

HE interest of every one has been quite absorbed in the coming out Miss Hazel Mills Dolph daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus A. Dolph, who gave a reception in honor of the charming debutante on Wednesday evening, and another on Thursday afternoon. Miss Dolph, like her mother, who is one of Portland's most charming social leaders, is a graduate of Mills College, and has a very decided musical talent, which has been theroughly cultivated.

The hospitable Dolph residence on West Park street was surrounded with twinkling incandescent lights on Wednesday evening, these being strung land's accomplished artists, was a along the drive and in front of the house, giving a very pretty effect. house, giving a very pretty check.
Within there were manses of beautiful flowers, arranged in charming fashion, in drawing-room, music-room, library, dining-room and hall, and in the hall the Quingue et Ceterae Wednesday even at the home of its vice-president, Miss and roses sent Miss Dolph by her friends of her debut. In the red library nations.

The ladies who poured tea were Mrs.

Z. Wesley Ladd. Mrs. Theodore Wilcox.
Mrs. Charles Francis Adams, Mrs. W.
C. Alvord, Mrs. T. B. Wilcox, Mrs. W.
V. Smith, Mrs. W. T. Muir and Mrs.
Frederick Page, Mrs. Warren Houghton,
Mrs. Frederick Hopkins, Mrs. Hannah
Robertson and Mrs. N. E. Ayer served loss, and at frappe bowl were Miss May Former Miss And at frappe bowl were Miss May Fatling, Miss Charlotte Whalley, Miss Kathleen Burns, Miss Patsy Bryan and Miss Suele Stott. Other young ladies who assisted were Miss Alice Sibson, Miss Nan Wood, Miss Grace Warren, Miss Ruth Maxwell, Miss Etta Honeyman, Miss Ritters, Stoney Miss Dath Smith, Miss Mitters, Stoney Miss Dath Smith, Smith, Miss Mitters, Stoney Miss Dath Smith, Miss Miriam Strong, Miss Buth Smith, Miss Laura Jordan, Miss Hazel Crocker and Miss Katherine Woolsey. Very beautiful gowns were worn by the matrons and young girls who graciously assisted in making the reception a bril-ilant social success. An especially protty gown was Miss Maxwell's, the material ling cream not, and among others who ere daintily gowned in white were Miss Wood who were white creps; Miss Burns, whose dress was of chiffen, with elaborate insertions of lace; Miss S. Stott, who was charming in embroidered creps dechine, with lace bertha, and Miss Sibson. the were nuns' veiling, according plaited, Mies E. Honeyman wore white, hand-painted with pink reschuds; Miss Woolsey were yellow, made very becomingly, and Miss Miram Strong also looked very pretty in yellow. Miss Grace Warren's white gown had dainty blue flowers scattered ever it. Miss Ruth Smith was lovely in plok chiffen, with plnk roses. In striking contrast to these light dresses was Miss Crocker's black velvet gown, in which she looked most attractive.

Two very delightful weddings were Two very delightful weddings were among the week's events at the First Congregational Church, the first being the wedding of Miss Mary Tongue, daughter of the late Representative Thomas H. Tongue, to Mr. Martin Gay Lombard, and the second the marriage of Miss Virginia Spencer to Mr. Rene Hutchinson, who is one of the most prominent members of the Young most prominent members of the Young Men's Christian Association on the Pa

Coast. ss Tongue's wedding was simple Miss Tongue's wedding was simple detail but very beautiful, and it could hardly be otherwise, as she is so strikingly handsome herself. Her wedding dress was of white broad-cioth, with white hat, ermine stole and violets, and nothing could have most charming brides, were an cinborate gown of white, with garniture of pink. Miss Sally Lewis were white satin, and Miss Hazel Doiph, who received a great deal of attention deal of attention, wore an exquisite French dress of liberty silk, with Dresden bude. Mrs. Frederick Hopkins wore a charming dress of pink brocade. Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd was very beautiful in point applique over pink. Miss Suste Stott wore white lace and silk and looked exwore white lace and the and tremely pretty. Miss Figures wore a furly gown of pale blue Miss Kathleen Burns a dainty dress of pompadour organide and Miss Ruth Maxwell a charming white gown, with pink rosebuds, Mrs. white gown, with pink rosebuda Mrs. C. E. S. Wood was attractive in white silk, with garnitures of pink. Mrs. Pred-erick Wheeler wore white silk. Mrs. Wil-liam Warrens black net, silver spangled; Mrs. James Laidlaw a very handsome cos-Mrs. Janes tume of black net.

Mrs. H. C. Bowers and Mrs. Allen Wright gave an elaborate reception on Wednesday in the parions of the Hotel Pertiand in bonor of their guest, Miss Carolyn Hickey, of Washington. The de-orations were of smilax, palms and ferns, orations were of smilax, paims and term, the table having an exquisite decoration of pink roses. Mrs. J. Wesiey Ladd and Mrs. Charles Chenery served tes, while Mrs. George, Davis, of Vancouver, and Mrs. Walter F. Burrell poured coffee. Others assisting were Mrs. Frederick H. Hopkins. Mrs. C. J. Reed and Miss Suice Stott. Miss Maud Ainsworth and Miss Bello Ainsworth served eggnog.

Dances given during the week included the Academy (Tub's party on Monday, the Nineteen Hundred Club's pleasant affair of Wednesday evening and Company's B's dance at the Armory on Friday evening.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Church, of North Albina, celebrated their silver wadding at their home. Monday even-ing. December 26. A large number of their friends were present to add to the cheer and interest of the evening. Decides their immediate family, the the cheer and interest of the evening. Besides their immediate family, the following were present: Rev. J. Bowersox and wife, Rev. Asa Sleeth and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Duffy, Mr. and Mrs. J. Storm, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Snyzer, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Kearney, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Tuesani, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nolta, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Pation, Representative W. M. Killingsworth and wife, Mr. and Mrs. N. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Gulvoson, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Gulvoson, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Gulvoson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Chilcote, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Redman, Mrs. Dr. W. B. Hamilton, Mrs. E. Pord Cline, Mrs. Peter Knox, W. Hampton Smith and others. Rev. J. Bowersox officiated at the wedding service of Mr. and Mrs. Church 25 years Bowersox officiated at the wedding service of Mr. and Mrs. Church 25 years ago. They were the recipients of many pieces of beautiful silver service

Wilder's quartet played very delight- at the home of its vice-president, fully all evening. Clara Jones, $11 Johnson street. Mrs. Dolph and her daughter received their guests in the drawing-room, Mrs. Dolph wearing a beautiful Paris gown of cloth of silver, and Miss Dolph dainty dress of white net, embroidered in pink rosebuda, over white silk, a costume which suited the clear brunette coloring remarkably dieson. Sadie Jackson, Frances Eingham. net. embroidered in pink rosebuds, over white silk, a costume which suited her clear brunette coloring remarkably well. At one reception Miss Dolph carried lifes of the valley and orchids, and at the other a shower of blush roses.

Mrs. Richard Nixon, who received, also was charming th velvet applique upon black lace, made over white chiffon. Pink roses made a very pretty drawing-room decoration, not to speak of the garniture of carnations, illies of the valley, orchids and roses sent Miss Dolph by her friends. holly and red carnations were arranged; in the dining-room smilax and red carna-tions, and the flowers in the music-room christie picture, while the consolation fell and hall were white roses and white carpenheimer Miss H. Harris, Miss Sonnenfeld Joseph Bimon, Sam Bimon, Mr. and Mrs. Max Felscherer Mrs. E. Bichel, Mrs. Wertheimer, Mr. and Mrs. N. D., Simon, Mr. M. W. Wasserman, Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Chipman, Mrs. P. Wasserman, Mrs. Levi White, Mr. and Mrs. Hen Humauer, Elsie F. Simon, Harold N. Oberdorfer, Carolyn S. Simon and Harold N. Oberdorfer, Carolyn S. Simon and Harold N. Oberdorfer, The rooms were prettily decorated with holly and potted plants.

A very pretty centata entitled "Santa Chaus at Home," was given in the First Congregational Church by the children of the Sunday school, assisted by Challes Mansfield, as Santia Claus, and Miss Nelle Konnedy, as planist: The fairles were represented by Audrey Northrup, Edith Daugharty, Larille Esperiy, Dorothy Walton, Hermosa Burkhardt and Amelia Young. The imps were Leiand Townsend, Wellington Gilbert, Phillip Sessions, Herbert Searions, Jahn Robinson, George Colton and Frank Meeks. Miss Elsie Earr bad the entertalpment in charge.

The musical department of the Woman's Club met on Thursday at the home of Mrs. A. Tiliser, on Edghtsenth street. The programme was exceptionally good. Mrs. F. M. Branch zang "A Winter Lullaby" (R. De Koven), and Mrs. C. B. Andrews gave a short talk on "Influences of Music in the Home." Other numbers were by Mrs. Holt, who gave two plano solos, Mrs. Jay Smith, who sang a plantation song, and Mrs. George C. Flanders, who sang "Sing Me to Seep." Mrs. Larows gave two enjoyable recitations. Refreshments were cerved.

Miss Pearl Harder entertained about 40 of her friends on Wednesday afternoon, at her home on Marshall street. Those who assisted Miss Harder were: Miss Fletcher, Mrs. W. W. Harder and Mrs. Benjamin L. Campbell, who presided at the ten table. Miss Freeman, Mrs. Croasman and Miss Brodie rendered a number of pratty you as selections, Miss Florence of pratty you as selections. of pretty vocal selections, Miss Florence Walton gave a qualit reading, and Miss Hagner several plane selections.

The Progress Club held its annual Christmas tree and festival at the home of Mrs. F. R. Cook, 522 Tilliamock street, Wednesday afternoon. Decorations were beautiful in all the rooms, and there was a beautiful Christmas tree, loaded with presents, each bearing an appropriate rhyme, which were read by Mrs. F. S. Meyers as they were handed out. Following came an entertaining programme. handed out tertaining programme.

The Bachelor Buttons gave their third dancing party Thursday even-ing. December 29, at the new Woodman Hall, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion with dozens of paims Hall, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion with dozens of paints of various sizes. The lights were shaded with red and green. Seventy-five couples were in attendance. This was one of the most enjoyable parties of the season. Everest's Orchestra furnished the music.

After the quarterly inspection at the Armory isst Thursday evening the members of Company C presented Quartermaster McCall with a handsome smoking-jacket as a token of the high esteem in which he is held by the company, and for the oxcellent services which he rendered at the recent American Lake encampment. Quartermaster McCall has served in his capacity for over one year.

Little Miss Linda Thompson entertained quite a number of her little friends and schoolmates at a Christmas tree party last Wednesday afternoon, at her home. Those present were: Leonard Kaufman, Louis Manciet, Gustave Tingry, Dorothy Granevill, Dorothy Wood, Mildred Paw-ley, Edna Kaufman, Edeta Escrich, Mar-jorie Thompson and Lurida Thompson.

The Christmas ball given by Portland Lodge, No. 102, Modern Foresters, on Monday svening, December 28, was a success in every way, and was attended by a large number of people. Refreshments were served. The Modern Foresters' orchestra furnished ex-cellent music for the occasion.

Mra. C. H. Keene and Miss Keene, of 261 Thirisenth street, entertained a party of friends at dinner last Wednesday even-ing. The invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Reeder, Professor Roquet and Miss Roquet, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lutke and Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Terry,

MR. AND MRS. LOUIS G. BRASEN.

A very pretty Christmas wedding was solemnized at the residence of J. C. Johnson, 504 East Fourteepth street, Rev. T. R. Smith officiating. The contracting porties were Louis G. Brasen and Miss Lilly M. Oson. After the ceremony the in-vited guests enjoyed a most ciaborate repast. Mr. and Mrs. Brasen will spend their honeymoon at Scattle and vicinity, visiting relatives and friends.

ant event of the week at the Rassalo-Street Congregational Church. Features of the programme were the distribution of presents for the Sunday school chil-dren, music and games.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd are giv-ing a house party today at Seaside, and are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Kol-lock, Miss Kathieen Burus, Miss Char-lotte Whalley, Mr. John Carson and Mr. R. S. Howard.

WEDDINGS.

Hutchinson-Spencer.

The marriage of Miss Julia Virginia Spencer, daughter of Captain and Mrs. William Valentine Spencer, to Mr. Reno Hutchinson, took place on Menday at the First Congregational Church. The ceremony, at which Rev. Elwie Lincoln House officiated, had as a background a very effective arrangement of Christmas greenery, this being in charming contrast, to the dainty gowns of the bride and her attendants.

The music, with Miss Hildegarde Flummer at the organ, was selected with excellent taste and included the wedding march from "Aida," with the love songs from "Faust" during the ceremony. Mendelssonha's wedding march being played as the recessional. Hutchinson-Spencer.

ceremony. Mendelssohn's wedding march being played as the recessional. Mr. Charles Staver, Mr. Ross Fargo. Mr. Gwyllym Jones and Mr. I. B. Rhodes were unhers and the bridesmalids were Mr. Hutchinson's sisters. Miss. Alice Hutchinson and Miss Gertrude Hutchinson. They were charging gowns of fluichinson and Miss decirate fluichinson. They wore charming gowns of pale green silk organdy, large white hats and carried arm bouquets of pale pink carnations. White silk tissue and point d'esprit were combined in the bride's very beautiful gown, and the bride's very beautiful gown, and the bride's very beautiful gown, and the

After the ceremony the wedding party was entertained at the home of Captain and Mrs. Spencer, 510 Corbett street. Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have gone to Pacific Grove, Cal., where Mr. Hutchinson will attend the conference of the Young Man's Christian Associaof the Young Men's Christian Associa-tion and will give a course of lectures on city association work. Mr. Hutch-son is the director of the religious work of the Association in Portland. and during his three 'years' superin-tendence of this work he has done re-markably well in building up the Bible department, besides doing much in the way of foreign missionary and per-sonal work. While he was a student at the University of California, of which he is a graduate, he was gen-eral secretary of the university Y. M. C. A., and was prominent also in Berkeley social and athletic life, later being elected graduate manager of the university athletics. Mrs. Hutch-inson has been contraits soloist at the Calvary Presbyterian Church and was formerly a member of the Elko Quartette.

Watkins-Springer.

At the First Christian Church, Wedne day, at 5 o'clock, occurred the marriage of Miss Maude E. Springer and Mr. George Curtis Watkins, of Astoria. Rev. E. C. Sanderson, dean of the Eugene Divinity

Sanderson, dean of the Eugene Divinity School, read the marriage service, assisted by the pastor, Rev. E. S. Muckley. The bride was lovely in a gown of white silk mull, with trimmings of applique and chiffon roses, the vell being caught with a spray of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of brides roses. The maid of honor, Miss Bessie Briedwell, of Amity, Or., wore pink silk mull and carried pink carnations. Miss Bertha Crounse, Miss Irene Johnson, Miss Bertha Crounse, Miss Irene Johnson, miss Helen Fanno and Miss Birchan, in white organdy gowns and large bouquets of maiden-Fanno and Miss Strahan, in white organ-dy gowns and large bouquets of malden-hair ferns, were bridesmalds. The ushers were Mr. W. Frank Watkins, Mr. Frank Randall, Mr. R. Lane Russell and Mr. J. H. Johnson. Little Laurs Hall and Lucile Robinson were flower girls. The church was beautifully decorated with ferns, mistietoe and chrysanthe-muns. Miss Anna English and Miss Kath-tree. Litchen played the wedding march ryne Lineban played the wedding march upon violin and plane. After the cere-mony a short informal reception was held in the church pariors, after which Mr. and Mrs. Watkins tock the 7 o'clock train for Astoria, their future home. The bride possesses a beautiful soprano

The bride possesses a beautiful soprano voice and for several years has been a faithful member of the choir at the Christian Church, where she will be much missed, and where her charming personality has won for her many friends.

Mr. Watkins, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Watkins, of this city, has for several years been a rarident of Astoria, where he has a charming home ready for his bride.

RECENT AND ACT OF THE MCFRENO. 2 Served. Serve

Millhollen-McGillivray. McGillivray-Melton.

A very pretty double wedding was sol-enized at Woodlawn on Wednesday even-ing, December E. when Mr. Lloyd Mill-hollen, of Ione. Or., and Miss Eliza Mc-Gillivray, and Mr. A. E. McGillivray and Miss Ora G. Melton, were married in the pressure of immediate relatives and a few intimate friends. Rev. Albyn Esson pressured the correspons. Both Mr. Mill. few intimate friends. Rev. Albyn Eason performed the ceremony. Both Mr. Mill-holien and Mr. McGhlivray are graduates in pharmacy from the State Agricultural College at Corvailis, graduating in the same class. Miss McGillivray was also a student at Corvallis. Miss Melton is the only daughter of J. A. Melton, and has been the faithful organist of the Rodney-Avenue Christian Church for some time. She has also held positions of trust in the Sunday school and in the Young People's Society, and during the past year has served as treasurer of the State Endeaver Association of the Christian Church. tian Church.

tian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Milliholien left for their new home at lone on Friday. Mr. and Mrs. McGillivray are at home to their friends at Woodlawn.

Thomas-Sleeper.

The Kalamazoo Daily Telegraph publishes an interesting account of the wedding of Miss Sarah Sleeper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sleeper, of this city. and Mrs. Clements. Miss Warner, The date of Miss Laura Jordan's marriage to Mr. Carl Lawis is to be set for some time in January. No cards will be sent, as the wedding, which will take place at St. Mark's Episcopal Church, is to be very quiet, on account of Colonel Jerdan's iliness.

The lith anniversary of the marriage of Mrs. A. Oberdorfer was remembered by a number of their friends, which will be added their borne on Sunday evening the dates handsome home on the occasion of the dance given on Thursday in honor of Mrs. Hunt Lewis. The music, by Parson's orelessira, made dancing very companied at the numbers being played. Several hundred guessas were ending of alies saran suspens, and diss saran suspens, daughter of the mine in Irvington, the guests being about the course in the dance of the seasons of the dance given on Thursday in honor of Miss Bleeper, who formerly lived in Kall their friends.

Mrs. J. E. Bennett gave a dainty incheon on Thursday in honor of Miss Bleeper, dual date of the which occurred in London, December 14. Which occurred in London

Ladies' Outlitters

Silverfield's

Fourth and Morrison

Our Annual Clearance Sale

Continues to Present the Greatest Fur Values Ever Offered

Never before in our history have we offered such extraordinary inducements in Purs. We are selling all our stylish fur garments at the actual value of the skins added to cost of making the garments.

Without Regard to Profit

We must sell furs even though the weather is not in our favor; this is the buying opportunity of the entire year. Select your fur now from the largest and best stock in the West.

Every Fur Garment Radically Reduced

Outing Flannel Gowns, Kimonas, Skirts, Etc.

In these lines our clearance sale offers some grand inducements, as we have placed our entire stock of these goods on sale at great reductions. Outing Flannel and Eiderdown Gowns, Kimonas, Robes and Skirts, either plain or handsomely trimmed, of every desirable color. Note the reductions given below:

81.23 15.50 Kimenas $2.69 6 .03 11.25 Kimenas $.87 8 .67 11.00 Kimenas $.78 5 .65 short Skirts $.30 $.63 $.50 short Skirts $.30

75c Neckwear 25c

We are offering a special line of the prettiest, daint-iest neckwear including turnovers, stocks, lace and Battenberg designs, and of fine chiffon and salk with cut-steel beading; regular 35c to 25c. 75c values, your choice.....

35c Wool Hose 28c

This is a very fine grade of Ladies' Fast Black Woolen Hose, being full fashioned and made as well as our finest grade of hosiery; the wool is also of a special grade and we gladly recommend them to those desiring hosiery 28C for service-per pair

THIS STORE WILL BE CLOSED ALL DAY MONDAY

America with his bride. They will probably make San Francisco their home.

Mrs. Thomas is an unusually pretty bruneite of most fascinating manners and will do credit to the ever-increasing number of American brides now residing in Galbreth-Stephenson.

Gaibreth-Stephenson.

LAGRANDE, Or., Dec. 31.—(Special)
—At the home of Prof. and Mrs. H. J.

Hockenberry, at 5 o'clock Wednesday evening, Rev. E. B. Hays, of the First Presbyterian Church in this city, united in marriage Mr. E. Edgar Galbreth, of Los Augeles, Cal., and Mrs.
Mary E. Stephenson, a sister of Mrs.
Hockenberry, and who has been making her home in this city for some time past. time past.

Mrs. Stephenson's home was former ly in Pittsburg for many years and she has known Mr. Galbreth for 32 years, he having lived in Pittsburg up to about ten years ago. He is now one of the leading attorneys in Los An-geles. Mrs. Stephenson made many friends here and is highly accom-

Mrs. Clara T. Lyle played the wedding march, and after the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the Hockenberry home. Mr. and Mrs. Gal-breth left on the evening train for their home in Los Angeles.

Smith-Lewis.

The marriage of Miss Vida Lewis, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Lewis, to Rev. Wilfred Smith took place at 188 Tacoma avenue on December 24. A large number of relatives and friends were presented. ent. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. A. Lewis, father of the bride, and Rev. W. B. Moore, of Clackannas, cousin of the groom. Miss Georgie Lewis, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmald and Mr. W. A. Petteys, of the Ore-

Bolliger-Hoye.

The home of Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Hoye was beautifully decorated with cut flowers, evergreens and Oregon grape last Wednesday evening. December 28, in honor of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Cora Hoye, to Mr. Andrew C. Bolliger, of Dryad, Wash., Rev. J. Whiteomb Brougher officiating. The bride was very handsome in her beautiful white dress, with bonquet of white carnations. The bridesmald, Miss Mabel Bandall, was becomingly attired in pink, with a bouquet of pink carnations. Mr. Jack Sharpe was best man.

was best man.

The parlors were well filled with the relatives and immediate friends of both families. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Bolliger will make their future home at Dryad, Wash.

Potter-Watts.

Charles E. Potter and Miss Ella M. Watts were married on Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Strowbridge, Jr. The bride is a charming young woman who has made her home in Port-land for the past four years; she has been an active member in the Mispah Presby-Jerian Church and the Mary and Martha Society, connected with the church, and her pastor, Rev. Jerome B. McGisfe of-ficiated at the wedding. The bride's gown was of white taffets silk with tulle vell and she carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Potter have moved into their new home in Holliday's Addition, where they will be at home after January 5, to bridesmaid, wore champagne-colored crepe de chine. Mr. Robert H. Hawkins was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Woodworth will make their future home in Albins. Summers-Stopper.

Miss Gertrude Stopper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stopper, was married on Wednesday at St. Mary's Church to Mr. Guy Summers. Rev. Father Daly performed the ceremony, and Mr. Robert Renny was best man. Miss Helen Ordemann acting as maid of henor. The bride's sister Miss Callie was flower girl and carried violets. The bride were champagne lansdowne, with bouquet of bride's roses. During the ceremony Miss Mabel Millis sang "O Promise Me." A wedding mills sang "O Promise Mc." A weeding supper was served to the bridal party and guests. The house was tastily decorated with ferrs and Oregon holly. Mr. and Mrs. Summers left on the 8 o'ciock train for St. Louis, Mo., where they will live.

Pelton-Houseworth.

A simple, but impressive, wedding was solemnized last Sunday at the home of Mrs. A. L. Pelton, 646 Isabelle street, when, in the presence of the most intimate friends and relatives, Miss Carrie Houseworth was united in marriage to Mr. L. Pelton, the Rev. E. T. Simpson, who returned recently from Honoiulu.

tletoe. Mr. and Mrs. Pelton left on the East-hound train for a short trip, pecting to be settled in their new he 665 Wilson street, after January 16.

marriage of Mr. Cal Shively and Miss Mabel Tufford on Saturday evening, December 34, at the home of the officiat-ing minister, Rev. Albyn Esson, 338 Euing minister, Rev. Albyn Esson, 338 Eugene street, was a quiet though pleasant occasion. They were attended by Ar. Lloyd Burtis and Miss Nellie Heffren. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Shively went to their new home, 853 Broadway, where they will be at home to their many friends.

George-MacRobert.

Miss Mary MucRobert and Mr. H. E. George were married on Saturday evening at the Fourth Presbyterian Church, the pastor, Rev. M. D. McClelland, officiating.

Only relatives were present. Cook-Fairweather.

Eva Fairweather, daughter Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fairweather, of Ta-coma, and Mr. Raymond W. Cook, frav-elling freight agent of the Northern Pacific Railway Company, of this city.

DIAMONDS

WEEKLY OR MONTHLY PAY-MENTS AT LESS THAN ELSE- WHERE FOR CASH.

WATCHES

A small amount down, the balance $1.00 a week; you take your pur-chase home when making first payment.

With every article we sell we give a certificate absolutely guaranteeing the quality and value of your purchase.

DAN MARX, 74 Third Street

TWO GREAT SPECIALS

H. LIEBES & CO., 288 Morrison St., Portland

EXCLUSIVE MANUFACTURING FURBIERS

G. P. RUMMELIN & SONS 126 Second St., bet. Alder and Washington STYLISH FUR COATS

ESTABLISHED 1879,

In Alaska Sealskin, Broadtail Persian, Otter, Beaver, Astrachan, Near Seal, etc.

FUR STOLES In Mink, Sable, Chinchilla Er-

Marten, etc. FUR BOAS In Arctic White Fox, Sable Fox, Alaska Bear, Black Marten, mine, Black Lynx, Beaver, Black

Sable Opossum, etc. FUR MUFFS, FUR CAPS AND GLOVES, FUR ROBES AND RUGS

LEADING AND RELIABLE FURRIERS

KEND FOR CATALOGUE.