A MATCHLESS THREE-DAY SALE OF New Autumn Silks

Opens Alongside the Dress Goods Bargains In the Annex--First Floor. AND FOR THREE DAYS, TOO--MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY. If you'll read these items you'll no longer wonder why this is termed the 'Silk Store' by Portland women folk, or why we do the silk business of the Northwest. You've heard of the merciful man who, wanting a dock-tailed dog, cut off an inch of tail at a time because it seemed cruel to snip it off at once. That's in line with the silk story. Last year was not a 'Silk Year'--and stocks of raw and prepared silk piled up. London silk men had 77 per cent more last December than the same month a year previous. Instead of taking their loss at once they've dribbled out the lots--and American silk mills, being in shape to buy, have bought, as bargains offered. Some failures occurred and the stocks of such mills were finished by new owners who got the goods at a loss. It's sunrise again in the silk world. A bright day is at hand and, for a big, long day's work silk men want to start with cleared decks. Even, the first of the season's newest silks are swept out with the rest. 'Tis a momentous time for silk buying and OUB BUYER IS NOW IN NEW YORK. That's how we are enabled to offer you for the next three days, new

Fancy Suit Silks, the balance of a manufacturer's stock bought by our buyer, now in the market, at a tremendous sacrifice; all colors in the assortment; our regular $6.00 grade; what some silk sellers call their $1.00 value--Special for three days only, yard, 46c

The Voting in the Panama Canal Contest

Portland's young folks have taken very kindly to the proposition extended by this house in the matter of the award to some favorite school of a valuable model of the much talked of and written about Panama Canal. We mention only the 10 leaders on account of limited space.
