GRAND FORMAL AUTUMN OPENINGS Wednesday and Thursday Next—Sept. 21-22

The Boundary Line Is Passed

EXIT SUMMER—AU REVOIR ENTER AUTUMN—WELCOME

Grand formal season openings this week—Wednesday and Thursday. A gala week's surpassing performance starts tomorrow! The first act of a week's mercantile drama full of sensational interest! THE GREATEST BARGAIN MONDAY OF ALL THE YEAR! A host of colossal values! An aggregation of authoritative fashions! A mighty massing of matchless bargains!!! A message from Portland's Reliable Store that tells of desirable, worthy, seasonable merchandise! Thrifty buyers will be quick to profit by the savings told on this page—for Monday!

The Voting for the Panama Canal Model Standing of Schools

Interest is increasing daily in the voting contest for the school to be awarded the valuable model of the proposed Panama Canal, now on exhibition in the large light area between the first and second floors. A vote goes with every 25c purchase. Voting closes Wednesday, November 23, at 5 P. M. For the present, on account of the pressure of advertising matter, this store is so full of good things—we shall only publish the names of the ten schools having the highest vote at the time of count.

The Greatest Silk Sale Yet

"Annex Silk Store"—First Floor.

The grandest, biggest values in new and desirable Silks ever offered by a Portland house. Bargains beyond precedent—and such silks! An intensely interesting study awaits our patrons tomorrow in the Annex. Values so matchless you can't resist their magnetism. And this is to be the greatest year for silks ever known in history. This grand Opening Sale which we hold tomorrow includes all the smartest silk ideas of the new season. We owe our immense silk business to the superior quality of our silks—the reliability of every yard—as well as to our matchless prices. Months ago we placed the order for these beautiful, lustrous fabrics, an order larger than ever crossed the Rockies before; and we received a big concession on the price, consequently your savings tomorrow. Remember, these prices are for MONDAY ONLY. The sale includes BLACK SILKS, FANCY SILKS, BLACK and FANCY DRESS GOTHES items: BLACK SILKS.

A GRAND OPENING SALE OF Women's Suits

Grand Salons of Dress—Second Floor. PORTLAND'S LARGEST, LEADING APPAREL SHOP OF WOMEN'S TOGGERY.

No Such Suit Bargains Were Ever Offered Before in Portland at the Very Beginning of the Season.

$23.50 AND $25.00 SUITS FOR $19.85 Monday Only

Suits that embrace the newest conceptions of New York's smartest man tailors, and, Oh! what a change there's been in styles. The new ideas fairly compel one's admiration. Every fashion artist of note is represented—but, as usual, only those creations emanating from artists of recognized style authority will be admitted to this store. Suits of character. You cannot make a mistake here. Experts have chosen for you and seen to it that every garment in the 'Style Salons' has despotical Dame Fashion's seal of approval stamped on it. The Suits comprising the offering are the newest of the new; none in the store yet 10 days from their New York makers. Every one strictly man-tailored, from the best shops in the great Eastern style-center. In two styles, the long Butcher Coats and Jackets in jaunty Norfolk effects. Colors are blacks, navys, browns and the ultra popular English and Scotch, rough, mannish mixtures, shading from light to dark. Materials embrace handsome pebble chevrets and the mannish stuffs. Trimmings of velvets, braids, fancy novelty buttons and stitching effects. Some have trimmings of plain broadcloth in shades to match materials—these in the swell novelty mixtures, forming a very smart effect. The skirts are 21-gored or kilt-plaited. The mixtures afford a wide color-range, embracing grays, light to Oxford browns, blues and greens. The best values ever shown in Portland at $25 and $23.50 (other houses would say $30 to $35), at a choice Monday $19.85
