MRS. CHARLES L. HOUSTON.

QUEEN HELEN I, Mrs. Charles L. Houston, of Astoria, will be arrayed in the gorgeous robes befitting royalty at the regatta this week. The gown pictured here is the ball costume in which she will appear at the coronation. The same velvet cloak will be worn with the coronation robe, and the same crown. The ball gown is of rich ivory satin with an overdress of sheer white net palliated in silver. The royal cloak is of cardinal silk velvet, heavily banded with ermine. The grand duchess collar is jeweled, gems to match those in the crown being used. The effect of the entire costume as worn by Mrs. Houston is exquisite, her slender grace and beauty of figure being accentuated by its graceful lines. In it she looks every inch a queen.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harmon, who are joint owners with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sherman of Bellevue cottage at Spirit Lake, Wash., have been giving a Summer house party to several Portland friends who went up on the steamer Northwest to the Cowlls River, traveling the rest of the way by buckboard. Fishing, walking, mountain-climbing, including a picnic on Mount St. Helens, were greatly enjoyed. An event of the outing was the launching of Dr. Coe's launch, Miss Helen Harmon christening the boat "Senator."

Mrs. A. C. Fenton entertained a few friends very informally on Friday evening.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Manager F. J. Fuller, of the Portland Railway Company, gave the inmates of the Receiving Home of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society a free car ride on Thursday night to Portland Heights and return. The children, after going around the loop, stopped at the City Park and spent a most delightful day. There were 40 youngsters ranging in age from 4 to 16 years, and representing many nationalities. The children's playground at the park presented a very lively appearance, the swings were kept in constant motion and the wading tank was well patronized. A liberal luncheon was served the children, consisting of sandwiches and a goodly supply of cakes.

During the afternoon Superintendent Gardner and Matron Graham escorted the children through the zoo, and many of them coming from the outside counties had never witnessed such a display of animals before, and their screams of delight not only astonished the animals, but amused the spectators.

Several friends of the society were present and helped to make the day enjoyable, among whom were Mrs. W. T. Gardner, Mrs. Thomas Whiting, Mrs. H. Farrar, Mrs. W. Hinesey, Mrs. O. Mack, J. F. Graham, Miss Ruby Kenyon and Miss Lillian Gardner.

Miss Chick entertained at luncheon on Friday covered table for ten. Immediately afterwards the hostess took her guests to the races. The affair was a very enjoyable one.

Miss Murphy, who is visiting in Seattle, Wash., was the guest of honor at a party given last Tuesday at that place by Mrs. William Frick, who entertained the Fillock Club. The prize in cards, 50 being the game, was won by Miss Murphy.

Miss Elizabeth Hoben entertained in a delightful way on Monday, the informal company of guests passing the afternoon with music and conversation.

The birthday of Miss Bernita Olsen was celebrated last Tuesday evening at her home, 34 Hancock street. The evening was passed in playing games and music, after which refreshments were served. Those present, including members of the Owl Club, were as follows: Misses Bertza Olsen, Mary Scott, Stella Boggs, Nellie Berges, Ruth Ballou, Lot Ballou, Gertrude Graham, Edith Harder, Carrie Boye, Messrs. Charles Tensen, George Newell, William Ball, Walter Parrott, Fred Smith, Dwight Miller, Raymond Bentley, George Bartel.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Linn, of Jacksonville, are visiting their daughter, Miss Margaret Linn, at the Marlyn Club, 53 Washington street. Mr. Linn goes home the last of this week, but will return in September to join Mrs. Linn on an extended trip through Eastern cities and to the World's Fair.

A lawn social under the auspices of the Highland Ladies' Aid Society was held at the home of Mrs. J. E. Scobee, on Wednesday evening, August 17. The affair was a success both socially and financially. The large lawn was lit with electric lights and decorated with China recently of Philadelphia, and Mr. Harold Edward Jordan were united in marriage by Rev. J. R. Lathrop. The bride wore a beautiful gown of silk organdy over taffeta, with tulle veil held in place with brooch of pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of white carnations. The bride is a charming blonde, accomplished and popular. Miss Viola Swain was bridesmaid and looked daintily in organdy over Nile-green silk, white picture hat and an arm bouquet of pink carnations. The groom is a popular young man of this city. He was attended by Mr. W. J. Baker, the bride's brother. Mr. and Mrs. Jordan will make their home with the bride's parents.

Day-Kelley.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated Monday evening, August 15, at 5 P. M., at the Sacred Heart Church. The contracting parties were Miss Theresa Kelley and Mr. Michael Day, Rev. Father Gregory officiating. The bride was prettily dressed in champagne silk and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. Miss May Day, as bridesmaid wore blue silk organdy and carried blue hydrangea. Mr. John Touhey, nephew of the bride, was best man. Miss Sadie Touhey, niece of the bride, was ringbearer. The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Martin J. Touhey. After the ceremony the guests returned to the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. M. J. Touhey, where supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Day left for the coast Tuesday and will be at home to friends after September 1.

Jordan-Baker.

A quiet and impressive wedding took place at the Grace Methodist Church on Saturday, when Miss Emma E. Baker, place on September 1 at high noon, at the First Congregational Church.

Mrs. S. E. Huelat announces the engagement of her daughter, Miriam Belt, to Mr. William Alfred Morris, of Portland. The wedding is to take place September 1, at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Salem, Or., at 8 o'clock. No cards.

COMING EVENTS.

A brilliant event of great importance in social as well as in musical circles will be the concert to be given early in September, at the Hobart-Curtis, under the direction of Lauren Pease, who will introduce Arthur Alexander, the talented organist, who recently returned from abroad. Mr. Alexander will be assisted by Mrs. Walter Reed, Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer, Don Zan and William Wallace Graham, with Edgar E. Courson and Miss Leonora Fisher as accompanists. About 300 invitations will be issued for the affair.

The August outing of the San Grael Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian Church, postponed from last Monday, will be held Monday evening, September 5. This will probably be the last outing of the season, and a large attendance is expected.

Little Lucile Collette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Collette, the talented violinist of this city, who leaves soon for Europe, to continue her musical studies, will give recital Friday evening, September 9, at the Grand, in Seattle, Wash.

The various social and literary clubs are planning a busy Winter's programme, the Portland Woman's Club, the Tuesday Afternoon Club and the Tillamook Chautauque Club holding their first meetings in October.

A social and entertainment will be given at Woodlawn Christian Church Tuesday evening, August 23.
