teacher from Monmouth, is visiting Mrs. Bird B. Clarke.

Mrs. F. H. Ransom and family have ne to the Big Sandy to spend the heated term. Adrian McCalman and family will oc cupy the Cottel cottage, at Seaside, for Miss Mabel Van Buren, of Rosebe is visiting Mrs. George G. Bartlett, 753 Wasco street. Miss Margaret Monteith, of Albany, Or., is visiting at the home of her aun Miss L. E. Storey.

Madame von Bolton, Miss Nicholson and Miss von Bolton have left for Tioga-to remain for the Summer. Miss Amy Mathews, of Pendleton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. P. Evans, 690 East Washington street.

Mrs. W. A. Stiles and children left for Seaside Friday morning, where they will spand the Summer months. Miss Felice Loswenstein, of San Francisco, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Meyer Hirsch, at 556 Johnson street. Mrs. A. G. Backrodt has left for a fer weeks on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. W Brune at Grand Dalles, Wash. Miss Marguerite Chamberlain was the guest of Miss Eva Coshow, in Salem, the past week. She returned Friday. Miss Eva Nickelsberg, Miss Minnie New man and Miss Irma Newhauer left recent-ly for an extended trip to Alaska.

Miss Myrtle Sutton, who has been v ing Mrs. J. B. Reese and other friends in Salem, has returned to her home. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rosenblatt and family have left for Tiogo, occupy Hackney cottage for the Summer

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Blumauer and Miss Hazel Blumauer left Wednesday even ing for a short visit in California. iting at the home of her cousin, Miss Fortmiller, 8 Rest Twelfth street. met Ch. McPharmon naturned Saturday from a tour of the principal Eastern cities. He was gone about two months Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wright, whose wedding occurred June 29, will not be at home to their friends until after July 20. Miss Amba Daniels, of McMinnville, has been spending the week in Port-land with her sister, Mrs. Jesse T. Ir-

Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Mitchell and son have gone to Wilholt Springs for the Summer. They will return Septem-

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Glenn passed the week in Tacoma, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Pieffer also visited on the Sound this Miss Letitia McKinnon and James A. McKinnon are guests of their sister, Mrs. Adrian McCaiman, at Seaside, for a few

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. DeWert and son Mrs. and Mrs. E. D. DeWert and son leave for Newport Monday. Mrs. De-Wert will remain until the first of Sep-

J. A. Kissell and his company of amateurs are planning to give another play early in September at St. Mary's Hall, Upper Albina. Mrs. J. F. Batchelder and childre gone to Hood River and are camped for the Summer under the oaks near the Country Club Inn. Professor G. E. Jamison, wife and daughter, opened Bide-a-Wee cottage, Seaview, Wash., Wednesday. They will remain the season. Miss Elia Williams, who has been attending the State Teachers' Association, has gone to her home at Stayton, Or., to spend her vacation. Mrs. John M. Rodgers and son, Carl, are spending the Summer in Astoria, visiting with Mrs. Rodgers' mother, Mrs. Charles Hellborn. Mrs. Stephen Blank has returned to her home in Forest Grove, after visiting her niece, Mrs. June McMillen Ord-way, on the East Side. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Manning have returned from a visit to points of interest on the Sound. They were guests of honor at several informal parties. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bercavich of Oakland. Cal., have arrived from St. Louis and are visiting Mrs. Bercavich's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Mendelson.

THE DERMA-ROYALE CO., Cincinnati, Q.

No Breakfast Table complete without

The Most Nutritious