TWO MORE STATUES.—The Sacred Heart Church has been again enriched with two beautiful statues. St. Benedict, the gift of Mrs. B. Beretinger, is in the niche on the gospel side of the altar, and St. Patrick, an offering of the parish and their friends, occupies the opposite side. Mr. D.
Foley has originated the idea and has been indefatigable in its realization until the tasteful statue was procured. These statues will be blessed on Sunday. The members of the parish are proposed to commence with the erection of a large school-house, the plans of which have already been designed by Mr. Jungfer-dorf, a member of the parish.

CONYERIN WIVES PORTLAND.—A Portland young woman has written from San Francisco the following appreciative opinion of Portland to her father: "I'm ever so glad that when you decided to make your fortune you went to Portland, instead of Frisco, for after all, home is the best place under the sun and although I'm having a very nice time here, I'll be very glad to get home. The fine weather of which all Californians rave so much about is just about on a par with our own rainy days, not one bit better and maybe a little worse."

FUNERAL OF MRS. DUKEHART.—Funeral services for the late Sarah Rebecca Dukehart were held yesterday afternoon at the family residence, 524 Yamhill street, Rev. Dr. A. A. Morrison officiating. The ladies' quartet of the Eastern Star furnished appropriate music. A large number of friends were present and brought many beautiful floral offerings. The interment was in the family plot at Riverview Cemetery. The following acted as pallbearers: W. A. Cleland, A. M. Knapp, C. F. Wiegand, Henry Roe, D. G. Tompkins and George H. Hill.
