Fast Mare Captures Last Irvington Stake Event.

NONIE DEFEATS BUMMER AGAIN

Jockey Tullet Rides Three Winners-Many Horses Will Be Shipped to Salem Today to Enter State Fair Races.

Blue Eyes won the Columbia handles the last stake event of the 1904 Multnomah Fair Association meeting, after standing a hard drive at the hands of Fitzpatrick a tard drive at the names of Frigatrica throughout the entire journey of a mile and an eighth. Colone: Anderson, for what reason only the dopeaters can tell, figured him the favorite, but there was enough of the talent aboard to keep the price of the Maxio-Eyelash mare second choice in the succellation. P. Sheridan's choice in the speculation. P. Sheridan's filly was off next to last in a faultless start, but the early speed of The Stewardstart, but the early speed of The Steward-ess, who was almost cut down at the first bend, made the rest of the field seem slow. From fourth position Blue Eyes under terrific orging by little Fitzpatrick moved up to third position at the three-quarters, when the rest were getting dizzy. When they hit the head of the stretch the filly was second and when Gateway, who a host of folks though had the race won, turned wide, it gave the boy on Blue Eyes his chance, and he let her down. Out of the ruck she came like a Kansas cyclone and at the end she was going away while the others were stopping. Gateway was second, and Chub, who hung on gamely, was third. The Stewardess found the route an eighth of a mile too far, and even though she was defeated, she re-ceived a round of applause equal to that of Blue Eyes when she returned to the Nonie Wins Oregonian Handicap. The next big race of the day was The Oregonian handicap, which Nonle won, closed, and from fifth she moved up until she finished second by a length. Bummer found the excess baggage too great a burden, and after setting the pace dropped back and only finished inside the money because Kelley had a leg over him. This race, like almost every one of the eight carded during the day, was a horserace from barrier to barrier. Not more than a length separated the field throughout the racing. Bummer, breaking quicker than the rest, had all of the early speed, but Lizzie Ward was the pippin that the tal-ent went to in the first race, but Vaughn, a 4-to-1 shot, ran her into the ground. Tullett got as busy as a Jap before Port Arthur when he straightened away for home, and he never let up on him until he passed the wire a length in front of only beat two horses in the race.

In the second race, Tullett came back and lamied Batidor, an even-money choice in front in the second race. In the third race he was up on Dr. Sherman, and was nosed out of the money by Titus, a 1-to-2 birds slaughtered. Others who were wiser shot in the betting. Chickadee, his mount didn't tell how many they would kill unin the third race, was defeated, but in the sixth race he put over a good thing in Hipponax, a 10-to-1 shot. By riding his third winner of the day, Tullett quit the meeting well up among the winning jockeys of the meeting. Urbano was thought to be the real goods in this race.

post time the pencilers looked twice at 4 to 5. It was simply a romp for Moor and Alairie, and those who forget that North West was in the race left the track happy that they had caught the last favorite of the day.

Preceding the opening of the day's sport Barnato and Bob Crawford met in a half-mile matched race for a silver cup. E. M. Lazarus rode his own horse, Bob Crawford, and E. T. Chase rode Barnato. Presiding Judge Skinner acted as starter, and he sent the pair away to a nose-and-nose start. Crawford, after sticking to Barnato until he hit the paddock, chucked it and Chase won with ease.

GAME BIRDS SLAUGHTERED.

State Game Warden Pays No Attention to Violation of Law.

Upland game birds are being slaughtered without attempt at secrecy, for no arrests of offenders have been made, nor is anything done to remind the public of the presence of Game Wardens. This, in a few words, is the complaint made by a number of Portland sportsmen who are interested in preserving the game birds. Chinese pheasants are the most fre-quent victims. All over the Willamette Valley, say these sportsmen, the pheasants are being killed by the farmers. Even within the city limits of Portland have Chinese pheasants been shot to death within the past few days. Persons have been seen coming from the rougher dis-trict of Irvington carrying pheasants and guns. Not long ago a man was met or an Irvington car. Plainly in view in his coat pocket were two pheasants. But the Portland Game Warden has not been heard from. When Deputy Maher was first appointed by the State Game Warden, J. W. Baker, of Cottage Grove, he called at the gun stores and introduced himself. Since then nothing has been heard from him, although the killing of game birds during the closed season is otorious this year; far more so, in fact, than in many years previous.

Apparently pothunters rest secure in the belief that the State Game Warden is not worrying himself about game birds. So they shoot Chinese pheasants with im-punity without attempt at concealment. The open season for upland game birds begins October 1. From numerous sources omes the report that all over the state the game laws are being violated with Sportsmen Who Go Hunting Have Poor Luck.

Not until there is a heavy rain or sweeping storm will duck shooting on the Columbia and its tributaries be worth at the half he was challenged by Nonie, and when they hooked up. A poor field of handicap horses faced the starter in this race. Broomstick was always the first choice, and was heavily played, his price dropping from even money to 9 to 10. Stalwart was a steady second choice at 8 to 25, while the prices against Major Daingerfield and Afrikan-
