THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN, PORTLAND, NOVEMBER 6, 1904.

J. Lucksi were the fortunate prizewin-ners. After the games were played a dainty supper was served in the dining-room, which had decorations of Autumn leaves and red geraniums, and was light-ed with red candles in silver candle-sticks. aying Halloween games. Mr. and Mrs

. . . Mrs. J. E. Wolff entertained the Oregon Grape Whist Club pleasantly at her home, 505 Belmont street, last Tuesday after-noon. The Halloween idea marked the noon. The Halloween idea marked the decorations, Oregon grape was used abun-dantly and the dark corners were lighted with Sack o'lanterns. The prizes were won by Mrs. P. Planch, Mrs. George Zel-lor and Mrs. F. L. Zimmerman. In the dining-room there were more pumpkin lanterns. The table had in the conter a large pumpkin with Mother Goose stand-ing on top holding a knot of green rib-bons, which ended in name cards at the guests' places. Mrs. A. T. Cotter will be the club's next entertainer.

guests' places. Mrs. A. T. Cotter will be the club's next entertainer. The beautiful home of J. E. Werlein, 75 Bast Madison street, was the scene of a merry gathering Monday night, the affair being a Hallowsen social by the young people of the Third Presbyterian Church. The decorations were lavish, jack-o'-lan-terns of wonderful size being much in evi-dence. All the games appropriate to the season were played and at a late hour a delicious supper was served in the dining-room, which was entirely in rod. The lights were prettily shaded, and on the table were candelabra, with red shades. A large number were in attankings to en-loy a delightful evening. The Tuesday Afternoon Club met at the home of Mrs. Julia Casto. 26 College street. The subject for the day was the character, religion and government of the Angles, Sarons and Jutes. Those taking part were Mrs. White, Mrs. Glines, Mrs. Balley and Mrs. Casto. The subject was discussed in a very thorough and able manner, and many points of interest were brought out, concerning these early in-habitants of Britain. Many quotations from Recwult were given. The noxt meet-ing withe bast the home of Mrs. J. Frank from Beowulf were given. The noxt meet-ing will be at the home of Mrs. J. Frank Drake, 404 Second street, November S.

A number of the friends of Mr. and A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. David Henderson, 551 East Clin-ton street, tendered them a very pleas-ant surprise party last Saturday even-ing, the event being their 20th wed-ding antiversary. The evening was very happily spent with vocal and in-strumental music. Mr. and Mrs. Hen-T is quite evident that Halloween is not losing its popularity as a time for certainly more Halloween parties than usual this year. A cleverly arranged witch party was given at St. Helen's Hall by Miss Matthews and Miss Penwill, and nother enjoyable entertainment was a her slater, will return home in time for falloween social given at the Young Thankagiving and to be bridesmaid at Mon's Christian Association, in honor of the members of the Young Women's Lawrence will also be an attendant at the Christian Association. The parlors were wedding, which will be very simple and ## will take place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. A. St. Clair Gay. Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Hall are entertain ing of the Forentry Association, held at the home of Mra Wallace Le Roy Whit-more; the Fall opening and tea at the visited Mra. Hall and Miss Leslie Hall before, and has some warm friends here. She is a tall and handsome young woman and always attracts much attention. Mr. and Mrs. Kettenbach wers guest of honor at a dinner of eight on Tuesday evening at the Commercial Club, the party going later to the Marquam to see Frank

Miss Julia Coman, who is now visiting

0

展

匓

400

A pleasant surprise was tendered Miss Grace O'Malley at the Beverly on Monday evening by a number of her friends. The evening was spent in games and dancing. The guests all appeared in old-fashioned costumes. At a late hour supper was served. Those present were: Miss Lena Shockley, Miss Nottle Garrigus, Miss Lis-Daniels. . . . Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Birong and Major Walter A. Bethel, U. S. A., who will be married at the First Presbyterian Church on Tuesday, November 16, and for the wed-ding of Miss Gertrude McClintock and Hunt Lewis, on Wednesday, November 16, at St. Mark's,

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

ars. Louis Edites a failoween party on Monday afternoon was one of the most delightful of the week's enter-tainments. The decorations were of Autumn flowers and ferns, with jack-o'-insterns to light the rooms. A deep window niche was filled with green branches and ferns from the hills, and in the midst of these was arrenged. Last Monday evening was the occasion Last Monday evening was the occasion of much hilarity at the Hill Military Academy, the occasion being a Hailoween party given in the armory for the boys. Only students and parents were present, but the lack of the feminine element was not noticeable, as many of the boys mas-queraded as girls. A short programme, consisting of a cakewalk, participated in by about 20 couples, in costume; a vocal solo by Josephenson; song and dance by Mei. Brown, in the guiss of a Bowery girl, and recitations by Bradley and Brandon. After the programms the usual Hailoween games were played and the latter part of the evening was spent in an old-fashioned country dance. Brown, in the midst of these was arranged a tiny brownies' camp, with a miniature fire and elves around it. This pretty concelt was much admired, and also were the hand-painted score cards, dec-The guests were: Mrs. E. W. Crichton, Mrs. G. W. Bates, Mrs. J. Martin, Mrs. J. Leiter, Mrs. A. H. Tanner, Mrs. P. E. Brigham, Mrs. J. Beth, Mrs. J. an old-fashioned country dance. Brown, as a Bowery girl; Josephenson, as the "unspeakable Turk." and Taylor and Hayes as "Bosco, the Snake-ester," and big between the snake-ester," and riment. Mr. O'Bries, Mrs. Brown, M. Bergstrand, Mrs. Rose Van Buren, Mr Seekats and Mrs. Klivan winning prize in the contest. Mr.

In the contest. Halloween was observed by Portland Lodge, No. 102, Modern Foresters, in their lodgeroom, where they gave a dance. Decorations of Autumn follage, ferns and crepe paper were artistically arranged. The drill team of ladies executed under Captain Beldriss' command a fancy drill, the team aiso leading the grand march. A Halloween social for members of the First Cumberland Presbyterian. Church Was held at the hespitable home of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Scott. Autumn feaves roses and Jack-o-lanterns were included in the decorations. Fortune-telling, mu-sic and readings were an enjoyable pro-gramme.

gramme. Mrs. William Eastman entertained the missionary society and industrial society of Mispah Presbyterian Church Wednes-day afternoon at her residence. Brooklyn, an interesting programme being carried out. The women are planning a basaar for the second weak in December. Miss Bertha Borni, who many at the Miss Bertha Royal who sang at the entertainment given by the Royal Ar-canum Lodge, was received with much favor. Others who divided honors with Miss Royal were Miss Fowler, Mr. Essen, Mr. Epping and Professor Rasmus, of the Western Academy of Music.

Altar Society of St. Mary's Church, Alhan society of St. mary a Chirch, Ar-bina, gave a successful card party Fri-day evening, a large crowd being pres-ent. The primes were won by Mesdames Eubrich and McMahon. A short pro-gramme was given, and light refresh-ments were daintily served.

ments were daintily served. Mrs. H. A. Prederick entertained the Pastors' Ald Society of St. James' Eng-lish Lutheran Church, Thursday after-noou, at her residence. 348 Mill street. A very pleasant time was passed by all present. Plans were made for a bazaar to be held early in December. of the medical department of the senior class of the medical department of the senior class of the medical department of the Uni-versity of Oregon, being prominently identified with the athletic department of

A very delightful party was given by Mrs. L. Krause at her home, S West Park street, on Wednesday, in honor of Miss Belle Singerman, of Seattle. Music, games and cards occupied the early part of the evening, and at a late hour a de-licious supper was served. Miss Bianche Anderson celebrated her isth birthday on Priday evening, at her

The marriage of Miss Alice El Willtshire and Mr. James Martin MacGregor, of the United States ship Heather, occurred at the home of the bride's parents, 229 Dupont street, on Wednesday evening, No-vember 2. Rev, George B. Van Waters, D. D., performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was lovely in ivory bengalled de sole and Heidelweiss lace, with a large bouquet of bride roses. The maid of honor, Miss Lucy Foulkes, looked pretty in champagne color organdis and pink roses. About 75 guests were present. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Mrytie Chamberlin. The bride and groom left on the 11:20 train for the Sound cities and British Columbia, to be gone about two weeks. Miss Blanche Anderson celebrated her Bith birthday on Friday evening, at her home, 1065 East Alder street, entertaining a number of friends very pleasantly. Mu-sic and games were played, and prizes were won by George Stevenson and Wallace Peery.

A very pleasant surprise party was ten-dered James Noonan at the residence of his aunt, Mrs. K. Scoti, on last Saturday evening, the event commemorating his list birthday. Games and dancing were enjoyed till a late hour, when supper was served.

served.

. . . The first party of the season given by the New Century Dancing Club was held at Parsons Hall, Wednesday, November 2. About 50 couples were present, and a very enjoyable evening was passed. The next party will be held November 15.

Mrs. F. E. Lounsbury entertained Trin Mrs. F. E. Louisouty entertained tria-tity Branch, Woman's Auxiliary, Trinity Episcopal Church, on Friday afternoon, at the residence of Mrs. E. S. Stackpole, 706 Marshall street, Mrs. Louisbury being president of the organization.

street, north. A very pleasant surprise party was tendered Master Odes Floy on October 28 at the home of his parents, 35 East Twenty-sixth street. The evening was spent in music and in playing games. Mrs. Isaac W. Baird entertained a few . . . Miss Evalina Rhea, daughter of J. P. Rhea, of Morrow County, was married to F. H. Hoenel, of Portland, last week.

friends Friday afternoon in honor of her birthday. The out-of-town guests were Miss Jane Fetters, of Allance, O., and Mr. Raymond Street, of Holton, Or.

to F. H. Hoenel, of Portland, inst week. Miss Rhea is the daughter of J. P. Rhea, one of Morrow County's most prominent stockmen. Mr. Hoenel is a claver and enterprising young business man of Port-iand, owing a half interest in a scap factory on Fourth and Glisan streets. Rev. J. L. Jones, of Ione, performed the cer-mony. The happy bride and groom list on the train the same morning for Port-land and are at home to their friends at their suburban home in Peninsular. Woodward's Dancing Academy gave the telephone operators a benefit dance at Burkhard Hall, October 37. About 700 young people were in attendance, and it was a financial and social success. their suburban home in Penins

A pretty home wedding took place Wednesday evening at $ o'clock at the home of Mrs. M. P. Woodard, when Miss An enjoyable dance, with music by th Parsons orchestra, was given by the Gee To Rau Club last Thursday evening, at Parsons Hall. This was the second of a series to be given during the Winter. About 200 guests were present.

The Sunday school of the Hassalo-Street Congregational Church enjoyed a rollicking Halloween party, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Tinker, 449 Uregon h East Eighth street North. Games were played by young and old.

home of Mr. and Mrs. Weber. Mr. and Mrs. Weigei will be at home to their friends at the Weigel residence on Ninth street, The Dalles.

Smith-Doyle.

Hill-Jensen.

that college. Mr, and Mrs. Hill will be at home to their friends at the Hill block, Williams avenue and Russell street, after November 24.

MacGregor-Wiltshire.

The marriage of Miss Alice El Wiltshi

Duff-McCallig.

Hoenel-Rhea.

Fairley-Clark.

panying them.

November

weeks.

Church will give a dramatic entertainment and dance Friday evening, November 11. at Parsons Hall at $15 P. M. The fol-lowing young people will present "The Birds" Christmas Carol": Misses Carlotta Parker, Harriet Calkins, Grace Eliot, Mary Sears, Mary Batchélor, Ruth Max-well, Lulu Shaw, Imogen Stuart and Mra. Raiph Wilbur; Mesars, Lloyd Smith, Brant Wickersham, Ray Burreil and Jordan Zan. Brith-Dayle. Solution: The of the pretitest and most fashion-able weddings recently celebrated on the daughter of the late Captain James A boyle, United States Navy, and Mrs. poyle, United States Navy, and White powle and Alpine Violes. There were no bidesmaids, Captain Bradford, of the bis teleinanant Glover, of the Navy. The powle institution of the States on and Lee She powle and Alpine Violes, After a wedding trip pick seguin hace with a corsage bouquet of violet orchids. After a wedding trip bis tement and Mrs. Smith will return to parceuver Baracka, Mrs. Doyle accom-let of the States Navy, The pick seguin Alex Mrs. Smith will return to parceuver Baracka, Mrs. Doyle accom-pick States Navy, Mrs. MILJenen. Mr. and Mrs. P. A. McPherson enter-

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. McPherson enter-tained recently in honor of Mrs. McPher-son's sisters Mrs. F. E. Daggett, of Nome, Alaska, and Mrs. M. Bradley, of Winni-peg, Canada. The house had very preity decorations of vine maple and Oregon holly. Music and cards, after which at-tractive prizes were awarded, were the amusements. ausements.

The finance committee of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian Church will hold a reception Wednesday, November 9, from 2 until 5 P. M., at the residence of Mrs. Albert E. Butterfield, Bis Kearney street. The hosisanes will be Mrs. Wight, Mrs. Elliot King, Mrs. Charles Daineile and Mrs. Butterfield. . .

Sunnyside M. E. Church will give a re-ception for its pastor, Dr. T. B. Ford, and family. Monday evening, at 8 o'clock. Many visiting pastors will be present. Dr. Ford arrived three weeks ago from Southern California, where he was at one time presiding elder.

The ladies of the First Congregational Church will hold their annual bazaar Tuesday and Wednesday. November 29 and 30. Noveities, fancy work, jeweiry, art woods and articles of household util-ity, also home-made candles, will be on cals. Hill-Jensen, On Wednessday evening, November 1, at the Central M. B. Parsonage, Miss Nettie Eugenia Jensen and Mr. George Wright Hill were united in marriage in the pres-ence of immediate relatives and friends, Rev. P. A. Toung officiating. Miss Sophia Jenson was bridesmaid and Mr. J. A. Brown heat man. After the wedding the bridal party repaired to Kruse's, where a delicious subper was served. Mr. Hill . . .

A iargely attended reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Rahles, who were married recently, was held on Wednes-day evening in the rooms of the Western Academy of Music. The Lettercarriers' Baad will give the first of their series of popular dances at Woodman Hall, East Sixth and Alder streets, Thursday evening, Novemb Invitation. . . .

Ladies' Auxiliary to Company H, Second Oregon, will meet at the home of Mrz. D. McDonald, 560 Jefferson street, on Fri-day, November 11. A full attendance is expected.

The regular meeting of the Fortnightly Club was held Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Ethel Durham, Fourth and Lincoln streets. Mrs. J. E. Cullison, 772 Kearney street will entertain Eliza Spalding Cabin, Na-tive Daughters of Oregon, Tuesday evening. . . .

The members of Company B. Third In-fantry, O. N. G., will give their second dancing party on November 11.

SOCIETY PERSONALS

Last Sunday was the occasion of a very pretty wedding at St. Patrick's Church. The confracting parties were Dan Duff and Miss Kate McCallig. The groom was John Duff and the bridesmaid Miss Rose Miss Henrietta Savage arrived from Sa-Hamel. The ceremony was performed by Pather Murphy. The bride wore a hand-some gown of brown broadcloth, with pic-ture hat. She carried a bouquet of chrysem on Monday.

delt in Eugene. Mrs. M. Washburne, of Eugene, is vislting in the city. Mrs. Joseph K. Clark has arrived home, after a three months' stay in Butte.

anthemuma. Miss Gertrude Kearney, of Astoria, played the wedding march. The bridal wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's father,/Mr. and Mrs. Duff will be at home to their friends after November 14 at 330 East Eighth Mrs. N. A. Dowell left this week for

Mrs. N. A. Dowell left this week for Spokane to visit her daughter. Mrs. Lane, Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Glesy returned yea-terday from a four weeks' Enstern visit. Miss Greenough, who has been visiting Miss Wood, left for New York on Thurs-

Miss Ann E. Campbell has returned from Honolulu, where she spent the Sum-Miss Jane Owen has returned from visit of seven weeks in Minneapolis, Chi-cago and St. Louis. Miss Ethel Lytie left for Goldendale

Thursday morning to sing at a recital given there on Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Kapus have moved into their new home, northwest corner East Twelfth and Schuyler, Holladay's Addition and a ale.

4

Addition. Mrs. Charles T. Kamm made a brief visit in Astoria last week, going to at-tend the wedding of her coustn, Miss Mahome of Mrs. M. P. Woodard, when Mins Madelaine Clark became the bride of Carmel D. Fairley. The service was read by Rev. W. R. Powell. The bride, who was unstiended, wors an elaborate gown of gray crepe de chine and carried a bou-quet of bride roses. After the ceremony an elaborate luncheon was served. The house was decorated with roses, ferns and Oregon bolly. Mr. and Mrs. Fairley will

everal months,

ning. Then again, there are the more elaborate combinations of pearls, turquoise and other precious stones, with various chain attachments that cannot fail to be of interest to the admirers of beautiful jewelry.

A. & C. FELDENHEIMER Cor. 3d and Washington

> Silversmiths Jewelers

NECKLACES

The Latest and Best Concep.

tions of the

Jeweler's Art. Prices Are Most Attractive. :: :: ::

An inspection of our Necklaces will reveal many novel and attractive ideas. The strands of heart-shape amethysts or topaz in different sizes are plain and substantial looking, still very effective. The single drop pear-shape amethyst, eoral or tarquoise are quite stun-underwent an operation at Good Samar-itan Hospital, is improving. Miss Ina McClung has returned from a Miss Dora E. Smock and her niece. Ivy Morback, of Sherwood, returned Thursday from a two months' visit to the World's Fair and other Eastern points.

Miss Em Gill left on the steamer Co-lumbia last week. After a short stay in San Francisco she goes South to spend the months of December and January in Miss Mary Conyers went to Oregon City inst week, where she sang at the Hallow-een party given by the Daughters of the King of St. Paul's Episcopal Church that city.

Mrs. J. Schwind, of this city, upon the recommendation of her physician, is seeking change of air in Europe, where she will remain some time with relatives and friends.

Mrs. H. K. McArthur, Mrs. J. W. Cook. of Portland, and Mrs. Levi Ankeny, of Walla Walla, have returned from a visit to Mrs. S. S. Samuels at "The Bunga-low," Seaside.

Mrs. Harry H. Hoisman and childr have gone to San Francisco to attend the wedding of Miss Tessie Meyer to M. J. Joseph. They will remain in California They will remain

Mrs. Howell and her daughter, Mrs. Clinton, went to San Francisco recently, en route to the Philippines, where they will join their husbands, Major Howell, sette Canuto, Miss Mable Randall, Miss Virginia Shroeder, Miss Annie Donavan, Miss Anna Porter, Miss Amanda Turner, Miss Minnie Pfeinniger and Miss O'Mal-

George Stenger left last evening for San Francisco, where he is to be mar-ried on November 13 to Miss Clementine Hahn. He was accompanied by his sis-ter, Mrs. D. P. Lewis, her daughter Ruth and by his brother. Albert A. Stenger. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Stenger will travel extensively, visiting Southern California. Mexico and Hawaiian Islands, returning to Portland about January 1 to returning to Portland about January 1 to occupy their new home, 2631/2 Thirteenth

On Tuesday evening J. Adrian Epping On Tuesday evening J. Adrian Epping, of the Western Academy of Music, assist-ed by several members of the faculty and pupils, gave a benefit concert in Vancou-ver for the Presbyterian Church of that city. Miss Minnie Bodes' reading was a feature of the entertainment. Buthyn Turney was warmly encored, his readi-tion of the Berceuse by Godard being esforson were presented with a beauti-ful set of Haviland china, the presen-tation being made by Judge Foley. An original poem in celebration of the oc-casion was read by Mrs. E. Howard. The annual birthday social of the For-eign Missionary Society of the Second Baptist Church was held Wednesday af-ternoon at the home of Mrs. D. Cham-bers, 765 East Burnside street. The parbers, 765 East Burnside street. The par-lors were filled with the members of the society and their friends. There were vocal soles by Miss Mary Chambers and Miss Knapp, and Mrs. Chambers gave a plane sole. Short addresses were given by Mrs. Aylesworth, president of the so-clety, and Mrs. Driggs, state president for the past 20 years.

er, Mrs. W. G. Furnell, Mrs. Burg, Mrs. O. E. Overbeck, Mrs. C. A. MoCarger, Mrs. T. Dayton, Mrs. H. Butterfield, Mrs. B. T. Levy, Mrs. F. Vanduyce, Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. M. Barnk, Miss Ethei Creaven, Mrs. Ed-win Caswell, Mrs. A. W. Cauthorne, Mrs. George Strong.

orated with witches. Mrs. A. H. Tan ner won the first prize in the progressive games. Mrs. Edwin Caswell as hostess.

Halloween social given at the Young Men's Christian Association, in honor of crowded and the affair was thoroughly

Other interesting events were the meet more; the Fall opening and tea at the Woman's Exchange, and the tea given by the Portland branch of the Needlework

The Ladies' Ald Society of the First Congregational Church held one of its most interesting sessions on Wednesday afternoon, being assisted by Miss Vance secretary of the Y. W. C. A., and by Miss

Elsie Garrett and Miss Cornelia Barker, who provided music. The Unitarian Alliance held its monthly literary and musical meeting on Wednesday, also, the members greatly appreciating Mrs. Colby's paper and the songs of Miss Copeland and Miss Edwina Mastick.

Mrs. Louis Burke's Halloween party enjoyed.

Guild of America.

20

win Caswell, Mrs. A. W. Cauthorne, Mrs. George Strong. Mrs. Burke also entertained on Tuesday afternoon, this time with an Indian party. Indian baskets filled with swordferns and kinni-kinnick, with its bright red berries. besides many gorgeous Navajo blankets, made a unique and very attractive deco-ration. The Indian idea was carried out in claver fashiou in grame and increased. In clever fashion in games and luncheon, the guests being asked to draw various objects on decraskin, the finished drawings providing material for an amusing guessing contest. Mrs. G. G. Gamman, won the prize, a Clatsop Indian basket. At luncheon the guests were given cards decorated with what were supposed to be their "totems," and their places at the table were found by matching the totems with others embroidered in the raffia table cover. The saisd was served in with others embroadered in the raffin table cover. The salad was served in cances manned by olive Indians, the almonds in abaione shells and the candles and loces in birchbark cances and scalloped shells. Miss Gladys Ross and Miss Ada Burke. In the con-tumes of Indian princesses, assisted. The guests were: Mrs. M. A. M. Ashler, Mrs. Lydlil Baker, Mrs. J. F. Booth, Mrs. Erneat Bross, Mrs. H. C. Campbell, Mrs. E. Caswell, Mrs. G. G. Gammans, Mrs. E. P. Gray, Mrs. T. L. Harmon, Mrs. W. L. Hathaway, Mrs. T. A. Jones, Miss Lawrence, Miss Mabel lawrence, Mrs. H. C. Miller, Mrs. E. P. Mossman, Mrs. F. A. Nitchey, Mrs. J. C. Robinson, Mrs. C. E. Rumelin, Mrs. E. B. Piper, Mrs. C. W. Sherman, Miss Lizetta Smith, Mrs. F. S. Stanley, Mrs. F. Van duyne, Mrs. W. H. Wallace, Mrs. R. W. Wihoon, Mrs. C. P. Swigert, Miss Ken-ney, Mrs. Charles Currey, Mrs. Knowh-ton and Miss Johns.

Mrs. I. M. S. Morris and Miss Morris entertained on Wedneeday ten guests at luncheon at the Estacada Hotel, leaving luncheon at the Estacada Hotel, leaving Fortland at 10. After a pleasant trip over the road in a private car as far as the Morris Summer home, they returned to iuncheon at the botel. The table was beautifully decorated and the luncheon very delightful. The favors were large bunches of Marie Louise violets. Those present were Mrs. George Russell, Mrs. Farnest Bross, Mrs. Hoyt, Mrs. Lewis Russell, Mrs. G. C. Mason, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Muir, Miss Charlotte Whalley, Mrs. Nau and Miss Imogen Stuart.

The music of Bach and Beethoven was the subject of study at the first Fall meeting of the New England Conserva-tory Club, which was entertained on this occasion at the home of Mrs. T. T. Davis, on Willamette Heights. Mrs. J. L. Schultz by what in charge of the programme and Mrs. Edgar B. Piper is arranging the one for the next meeting, to be held on Wednes-day, afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. W. B. Hamilton. Beethoven and Brahms are the composers whose works will be considered.

Miss Maude Gilliand, who is to be mar-ried to Sterilay Worth Gilliand on No-vember 26, is to live in San Francisco, very much to the regret of her friends here, Several other Portand girls who married San Francisco men recently were Miss Helep Lamson, who married Mr. Crary: Miss Edith Percy, who is now Mrs. Eing: Miss Emma Bingen, who mar-ried Mr. Bischburn several months (20, Hayes as "Bosco, the Snake-eater," and his trainer, had well sustained impersonahis trainer, had well sustained impersona-tions. The colored aristocracy was rop-resented by Williams, Har, M. Mitchei, Hobrecker, Brandon and Calishan. A unique 'country' group was formed by Voight as a country consisble; Nelson, the cowboy; Green and Webber, as farm-ers. 8. French Strett, Stanton, Shirk, J. Mitchel, Kruse, Massey, McEwen and Price made a charming bevy of girls. Ben Hill posed as "pairiarch of the flock." All the parts were well sustained and when the bugle announced that it was time for the merrymaking to cense the boys filed out giving their hearty cheers for Doctor and Mrs. Hill.

Members and friends of the Hassalo-Members and friends of the Hassalo-Street Congregational Church met for a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Cook, 522 Tillamook street, on Friday evening. The occasion was a welcome to the pastor, Rev. C. E. Chase, on his return from the National Council. A literary contest, which en-gaged the interest of all present, was much enjoyed. During the evening neveral selections on the plano were given by Miss Brookings and Miss Graham. Miss Chloe McClung sang "The Swoetest Flower That Blows" and "Absent" in a charming manner. and "Absent" in a charming manner. Mr. Tinker sang Eugene Cowles "Once in a Purple Twilight" and "Four-Leaf Clover," by Lelis M. Browneil. A very pleasing humorous selection was given by Mrs. F. S. Myers.

The reception tendered Rev. Mr. Dewart and family at the Woollawn Methodist Episcopal Church Friday evening, Octo-ber 25, was well attended and thoroughly ber 2, was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all. Mr. Dewart is from North Dakota, and comes highly recommended. Dr. Rockwell, presiding elder, and Dr. Kerr were among those present. A short programme was readered, after which re-treshments were served downstairs. Fol-lowing is the programme: Song quartet, church choir: solo. "Tis I' Clinault), Mrs. Hammond: "Darkies" Cradle Song." quar-tet, Mrs. Patten, Miss. Roberts, Mrs. Mack, Mrs. Hammond; solo and chorus, "Rock of Ages." Mr. Arthur and congre-gation; address of welcome. Dr. Rock-Well; welcome to Woodlawn, Rev. Mr. Stevens; address, Rev. Mr, Kerr; re-sponse, Rev. Mr. Dewart.

. . .

One of the pleasant events of the week was the children's party given by the Haywood Club, of University Park, at its auditorium hast Monday evening. There were over one hundred present, a large number being dressed as children. The guests played children's games, and after a sconraj good time were served with rerests played children's games, and after a general good time were served with re-freshments. A novel feature was the serving of ics oream in individual molds. There were a large variety of designs, representing flowers, musical instruments, vegetables and statuary. The club will open its dramatic season in about ten days, with the comedy "Between Acts." to be followed shortly by a popular drama. The club is in a flourishing condition, and with the greatly increased popularition on the Peninsula will become more popular than ever.

. . .

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Cook entertained a lew of their friends at their home in Bouth Portland one evening last week. The bouse was very prettily decorated for the occasion. The parlors and hall were adorned with potted paims and farm in fardinieres. Indian baskets filled with Oregon grape and vases of pink roschude added to the pratty effect. The owning was very pleasantly apart. In pecially beautiful. Mr. Epping made a few remarks of a musical nature.

A most enjoyable Halloween party was given on Monday evening, October 31, at the home of Miss Mas Stimpson. The rooms were decorated very artistically with Chinese lanterns and crepe paper. The evening was spent in playing games. Those present were: Misses Blanche Cle-land, Hottle Stimpson, Mable Gulonson, Doulla Sigur, Mas Stimpson, Messra, By-rum Brooks, Henry Keck, Charles Walt, Fred Steffens, Henry Slingley.

. . . The dancing party given Tuesday even-ing by the popular A'Volante Club at Parsons Hall was a success in every par-ticular. The decorations, in Japanese style, were charming, and the pretty ity, were charman, and a been maidens, in exquisite gowns, made a beau-tiful picture. Delightful music was fur-nished for the occasion. This was the sec-ond in the series of parties, m couples be-ing present. The next will be held the first Tuesday in December.

A delightful part of the programms of the Young Women's Christian Associa-tion Halloween party was the singing of Mins Kathryn Nord Pope, of Oregon City, and Mrs. Olga Lang. Miss Pope's voice is soprano, of good quality and expres-sion, and her songs were enthusiastically received. They were Hanley's "Greeting" and "Our Life Is Vain." Mrs. Lang was also heard with much appreciation in "I Love You," by Bobeski.

The harvest home supper served by George Wright Relief Corps to their pat-rons last Friday night was well named, for the club members seemed to have culled from all the dainties of orchard and cuiled from all the calibles of oronard and field, and these were served in excellent style. The patronage was liberal. A short programme of readings and music was given and then came whist and dancing. The relief fund was materially augmented by the proceeds.

The members of the Young Woman's Missionery Society of the First Presby-terian Church were pleasantly enter-tained Tuesday afternoin by Miss Mar-garet Wilson and Miss Clark, at Miss Wilson's residence, this being the regular social meeting of the society. The hours were passed with needlework, and dainty refreshments were served at the close. A large number of young people were in attendances.

attendance. . . .

Autumn Leaf Circle, No. 764, C. F. of A., gave a Halloween entertainment and dance October II. The hall was beautifully dance October II. The hall was beautifully decorated with pumpicins and wintergreen. At one and of the hall a booth was hand-somely arranged for a paimist, who was the center of attraction. The hall was erowded to its fullest capacity. Refresh-ments were served by the ladies of the order, after which dancing was enjoyed.

The reception given to the law depart-ment of the Western Academy of Music was well attended. C. M. Idleman was the lecturer of the evening. Mise Mae Breelin sang several dointy classical songs, which were highly appreciated. G. Lester Paul was repeatedly encored for his fine readings. The entire programme was in charge of Miss Petronelis Connol-ly, of the vocal department.

Euroka Council 204 K L of S. gave a Halloween party last Monday evening. The hall was prettily decorated with crees paper. Chinese landsrus and pumpking. The Halloween games caused much sur-

The New Century Dancing Club gave its first party of the season Wednesday, November 2, at Parsons Hall. About 50 couples were present, and a very enjoyevening was spent. .

Mrs. F. M. Graham entertained at her home, 921 East Burnside street, on Wednesday afternoon, the hours being spent in whist. Mrs. Niel won the first prise, and the consolation prize was won by Mrs. Nellie Boong.

WEDDINGS.

Jordan-White,

The wedding of Captain Charles Jor-dan and Miss Mabel E. White was sol-emnized on Monday at the home of Cap-tain and Mrs. Peter Jordan, of Astoria. emnized on Monday at the home of Cap-tain and Mire. Peter Jordan, of Astoria. The parlors were artistically decorated with Autumn leaves, mountain moss and cut flowers, while the diningroom was adorned with ity, Autumn leaves and flow-ers. After singing of "O Promise Me" by Mise Etta Birauss, the bridal party en-tered the parlor at 4 o'clock, during the playing of the "Lohengrin" wedding march, which was softly continued dur-ing the ceremony. The bride, who wore a bouquet of beautiful white chrysanthe-muma, was attended by her sister. Mise Finabeth White, whose gown was a dain-tor of organdy, with yellow chrysanth-muma. Henry Jordan, brother of the groom, acted as best man. The bride was fiven away by Captain Peter Jordan. The ceremony was performed by Rov. Herbert Brown, pastor of the First Pres-byterian Church. The bride's bouquet was eaught by Mise Ada Jordan, cousin of the stream frain for a visit to Port-iand and the Sound. The bride is a grad-ate of the Monmouth State Normal Behool and and the Sound. The brides is a traj-soung man of excellent character and the popular master of the steamer Yan-gaide in Cathlament for a short unit, bu-atoria will be their permanent home. Weigel-Weber.

Weigel-Weber.

<section-header><section-header>

. Mr. and Mrs. Fairley wil live at St. Johns. Godfrey-Lewton.

alar.

Addition.

At the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Lewton, 421 Twelfth street, Wednesday evening, November 2, Miss Adele M. Lewton was married to Mr. Clarence M. Godfrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Godfrey. The marriage ceremony was performed by the bride's father. At home after November 19 at 430 Eugene street street.

Hogan-Mayger.

Thomas A. Hogan and Miss Neil May-ger, both of this city, were united in mar-riage November 1 at high noon by Father Murphy. Mr. and Mrs. Hogan departed on the evening train for Roseburg and wayside towns for a wedding trip. On their return they will take up their resi-dence at 77 Park street.

Dautoff-Cohen.

A pretty wedding took place last Wed-nesday evening at East Thirty-fifth and Ankeny streets, at the home of M. Daut-off, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Ray S. Cohen and J. S. Dautoff. Rev. Dr. Abrahamson officiated. A large number of relatives and friends were presont.

Wilson-Lester.

A quist wedding took place at the resi-dence of Thomas Place. Sellwood, last Wednesday evening. The contracting parties were Don F. Wilson and Miss Mabel Lester. The Rev. C. A. Lewis, pastor of Sellwood M. E. Chruch, offi-ciated.

Bagnall-Henton.

A quist wedding took place in St. Matthew's Church hast Thursday at 1:20, when Miss Vesta L. Heaton became the wife of Gerald Bagmail. The witnesses were the bride's mother and Major William C. Langfitt.

ENGAGEMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Raymond, of Salem, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Ethei Mae, to Mr. Archibaid Pence Boyd, of New York City. Miss Raymond leaves Gregon November 10 via San Francisco, where abe will visit her sister, Mrs. M. L. Spangier, for a short time, and after spending a few days in St. Louis also, will go to New York, where the wedding will take place. Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Levy announce the engagement of their daughter, Ernes-tins, to Mr. Harry A. Slegel, of New York. Mr. and Mrs. Lery were formerly reidents of Salem, Or., but now are re-siding at 1960 Ernedway, San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. William Montag announce the engagement of their daughter, Pearl Margaret, to Mr. Ernest R. Simmons. The wedding is to take place this month.

COMING EVENTS.

On Monday evening the girls classes at the Eingler gymnasium enjoyed a Hal-loween party in the gymnasium, which was prettily decorated with Autumn terms. There was a tent at core side of the form where the young people ware re-ouved by a fortune-telling witch. The quests were arrayed as ghosts during the autiler part of the avening, later appear-ing in which shadow pictures figured were math enjoyed.

Acknowledgod leaders for Reliable Stylish Fur Garmenta and High-Class Novelty Neckwear in all the distinguished Genuine Alaska Sealskin Jackets, London dye, finest quality, perfection of fit, superior workmanship, and the acme of style guaranteed.

Comprehensive catalorus of beau-tifully illustrated fur garments malled free.

H. LIEBES & COMPANY, 288 Morrison Street PORTLAND J. P. PLAGEMANN, Manager

G. P. RUMMELIN & SONS 126 Second Street, Between Alder and Washington FINE FURS

We are showing many stylish FUR NECK PIECES this season. Our RICA STOLES are modishly made of Sabla, and Mink: two of the leading furs this n; also made of Civet Cat, Ermine.

FUR COATS

Alaska Sealskin Coats, Moire Astrachan Coats, Persian Lamb Coats, Near Seal Coats.

FUR BOAS in Black Marten, Sable For, Alaska Bear, Sable Opeasum, etc. ALASKA SEALSKINS, London Dye, vifeloors run

Leading and Reliable Furriers ad 1850. Send for Cat