

HE New Year celebrations were carried over to Monday this year, and informal parties were numerous and pleasant. The Waverly links clubhouse was visited on New Year's day by many people, who went out to have ten, and Thursday, when they went out to play for the Finnders cup. Mrs. Richard Koehler and Miss Alice Sibson qualified. Mise Failing gave a dinner on Monday vening, entertaining a number of the Portland people who met at Bayreuth last lummer during the Wagnerian featival. Another charming dinner of Monday even-ing was given at the Norton by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allen. The dining-room was decorated in charming fashion with palms and flowers.

The Bridge Whist Club has resumed its meetings, the first one of the new year being held on Tuesday at the home of the Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Burns have sent invitations for a dance to be given on next Thursday sevning.

Mrs. F. J. Mann's reception to the numbers of the Woman's Club was a cilliant event of Monday afternoon. The brilliant event of Monday afternoon. The club's gracious president was assisted by Mrs. A. H. Breyman, vine-president, the two standing to receive the guests in the drawing-room which was elaborately decorated with Oregon holly, potted ferns, paims and begonias. Mrs. Manin wore a gown of black embroidery net over white silk, and Mrs. Breyman was beautifully gowned in white creps. The west parlor and the library, where frappe was served, were prettily decerated, and in the dining-room the table was exquisite, with its cut glass and sliver vases of plac carits cut glass and silver vases of pink car-nations. Mrs. Byron E. Miller and Mrs. Charles E. Runyan poured tea and cof-fee, assisted by Mrs. Frank Vanduyn, Mrs. Matthew Gevurtz, Mrs. Charles Boss, Mrs. George Pettinger, Mrs. Frances and Miss Edinabeth Sill. Mrs. Warren E. Thomas served loss. Music by Wilder's quartet added a great deal to the pleasure of Mrs. Mann's callers.

A large number of guesta were enter tained on New Year's ove by the Con-cordia Club, and the dance was one of the most enjoyable ever given by the or-ganization. Until nearly 12 o'clock "300" was played, and after that dancing was begun, with music by Parnons' orche The ballroom was decorated with Oregon bolly and many handsome bronze vases of flowers.

Mr. Max Fleischner, who has done so much toward building up the club, did much of the work of arranging the New Year entertainment, and received many compliments for its success.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Marshall entertained a number of young people on New Year's eve at their home, 777 Hoyt street. The color sch as of the dec-orations was cardina and blue and gold, in honor of the , essence of stu-dents from the two big California universities. During the early part of the evening hearts was played, after the guests had found partners by means of a comparison of tally cards, each of which bore a query or answer. The primes, which were Underwood sketches suitably framed, were won by Miss Nellie Maxon and Mr. James Rosenfeld. In the interval before refreshments table partners were discov-ered by matching cares containing sec-tions of words. Mrs. Marshall sus-tained her reputation for unique surprises by placing upon the plate of each guest an envelope bearing the in-scription, My New Year's Resolution." The reading of the contents afforded fun in plenty, while the ice cream and punch were being served. Those present were: Misses Nona Lawler, Nellie Maxon, Ecelyn Rigler, Helon Rosenfeld. Corinne Riley, Mabel Wood, Vivian Marshall, and Messrs. Monte May-er, William McClure, Arthur Pinkham, Arthur and James Rosenfeld, George Tillison, John Whesier and Clifford itt; junior vice-president, Mrs. L. A. Woodle; chaplein, Mrs. Susan E. Welch; treasurer, Mrs. Julia A. Lawton; secretary, Mrs. Amanda Williams; conductor, Mrs. Minnie Barth; musician, Mrs. Hattle V. Beldin; guard, Mrs. Lucinda Foster; assistant conductor, Mrs. Freda Luschure; assistant guard, Mrs. Priscilla McKinney, Visitors from other posts and corps were present, and a social time was enjoyed after the ceremules were ended. Mrs. Stephens, the corps new president, presented Mrs. Julia A. Lawton, pust department president, in behalf of the cerps, with an elegant loving cup. Mrs. Lawton has been treasurer of Lincoln-Garfield Corps for the past five years, and is entering upon the sixth. She is a faithful officer, and one who is beloved by every member of the corps. Mrs. Lawton has been a member of this corps for il years, and has filled every office to which she had been elected with credit.

which she had been elected with credit

which she had been elected with credit.

At their hall, corner First and Alder streets, the officers of both Samaritan Lodge No. 2 and Hassalo Lodge No. 15, I. O. O. F., were installed in regular form this week. For the ensuing term the officers of Samaritan Lodge are: S. E. Phelps, N. G.; W. M. Conklin, V. G.; M. Osvold, secretary; J. F. Hard, treasurer; W. P. Lewis, warden; John Rabyor, O. S. G.; C. P. Harris, Con.: O. H. Spencer, I. B. G.; W. A. Jones, R. S. N. G.; E. C. Petersen, L. S. N. G.; Henry, C. Schade, R. S. V. G.; L. E. Carter, L. S. V. G.; W. Viggers, R. I. S.; Robert Hatton, L. S. S. Of Hassalo Lodge: G. W. Baldwin, N. G.; Tom O. Brown, V. G.; Harry Brown, secretary; C. R. Bradford, treasurer; C. L. Stoneburg, warden; Harry Beckwith, O. S. G.; A. Andanderson, Con.: G. W. Overstreet, I. S. G.; F. M. Kern, R. S. N. G.; J. A. Robertson, L. S. N. G.; T. J. Porter, R. S. V. G.; Mat L. Brown, L. S. V. G.; C. W. Lines, R. S. S.; C. F. Slatter, L. S. S.; Fred Comens, chaplain. These lodges are numerically, among the strongest in the jurisdiction. The financial reports were very gratifying. Although having paid out over $5000 for sick benefits the past year, they still have next sums remaining in their treasuries. year, they still have neat sums remain ing in their treasuries.

The newly elected officers of Portland Lodge, No. 102. Modern Foresters, were installed Monday evening, January 3, at the hall in the Abington building. Of-Scials of the order, with the assistance of the degree team, installed the new of-ficers, who are as follows: Freedent, John Taylor; vice-president, Miss Har-riet Baker; chaplain, Mrs. Silvers; secreriet Baker; chaplain, Mrs. Silvers; secretary, Mrs. Henrietta Haines; treasurer,
Mrs. L. A. Johnson; musician, Mrs. Hattie
V. Beldin; conductor, Mrs. L. A. Gotshall; guard, Mrs. Rose Huitt; sentinel, Mr.
Carskadin; physician, C. S. Hosmer; trustee, Mr. Levey. Captain Beldin's team includes the following members; Mrs.
Povey and Mrs. Sammons, color-bearers;
Mrs. Lena Grelle, Mrs. Muntz, Mrs.
Cooper, Mrs. Waldron, Mrs. Turney, Mrs.
DeWolff, Miss Hunt and Miss Riley. The lodge presented Mr. Gotshall, retiring lodge presented Mr. Gotshall, retiring president, with a gold badge, and the team presented Captain Beldin, as a to-ken of esteem with a pretty shaving mug. The social committee and supreme lodge presented Mrs. Gotshall with a berry set of Havliand chins, in appreciation of her services on various occasions.

The girls of the Portland Women's Union Industrial School gave a New Year's party for their teacher, Mrs. June McMillen Ordway. Thirty-night girls are now enrolled, and the class is progressing inely under Mrs. Ordway's direction. They spent the afternoon very pleasantly with music and dancing, the girls sering dainy refreshments. Their New Year's gift to their teacher was a handrear's gift to their teacher was a hand-somely framed engraving, and Mrs. Ord-way gave them each a box of candy, each one receiving besides a book of old songs, sent by Mr. White, of the Al-len & Glibert-Ramakor Company.

The reception given by the Brother-hood of St. Paul, of Grace M. E. Church, last Monday evening, was one of the most pleasant and successful affairs ever given by the society. An organ An organ recttal by Mr. Wilder opened the even-recttal by Mr. Wilder opened the even-selections by Miss Kitty Warner and Mrs. Ing's programme and was greatly en Joyed. Mr. E. C. Frost presided and introduced Judge John F. Caples, who gave one of his characteristic. George Wright Post and its Auxiliary speeches, full of good cheer and patriotic sentiments, the audience joining at the close in "America." Blenep D. H. Moore, the resident blahop of the M. E. Church, was the next speaker, and gave a splendid address, outlining the traits of character that should be possessed by members of the St. Paul's Brotherhood. Mr. H. W. Stone, financial secretary of the Y. M. C. A., then spoke. The church choir rendered a selection and May Dearborn Schwab a solo with excellent effect. The audience, having been introduced to the blahop and speakers by Mr. J. K. Gill and Dr. Osmon Royal, repaired to the parlors of the church, where a social time was enjoyed.

The guests at the Hesperian, who have a whist club among themselves, spent a delightful evening on Tuesday, when they were entertained by H. M. Prager. The beginning of the Lewis and Clark Exposition year was appropriately observed in the prizes, which were awarded after the game, and which were hundsome Oregon souvenirs. The decorations were of Oregon holly, ferns and chrysanthemums and very pratty. The prizes in-Gregon holly, ferns and chrysanthe-mums and very practy. The prizes in-cinded a blue plate, decorated with portraits of Lewis and Clark and the coats of arms of Oregon. Washington and Idaho, a silver cup and several Lewis and Clark spoons. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. A. E. Crocker, Mrs. Melvin G. Winstock, Mrs. W. G. Cutbirth, Mrs. W. Dayis, Mr. J. S. Beall, Dr. B. Fisher, Mr. W. P. An-drews and Mr. Charjes Schleck. Whist was played at seven tables, the playwas played at seven tables, the players who did not win prizes receiving souvenirs in burnt leather. The score cards were attractively decorated with Lewis and Clark monograms.

Colonel Hawkins, who has taken much Colonel Hawkins, who has taken much interest in the Forestry Association, was made an honorary member at the last meeting, which was held at the home of Mrs. Katherine A. Daly on last Theeday. The greater part of the afternoon was spent in listening to Colonel Hawkins talk on the subject of, the evergreen trees of Oregon and California, and in examining the specimen twigs of these with which the talk was illustrated. There were appelmens of Dougias spruce, the evergreen tree most common in Oregon, known in commerce as Oregon fit; besides pieces of Port Orford cedar. Mount Hood spruce, sequola gigantea and redwood. Everyone was much interested to learn that the Douglas spruce, when quarter-sawed and polished is a very beautiful wood for interior finishing either olled or stained. At the close of Colonel Hawkina lecture his audience felt that in future they would be able to distinguish, even at a distance, the different varieties of trees in the Oregon woods. Tea was served by the hostess.

New Year's eve was the occasion fo a merry gathering of friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Westermire. The rooms were decorated in red and green. Among the pleasant features of the evening were recita-tions by W. V. Lumsden and Dr. Kent. Fifteen hands of whist were played, first prizes being won by Mr. F. M. Jones and Mrs. M. E. Hoberts, the consolution by Mr. Lumsden and Mrs. Charles Gell. At midnight, refreshments were served by the hostess Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Keily, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gell, Mr. and Mrs. W. Lumsden, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. George Enlaminger, Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Kent. Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Morrow, Captain and Mrs. J. P. Boone, Mr. Harry Word, Mrs. M. E. Hoberts, Miss Ethel Roberts, Miss Hagel Westermire, Miss Beaste Kelly, Miss Ima Lumsden and Master Harry Geil.

The Oregon Grape Whist Club had an-The Oregon Grape Whist Club had another of its charming entertainments Thursday afternoon, the hostess being Miss M. B. Zeller, of 400 Second street. It was a Christmas party, decorations and score cards sustaining the idea. The acore cards for the game were likenesses of Christmas stockings in red. Prises were awarded to Mrs. M. Rebe and Mrs. George Zeller. The consolation fell to The consolution fell to ecorations about the rooms George Zeller. The consolution fell to Mrs. Wise. Decorations about the room were chiefly of Oregon grape and mistle were chiefly of Oregon grape and mistic-toe hung immediately over the table, with festoons of Oregon grape branching to the corners of the room. The table piece was a large cut glass bowl of grape leaves. The place cards were prettily leaves. The place cards decorated burnt leather souvenirs. P selections by Miss Kitty Warner and I
. Wolfe were pleasant features of Corps held a joint installation Friday evening in the halls in the Mulkey building. G. E. Caukin installing for the post and Mrs. Bertie Smith, department president, installing the corps officers. Following are the officers of the corps for 1305: President, Helen N. Packard; S. V. P. Isabella Emken; J. V.-P., Millie E. Morse; secretary, Mary E. Chamberlain; treasurer, Mary E. Caukin; conductor, Pearl Graves; guard, Marguerite Thompson; assistant conductor. conductor, Pearl Graves; guard, mar-guerite Thompson; assistant conductor, Maud Gliman; assistant guard, Alice Foster; patriotic instructor, Agnes Bodley; press correspondent, Della Mickley; color-bearers, Mattle Jaques, Mary Parker, Annie White, Mary Good-wie.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club met this week at the home of Mrs. A. B. Manley, 652 Williams avenue, to resume studies, after a vacation of three weeks. Luncheon was served by the hostess during the social hour, after which the programme was taken up. A comparative study, the Anglo-Saxons and Normans of the Tenth century, was conducted by Mrs. G. M. Gilnes, whose talk was followed by interesting ones by Mrs. J. Francis Drake, Mrs. A. J. Stiles, Mrs. F. M. Madison, Mrs. Florence E. Stallings. The quotations, which were given according to the club's custom, were this time from "Ivanhoe," Mrs. Robert Smith will entertain the club on Tuesday, January 16. STALL MADE

One of the most delightful "watch" parties on New Year's eve was given by Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Menefee at their home, corner Redney avenue and Tilliamook street. The decorations were holly and mistletoe. In the dining-room, where at a late hour dainty re-freshments were served, the decorations were especially beautiful, consisting of red carnations and holly. sisting of red carnations and holly Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Watts, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Barber, Mr. and Mrs. A. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Menetee, Mr. and Mrs. A. Snow, Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Foulks, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Lakin, Miss Eleanor Menetee and Mrs. Sporr, of Spokane.

A pleasant social was held on Tues-day afternoon at the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church. After a short programme the Missionary Society held its annual election, which resulted as follows: Mrs. C. A. Walker, president; Mrs. E. Nelson Allen, vice-president; Mrs. Mrs. E. Share second vice-president; Mrs. Mary E. Sharp, second vice-presi-dent; secretary, Mrs. B. L. Lucas; treas-urer, Mrs. O. M. Scott. The missionary tea of the society will be held Tuesday. January 17, at the residence of Mrs Henry Burdin and Mrs Sprague Burdin, on the East Side. An interesting pro-gramme will be rendered, and a most enjoyable time is anticipated.

The members of the "Jolly Whist Club" met with Mrs David Campbell at her pretty new home, 466 Jefferson street, Friday afternoon. The contest with cards was, as usual, quite intercating, and prizes were won by Mrs. J. C. Hare and Mrs. H. B. Gist. The home was beautifully decorated, red being the predominating color. Plano solos by Mrs. Thornton, Mrs. Campbell and Miss Tillie Klumpp, and vocal solog by Mrs. Hare. Mrs. Allard and Miss Carris Seal were rendered. Mrs. Willis Fisher will entertain the club on January 20 at 229 Whitaker street.

Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Gevurtz, who were recently married, held a delight-ful reception at their home, 703 Everett street, last Sunday afternoon, many young people enjoying their hospital-ity. The rooms were beautifully de-crated with evergreens and flowers. The Misses Levy and Neustadter presided at the punch table, which was festioned with streamers of smilax and pink ribbons. Cut glass vases holding pink carnations completed the

On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Haselthe entertained at a dinner given in honor of the 6th anniversary of the marriage of Mrs. Haseltine's parents. Captain and Mrs. W. S. Powell, and of the host's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Haseltine, who have recently celebrated their 48th wedding anniversary the exceeding anniversary the second way. also. Among the guests present was Mrs. Haselithe's grandmother, Mrs. L. Coffin, who has just passed her 85th birth-day. A delightful evening was spent.

The coming of the new year was appropriately observed at Webers Hall, in South Portland, on New Year's Eve, when a dance was given by the Misses Kate Burney, Annie Biegg, Bessie

ENGAGEMENT OF POPU-

LAR ACTRESS,

MISS LOUISE BRANDT.

TO

A. LINCOLN HART,

Ladies' Outfitters

Silverfield's

Fourth and Morrison

INCOMPARABLE VALUES

DEPENDABLE FURS

During our Great Annual Clearance Sale we are offering the most radical reductions on our entire large and magnificent stock of Fur Garments, making this sale an epoch in money-saving. Our large assortment of the most desirable styles in all Kinds of Fur Garments makes a selection easy.

$55 Near Seal Coats $36.85

Our Genuine Near Seal Coats, made in the latest styles, lined in fancy silk, sold regularly for $55.00, on sale at

Clearance Prices in Every Department

ON HANDKERCHIEFS

Our line of Handkerchiefs, from the popularpriced to the very finest, at the very lowest prices: 10c Handkerchiefs. Se 35c Handkerchiefs. 28e 20c Handkerchiefs. 16e 50c Handkerchiefs. 40e 25c Handkerchiefs. 20e 75c Handkerchiefs. 60e

ON UMBRELLAS

Those having Umbrella wants should take imme diate advantage of the special values now offered: $2.00 Umbrellas $1.60 | $3.50 Umbrellas $2.80 | 2.50 Umbrellas | 2.00 | 4.00 Umbrellas | 3.20 | 3.00 Umbrellas | 2.40 | 5.00 Umbrellas | 4.00 ON WOOL HOSE

Great reductions are offered on fine Wool Hosiery, at just the time they are most needed: 35c Wool Hose....28¢ 75c Wool Hose....60¢ 50c Wool Hose....40¢ $1.00 Wool Hose....80¢ 60c Wool Hose....48¢ $1.50 W. Hose...$1.20

ON UNDERMUSLINS

Every Garment, from the popular-priced to the finest French lingerie, greatly reduced:

$.50 Garments.$ 40 $1.50 Garments.$1.20 .75 Garments. .60 2.75 Garments. 2.20 1.00 Garments. .80 5.75 Garments. 4,60

Ladies' Suits, Coats, Skirts, Waists, Silk Skirts, Misses' and And on Children's Dresses, Belts, Neckwear, etc.

Mrs. Blegg and Mrs. Burney. There were extremely pretty decorations of evergreens, paims and poinsettias. About 80 guests were delightfully en-tertained by the young hostesses.

On New Year eve, Mr. and Mrs. Jas per Crane entertained a party of friends at their home, 320 Union ave-nue North, the occasion being the 20th anniversary of their marriage. The evening was spent with bowling and music. At 11 o'clock the party re-paired to the dining-room, which was tastefully decorated with Oregon and English holly. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. W. A. Mears entertained on Sat-urday afternoon, giving an informal tea, in honor of Mr. Mears' sister, Mrs. Mor-rie Paliner, who has lately come to Port-land to live. Cedar arches over door-ways and mantels, prettily combined with red berries, made the drawing-room de-orations, and the table in the dining-room was eleptrately decorated with helly and was elaborately decorated with holly and red ribbon. About 60 guests called durred ribbon. Abo

One of the most delightful of recent home entertainments was given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Boss, at their home on Multinomah street. The house was decorated with palms and many carnations. There were eight tables for the game of high five, at which prizes were awarded to Mrs. Finley Morrison, Mrs. L. Danenbouwer, and Mr. F. W. Gilbert. A. Danenhower, and Mr. F. W. Gilbert. The score cards were daintily hand paint-

The music department of the Woman's The music department of the Woman's Club was delightfully entertained Thursday by Mrs. Nathan Harris. An interesting and well-selected programme was given, including charming songs by Mrs. George Flanders Mrs. Abendfoth, Mrs. Frost and Mrs. Delude. Miss Ziporah Harris delighted her hearers with two violin numbers, after which dainty refreshments were served.

During the recent holldays there was a reunion of four of the Ryckman brothers at the home of Mr. John Ryckman, Knap-pa, Or. , The brothers had not met for over 30 years, and greatly enjoyed talking over old times. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hyckman are recently from Rainaville, Minn.; Mr. James Ryckman from Scap-poose, and Mr. Tobias Ryckman from Rainier, Or.

The regular monthly business meet-ing of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the First Christian Church was held at the home of Mr. E. Clarence Frost, 354 San Ra-fael street, on Tuesday evening. After disposing of the usual business of the society light refreshments were served, all returning home at a late hour, hav-ing spent a most enjoyable evening.

The members of the Women's Foreeign Missionary Society of Centenary Methodist Church were pleasantly en-tertained last week at the home of Mrs. H. A. Killam. Mrs. Hughson gave an admirable review of the year's studies, and Mrs. C. R. Thoburn gave a very satisfactory report of the general ex-ecutive committee meeting.

At the Patton Home Association's annual meeting, held on January 8, officers were elected as follows: President. Mrs. Theodore Nicolai; first vice-president. Mrs. A. H. Willett; second vice-president. Mrs. Mary Knox; secretary, Mrs. C. C. Albright; treasurer, Mrs. A. L. Bumsey; corresponding secretary, Mrs. D. H. Rand.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flint gave a delightful reception and musicals at their home in Park street last Monday evening in honor of Mr. Harry F. Davis, who leaves next week for Forest Grove. The musical numbers were by Miss Grace Gil-bert, Miss Nona Kearney and Mr. Arthur N. De Vore. An elegant supper was served. . . .

Mrs. S. G. Fulton gave an informal disner and reception Saturday evening, De-cember 31, in honor of Mr. C. M. Levy, assistant to the president of the North-ern Pacific. The rooms were prettily decorated, the color scheme being red. The 50 guests present were delightfully entertained.

Mrs. J. C. Stuart entertained the East Side Presbyterian Missionary Reading Circle yesterday afternoon, at her res-idence, 571 Halsey street, a pleasing pro-gramme being carried out. At the close, light refreshments were served. The so-cial was largeley attended, Mrs. C. Christensen entertained the Young Women's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church Tuesday afternoon, at her residence, Mr East Eighth street, there being a large attendance. A pleasing programme was presented, followed by light refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Webb Campbell gave a whist party at their home. The East Burnside street, New Year's eve, which was attended by a number of friends. Clyde Evans won the first prize, and Pe-ter Schmeer the booby prize. Dainty re-freshments were served.

Church, entertained very delightfully on Thursday at the parochial residence, giv-ing a dinner for the members of the choir and the Sunday school teachers. The pariors and dining-room were beau-tifully decorated.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bradley enter-tained the Neighborhood Club on Thurs-day, the guests spending the evening very pleasantly with the game of "500." Mrs. E. Shelley Morgan and Mr. William C. Knighton won the prizes. A party which included Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cullison, Mrs. T. J. Richards and children, and Miss Sax, of this city, attended a family reunion held last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cullison, at McMinnville.

The A. Volante Club, which has been giving a pleasant series of dances, entertained at Parsons Hall on Tuesday evening. Many young people were present and enjoyed the party thoroughly.

Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Solomon entertained the employes of the Wonder Millinery Company on Saturday evening at their residence, on Tenth street, the guests enjoying music and dancing until late.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherwin Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse White. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Irvine, Miss Laura Bennett and Roy B. McFadden were quests of relatives at McMinnville last week.

WEDDINGS.

Rosenblatt-Harris. On Wednesday evening, January 4, oc-of the season, at the residence of William Harris, 381 Tenth street, his daughter of white Louisine silk and duchesse lace Among those present were the relatives and immediate friends of the family, including William Cohen, of San Francisco, an uncle of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. George W. Simon, of Seattle, and H. Hirschberg. The bride and groom were the recipients of numerous and costly presents. The happy couple left for an extended trip through California, and will return in about six weeks to make their home in this, their native city.

A quiet wedding took place New Year's eve at the residence of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. William Boys, when their to Albert M. Hagen, in the presence of the near relatives and friends of both bride and groom Promptly at 5:30 o'clock to the music of Sidney Smith's "Midsummer Night's Dream." played by Mrs. Edward Alden Beals, the winsome bride entered the parlors, leaning on the arm of her father, and attended by Muss Leia Carter. In the wide bow-window of the south parler, which was decorated in Christmas greens. was an improvised altar, over which hung an exquisite floral wedding bell, of white hyacinths and pink roses. Hore the groom waited, attended by his best man. Sam Banks. The Episcopal service was read by Rev. John D. Simpson, rector of St. Mark's Church. The bride was very charming in her wedding gown of soft, white sitk. After congratulations, refreshments were served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Hagen departed for their future home in Tacoma.

Summers-Stopper.

The wedding of Miss Gertrude Stopp daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stopper, et al. Mrs. Guy Summers took place in St. Mary's Church, Albins, December 28. May being united in marriage to Leon S. | per, and Mr. Guy Summers took place in Rosenblatt, Dr. Stephen S. Wise officiat- Rev. W. A. Daim officiating. The bride looked charming in a gown was attired in a champagne-colored

READ ABOUT OUR GREAT FUR SPECIA

The following are only a few of the remarkable values that we are offering during the present sale. These are bargains that will be quickly picked up:

Four-in-Hand Ties

Equirrel, fur-lined; regular price $8.50; special$6.00

French Sable, satin-lined, finished at ends with chinelle fringe; regular value $15.00; special......$10.00

Cluster Scarfs

Comprising brown marten, opessum, black marten, blended brook mink and and sable opossum; regular price, $8.50; special$4.95

H. LIEBES & CO.

288 MORRISON ST., PORTLAND J. P. PLAGEMANN, Manager

ESTABLISHED 1870. Fur Garments

SEND FOR CATALOGUE.

Reduced Prices

G. P. Rummelin & Sons

126 2d St., bet. Alder and Wash.

FUR COATS, FUR STOLES, FUR CAPES

FUR BOAS in White Fox, Alaska Bear, Sable Fox, Black Marten, Sable, Mink, etc.

FUR MUFFS, FUR CAPS AND GLOVES, FUR RUGS AND ROBES

LEADING AND RELIABLE FURRIERS

IS ANNOUNCED The home of Mr. and Mrs. Bromberger. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Bromberger on Fark street, was the acone of a bright gathering last Sunday evening, the co-casion beliat the golden wedding anniversary of the pareuts of Mrs. Bromberger. who reside in Germany. The parlors and byachitide, and the death of the spacious disable provides and the street of the space of the spa

Rev. William Daly, of St. Mary's assessments assessment assessment of St. Mary's assessment of the St.