Russians Attack Sleeping Japanese.

EIGHT CUNS CAPTURED

Troops Awake to Find Enemy Ready to Bayonet Them.

FIGHT IS OF BRIEF DURATION

Japanese Break and Flee in Wild Panic, but Not Before Fifteen Have Been Killed and an Equal Number Wounded.

MUKDEN, Dec. 3 .- All day Friday Russian siege guns bombarded villages occupled by the Japanese to the east of the railroad, and early this morning to the west of the railroad Don Cossacks routed the Japanese south of Lidiatoun and captured eight guns. This brilliant action, described by a Chinese, who, dressed as a Cossack, participated in the attack, is as follows:

When volunteers were called for, from two infantry regiments, every man stepped forward, and the Cosmcks in chorus asked not to be left behind when the little party was formed. The order was given to depart at 2 o'clock in the morning, and all the men advanced with extreme caution, and in dead slience, sometimes crawling and sometimes running. The party divided and attacked the Japanese position from two sides. The Japanese were sound asleep, and they did not even have time to raise a cry before all was over. 'Again we advanced, and soon saw before us the outlines of a battery. All the the rear. They had not expected such an audacious and sudden attack, and when the Don Cossacks charged on a dead run, followed by chasseurs on foot, dead run, followed by chasseurs on foot, the Japanese were badly scared and unable to realize what was happening. They rushed build dearning the scare of the Thea. H. We had no losses, and only one man was slightly wounded. The Japanese left at least 15 dead, and probably as many more were wounded."

Crouching in riffe pits has so hardened the men to danger that they ignore it. Peculiar war sports are becoming popular among the troops.

General Rennenkampff's Cossacks are still in pursuit of the Japanese, and have driven them out of the villages of Intsagounday and Dapindunian, taking many Russian Officer Declares 203-Meter Hill Not of Inner Defenses.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. L-A high officer of the general staff, who is inti-mately familiar with the fortifications of Port Arthur, insists that the importance of the capture of 203-Meter Hill has been overestimated. He explains that this hill, which the Russians call Visokaia, is sit-uated west of the rallroad, and belongs to the outer and not to the inner line of defenses, which are composed of perma-nent forts on Canonia hill, or Sungshu Mountain; Hawk hill, or Antas hill, and Woodcock hill. The Japanese are now only able to attack the main line, just as happened in the case of Dragon hill after e capture of Wolf hill.
The Japanese took Wolf hill July 30, but it was not until four months later, November 30, that they were able to reach the permanent forts on the north and northeast of Port Arthur.

"I believe the Japanese will try to carry the main forts by assault, and, failing t this, they will resort to sapping and mining," the officer said.

PAYS VISIT TO LANSDOWNE.

Russian Ambassadur Goes to Secretary's Country Seat.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—Sount Benckendorff, the Russian Ambassador, has left town to spend the week cud with Foreign Secre-tary Lansdowne at the latter's country scat. Bowood Park, Wiltshire. The visit creates interest because it is regarded as public intimation that Anglo-Russian official relations are by no means of that strained character which recent philippics in the press of both countries have led the uninformed to suppose.

The latest controversial subject started in the St. Petersburg press as to whether or not the Black Sea fleet shall traverse Bosphorus excites little interest in official circles here, where it is pointed out that there is no evidence whatever

JAPANESE READY FOR FLEET They Expect to Encounter the Russian Second Pacific Squadron. CHEFOO; Dec. 1.-Japanese prepared ness for an encounter with the Russian second Pacific squadron was witnessed by the officers of the French steamer Binh Thuan, which left Japan November 20 and arrived here today. Near Sasebo they saw the Japanese battleship Mikasa unscarred and evidently fully repaired and painted. Forty miles south of the Shantung promontory the officers of the Binh Thuan sighted the Japanese battle-ship Asahi, similarly rehabilitated. The repair work of the Japanese fleet has en progressing with great secrecy since August.

The torpedoboat and torpedoboat-destroyer flotilla is reported to have been maintained in good shape. The boats are mostly at the Japanese naval base and at Port Dalny.

General Sakharoff Tells of Sharpshooters' Reconnaissance.

ST. PETERSBURG. Dec. 3.—General Sakharoff, telegraphing yesterday, reports a successful reconnaissance by sharpshooters Thursday night in the vicinity of the Japanese entrenchments southwest of Tungoon (Tunganon). The Russians first bayonetted a Japanese outpost of 30 men, surmounted barbwire entanglements, entered the entrenchments and bayonetted another D Japanese. Reinforcements coming up, attacked the sharpshooters with hand-grenades, forcing the Russians to retire. The Russians carried off five dend and 14 wounded, some Japanese rifles

It is Served on Hotel Manager, and Attorney for Cleveland Woman Declares Her Baggage Cannot Be Held.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3 .- "There is absolutely nothing to prevent Mrs. Cassle L Chadwick from leaving the Holland House with her baggage if she sees fit,"

"As a matter of fact Mrs. Chadwick has no intention of leaving New York for a few days, but there would be no legal objection if she saw fit, according to my view of the law." Mr. Carpenter is of the opinion that the appointment of a receiver in Cleve-land will not complicate matters unnecessarily. "It must be borne in mind," he said, "that there is a great difference tween voluntary and involuntary bank-

Nathan Loeser, who was appointed receiver in Cleveland yesterday, said today that as it would be necessary to bring an action in court to gain pos-session of Mrs. Chadwick's property, he undoubtedly would defer action for a time, and before taking further steps he would confer with Mrs. Chadwick's counsel. The attorneys representing her in New York have not yet had any communication from Mr. Loeser, who is in the Ohio city. A gentieman who is fully conversant with Mrs. Chadwick's affairs said tonight that by the time the bankruptcy matter came to the attention of the court the claims of Mrs. Chadwick would be settled, rendering further ac-tion by the courts unnecessary. He said that the turn of affairs in Cleve-iand would not affect the settlement of the claim of Herbert D. Newton, of Brookline, Mass., whose suit against Mrs. Chadwick was the first filed. The informant of the Associated Press said this claim had been adjust-ed to the satisfaction of both sides and that the formal money transfer would be made in a few days.

Lawyer George R. Yall. Mr. Newton's

significance. Mr. Carver tonight said he would remain in New York until Monday and added that he was sat isfied with the manner in which the affairs of his client were progressing. A story was published in an evening paper to the effect that, several de-tectives alleged to be in the employ of a New York millionaire whose name been mentioned in connection with the Chadwick case, are shadowing Mrs. Chadwick. According to this rumor two detectives are in the Holland House in the guise of patrons, while Carpenter, Deputy Sheriff Frank C. Rinn said tonight he served the attachment on Mrs. Chadwick personally today, after first serving it on a clerk and Manager Harrimon, of the Holland House. Rinn said he was permitted to go to the Chad-wick apartments, where he found Mra. Chawick recitning on a couch. Owing to her deafness, Rinn says, he was obliged to carry on conversation in a loud voice. When he made his errand known, the Deputy Sheriff says, Mrs. Chadwick took the papers and placed them on a table beside her. He continued: "I, too, searched the room as well as I could, but all I could find was a small handbag and the woman's hat and jacket, "We have been informed that Mrs. Chadwick has changed her apartments in the Holland House three times. We believe the handbag I found in her room does not constitute all of her effects, "We shall go to the hotel the first thing Monday morning and inform the manage-ment that we want from them a state-

When asked about the authenticity of this note, Mr. Reynolds tonight refused to either affirm or deny its authenticity. He said he would talk about his dealings with Mrs. Chadwick only on the witness stand.

EFFECTS ALL MORTGAGED.

New York Tribune Learns Ohio Bank Holds Paper of Mrs. Chadwick.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3 .- The Tribune tomorrow will say: All of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick's effects are in the possess of the Savings Deposit Bank and Trust Company, of Elyria, O., under a chattel mortgage given in April and filed in Cleve-land on November 22. The mortgage is admitted in a statement signed by the entitre directorate of the bank.

This, the Tribune learns, is the sub-

The principal reason that prompted the fling of the petition was the information received by me that certain creditors who hold a large quantity of Mrs. Chadwick's diamonds as od quantity of Mrs. Chadwick a diamonds as col-interary were threatening to sell the same at a sacrifice sale. Besides this, the Savings De-posit Bank and Trust Company of Elyria, 0., are in possession of all of Mrs. Chadwick's effects, worth a large amount, under a chattel morigage given in April last and filed here November 22. This morigage, as is ad-mitted over a statement signed by all the mitted over a statement signed by all the directors of the bank, was given to sec an old indebtedness and simply as addition security there.

According to report Mrs. Chadwick's son, Emil, is the possessor of a blanket bond for $7,500,000.

Mrs. Chadwick Nearly Collapses. NEW YORK, Dec. 3 .- Mrs. Chadwick is said to be in a state bordering on almost collapse tonight. The nervous strain of the last few days had been so great that she is almost hysterical. Dr. Moor, her medical attendant, was called in tonight, and after prescribing

"Mrs. Chadwick is suffering from nothing except the nervous strain which she has been undergoing. It is no wonder that a woman of her age should give way, considering what she has been through lately. There is, however, no constitutional trouble."

Cleveland Suit Again Continued. CLEVELAND, O. Dec. 3.—The suit brought by Herbert D. Newton, of Brookline, Mass., against Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, was again continued by Judge Babcock today. The attorneys representing both Newton and Chad-wick were in court and requested that the hearing go over for a week. Mr. A. F. Sterns, representing Mr. Newton, said the entire matter would be doubtless settled out of court.

JAPAN MUST BORROW MONEY Finance Minister Estimates She Will Need $225,000,000 Next Year.

TOKIO, Dec. 3.-Premier Katsura and Minister of Finance Sone addressed the House of Representatives today on the occasion of the formal presentation of the lounging about the corridors. The hotel management is quite unaware of the alleged presence of the detectives and it has been impossible to confirm the story.

An interesting feature of the case today was the optimistic view taken by the Chadwick counsel. Philip Carpenter stated emphatically that his object. the Chadwick counsel. Philip Carpenter stated emphatically that his client lantly continued their work, strongly aided by the united national support.

The Premier expressed the opinion that the favorable condition of general affairs
In contradiction of the statement of Mr. was due to the union of the nation, and said the goal was distant, and that the duties upon the House and government were heavy. He hoped the Diet would approve the budget. The Premier's remarks were greeted with cheers.

M. Sone said that since hostilities were opened the people had shown unprecedented power and capacity to bear the burden of the war. The emergency of the people and their military strength were undiminished. These conditions were at-tributable to national unity. These happy conditions strongly portended the future prosperity of the empire.

The war budget totals $350,000,000, includes provision for the interest on outstanding loans. M. Sone added that the government has prepared the budget on the most economical basis, and proposes ment has carefully weighed the capacity ment of whatever effects they have be-lenging to Mrs. Chadwick, either in the the national credit. Economies in ordi-
