

REPARATIONS for Christmas have been occupying the attention of nearly every one during the past week, to the exclusion of anything very elabogate in the way of entertaining. Very suc cessful bazaars have just been conducted at the First Congregational and First Muthodist Episcopal Churches, each displaying at gally decorated booths the aintiest of Christmas knick-knacks. The parishes of St. Lawrence and the Good Shepherd also held sales of holiday novelgles during the week, each being well

Among hospitable Portland homes which have been thrown open for entertaining recently was that of Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Allen Lewis, who entertained very delight-fully in honor of their relatives, Mr. and W. H. Taylor, of San Francisco. Bridge was played at eight tables, and clater in the evening a dainty supper was

Miss Miriam Strong's guest, Miss Harriet Thompson, of Pendleton, returned to her home on Thursday. Miss Kathleen gave a card party in her bonor, the guests playing bridge at five tables. Miss Bryan and Mr. Andrew Kerr won the planned for the rest of December, and what will certainly be one of the most charming weddings of the year is to take piace on next Wednesday at the First Unitarian Church, when Miss Imogen Stuart and Mr. Lioyd Justin Wentworth night by St. Andrew's Society of Oregon It was a brilliant affair. British, Cans-dian and American flags lent a military color to the surroundings, and excellent music was furnished by J. Adrian Epping and Misses Mae Bresilin, Reatha Fowler and Petronella Connolly. William E. Rasmus gave a reading and Miss Molly Reynolds plano selections. There were many The speakers included Dr. K. A. encores. The speakers included Dr. K. A. J. Mackennie, C. E. S. Wood and Dr. Woods Hutchinson. The guests: Mr. and Mrs. Alexander H. Birrell, Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Gavin, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Patullo, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Patullo, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McPherson, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wackerwise, Justice Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Mackenzie, Justice of the Peace and Mrs. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. J. Baikie, Mr. and Mrs. J. Francis Drake, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Laughton, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. D. J Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. James Cumming, Mr. and Mrs. James Garson, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Taggart, Mrs. Rate, Miss Reid, Miss M. Gibson, Miss E. Anderson, Miss B. Mutch, Miss Fairfowl, Miss Har-ker, Miss Kate E. Young, Miss E. L. ur, Miss Brehant, Dr. K. A. J. Mac-. C. E. S. Wood, British Consul Laidlaw, William Mackengie, John ta, Dr. J. F. Bell, James Finlayson Richardson, Dr. Woods Hutchinson Frank R. Kerr, James Cormack, R. D. Rennie, G. R. Rate, William Foley, D. A. Milne, W. C. Spence, F. S. Gray, James H. Nicholson, D. J. Duncan, A. M. Breinran, A. M. Wright, W. A. Gilmour and J. McDonald.

One of the notable events of the season

One hundred and ten guests attended the annual banquet of the Men's Class of the First Presbyterian Church, held last Friday night in the Sunday schoolroom, and it was a great success. Flage streamers, Oregon grape, climbing hy, etc., made the room a mass of color, and red and white carnations decorated the tables. The delicious dinner was served by members of the Young Women's Mis-sionary Society, and Robert Livingstone was the entertaining toastmaster. Addresses were given by Rev. Dr. E. P. Hill. S. R. Johnston, J. F. Ewing, Miller Murdoch, A. A. Morse, J. H. Sidey, and others. Impromptu speeches of from one to two minutes' duration were made by different members of the class. Music was furnished for the occasion by the Young Men's Choral Union of the church, and the singers, who gave a most excellent programme, were Messrs. Whiteman, Randall, Christenson, Thomas, Heley, Handali, Christenson, Thomas, Haley, Perkins, Blosson, Cormack, Fuller, Han-son, Bond, Sawyer, Tyler and Zimmer-man. Professor W. M. Wilder was the director. The selections given were; "Love's Old Sweet Song," "Pale in the Amber West," "De Backsildin' Brudder," "While I Have Von" and Steal Amer." "While I Have You" and "Steal Away." The singers were at their best in the last number, rendering the plane and double plane effects in a creditable manner. There were numerous encores, and the Choral Union members certainly made a hit. They are making marked advance in their art. Next Sunday they sing at the Sunday afternoon meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, and early in the New Year they propose giving a concert.

A charming luncheon was given on Friday by Mrs. A. Tichner at her home on North Twenty-third street. The recepilon hall had pretty decorations of carnations. In the drawing-room the flowers were pink and white chrysanthemums and ferns, and the dining-room had an exquisite decoration of roses, Oregon bolly, ferns and smilax. Dozens of long-stemmed Bridesmaid rosebuds were arranged on the table and their delicate color was accented with pink candles and pink-shaded chandeliers. After luncheon the guests were entertained with a new game in which the object was to tell the "age" of various things. For instance, what is the age of a ship?-(voyage), or, what is the age of a slave?—(bondage). Mrs. Holcomb guessed most of the answers and won first prize, but only one of the guests, Mrs. Johnson, was able to guess that Uncle Sam's age was "postage." Miss Hazel Tichner, who has a very sweet merzo-go-prano voice, sang and played. Mrs.

Tichner's guests were:

Mrs. Phil Metchan, Mrs. D. M. McLauchian, Mrs. D. H. Rand, Mrs. W
Wynn Johnson, Mrs. R. R. Giltner, Mrs.
Philo Holbrook, Mrs. R. B. Rich, Mrs.
Norris R. Cox, Mrs. K. Daly, Mrs. E. B.
Edwards, Mrs. S. M. Kohn, Mrs. R. C.

Miss Elizabeth Parker's friends here at come are delighted to learn that she has just been elected president of her class at Smith College, where she will graduate in 198. She was one of Portland Acadshe had when attending the academy are beautiful souvenirs of the Lewis and making her a favorite in the East. Since | Clark 1905 Fair. Those present were:

president she has been extensively enter-tained by members of her own and other Other Portland girls who are enbying the advantages of achool in the last are Miss Lucile Parker, Misses Fay, Mildred and Vida Nicholls, who are also at Smith, and Miss Genevieve Church, who is at Burnham, preparatory to Smith. Miss Ruth Church is spending a delightful Winter with her mother in New York, and Miss Eliza Parker is there visiting Mrs. John Stewart entertained the Kens-Mrs. John Stewart entertained the Kensington Club on Thursday. A social aftermoon was followed by the election of officers, which resulted in the unanimous election of all officers. They are as follows: Mrs. John Stewart, president; Mrs. Stacey Matlack, vice-president; Miss Julia Joclyn, secretary and treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd enter-tained 30 of their friends at a bridge party on Friday evening. Chrysanthe-mums and palms made charming drawingoom decorations and delicious refreshments were served.

The Omega Nu Sererity gave a matinee party at the Columbia Theater yeaterday, fellowed by a dainty luncheon, served at the home of the Misses Ethel and Bessie Kern, in Irvington.

Miss Gertrude Steinbach gave an informai tea on Wednesday at her home on Eleventh street. Mrs. Steinbach gra-ciously assisted her daughter in receiv-

Mr. and Mrs. E. Shelley Morgan en-tertained the Neighborhood Club on Thursday evening. The game of "500" was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Alan Welch Smith and Winsiow Bradford.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Mrs. W. B. Hall entertained the Tuesday Afternoon Club this week at her ele-Burns entertained informally for Miss gant new home, 15 East 28th street, North.

Thompson on Monday, and Miss Strong A number of visitors were present, namenumber of visitors were present, name-Mrs. Morton Doty, Messrs. Knapp and Chambers. Miss Chambers rendered a vo-cal solo, with Miss Knapp at the piano. The hosters was assisted by Mrs. Leo S. Ball, Mrs. Ubert K. Hall and Mrs. Chester Hall. The subject for the aftersoon was "Paganism to Christianity," led Works" was given by Mrs. W. P. Kneeland. A review "Paraphrase of the Bi-bie" was given by Mrs. Merwin Pugh: Cynwulf and review, "Christ," by Mrs. George Boynton; "Bede, Character and Work," by Mrs. George Dunham; review, "Ecclesiastical History," Mrs. A. J. Stiles; "Pagan Poems vs. Christian Poems," Mrs. G. M. Glines. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. F. H. Madison, 420 Goldsmith street, Tuesday, December 6.

A most interesting study of Bible history occupied the principal part of a pleasant afternoon spent by the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church on Friday at the

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Keenan, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Keenan, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Minar, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Henrys, Mrs. W. B. Jolly, Misses Cora Jolly, Annie Holland, Holton, Mesers, A. M., Holton, J. Ruddiman, E. Walsh, F. M. Chase, Vorrick and Master Willie Keenan.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Willis celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary at Hunters Station, Mount Tabor, last Saturday fully decorated with roses, carnations and chrysanthemums. Progressive whist was being won by Mrs. Brent Potter, Miss Anna McDonaid, Mrs. George Hutchings. A delicious luncheon was served in a novel manner, all the service being of tin. Those present were: Mesers, and Mesdames De Norris Cox, George Hutchings, William Goldman, Frank E. Wat-kins, William Smith, Lou Hess, Gus her uncle, Alfred Parker, expecting to Pfunder, Brent Potter, George Schulmer-Plunder, Brent Potter, George Schulmer-ick, Arthur Williamson; Mrs. W. E. Pot-ter, Mrs. Bertha Grimes, Miss Annie Mc-Donald, Mrs. W. H. Bell, Miss Ada Lis-ter, Miss Ruth Willis, Master Carl Shelton and Master Earl Wilson.

Mrs. Sylvia W. McGuire, who is one of the most charming of readers, gave a recital at the White Temple on Tuesday evening before a large audience. The recital was given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society, who were so fortunate as to have on their programme besides that of Mrs. McGuire, the names of Miss Ethel Shea, who sang "Suwanee River." Miss Leota Seigner, who contrib-uted a reading, and Miss Velross Sharp, who gave a violin solo.

Mrs. McGuire excells in darkey dialect and her reading "Johnston Culture," in which she represented a colored mammy, and "The Taming of Nicodemus" were exceedingly good. Also read with delightful expression were the character sketch, "Tkey and the Porter," a selection from "Timothy's Quest" and "An Old Sweetheart of Mine.

Mrs. Donald D. Mansfield, well known in this city as Miss Agnes M. Viggers, formerly an enthusiastic and popular worker for the Seamen's Institute of Portland, was one of the passengers on the Indrapurs, out of New York for Hong Kong, November 17, Mrs. Mansfield is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Viggers, of Riverdale. She married Donald Mansfield, now first officer on the Indra-samha, in August, 1902, and has spent the past year in visiting her own and her hus-band's relatives in England and Scotland. She will make her home part of the time in Hong Kong and part of the time in D'Urban, South Africa, in order to be as much as possible with her husband, whose ship runs between Hong Kong and South

The hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey, 355 Benton street, was filled with happy guests Wednesday evening, the occasion being a "zoo party" given by the Winchester class of the Has-Congregational Church-feature was blackboard The "zoo" sketches of all the animals of the Ark, by budding cartoonists. The birds beasts and creeping things, however were easily forgotten when Miss Grace were easily forgotten when Miss Grace Gilbert, soprano of the Hassalo Church choir, sang a sweet Irish bal-lad. Misses Hazel Hardle and Lottle Humpton gave much pleasure in the rendering of a fine duet, and Miss Rena Berry, with sympathetic appre-ciation of the author's spirit, read a selection from Eugene Field. selection from Eugene Field.

The town hall at Milwaukie was the home of Mrs. E. M. Runyon. Mrs. O.

P. M. Jamilson, who arranged the programme, read a carefully studied paper on "Early Translations of the the manager, J. E. Wetzler. It was Mr.

ledo, past department president, was present and addressed the corps at some length. Mrs. Schenck is an enthusiastic worker in the cause of the old soldier and speaks from the heart when rehearing the value of their service to our country. serve a supper on Friday, December 23, at their hall. The whist social of last week was well attended and much enjoyed.

Colonel and Mrs. E. D. Evans cele-brated the 43d anniversary of their marriage Thursday by entertaining at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Clark, 55 East Sixteenth street, North. This was also the occasion of a family reunion, at which every member of the family was present. In honor of Colonel Evans' milpresent. In honor of Colonel Evans' mil-tiray career, the table decorations were red, white and blue. The centerpiece was of carnations and a large American flag was hung above the table. Covers were laid for 20. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. Clark Evans and the Missee Evans. of Seattle, and Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Roberts. Miss Roberts and Master Kenneth Roberts. of Tacoma, Wash.

. . . The "Jolly Exteen Whist Club" was pleasantly entertained by Mrs. William Klumpp, at her home, 295 Williams avenue. Friday afternoon. The prize, a handsome hand-painted plate, was won by Mrs. W. H. Mankin. The club will next meet with Mrs. J. W. Baker, 625 Front street. The members of the club are Mrs. W. D. Allard, Mrs. J. W. Baker Mrs. David Campbell, Mrs. W. A. Fisher, Mrs. J. C. Hare, Mrs. William Klumpp, Mrs. Robert Krohn, Miss Tillie Klumpp, Miss Velna Klumpp, Mrs. W. H. Mankin, Mrs. G. Pfunder, Miss Carrie Seal, Mrs. R. E. Schad, Mrs. J. W. Sweeney, Mrs. Thornton and Miss Ellera.

The Woman's Home Missionary So-cicty of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church will meet with Mrs. F. J. Hard. 214 Twelfth street, on Friday, at 2 o'clock. At this time the annual thank offering will be taken. Those having thank-offering envelopes will bring them in. This will be one of the important ingatherings of the year. The Wo-man's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Church is doing a large and extended work, building schools, hos-pitals, dispensaries and homes for neg-lected children in the needy parts of United States, Alaska and the

The Oregon Grape Whist Club was pleasantly entertained Monday afternoon by Mrs. George Zeller, at her home, 512 East Twenty-first street. Prizes were won by Mrs. Rebe. Mrs. Whitehead and Mrs. Catton. Red was the color scheme, consistently carried out in all the rooms. The score cards were cut in novel shapes from red paper, and luncheon was served at the dining table, where the centerpiece was of red Autumn leaves in a cut-glass bowl, on a handsome plece of red em-broidery. The next meeting will be with Mrs. M. Whitehead, 326 Fifth street.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Loder. 1061 Hawthorne avenue, was the scene of a merry party on Thursday, in honor of the 18th birthday of their son, James L. Loder. Twenty-five girls and hoys were present. Games and humorous selections from a phonograph afforded much amusement. Eva Ellis Irene Chan-dler. Hazel Snook, Mabel Warren, Rita Snook and Zula, Eddie and Homer An-drose contributed music, each of these young people having talent in that direc-

The Philathea Society of the Second

Ladies' Outfitters SILVERFIELD'S

Furs are always appreciated, and it is doubtful if you could purchase a more sensible and lasting remembrance. Our stock for Xmas is the largest in the West. The reputation of SILVERFIELD'S FURS is established by their absolute perfection in style, quality and workmanship.

NOTE THESE GREAT FUR VALUES

$5.35 for $8.65 Long Boas Regular $8.65 Brook Mink Long Boas, a serviceable and stylish garment, trimmed with four full tails and finished with cord and tassel. Holiday sale price ...... $5.35

$13.75 for $18.00 and $20,00 Fox Boas Regular $18.00 and $20.00 Sable and Isabella Fox Boas, in the long effect, lined in Siberian squirrel and trimmed with natural tails and cord and tas-

$16.85 for $25.00 Fox Stoles Regular $25.00 Sable and Isabella For Stoles and Long Boas, the season's most favored fashions, trimmed with natural tails, dressy and serviceable.

$54,45 for $75,00 Fur Coats Regular $75.00 Nearseal and Genuine Alaska Beaver Coats, cut on the new blouse style and trimmed with handsome gold-braided belt, lined with brocaded silk. An unusual value. Grand Holiday

EVERY FUR GARMENT IN THE HOUSE RADICALLY REDUCED

We are showing a splendid line of children's Furs and Baby Buggy Robes, as well as fine Fur Bugs, suitable for Xmas gifts.

Headquarters for Genuine Alaska Sealskins. Send for Catalogue.

Christmas Gifts

FOR LADIES We have no hesitation in stating that we carry the finest and most select assortment of suitable holiday gifts for ladies in the city. To fully appreciate the quality and variety of our stock you should examine our lines of holiday Neckwear, Handkerchiefs, Fans, Hand Bags and Umbrellas. See our Fourthstreet window.

One-Half Off ON ALL MILLINERY

This is by far the greatest millinery special we have ever offered. Our line of Trimmed and Tailored Hats, being new, not one having been in stock more than one month, makes this offer all the more extraordinary.

We even include our stock of imported and Fur Hats, and place each and every one on sale at exactly ONE-HALF PRICE.

SPECILS IN OUR SUIT SALON

Ladles' $25.00 Suits, $16.65

We are placing on sale a special line of Ladies' Suits, in blue, brown and black cheviots and mixtures. with fitted or loose backs, in the collar and collarless styles; suits we have been selling regularly for $25.00-your choice during holiday sale. $16.65 evening. The hall was tastefully dec- afternoon.

with fir. cedar and Oregon Music was furnished by Ever-erchestra of 13 pieces. The panoily. Music was furnished by lover-est's orchestra of 13 pieces. The pa-tronesses were Mrs. L. A. Bowman, Mrs. F. S. Baker, Mrs. R. O. Scott and Mrs. D. C. McDonell.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent with needlework by the members of the Sunshine Club of Fidelity Lodge. No. 14, D. of H., on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. I. T. Mason. The hostess served a delightful luncheon, Mrs. M.

man costume, assisting. Each mem-her contributed a small donation to be used for buying flowers for sick mem-

On Thursday night Royal Circle, No. 258, W. O. W., entertained the members of Webfoot Camp, Woodmen of the World. The circle's guard seted as escort to the camp in conducting them into the hall, where they were royally welcomed by the officers. A choice mu-sical programme was rendered. Dancing and a general social time follow-

Miss Ethel M. Stiles delightfully en-tertained a number of her friends last Tucsday evening. Progressive whist occupied the evening. Those present were: Miss Cora Fields, Miss Teresa Howard, Miss Margaret Maguire, Miss Sestella Caples Mr. Younger, James F.

Estella Caples, Mr. Younger, James F. Maguire, Charles Stiles, Joe McKer-

Something unusual in the way of stu-dent recitais was given last Wednesday evening when the pupils of Miss Ella Frances Hoberg gave the sacred cantata, "Faith and Praise," by West. Both solo and chorus work were rendered by Miss Hoberg's pupils and were well rendered to an audience that completely filled the White Temple.

Miss Irma Kurth, who is to be mar-ried to Fred H. Hunter, of Roseburg, next Wednesday evening at the First Presbyterian Church, was agreeably surprised last Monday evening by a number of her girl friends, who gave her a linen shower. Games and a dainty supper were provided by Miss Reed.

The Gee Lo Ran Club gave its third dance of the series at Parsons Hall Thursday evening, December 1, and was a grand success. About 199 couples danced to the delightful music played by Parsons orchestra. Much credit is given to the floor committeed. Refreshments were served.

bers of the lodge.

nian, Henry Stiles.

Card and Miss Robison, in quaint Ger

A handsome Silk Petticoat makes a most acceptable Christmas gift. The line on sale is large and the assortment the best. All made of heavy, rustling taffeta, in black, blue, gray, brown and green. The regular price of these Petticoats is $7.50 to $8.50-

$7.50 and $8.50 Silk Petticoats, $6.15

The programme, which Sixteenth street. The house was de-most interesting of the grated lavishly with pink chrysanthethe orated lavishly with pink chrysantheseries, was in charge of Mrs. Alfred Tucker. The Arion Society's entertainment and dance on Tuesday evening was a very pleasant affair, being attended by many people. The programme was di-rected by Louis Dammasch.

WEDDINGS.

Binnard-Freedman.

mums and ferns. Delightful music by Weber's orchestra was provided for the occasion, and a very elegant wedding supper was served after the cerony. Rev. Robert Abrahamson, D. performed the marriage service. and the bride was given away by her father. She is a remarkably pretty girl, of the most decided brunette type, and was charming in her wedding gown, which was of soft white with tulle veil and orange The wedding of Miss Rose Freedman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Freedman, to Isaac Binnard, of Lewiston, Idaho, took place last Sunday to the hem of the bridel gown. Miss evening at the bride's home, on North

LEWISTON MAN CLAIMS PORTLAND BRIDE

Bible," the subject for the afternoon being "The Umchained Bible." Mrs. James Failing gave a talk on Wycliffe and Tyndal, and Mrs. H. M. Clinton read a paper on the subject of what the art of printing has done for the dissemination of the Bible. "Miss Edna Protzman sang very sweetly, and Miss Elinor Clinton recited the familiar poem, "My Mother's Bible." During the social hour several new members were received into the society. The were received into the society. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. L. H. Rounds and Mrs. W. G. Stilles.

On Thursday evening a company of friends assembled at the cozy cottage of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Woodworth, 548 East Pine street, Mrs. Woodworth having arranged to give Mr. Wood-worth a surprise party to celebrate his birthday. The rooms were tastefully decorated with English holly, Oregon holly and chrysanthemums. Songs, music and whist whiled the time away in 188. She was one of Portland Acad-emy's most popular students, and, of Mr. Ruddiman, Mrs. A. L. Keenan and course, the same winning qualities that Mr. Holton won the prizes, which were Ray Albel, Misses Bertha and Minnie Emmel and Elma Wetzel.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Kelly; of Hood River, who have been visiting here, were given a pleasant reception on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. S. G. Kelly, 405 First street. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly have gone to San Fran-cisco to make their home and their departure is regretted by many friends in Oregon. George Wright Relief Corps held an interesting meeting Friday evening. December 2. The annual election of officers was held and also the appointment of delegates to the Department convention to be held at Oregon City for the success of their last dance, the missionary reading circles of the given at the Armory on Wednesday First Presbyterian Church on Monday

Monday evening, November 25, the open meeting of Portland Lodge, No. 102, Mod-ern Foresters, was attended by a large number of people. Progressive whist ocwere won by Miss Harriet Baker, W. Grant, Hattie Beldin and W. E. Seney. Mrs. E. E. Henderson entertained the Lewis and Clark Whist Club at her home, 653 Milwaukle street, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Shinn received the first prize and Mrs. Snider the consolation prize. The next party will be at the prize. The next party will home of Mrs. C. H. Tabke.

Mrs. I. Vanduyn entertained one of

WATCHES DIAMONDS

WEEKLY OR MONTHLY PAY-MENTS AT LESS THAN ELSE- WHERE FOR CASH.

A small amount down, the balance $1.00 a week; you take your pur-chase home when making first

With every article we sell we give a certificate absolutely guaranteeing the quality and value of your purchase.

DAN MARX, 74 Third Street

SPECIAL SALE OF Fur Boas and Stoles

The following are a few of the excep-tional values that we are offering this week and that will appeal forcibly to correct dressers:

Baum Marten, Oppossum stole, with six bushy talls and ornaments. Regular $17.50 value. Special ..... Sable Fox double boa, squirrel lined, finished at ends with 2 large brush fox tails. Regular $12.50 $17.50 value. Special ... $18.50 Blended Brook Mink Stole, satin lined, finished at ends with six large foxtails. Regular $10.00

Great $5.00 Specials

Baum Marten Oppossum Scarf, with cluster of 10 bushy tails. The same in black marmink. Fine values at $5.00

Liebes & Co., 268 Morrison S EXCLUSIVE MANUFACTURING FURRIERS

268 Morrison St.

J. P. PLAGEMAN, Manager. *

Furs for Christmas Gifts

G. P. Rummelin & Sons

Suggestions for Holiday Gifts Ladies' Fur Jackets, Fur Capes, Fur Stoles, Fur Boss, Fur Muffs Children's Fur Coats, Collars, Scarfs, Muffs

Gentlemen's Fur Gloves, Fur Caps, Fur Overcoats

CHOICE SPECIMENS Of Fur Rugs, Alaska Bear, Wolf, Tiger, Leopard, Polar Bear, Etc.

Alaska Sealskins, London Dye, Our Specialty

Leading and Reliable Furriers