REOPEN MONTGOMERY BRIDGE—Repairs to Montgomery bridge, in Lower Albins, were not completed yesterday, but will be the latter part of the coming week. Street-cars now run over it without transferring passengers. The part of the bridge anvilable for public use will be lifteet wide, which includes the double tracks of the Portland Consolidated. The balance of the structure will be closed up and fenced off. It is expected to fill up the ravine before more repairs are up the ravine before more repairs are needed. Work on Union-avenue bridge over Sullivan's Gulch will commence the coming week, and the force at work on the Montgomery bridge will be trans-ferred there. Some heavy timbers for the Union-avenue bridge are being deliv-ered for the substructure.

WORKING ON BIG POWER PLANT.-Work on the big power plant on the Clackamas River for the Oregon Water Power & Railway Company is going forward stead-ily. The dam across the Clackamas River and the Gaure reservoir are big affairs even before anything is done toward in-stalling the machinery, and gives an im-pression that the plant will be a moneter affair. It will take considerably over a affair. It will take considerably over a year to complete the power plant, and will necessitate the outlay of hundreds of thousands of dollars. The big reservoir will be used for storage of logs as well as for p ower purposes. In the dam to harness the Clackamus River thousands of cubic yards of concrete will be used.

Mone Arnesys Mark.—As a sequel to the force street fight between Lillian

MORE ARRESTS MADE.—As a soquel to the fierce street fight between Lillian Harper and Nellie Boy, early yesterday morning, the Harper woman and Frank Plone were arrested by Mounted Police-man White late in the afternoon and man White late in the afternoon and were booked on charges of fighting. Pione was the man over whom the two women fought so desperately until they were arrested by Special Policeman McAtee at 2:20 o'clock yesterday morning, at First and Clay streets. Neille Roy was arraigned before Municipal Judge Hogue on a charge of drunkenness, but was held pending the arrest of the other participants. First disconting will be made of pants. Final disposition will be made of

EXTENSION OF BELMONT STREET.-The EXTENSION OF BELMONT STREET.—The matter of the extension and widening of Belmont street from Rosedale Station to the summit of Mount Tabor will come up before the County Court Wednesday, November 30, on a petition circulated by W. G. Howell, of the Mount Tabor Improvement Association. There will be some opposition to this improvement. Realizing this, the Push Club, which is very anxious that this street should be opened anxious that this street should be opened 60 feet wide to the end of the electric railway, has requested that a large dele-gation be present in the court-room when the matter comes up.

CHINESE RESTAURANT UNDER SUSPICION.

The police have been notified to keep a strict watch on a Chinese restaurant located at 2001/2 First street. It is said that several white girls are employed in the establishment, and that at times things transpire there that would probably cause an officer to make arrests, should be drop in just at the proper time. The place will be kept under close scrutiny in fu-

DEFECTIVE IN MORE TROUBLE .- A message received by the local police yester-day from the officials at Spokane request-ed that C. A., Williams, the private detective, be held here until a gold watch he pawned to buy a ticket for home is identilied. It is thought that it was stolen property. The prisoner is held here at present on a charge of the larceny of a diamond ring from Miss Josic Davis.

SLIFFED AWAY WITH FAMILT.—John White, who is wanted in Eastern Oregon on a charge of horse-stealing, had a wife and children in St. Johns. He quietly slipped in to St. Johns and then slipped out with his family, leaving a saddle which is part of the alleged stolen property. Marshal C R Circan got a tin as erty. Marshal C. R. Grgan got a tip as to his movements, but White managed to leave without being caught.

WORKED HAVOC WITH BARBERS.—The State Board of Barber Examiners has been having a pleasant little trip through Eastern Oregon looking up whisker and poll trimmers who were not worthy of plying the trade. They nailed is barbers who wouldn't do, and closed three shops operating without a license. They have returned much satisfied, filled with a sense of duty well done. State Board of Barber Examiners has

BUILDING FERRY LANDINGS. — Ferry landings are being built for the second Albina ferry. At the foot of Randolph street piles have been driven, and the scrapers are preparing the incline for the plank. Randolph and River streets are to be improved to the landing. BRIDGE LIGHTS UNCERTAIN.-Tenders or the Burnaide bridge at night report that the electric lights are very uncertain, especially in the early part of the evening, when there is a great crowd of pe-destrians, street-cars and teams, and when they are needed most.

ONE PARSES OUT OF NINETERN.—Out of

ONE PASSES OUT OF NINETEEN, -Out of the 19 young men, some of them experi-nced office men, who took the Civil Serv-ce examination for Deputy City Auditors and clerks, only one has received the re-quired grade. All the others fell down, mostly through carelesaness. The suc-cessful man is Edwin W. Jones, and his grade is 84.65 per cent. The examination included rapid calculation and copying from rough draft as well as the ordinary properly arranged out of the mass of in-terlineations and corrections appearing on the draft. In spelling the word "naph-tha" was one of the pitfails. MRS. SYLVIA W. McGuire, who is arranging to give an electrionary recital for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Baptist Church, on next Tues-day evening, is an artist in her line, which is the telling of negro dialect stories.

Mrs. McGuire is a Southern woman, having been born and brought up in Kentucky, and has imbibed all the quaint humor of the Southern darkey, being able to correctly interpret their dialect and character, from the fact, as she puts it, "that the dislect is a part of her mother tongue." Hear her at the White Temple, Tuesday evening, November 25. Admis-

Cannot Locate Relatives.—Sam Le-mey died in a Tacoma hospital Sunday, November 20. Efforts of Undertaker Conrad L. Hoska, of that city, to locate rel-atives of the deceased man proved futile, but it is thought a cousin lives in Port-land. Lemey was a native of France, was about 45 years old, and was in the em-ploy of the Cascade Timber Company, a branch of the Tacoma Eastern Railroad Company. It is the desire of the under-taker named to hear from the cousin, if

New Status of the Virgin.—The hand-some new statue of the Holy Virgin Mother which has been received from Italy for the Cathedral has not been placed yet, and will not be unboxed until the latter part of the week. After high mass today, the 40-hours' devotion begins ending Tuesday evening. A week from the complex Theorems. from the coming Thursday, December 8, the feast of the Immaculate Conception will be celebrated, and the new statue will be dedicated at that time.

A wonderful, discovery. The new method of photography. The violet ray lamp. Quicker than daylight. Mr. Aune, the photographer, saw this lamp at the St. Louis World's Fair, and at once se-cured the same at great expense, and is now using it in all his work. This is the first time in the history of photography that any means have been discovered whereby high-grade portraits could be finished by artficial light. Studio, 169 7th.*

Desire Dammier's Arrest.

A second telegraphic request for the arrest of George H. Dammier was received late yesterday afternoon from Scattle, where, it is alleged, he passed another worthless check. Detective Day is looking for Dammier. It was only three days ago that he was arrested on instructions from Seattle for the same offense. He managed to settle that case out of court and was released. He is a promoter, formerly of this city but now of Seattle.
