

Throngs of Newcomers Swell Crowds on Beaches

LONG BEACH, Wash., Aug. 18.—(Special.)—The season is still in its zenith, and each train brings in reinforcements to the crowd which has already done much to make things lively. Sunday witnessed one of the biggest crowds that has ever been on the beach, and the "standing room only" sign was displayed at the hotels in consequence.

The weather has continued to be delightful, and has helped to make pleasant the stay of those who have been here within the past two weeks. Bathing hour is the lively time on the beach, as everybody turns out either to take a dip themselves or to witness the others. Picnics and excursions are plentiful, and the great reluctance with which most people depart speaks well for the North Beach as a recreation resort.

J. A. McLaughan and family, of Oregon City, are spending a couple of weeks at the beach. They are accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. F. L. McGlashan, of Portland. Miss Minnie Rank and Mr. and Mrs. John James are at the Taylor Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Miller, accompanied by Miss Nellie Dickenson are at the Park for a few days.

Several parties went up to the wreck Monday. When they reached the spot they found no wreck in sight, as the schooner had been taken off the beach Sunday evening at high tide, and is now in the harbor at South Beach. Miss Beste McBride is visiting Mrs. J. Shipley at Alder's. A couple of Miss Edna Baxter, of Baker City, is visiting at the Summer home of Hon. H. B. Moss, of Payette.

Miss Leah Goddard, who has been visiting Miss Frances Gill, returned home Tuesday. Miss Marion Stackpole is spending a short time with friends here. Miss Emma Wells, of Chicago, is visiting Miss Mabel Haseltine at their cottage in the grove.

Mrs. J. C. Roberts is at her cottage and is recuperating after long illness. She is accompanied by Mrs. Luella Lambert and Mrs. M. McBride. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rorpe, who were recently married, are spending their honeymoon at Ocean Park. The croquet fever is becoming epidemic here. Captain Powell, one of the veterans of the game, has his time pretty well occupied entertaining friends with this favorite pastime.

Roy McDuffee visited friends here last week. Mrs. Lot Swetland and daughter are visiting at the Dudley cottage. Mrs. Robert Smith and sons, Edgar and Lawrence, are spending the month of August at Ocean Park. Mrs. Robert Fulton is occupying the Sprague cottage. Miss Helen Smith, one of the winners in the St. Louis contest, spent a few days last week as a guest of Miss Ruth Shogren.

Rev. A. C. Fairchild and family will spend the remainder of the season at Ocean Park. Guy Phillips and family are at the Taylor House for a few days. H. W. Kelly is occupying his cottage. J. W. Andrews will occupy his cottage for the remainder of the season. Dr. Mayor H. Howe has opened his cottage.

Long Beach. One of the jolliest and most unique parties of the season was given by Mrs. F. H. Woodman, of Knappaood, on Saturday. The spacious grounds were artistically decorated with Chinese lanterns and the hammocks and rustic seats added much to the comfort of the guests. Songs were sung by Mrs. Gordon and the Misses De Spain and Knauss, followed by old-fashioned games. Then those wishing to know their fate consulted the tar-fair. Mrs. Woodman, whose picturesque tent was enough to console those whose futures were not as bright as expected. Delicious refreshments were served. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Woodman's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. L. Diehlshelmer, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. H. Gordon, C. A. Deuber, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Seaview. One of the most charming dances of the season occurred on the evening of August 12 at the Hackney Cottage. Chinese lanterns were strung about the trees on the lawn in great profusion, and delicious punch was served in one corner of the yard. Dancing was enjoyed until 11:30.

The North Head Lighthouse was visited Monday by a party from Shelburne. A dainty luncheon was carried by the picnickers, who spent the day and returned in the evening after a delightful trip. Those present were: T. J. Geiler and sons, Carl Denton, H. H. Parker, Alfred Parker, Edward Powell and James Barker.

At the Hackney Cottage the usual musical entertainment was held last Wednesday evening. The programme consisted of piano solos by Miss Elizabeth O'Keefe, Miss Lillian Brown, Mr. Hickey and Miss Tullie Schacht; a mandolin and guitar duet by Miss Lesser and Hagadorn; and a solo by Miss Nancy Beala. Mr. Flemming and Mr. Wayne Stuart, and a recitation by Miss Place.

The guests of the Shelburne enjoyed a popcorn party last Wednesday evening, which, although given especially for the children, was enjoyed by the older ones present as well. Two large wagons were necessary to accommodate a jolly crowd of 22 excursionists who visited the North Head and Canby Lighthouses. The party put in the entire day, taking their lunch with them, and returned after a pleasant trip. Those who went on the trip were: Mrs. A. G. Harbush, Mrs. M. J. Bucater, Mrs. N. Gilman, Mrs. John Paulson, C. L. Tostevin, Mr. M. F. Moore, J. C. Bayer, F. D. Woolsey, Baron and Simon Woolsey, W. J. Nelson, W. Smallwood, Martin Burke, J. T. Gregg, Glen Livingston, H. B. Reid, W.
