

Mrs. E. E. Compston, Seventeenth

with her on Tuesday, November 22, at 1575 Hawthorne avenue, requesting the members to come at 1 o'clock for the so-

Mrs. James McCown and Mrs. John

P. Wager entertained the Kensington Club in a most delightful manner Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs.

a nut. Each guest was given a card decorated with acorns in water color,

Mrs. C. J. Calkins gave a luncheon on November 14 at her residence, 290 Halsey street, in honor of the 83d birthday of Mr. Calkins' grandmother, Mrs. Mary Coldren. The house was very prettily decorated with chrysanthemums and cor-mos. Mrs. Coldren, in spite of her 83 neth Richards and Ambrose Cronin, Jr.

One of the most pleasant events of the week was a luncheon given by Mrs. I. M. Frazier at her residence in Kenilworth on Thursday. The table had decorations of Autumn leaves and chrysanthemums, and Autumn leaves and chrysanthenums, and was arranged for 18 guests, who were Mrs. I. M. Franter, Mrs. J. Davey, Mrs. M. J. Funk, Mrs. Dubols, Mrs. L. E. Cornell, Mrs. M. B. Richmond, Mrs. A. Munro, Mrs. N. M. Howe, Mrs. A. Gehman, Mrs. A. Heltsman, Mrs. E. A. Davis, Mrs. S. Nash, Mrs. M. Alderson, Mrs. R. Morgan, Mrs. M. S. Knapp, Mrs. M. Rollins, Miss Florence Funk and Miss Katherine Frazier.

The annual exhibition of art photographs by the Oregon Camera Club will be held at its club rooms in the Macleay building, Fourth and Washington streets, during this week, commencing Monday evening and will be open every afternoon and evening during the week, including Thanksgiving day. This is not an ex-

Thanksgiving day. This is not an exhibit of snap shots, but of the best pictures that can be produced by good cameras carefully operated and then developed by each exhibitor with all of the skill and art of which he is master. The public is most cordially invited to this exhibition, which is free.

Mr. and Mrs. George Merrill have returned from a three months' trip to their old home in Maine. They first at-tended the G. A. E. encampment in Bos-ton, and while there Mr. Merrill had

Mr. and Mrs. George Patges celebrated

Frazier.

The principal topics of conversation | wherever people have met during the week were the two beautiful church weddings of Tucsday, and Wednesday-the wedding of Major Walter A. Bethel, U. S. A., and Miss Elizabeth Strong, who Mrs. E. E. Compston, Seventeenth street, entertained the members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club last Tuesday. "Beowulf" being the subject of study. Mrs. Merwin Pugh gave an interesting description of Hrothgars Hall, Mrs. G. M. Glines told of Grendel and his evil deeds. Mrs. Warren White explained the arrival and errand of Beowulf. Mrs. were married at the First Presbyterian Church, and the marriage of Miss Gertrude McClintock and Hunt Lewis, on Wednesday evening at St. Mark's. Miss Strong and Miss McClintock made ideally lovely brides, and each had a charming group of pretty bridesmalds.
Invitations are out for the wedding of George Boynton. "Beownif's Victory."
Mrs. Otto Hirsch gave a graphic description of the fight with Grendel's mother.
An interesting discussion followed. Refreshments were served during the social hour. Mrs. Balley invited the club to meet

Miss Imogen Stuart to Lloyd Justin Wentworth, who will be married at the Unitarian Church on Wednesday, December L.

Mrs. George McKinney Strong gave a tea yesteriny afternoon, at which her mother, Mrs. Huxton, of Kewanee, Ill., and Mrs. Fred Hiram Strong, one of this season's brides, were guests of honor. Mrs. George M. Wells regeived with them, and Mrs. A. J. Giesy, Mrs. Edgar P. Hill and Mrs. Louis Burke graciously assisted in the drawing-room. The drawing-room and dining-room had prettily arranged decerations of pink roses, cosmos and ferns, and McCown. A "nut guessing contest" was the game for the afternoon, the object of the game being to answer 15 pus-sling questions, each with the name of of pink roses, cosmos and ferns, and the tea table was exquisitely appointed with silver which once belonged to Mrs. Strong's grandmother. At the table were Mrs. E. P. Mossman, Mrs. A. L. Craig, Mrs. August G. Klooterman and Mrs. Milo Kirkpatrick, assisting whom were Mrs. John Willman, Miss Leonore Klosterman and Miss Sadie Stephenson, Mrs. Frederick E. Cooper and Mrs. Percy Stowell served frappe.

The Portland alumnae of St. Heien's Hall had a delightful reunion yesterday, at a reception held at the hall during the aftreception held at the hall during the afternoon, the affair having been arranged by the Society of Graduates. Several hundred guests were present, nearly all former pupils and graduates, and as these are all devoted to the school they found talking over old times very delightful. The rooms were tastefully decorated in green, under the direction of Miss Ellen Stephens, and yellow chrysanthennums ornamented the tea table, at which Mrs. Walter J. Burns and Mrs. Curtis C. Strong presided. Sherbet was served by Watter J. Burille and Mrs. Carlis Strong presided. Sherbet was served by Mrs. William Muir.

A charming receiving party included Mrs. William Mackenzie, Mrs. William D. Rudy, Miss Charlotte Whalley and O. Rudy, Miss Cl Miss Hilda Hexter.

Multnomah Chapter, Daughters of the Multnomah Chapter, Daugnters of the American Revolution, was entertained on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. A. E. Rockey, Colonel James Jackson gave an address on "The Fast and Future of Our Country," and Mrs. Tuttle, of Virginia, gave a splendid account of the work of the Daughters of the Revolution in the South, both Colonel Jackson and Mrs. Tuttle, below heard with the closest atthe Daughters of the Revolution in the South, both Colonel Jackson and Mrs. Tuttle being heard with the closest attention. The chapter was especially interested in Mrs. Tuttle's anecdotes of Thomas Jefferson, which she obtained from a granddaughter. They were also entertained by Arthur Alexander, tenor soloist and Miss A. E. Mort, of St. Mary's Academy, who recited, "Mary, Queen of Scote" with admirable expression. ots," with admirable expression.

COMING EVENTS.

A musicale and tea was a pleasant event at the Patton Home last Tues-day afternoon. A large number of guests were present, and were delightfully enter-tained by Miss Bether Leonard in two contraits soles. "Serenade," by Neid-linger, and "Asthore"; Miss Laura L. Fox, played Wagner's "Pligrims' Cl "Air de Ballet," Chaminade; Mrs. C. and Air of Dates.

C. Rose, who also gave brilliant plano selections; Miss Petronella Connely, who sang "The Vlolet," and a cradle song; Miss Ethel Powers and Miss Suza Jones, who were heard with pleasure in a duet, "Hark to the Mandolin." Besides the music, there were entertaining readings by Miss Watkins and Mrs. E. E. McFarland. The home was decorated with cosmos, the tea table looking especially dainty and pretty. Mrs. John E. Povey and Mrs. T. Sherman received the guests as they arrived, and Mrs. J. C. Mann and Miss H. Albers were at the tea table. Ethel Powers and Miss Suga Jones, were at the tea table ton, and while there Mr. Merrill had the rare pleasure of visiting the old Constitution, on which he served in the early '50s. He also visited the Hart-ford, Commedore Farragut's flagship, on which he served during the Civil War. While in Maine their headquar-ters were in Bangor, but they visited Portland, Belfast, Augusta and many other places. They also visited the Sel-diers' Home at Togus, Me. Mrs. James N. Sutton entertained most charmingly Thursday afternoon. Whist was played, Mrs. Kuykendall and Mrs. K. Daly winning the prizes, which were pretty pieces of sliver. Cosmos and ferns were combined in the decorations, which were much admired. Miss Sutton assisted in entertaining by singing very delightfully, and her sister Miss Louise, also assisted. The guests invited were Mrs. Gradon. Mrs. Matheson. Mrs. Countis, Mayer, Mrs. K. Daly, Mrs. H. Dillon, Mrs. Matheson. Mrs. Countis, Mayer, Mrs. K. Daly, Mrs. H. Dillon, Mrs. E. A. Dickerson, of Seattle, also Miss Beulah Drew, Miss Mabel Baker, Mrs. C. Hunt, Mrs. S. Kuykendall, Mrs. Misses Hazel Patges, Mr. Gradon, Mr. Mathieson and Mr. Henrici.

M. Morden, Mrs. Gurney, Mrs. W. Prud.

Mrs. W. C. Puffer gave an extremely Mrs. James N. Sutton entertained most Mercan, Mrs. W. Corcoran, Mrs. C. Wiley, Mrs. C. Hunt, Mrs. S. Kuykendall, Mrs. on and Mr. Henrici.

M. Morden, Mrs. J. Hasson, Mrs. W. Prudhomme, Mrs. J. Hasson, Mrs. W. Prudhomme, Mrs. J. Hasson, Mrs. J. Tyrell, Mrs. Hodgson, Mrs. J. Klosterman, Mrs. G. Answorth, Miss Lotan, Mrs. G. Wright, Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Mrs. P. J. Flynn, Mrs. Mays.

The Oregon Grape Whist Club held a delightful meeting last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. T. Cottor, 1015 Hawthorne avenue. Election day was kept in mind in various ways. The score cards bore the names of the Presidential candidates, the score being checked off as in voting. The dining-room was resplendent with yellow and white chrysanithemums, the table was loaded with handsome blossoms. The place Cards were pictures of President Roosevell, The luncheon, all in yellow, white and green, was extremely dainty. Prizes for whist the Bradford residence, and supper was served at the home of Miss Cunning-ham, the dining-room having pretty decorations in red, white and green. Music, in which nearly all the young people took part, completed a very pleasant evening.

Miss Carrie Stipe entertained the Portasia Club Thursday evening at her residence, 448 East Lincoln atreet, the annual election resulting as follows: President, N. Paulson; vice-president, L. P. Thornton; treasurer, J. M. Sheets; secretary, Miss Carrie Stipe. The game of hearts was played, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Zander winning first prizes and Thomas Schomp and Miss Waleia Shields the consolation. Dainty refreshments were served.

Shields the consolation. Dainty refreshments were served.

Rev. David Thompson and Mrs. Thompson received the members and friends of the Presbyterian Church at Sellwood on Wednesday evening at the coay new manse. The house was decorated with common and chrysanthemums, and Miss Beatrice Whipple and Miss Margaret Briggs served frappe in a red-curtained recess, which was prettily decorated with red gerantums. The young pastor and wife are much liked and their reception was very pleasant. was very pleasant.

Guests to the number of 100, mostly members of the Scandinavian Lutheran Church, East Tenth and East Grant streets, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Jensen, East Ninth street, near Beacon street, Saturday evening, it being the wedding anniversary of the host and hostess. It was a complete sur-prise to Mr. and Mrs. Jensen. Rev. P. Hagoes, paster of the Scandinavian Church, made a pleasant address.

Ruthyn Turney.

A novelty in entertainments and a

One of the most pleasant events of the week in Sunnyside was the celebration of the fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Holton, on Wednesday evening. About 50 friends were present. After a short programme of music the guests engaged in an observation contest.

The next meeting of the Oregon Agricultural College Club will be held at 8 P. M., Saturday, November 26, in the hall of the Western Academy of Music, Mulkey building. A splendid programme will be rendered and all old students are conducted by the conduction. cordially invited to come and bring their decorated with acorns in water color, on which to write the answer. Mrs. Stacy Matlack won the prize, a small watercolor of Mount Hood. The host-esses were assisted by Mrs. William Patton, Mrs. Dove and Miss Mildred Matlack. The club will have one more meeting, for the election of officers, adjourning until after the holidays. Mrs. F. S. Doernbecher entertained the ladles of the Central Baptist Church at day afternoon. A short programme of readings and music was rendered, after which plans for the Christmas bazaar were discussed.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the First Congregational Church gave an enjoyable social on Monday evening in the church pariors. A short business session preceded an interesting programme with which the society entertained its friends.

On the evening of November II, at the Fireman's Hall, Sellwood, friends of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hamilton gave them a decorated with chrysanthemums and cormos. Mrs. Coldren, in spite of her Stycars, is very active and thoroughly enjoyed receiving and entertaining her friends, and was the recipient of many pretty gifts. The guests included Mrs. H. R. Beckwith, Mrs. I. Burroughs, Mrs. H. Warden, Mrs. C. Richards, Mrs. M. Coldren, Mrs. J. Eggleston, Mrs. Mattock, Mrs. Hicks, Mrs. Cronin and Miss Mattock, Gretchen and Gladys Calkins, Kenneth Richards and Gladys Calkins, The young men of Willamette Cour Royal Arcanum, gave a dance at Parsons Hall on Friday evening, Parsons orchestra providing a programme of excellent music. A dainty supper was served and dancing continued until late.

Marguerite Camp No. 1460. Royal

Neighbors of America, are giving a se-ries of whist parties this Winter, enter-taining on the fourth Thursday of each month. The next one will be given Thanksgiving night.

was heightened by the soft strains of a sonata played by Roy C. Russell, of Portland, a cousin of the bride. The six bridesmaids were Miss Hida Jones, of Brooks: Miss Ruby Cornell of Selem; Marie Steiwer, of Jefferson, and the Misses Nell and Edythe Bonney and Myrtie Trask, of Woodburn.

The bride was beautiful in a gown of white chiffon with tuile vell and arm bouquet of Bride rosebuds. Here maid of honor, Miss Mabel Jones, of Brooks, wore white silk net over taffet, and carried shell pink carnhtions, at Little Grace Horenden, of Portland, carried the ring on a white satin pillow, and as the bridal party left the a church she scattered flowers in front of the bride.

The groom was attended by his bathers with Misses Carnel and Stark streets.

Davidson-Jackson.

Miss Vera Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Jackson, of Hood River, was maried at her parents' home on Tuesder, White West Davidson. Only rela-device Parents' home on Tuesder, White Parents' home on Tuesder, Whi of the bride.

The groom was attended by his brother, Will M. Grover, as best man. The ushers were H. S. Gilbert and L. Harvey Wells, of Portland; Phillip A. Livesley, Tracy C. Poorman, Oscar Price and George Landon.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Settlemler. After congratulations were said the guests were served in the dining-room by the bridesmalds.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover left on the even-ing train for a short trip north. They will be at home in December in the handsome new house being built for them in Woodburn.

Lewis-McClintock.

The wedding of Miss Gertrude Mc-Clintock to Hunt Lewis was celebrated at St. Mark's Episcopal Church on Wednesday evening at $:30. The cero-mony was very simple in detail, the church having only an altar decora-tion of white chrysanthemums. Men-delssohn's "Spring Song" was played before the service began, and as the bride came in the organist played the About 250 people were entertained at Marquam Hall on Tuesday evening by Portland Council 678, Knights of Columbus. Supper was served after a programme, which included remarks by Dr. J. P. Goray songs by Miss Mollie Reynoids, Miss Petronella Connoily, Miss Florence Barnett, J. Adrian Epping and John P. Kavanaugh and a violin solo by Ruthyn Turney. maids, Miss Nan Wood and Miss Kathleen A novelty in entertainments and a basket party is being arranged for Thanksgiving Eve by the members of Sacred Heart Church, 82 Milwaukie street. The social will commence at 8 o'clock P. M. A Scotch piper and an Irish jig-dancer have promised to be present for the occasion. No admission will be charged.

**Burns, were in white, each carrying a big bouquet of pink roses. Mrs. McClintock, the bride's mother. Word black lace over white silk. Her sister, Mrs. S. H. Brooke, was charming in light blue brocaded silk, and Mrs. Lewis was very handsomely gowned in black silk. Mrs. Allen Lewis 'gown was of white silk with which green was effectively combined. Mrs. Robert Lewis looked extremely well in a black. A very enjoyable farewell party was tendered to Miss Bessie F. Jolly, of San Francisco, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Murphy, 65 Fourth street. Tuesday evening. The home was beautifully decorated with Oregon grape and Autumn leaves. At a late hour dainty refreshments were served.

Was effectively combined. Mrs. Robert was tended. Mrs. Robert was tendered well in a black tendered to Miss Bessie F. Jolly, of San Jetted costume. Dr. Morrison, of Trinity Church, read the marriage service. In which the bride was given away by her uncle. Frank M. Faber, of Pittsburg. David Lewis looked extremely well in a black tendered to Miss Bessie F. Jolly, of San Jetted costume. Dr. Morrison, of Trinity Church, read the marriage service. In which the bride was given away by her uncle. Frank M. Faber, of Pittsburg. David Lewis was best man, the ushers being Gordon Voorhies, Roderick Macleay, T. Scott Brooke and Thales Linthicum. After spending was effectively combined. Mrs. Robert was tendered to Mrs. Robert was After spending several weeks in the South, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will return to Portland early in December.

Robinson-Schade.

Saturday evening, November 12, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Schade, 825 Sixth street, Miss Dora Schade was united in marriage to Arthur C. Robinson. The wedding was a very pretty one. A lrage number of friends and relatives gathered to witness the event. The rooms were profusely decorated with ferns, Autumn leaves and flowers. "O, Promise Me" was sweetly sung by Miss Lena Kutcher, with Miss Cecilla Curran at the piano, and as the bride and groom entered the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" was played. Miss Minnie Schade was bridesmaid and Chris Johnston best man. Beneath a can-opy of evergreen, the young people took their places while the Rev. Mr. Schauer performed the impressive ceremony of the German Evangelical Church. The bride wore a pretty and becoming gown of white chiffon with tulle vell and orange being present. Alexander Gevurtz was best man, and Ziporah Harris, sleter of the bride, played the wedding march, which she composed especially for the oc-filled with white chrysanthemums and smilax was most effectively arranged in the shape of a wedding bell. The bride, a pretty brunette, was ex-ceedingly winsome in a handsome gown of white creps de chine. The music-room and dining-room were beautifully decorated with pink and white chrysanthe rated with pink, and white chrysanthe-mums, and the long table at which the wedding supper was served was trimmed with pink satin ribbons and smilax and lighted with pink candies. After a wed-ding trip Mr. and Mrs. Gevurtz will make their home at 705 Everett street.

Henderson-Tyler. marriage of Miss Edith M. Tyler

Miss Semele Groat entertained the and James I. Henderson took place at the Cinch Club on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Tyler, near

Davidson-Jackson.

Miss Vers Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Jackson, of Hood River, was married at her parents' home on Tuesday to Barton G. Davidson. Only relatives and a few friends were present. The ceremony was performed at noon, Rev.
W. C. Evans, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson left on the afternoon train for Portland. They return the latter part of the week to spend a few days in Hood River before going to Coeur d'Alene. Idaho, where Mr. Davidson has extensive lumbering interests.

Harrison-Perkins.

Harrison-Perkins.

The wedding of a charming Southern girl, Miss Anna Perkins, of Birmingham, Ala., to George Harrison, of Portland, took place on Tuesday evening, November 15, at the home of J. K. Havely, 715 East Eleventh street. Rev. Harold Oberg, of Trinity Methodist Episcopai Church, performed the ceremony, at which a large number of friends and relatives were present. After December 1 Mr. and Mrs. Perkins will be at home at 715 East Eleventh street.

Hall-Byles. J. L. Hall and Miss Naomi Byles were married at Montesano, Wash. November 16, Rev. Mr. Benadom, of the Methodist Episcopal Church officiating. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. E. A. Byles. The bride and groom are both fa-vorites among the young people of Monte-

Mr. and Mrs. Hall left on the morning train for the Sound, where they are spending their honeymoon.

Collins-Wheeless.

In their own home on Michigan avenue which had been furnished in time for the which had been jurnished in time for the occasion, Mr. John P. Collins and Miss Alice Wheeless, prominent young people of Woodlawn, were married Monday evening in the presence of friends and relatives. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Collins, and the bride the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Wheeless. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Wheeless,

ENGAGEMENTS.

Tre engagement of Miss Irma Kurth to Frank H. Humer, of Roseburg, Or., is announced, the wedding to take place at the First Presbyterian Church

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Roots, of Boring, Or., announce the engagement of their daughter, Amy, to William A. Morand. The wedding is to take place this month.

Mr. and Mrs. L Ofner announce the engagement of their daughter, Oiga Lucile, to Harry Jonas, of East Orange, N. J. At home November 27.

G. W. Baldwin announces the mar-riage of his sister, Grayce Alyne, to value. Herbert LeRoy Staver, November 30. porter. No cards.

COMING EVENTS.

At a recent meeting of former residents of the Granite state, the formation of a New Hampshire Club in Portland was wore a fretty and becoming gown of white chiffon with tuile veil and orange biossoms and bouquet of Bride roses. The best small wore pale pink and carried a bouquet of enrantions.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson will be at home to their friends at 361 Tenth street, East Side.

Gevurtz-Harris.

On Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Harris, their daughter, Miss Anna Elizabeth, was united in marriage to Matthew Gerurtz, only the immediate relatives of the two families being present. Alexander Gevurts was being present. Alexander Gevurts was being present. Alexander Gevurtz was best man, and Ziporah Harris, sieter of the bride, played the wedding march, which she composed especially for the occasion.

The reception hall and parlor were elaborately decorated in green and white, the ceilings being quite concealed with ivy. Where the bridal party stood, netting filled with white chrysanthemums and smilax was most effectively arranged in smilax was most effectively arranged in the church parlors some of their delicious home-made mincement, fruit cake and pickles.

The social meeting of the Young Woman's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church will be held Tuesday, November 22, at 2:30 P. M., with Mrs. L. Q. Swetland, 133 Twelfth street.

The Young Woman's Christian Associa tion is planning for a free entertainment to be given at the rooms, Sixth and Oak streets, on Wednesday evening, Novem-

The Junior Auxiliary of St. Shephen's will hold a sale of articles made from handkerchiefs Friday afternoon and even-ing. November 25, corner 15th and Clay.

Multnomah Club will give a smoker Wednesday evening. November 23, at the clubrooms, an interesting programme having been arranged.

Arbutus Circle gives a ball at Arion Hall

Yolman dance, Ringler's Hail, next Thurs. eve., not Wed., as first announced. Brownie Club, "Weber's Hail, Fulton," Wed., Nov. 22. Everest Orchestra.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Mrs. G. D. Linn, of Eugene, has been spending a few days in the city.

Mrs. M. C. Bowles has returned after a month's visit at Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weston have re-turned from a visit in Boise, Idaho. Mrs. Rose Hoyt is spending three weeks at Green River Hot Springs. Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Kent have returned from a trip to Southern Oregon.

Mrs. Robert Smith has returned from a two months' visit to Canada and the

Mrs. M. E. Andrews, who has been visiting Mrs. Horton at Boise, Idaho, has returned home.

Mrs. Tuttle, wife of Professor A. H. Tuttle, of the University of Virginia, is visiting her mother at Elton Court. Miss Ethel M. Lytie, soprano soloist of the White Temple, went to The Dalles to give a concert on Friday

Mrs. C. S. Jackson has returned from Pendleton, where she was entertained by Mrs. F. W. Vincent and Mrs. J. P.

Mrs. Kate V. Wendling is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. F. Waggoner, in Spo-kane, and will be absent from the city until the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gillingham, who were married in Salem recently, have been spending a part of their honey-moon in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Hyland and Master Jack have returned from a six weeks' visit with friends in Seattle, Spo-kane and Pendleton.

Miss Belle Singerman, of Seattle, who has been visiting Miss Eather Lesser, leaves for her home this afternoon after a visit of five weeks.

Miss Beasie F. Jolly, of San Francis-co, has returned from Wilsonville, where she has been the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T Mrs. Frank Paxton has returned home, after a visit to St. Louis and the Eastern states, and she and Mr. Paxton are at the Hotel Portland for the Winter, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Keboe and son, Joseph, who have been visiting relatives in the East for the past six weeks and taking in the St. Louis Fair, returned home Thursday.

Mrs. J. D. Sutherland has returned from an extended tour of the Eastern and Southern states. Mrs. Sutherland was delightfully entertained in Balti-more by Dr. and Mrs. Richard Langdon McNeer.

Mrs. R. Abrahamson had the gleasure of entertaining her niece, Miss Anna Epstein, a few days ago, Miss Epstein making the brief visit in Portland while on the way from Oakland to visit her sister in Seattle.

Mrs. Ernest Bross, who left for Indian-apolis on Thursday to join Mr. Bross, was at home to her friends on the evening of her departure. A great many people came to say good-bye and to tell Mrs. Bross how very sorrow they were to see her go.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Allen Hughes (the latter formerly Mins Christine Louise Procebstel), who were married at St. Stephen's Chapel in October, are now in Honolulu. Upon their return to San Francisco they will go directly to their new home at Santa Fe, N. M.

mew home at Santa Pe, N. M.

Mrs. Augusta Buckley, of Chicago, who has been visiting her son Paul Buckley, at Cook's Inlet for the past two months, is now in this city, the guest of her cousit, Mrs. A. S. Duniway.

Mrs. Buckley had a delightful trip to the Far North, and will return by way of Salt Lake City to her home in Chicago within a month. This is her first visit to Portland and relatives, many of whom she had not seen for half a of whom she had not seen for half a

Fine Art Display.

Prederic C. Torrey, of Vickery, Atkins & Torrey, San Francisco, announces his annual display of paintings, water-colors and fine prints for two weeks only, ending December 2, at the Portland Hotel, suite 345. The collection representing Mr. Torrey's recent purchases in Europe is ing Dec of more than ordinary importance.

Grand Exhibition and Sale.

The largest and best Oriental rugs and carpets ever shown in the City of Portland, at 25 Morrison street, between Seventh and Park streets, Tuesday, November 25, will be on sale, regardless of value, K. J. Philippas, Oriental rug importer.

THESE SILVER DEPOSIT COLOGNE BOTTLES

See our Corner Window

These bottles demonstrate the qual ity prevailing through our entire stock. They are of heavy glass, in white, ruby or green, with silver securely deconited in richest designing-either in the flat or round shapes.

> The Above Are Exceptional Values

A. & C. FELDENHEIMER

Cor. 3d and Washington JEWELERS OPTICIANS SILVERSMITHS

here since September, left resterday to reside with friends... Miss Cornwall was the guest of rela-tives at Piedmont over Thursday night. Mrs. Mattle Myers and Miss Elizabeth Watt, of Salem, in attendance at the Grange meeting, are residing here. Professor Beggs, Auditorium Hall, Hood Miss Jessie R. Kenyon will register pupils for plane at her studio Mondays from 2 to 5:30 P. M., room 35, Alexander block, 131 Tenth.

At the Women's Union.

Miss Marie Johnson has returned after an absence of some time.

Miss Frances C. Brogan, who has been enth and Yamhill.

DIAMONDS

WATCHES ON EASY
WEEKLY OR MONTHLY PAYMENTS AT LESS THAN ELSEWHERE FOR CASH.

A small amount down, the balance
$1.00 a week; you take your purchase home when making first payment.

DAN MARX, 74 Third Street

DISCOUNT THE

With a comfortable fur garment. It looks more stylish and feels more comfortable than any other material you can select. Our immense stock to choose from will well af-ford the most fastidious person ample opportunity to gratify their

> A GENUINE ALASKA SEALSKIN

Garment when made properly is an economical investment, as with proper care it will last a great remains of years. This is only one number of years. This is only one of the many hundred different kinds of furs that we handle.

Awarded the Grand Prize at St.

H. LIEBES & CO. 288 Morrison St. PORTLAND EXCLUSIVE MANUFACTURING FURRIERS

J. P. PLAGEMANN, Manager

FINE

G.P. RUMMELIN& SONS

Novelties in Fur Stoles

Persian Lamb Coats

and Reliable Furris

MARRIED AT WOODLAWN

MR. AND MRS. JOHN P. COLLINS.

daughter of Mrs. P. L. Kennedy, to Clarence W. Grover was solemnized Wednesday, November 15, at the Meth-odist Episcopal Church of Woodburn, Or. Rev. D. H. Leech read the Episco-

Louis Gerlinger, of Dallas, was one of the guests, and won first prize, Mrs. Getrge Willard Brown winning the second.

Myrtie Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, gave a whist party on Friday evening at Masonic Hall. Many guests were entertained and the evening was very pleasant.

The members of the sewing circle of St. Mary's Church were pleasantly entertained on Thursday by Miss Bertha Allehoff at her home in Upper Albina.

WEDDINGS.

Grover-Dennis.

The wedding of Miss Eva H. Dennis, daughter of Mrs. P. L. Kennedy, to Charence W. Grover was solemnized Wednesday, November 17, at y P. M. Walter Tyler, brother of the bride, P. M. Walter Tyler, brother of the bride, Butzer was maid of honor. The bridal party was led by little Thalata, daughter of Mrs. R. F. Tyler, father of the bride, gave his daughter away. Professor F. C. Streyle-ler played the wedding march. Rev. H. O. Henderson, pastor of the Lents Evangulical Church, performed the ceremony. The couple stood under an arch beautifully decorated with green and white, with a dove suspended in the center. The entire bouse was decorated with ferns. Refreshments were served in a dining-room, which had been transformed into a bower of green, and was lighted with Chinese lanterns. The table was beautifully decorated with green and was lighted with Chinese lanterns. The table was beautifully decorated with given into a bower of green, and was lighted with Chinese lanterns. The table was beautifully decorated with given into a bower of green, and was lighted with Chinese lanterns. The table was beautifully decorated with given into a bower of green, and was lighted with Chinese lanterns. The table was beautifully decorated with given into a bower of green, and was lighted with Chinese lanterns. The table was beautifully decorated with given in the wedding dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Henderson introduced to the control of green, and was lighted with Chinese lanterns. The table was beautifully decorated with green and white with a dove suspended in the center. The entire beauti

A pretty home wedding took place on tonday evening, November 1t, at 2 clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

A coming event in which society circles are much interested is the benefit for Miss Edith Angus Tuesday afternoon at the Columbia Theater.

Thankagiving night; music by Everest's Orchestra. Tickets 25c.

Mr. and Mrs. Wells Gilbert are guests Mrs. John H. Burgard is entertaining Mrs. Tom R. Roberts, of Scattle.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Stratton, who have been visiting friends here, returned on Tuesday to their home at Olympia.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Ackerman are visiting in the city for a couple of weeks and are stopping at the Hobart-Curtis.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin M. Lembard have returned from the East and have taken spartments at Elten Court for the Winter.