IN HALL'S SHOES

Honey to Be U. S. District Attorney,

BY PRESIDENT'S SANCTION

Appointment Will Be Made by Judge Bellinger.

TENURE DURING FRAUD TRIALS

As Government Prosecutor It is Apparent That Administration Is After Results Unbiased by Politics.

Francis J. Honey, it is announced, will be appointed United States District Attorney, to succeed John H. Hall, by Judge Bellinger, of the United States Court, when that tribunal meets tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. Honey has been for some time, and now is, in charge of the investigations being made by the Federal grand jury into the land frauds of the state. Upon his arrival in Portland more than a month ago he came as a special assistant to the Attorney-General of the United States, sent here ostensibly to assist Mr. Hall, the District Attorney, in the conduct of the conspiracy cases about to be tried against S. A. D. Futer, Horace G. McKinley and others, but it soon developed that it was Honey who was to have charge of the cases and to conduct the course of the trial. After the first three days he came to the foreground, and has been the center of the transactions growing out of the work of the grand jury since that time.

repeatedly charged the other with the theft, while the accused man hurled back emphatic denials, and declared the accuser was a highlander, sent here from San Francisco for the purpose of murdering Jung Sung, said to be the Chinese who informed Sheriff Word regarding the recent operations of fainter games on Second street, between Finner and Taylor. This is not the first time, according to the police, that Ah Ling has been in trouble. He is declared to be the man who was arrested at Heppner Junction shortly after the great flood there, for the murder of a fellow-countryman, who was robbed and whose body was found later. He was killed by being beaten over the head with a stone. With Ah Ling another Chinaman was arrested, but while incarcerated in the jail, he hung himself, and the result was the subsequent release of Ah Ling. The murdered man was a robber of $20, which was taken from him from his earnings. He was bound for his native land at the time.

GERMAN MINERS MAY STRIKE Demand Reduction of Hours in Rhinish Westphalia.

BERLIN, Jan. 7.—Meetings of the representatives of 200,000 miners employed in the mines of the Rhinish Westphalian Coal Syndicate, are being held throughout the district regarding the silence of the members of the syndicate on the workmen's request for a different system of measuring the hours of work. The miners are under individual company management, the whole allotted product being marketed by the syndicate. Two hundred and fifty men in one mine refused to work today, but a general strike is not yet in imminent prospect, although the miners are embittered by the long controversy. The miners ask that the hours of work shall be measured from the time of arrival at the pit's mouth until they reach the pit's mouth on returning, instead of from reaching the syndicate's office, thus ceasing to work. The men affirm that it takes often 45 minutes each way, going into and leaving the deep sunk shafts. They ask for the reduction of a nine-hour day, for the second eight and one-quarter hours, and for the third year and thereafter eight hours, calculated between getting into and coming out of the entrance. The miners are not alone in their view, more unhealthy than ever, and that 55 per cent of the men are now diseased. The public generally is deeply interested in the result of the dispute. The coal syndicate's contract, which went into effect in April, 1904, for 12 years fixes the allotment of each mine for the entire period. The result is that the powerful mining companies are mining economically, buying up the weaker ones and closing them. The workmen of the small mines are forced to sell their cottages at a sacrifice and move to larger ones. There are government representatives at the meetings of the miners, and police and troops are held ready to suppress disturbances. Only one mine is affected by the strike and the miners' leaders are making every effort to confine it there. In order to have the financial support of the other miners, they hope to win a victory in this instance will serve as a precedent. The number of strikers is 600.

BIRDS HAD FLOWN. Chicago Police Raid Office of Bogus Idaho Colony Company.

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—The police today raided the offices of the Idaho Colony Company and the Oregon-Mining Company, Limited, of Wallace, Idaho. When the police arrived the entrance was crowded with persons waiting for information how to secure 320 acres of Government land in Idaho for $50. The door leading to the office was locked, and Albert P. Hunter, said to be the manager, could not be found. Attorney M. Rossen was among the persons awaiting the opening of the office. "Hunter called on me several days ago," said Rossen, "and attempted to interest me to the extent of purchasing $500 worth of stock in the company. He said I would purchase mining stock he would make me general agent in Chicago." The scheme regarding the staking of homesteads in Idaho has been operated for a month, according to the police. The plan was to advertise for 300 men, each to secure 320 acres of Government land in Idaho. The prospectus stated that the Idaho Colony Company would take 300 men to Idaho when the Government opened a parcel of land to colonization. It further stated that the company would furnish the 300 men with employment, and that the land would be invaluable when irrigation trenches were run.

MILLIONS FOR WIDOW. Will of W. W. Kimball Gives Her $2,000,000.

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—The will of W. W. Kimball, bequeathing over $2,000,000 to the widow, Eva M. Kimball, and large amounts to several nephews and nieces, has been filed in the probate court. No estimate of the total value of the estate was offered. To Mrs. Kimball is bequeathed $1,900,000 in bonds and stocks, together with the homestead at Prairie avenue and Eighteenth street. A codicil provides for an additional $100,000 for the widow. The testator left to his brother, David W. Kimball, of Westport, Ia., $25,000; to another brother, Virgil D. Kimball, $20,000; to a sister, Lucy Ann Lufkin, of Rumford, Me., $20,000, and to another sister, Elizabeth Gleason, $20,000, and to a third, Columbia Kimball, $20,000.
