

CEVERAL dances, many card parties and various interesting club meetings and church entertainments made the past week a pleasant one, in spite of the snow, which makes most Oregonians prefer to stay indoors.

The dance given by Mr. and Mrs.

Walter J. Burns and the Misses Burns on Thursday evening was in every way served and a social time employed by all s charming event. The rooms used for after the coremonies were over dancing and for bridge, which was played by a number of the guests, were elaborately decorated with palms and flowers. The music was by Parsons' orchestra, the programme including the newest must-

Another dance which was an impertent event among the Winter's enterteinments was the annual hop of Company H, Oregon National Guard, given at the Armery on Friday evening. A large letter "H," studded with electric lights, was suspended from the center blue incandescent lamps and decorated with flags and palms, made a very beautiful appearance. The committee included Lieutenant Bruce Kaitz, Lieutenant L. Kollock, Corporal Chaney, Mr. A. R. Kerrigun and Mr. Fred McCarver. Mrs. William Harder, Mrs. J. R. Bean and Mrs. S. J. Thompson were natronasses. incandescent lamps and decorated Several bridge parties were given during the week, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd entertaining on Tuesday, Mrs. Warren Houghton on Wednesday and Mrs. Prederick H. Hopkins yesterday. Mrs. Lucius Allen Lewis entertains the Bridge Club tomorrow afternoon.

pictures and souvenirs.

Miss Louise Forsyth, recently from New York City, and instructor in clo-New York City, and instructor in ele-cation at St. Helen's Hall this year, gave a most delightful afternoon with Brown-ing on Wednesday, at the residence of George H. Williams. The reading was given under the musplees of the ladies of Trinity Guild, and the large drawing-room was filled to overflowing with members of Portland's most fashionable and cultured set and lovers of Browning. Miss Foreyth is an enthropiestic Brown. Miss Forsyth is an enthusiastic Brown ing student, and expressed her delight in bringing her favorite poet to her first Pacific Const audience. She said that Providing's psychological day is still in the service of the providing of the service. Browning's psychological day is still in its early morning—that it has not yet reached high morn and declares that he is more in harmony with the thought of the 20th-century man and woman than Shakespeare, whom she knows and loves as well, for she recites from memory many of his plays. Miss Forsyth was in excellent voice, and read in a dramatic and sym-pathetic manner, "My Siar," "My Last Duchees," "Count Gismond," An Italian in England," "In at a Villahallan in Expland," "Ip at a Villa-Down in the City." "A Lovert Quartel." "Rabbi Ber Erra, "A Tale of the Singer and the Cricket," "Porphyria's Lover" and "Herve Riel." She preceded each number with explanatory comments, tell-ing the story and giving a digest of the characters. This, together with her un-usual dramatic ability in entering into the life of the characters, made Brown-ing easily apprehended and admired even by those least familiar with his writings.

Members of the Woman's Club held a pleasant meeting on Friday afternoon in the hall in the Marquam building, being entertained by five-minute talks on subjects from each department, fellowed by a discussion on "What the Year Has Done for Us." Mrs. W. E. Thomas represented the German department: Mrs. S. A. Evans, Oregon history; Mrs. George C. Flanders, music; Miss Millie H. Trumbull, economic linesity. Mrs. C. C. Charment added. sic. Miss Millie H. Trumbuil. economic luquiry: Mrs. C. C. Chapman, educational; Mrs. M. A. Ogden. English literature: Mrs. B. S. Pague, current events: Madame Julia H. Bauer, French; Mrs. M. Lucila and Laura Morgan and Miss Grace Dow: Messrs J. P. Low, Nan Larowe, elocution; Dr. Mac H. Cardwell, the home. Dr. C. J. Smith, of Pendleton, gave an excellent talk on bills before the Legislature of interest to women, the information being of women, the information being great vaine.

On Tuesday evening the Misses Flanders gave a large bridge party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hunt Lewis. Their guests were: Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Almsworth, Mr. and Mrs. William Warrens, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis, Dr. and Mrs. George Whitesdes Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Root entertained the Neighborhood Whist Club delightfully at their residence on Priday evening. The house was decorated with everigens arranged in exquisite taxte.

Carl Spuhn, Mr. T. Scott Brooke, Mr. John Carson, Mr. Grella, Mr. Roderick Macleay, Mr. Roderey Glisan Mr. W. D. Wheelwright, Mr. Wirt Minor, Mr. Thales Lanthicum, Mr. Andrew Kerr, Dr. Her-

Miss Lillian Dorch's engagement to Charles Henry Cooper, of St. Louis, was nformally announced to her friends at a informally amounted to see risenes at a small tea given resterday afternoon by Miss Dosch and her sister, Miss Camille, Mrs. Worcester, of Buffalo, and Miss Jeanno Wakefield, of Omaha, received with the hostesses, and in the diningroom, which was prettily decorated in red, Mrs. Fleiding Kelip and Mrs. Frank Piles presided assisted by Miss Str. Riley presided, assisted by Miss Etta Honeyman and Miss Ruth Maxwell. A charming addition to the enjoyment of the guests was a dainty French love song by Miss Grace Gilbert,

Mrs. J. D. Meyer and Mrs. L. Coblents gave a "500" party Thursday afternoon at the Concordia Club, entertaining about 50 guests, who enjoyed the afternoon very much. Four handsome prizes were awarded to Mrs. August Oberdorfer, Mrs. Frank Rothchild, Mrs. Julius Goldsmith and Mrs. Louis Persenblati Mrs. Louis Rosenblatt.

Miss R. Prager entertained eight of her friends very delightfully at luncheon on Wednesday at the Hotel Portland. The table looked extremely pretty, with a large center arrangement of pink roses, besides scattered buds and asparagus

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Fidelity Lodge, No. 14, Dogres of Honor, installed their officers jointly with Fidelity, No. 4, A. O. U. W., on Friday evening, January 5, in Logus Hell, on Grand avenue. Past Master Workman J. H. Zane was installing of-ficer for Fidelity, No. 4, and Past Grand Chief of Honor Mrs. Mary Readell, with Cidef of Honor Mrs. Mary Randall, with the assistance of Past Grand Chief of Honor Mrs. Minnie Mason, performed the same services for Fidelity, No. 14. whose newly installed officers are as Past chief of honor, Mrs. Margaret Read; chief of honor, Mrs. Nora Card; lady of honor, Mrs. Prances Camp; chief of ceremonies, Mrs. Matheit; recorder, Mrs. Julia Flory: fluancier, Mr. Clayton Pio: receiver, Mrs. Mattie Liv-ingston; usher, Mrs. Iva Rowe: inner watch, Mrs. Davis; outer watch, Dr.

On last Thursday afternoon the musical department of the Women's Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Charles E Bunyon, on East Stath and Madison streets. Mrs. Runyon is a charming hostess, and the dopartment enjoyed one of their best musicales. Mrs. George C. Flanders, who possesses a flexible soprano vdice with full, well.

Mrs. George C. Flanders, who possesses a flexible soprano vdice with full, well.

developed tones, sang Robyn's "Angiver." A German song was sweetly sung by Mrs. Carl Abendroth. An interesting talk on "Recent Events of Music." was ably discussed by Mrs. B. Pague, Mrs. Nathan Harris and Mrs. Beliwood Volunteer Fire Company, with the Ladles Auxiliary, celebrated the feature of the programme was the music of the manicers are Mandolin Club, whose members are Mendames Dennison, Harris and Euryon. This Mandolin Club is of recent organization, and its rapid progress is watched with interest by the members of the Ladles' Auxiliary, with an able corps of assistants, conducted the affair successfully.

The McConnell residence, on East

The McConnell residence is a fire the first seedling apple brought to the organize to the interest gift, and great in Oregon. The direction of the San Great Church was held in the ciappel of the San Great Church was held in the ciappel of the San Great Church was held in the ciappel of the San Great Church was held in the ciappel of the San Great Church was held in The San Great Church was held in the ciappel of the San Great Church was held in the direction of the San Great Church was held in the direction of the San Great Miss Developed Leveling and Miss Davis Elizabeth Wolf and Miss Elizabeth Wolf charming hostess, and the department ing, when the Misses Florence Walton and Jesode McConnell gave an informal musicale. Delightful numbers were rendered by Miss Sadie Ford. Miss Ethei Lytle, Miss Laura Fox, Miss Jes.

55 Grand avenue. The program Miss Julia Coman entertained a real friends informally on Tuesday evening, the greater part of the time being occupied with the popular game of 500," at which Mrs. George Williard Brown and Mr. Ernest Brand won the Brown and Mr. Ernest Brand won the Great Brand Won Two very pleasant card entertainments Tuesday afternoon were those at which Mrs. Abe Meier and Mrs. Felix Priedlander were hostesses.

The pupils of St. Helen's Hall, for whom the faculty provides some sort of pleasant amusement on each Thursday evening, were entertained last week by Miss Elizabeth K. Matthews, who gave them an account of a recent trip through Fellowstone National Park, illustrating her talk with many pictures and souvenirs.

Were awarded Miss Fox and Mr. Stauffer from the best short musical romance.
Those present were: The Misses Fern
Stout, Katherine Koak, Bessie Walton, Grace McConnell, Sadie Ford, Laura
Fox. Ethel Lytie, Ethel McConnell;
Florence Walton and Jessie McConnell;
Mr. Stauffer, Dr. Thornion and Mr. and Mrs. George Wiester.

The John ivey Water-Color Ciuh held a meeting and election of officers on

The John Ivey Water-Color Club held a meeting and election of officers on Saturday, January 7 at the home of Mrs. G. W. Nothnagle. The result of the election was as follows: President, Mrs. A. H. Willett: first vice-president, Adams: second vice-president Mrs. Mrs. E. S. Brubaker; recording secre-tary Mrs. Notinagle; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Pitzelmmons; treasurer, Mrs. A. H. Averill; custodian, Mrs. G. Strickler; assistant custodian, Mrs. T. M. Hinard.

A rising vote of thanks was given to the retiring officers, after which plans were discussed for the coming year, all pledging themselves to re-newed effort to make it one of great progress. An invitation to held the next meeting with Miss M. Mussdorffer was necepted.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Kenneth Evans gave a delightful "afternoon" at her home, sit Bellmont street, in honor of Miss Antonia Rhomberg, whose marriage to Paul E. Angustein will take place January 15. The guests had been requested to bring thimbles, needles and thread, and a roll of crope paper was given to each for the purpose of fashioning a hat for herself. Prizes were offered for the most stylish or becoming hat, for the most picturesque and for the ugilest. Mrs. Frank Tauscher secured the first, a decorated china plate, for a creation in blue, Mrs. Stanbop Fler the second, a vase of carnations, for a dainty rose-pink hat. The nutions, for a dainty rose-pink hat consolation prize was drawn by lot, and fell to Miss Rhomberg. The luncheon table was prettilly decorated with white narclasus and plak carnations.

A most delightful party was given re-cently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. H. Morgan, 504 Albina avenue, in homer of their son, Mr. A. E. Morgan, who has some to Seattle. Several interesting gone to Seattle. Several interesting games occupied the early part of the evening and later supper was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. H. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Smith, Mrs. Kurtz, Mrs. F. L. Benson, Mr. Isaac Kay, Missess Marie, Chuma and Faye Kandle Misses Madge Kay, Susie Haffen. Kay, Misses Marie, Benna and Faye Kandle Misses Madge Kay, Susie Haffen-den, Eden Jestcott, Mirta Marzhail, Ma-belle Wright, Elinabeth Thomas, Nellie.

Mrs. J. E. Cameron hospitably gave her house to the Ladies' Ald Society of the room, where the table was decorated with carnations and lighted with red-shaded candles. Prizes were won by Mrs. E. H. Carlton and Mr. A. H. Averill. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Averill. Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Cable, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Carlton, Mlss Edna Church, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Oids, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bichton and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Werlein. The club will be entertained on January 21 by Mr and Mrs. Beach.

and Mrs. J. C. Olds, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bichton and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wertein. The club will be entertained on January 21 by Mr and Mrs. Beach.

Myrtie Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, gave a very pleasing entertainment last evening at Masonic Hall, the occasion being the installation of officers. The programme, admirably presented, was as follows: Plane allow presented, was as follows: Plane allow presented, was as follows: Plane allow Mrs. Polka de Concert? (Bortlètt), Miss Georgia Lewis: "Installation" ode, Misser Nina and Laura Wenderoth, Mrs. Edna Joy Moorhead and Misse Georgia Lewis: "Installation" ode, Misser Nina and Laura Wenderoth, Mrs. Edna Joy Moorhead and Misse Bennett Bruce, pupil of Miss Nina Wenderoth: reading, "How the Charles of the Unitarian Society Tuesday evening to Monday evening, January 1, at her residence, 22 Mallory scenue, Games were served by Mrs. Charles to Monday evening, January 1, at her residence, 22 Mallory scenue, Games were played and dancing onjoyed until a late hour, after whith Hight refreshments were played and dancing onjoyed until a late hour, after whith Mrs. Alleger, It is made of Oregon woods, principally of Oregon holly, with strips through it of made of Oregon woods, principally of Oregon holly, with strips through it of The quarterly social of the First Presjunfor vice-president, Mrs. Athens: chap-lain, Mrs. J. H. Zehrung; treasurer, Mrs. Olive Van Orden; secretary, Miss Lena Wheeler; conductor, Mrs. Carl Abrahams; musician, Miss Alice Grey; guard. Mrs. Gubtell; assistant guard. Mrs. Clothens. Appropriate speeches were made by the new president and comrades. Miss Alice Grey rendered some enjoyable plano selec-tions.

MARRIED IN PORTLAND WEDNESDAY

MR. AND MRS. GUY P. HALFERTY, OF ABERDREN, WASH.

tuined at the home of Mrs. Robert Smith. 255 Grand avenue. The programme was a very interesting one. A comparative study of the Anglo-Saxons and Norman was a very interesting one. A comparative study of the Anglo-Saxons and Norman was a very ship presented by Mrs. J. D. Young. The Programme was a very ship presented by Mrs. J. D. Young. The Doomnday Book! was filter before the programme was a very ship presented by Mrs. W. B. Hall, and "Ivan-hoe" by Mrs. Mrs. W. P. Palacious, and Misses Hickey at their hosters. After a pleasant round of whist, musical comparative and pleasant round of whist, musical comparative and presentation were represented by Lawrence Smith, and refreshments were served by the hosters. On January II Mrs. W. P. Ruecland will entertain the club at the home of Mrs. George Boyaton, 58 East Ankony street.

The Sunnyade W. C. T. U. gave a most of the value of noble womanhood, giving beloful any superstation, of the walue of noble womanhood, giving Beloful any superstation, and mrs. And will an election of the created of the content of organization, and its rapid progress is watched with interest by the members of the musical depaytment. Mrs. Runyon, ansisted by her sister, served disinty refreshments.

The McConnell residence, on East Thirrleth street, was the scene of a summunous replication on the lower floor, where they partook of a summunous repast prepared by the Laning, when the Misses Fiorence Waiton.

The Sunnyside W. C. T. U. gave a most delightful and helpful mother's meeting last week, in the W. C. T. U. parlors. Mrs. Unruh spoke in a pleasing manner of the value of noble womanhood, giving helpful suggestions in regard to the purity crusade that is being planned for Portiand this year. Katherine Tranchell gave a very clever recitation.

Winslow Mead Circle, No. 7, Ladies of the G. A. E., installed their efficers Tuesday evening, January 10, Mrs. Olive Van Orden was installing officer. The circle's newly-installed officers are as follows: President, Mrs. Jennie Wardiaw Lyon; senior vice-president, Mrs. Jennie Wardiaw Lyon; senior vice-president, Mrs. Hayden; ers, held a meeting on Monday evening.

GOLDEN WEDDING OF MR. AND MRS. AMOS SLAVENS

CHOSSED THE PLAINS WITH OX TEAM IN 1865.

KALAMA, Wash, Jan. 14.-(Special.)-The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Slavens, of Warren, Or., was celebrated at their home, Tuesday, January 10, 1965. Mr. Slavens is 72, and Mrs. Slavens, 65 years of age. They were married to Shelby County, Illinois, in 1855, and crossed the plains with an ox toam in 1865, reaching Walla Walls the first year, and remained there over Winter, coming the next year to Oregon, and Jaking up a donation claim, where they have ever since resided.

Thirteen children, six daughters and seven sons, were born to them, II of whom are living. Besides their own children, they adopted five others, for whom they have provided. The names of the surviving children are: Mrs. M. J. Scott, of Huisma; Mrs. Julia Trainer, of Portland; Mrs. Maggie Cassiday, of Purtiand; Mrs. E. Oefield, of Portland; Miss Mand Slavens, of Kalama; Miss May Slavens of Portland; Deniel Slavens, of Purtland; John Elsvens, of Portland; Marion Slavens, of Hood River, Or.; Amos R. Slavens, Dawson, Alaska, All of them, except the last named, were present at the golden wedding. There were also present 14 grandchildren and one great-grandchild, heelden a large number of lavited guestn. The oldest person present was Mrs. Perry, who came across the plains with

Ladies' Outfitters

Silverfield's

Fourth and Morrison

HIGH-GRADE FURS AT CLEARANCE PRICES

The reliability of our Furs is exemplified in the satisfactory service given the wearer. To be able to purchase such superior Furs at the prices at which they are now marked is an opportunity that comes but once yearly.

BUY NOW—All Who Need Furs

Every garment, without a single exception, has been radically reduced. It's true economy to purchase Furs of such a high standard of value, at prices that scarcely pay for the actual value of the material, added to the cost of manufacturing. We have absolutely the largest collection in the West for you to choose from.

Our entire new and fashionable lines of ladies' and misses' Wearing Ap-CLEARANCE parel and Furnishings, which are not surpassed by any in the city, are offered during our Clearance Sale at the greatest sacrifice in prices. Not an article on sale but that is entirely new, the complete stock

PRICES PREVAIL having been purchased on opening our New Store, only three

Fine Wool Sweaters

Of the finest Australian Lambswool, beautifully made and strongly reinforced. The finest Sweaters ever knit. $5.50 Sweaters...$3.85 $4.00 Sweaters...$2.89

Warm Wool Hosiery

All grades and sizes of fine Woolen Hosiery for ladies and misses at clearance prices.

75c Underwear 48c

As a special during our Clearance Sale we are offering lines of Knit and Muslin Underwear, including Gowns, Chemise, Cornet Covers, Drawers and Skirts of fine muslin, handsomely made and trimmed, and Shirts, Drawers and Union Suits of a fine quality of Merino Wool; each and every garment in the lot is entirely new, and not one has ever been offered at less than 60c, 65c or 75c per garment.....

CHILDREN'S WEAR On our third floor we have a department of misses' and children's wear which is equal to any in the city. Suits, Raincoats, Jackets, Dresses and Sweaters, for young ladies and girls, at the greatest reductions during the Clearance Sale. Every garment entirely new at which E applications for membership were received and a class of 15 were in-litated. Trustees to fill several vacancies afternoon was passed. were elected as follows: Mrs. E. E. Van Alatine, James McKinley and L. W. Bet-den. They will serve terms of three years, two years and one year, respectively. The lodge is planning to make 1996 a year of much activity and progress.

and up to date.

evening, January 5. The Misses Cramer and Miss Brown, and the Messurs Baker and MacRae were guests of the club this week. The prizes were won by Mr. Anderson and Mr. Lawrence. The club will be entertained on January 19 by Miss Ruby Shearer at her home, 382 East Thirtieth street.

The White Temple Club and A. B. C. Club, composed of young men under 20 years of age, held a delightful social last evening, in the parfors of the First Baptist Church. Speeches and music were enjoyed, the programme being highly entertaining. Later delicious refreshments were served by the committee, the members of which received many congratulations upon the success of the entertainment.

descriptive paper, took the club from Tokio to Kyota, Japan.

Mildred Dunlap entertained 12 of her little friends at a birthday party on Monday afternoon, January 5, the oc-casion of her fifth birthday. Various games and dainty refreshments were much enjoyed by all her little guests. The decorations were elaborate in Oregon holly, prettily relieved by small pink candles.

Royal Circle, No. 528, W. O. W., gave their regular monthly whist party in their hall in the Abington Building on Thursday evening. The prizes were won by Mrs. F. Baumgariner, Mr. Melvin Young and Mr. J. E. Kelly. At the con-clusion of the same refreshments were clusion of the game refreshments were served by the committee.

A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, of S Grand avenue North surprised them Saturday evening. The affair was very eleverity planned and a very enjoyable evening was spent in games and vocal and instrumental music. Dainty refreshments were served by the Miss Carstens and Miss Delta Watson won the prizes at the last meeting of the Girls' Cluch Club, which was held at the home of Miss Maud Hahn. Miss Hahn and Mrs. Louis Gerlinger entertained together, and made the afternoon very pleasant.

The Portasia Club gave one of its pleasant dancing parties Wednesday evening at Parsons Hall. The decorations con-sisted of evergreen branches and various colored lights. Parsons' orchestra furnished delightful music, and dancing con-tinued until midnight.

Mrs. L. Crusoe entertained the Ladies' Aid Society of Bethania Danish Lutheran Church in a very pleasant manner on Wednesday afternoon. At the close of a short programme, dainty refreshments were served.

The puriors of Culvary Presbyterian Church were well filled on Friday even-ing when the congregation's quarterly so-cial was held. Refreshments were daintily served, after a short programme.

Dr. and Mrs. Alan Welch Smith gave a dinner last evening, at their home on Tenth street, entertaining Dr. and Mrs. F. Burgette Short, Dr. Elwin Lincoln House and Rev. Ralph Gillam.

The members of the Ladies Aid Society of the Norwegian Lutheran Church were pleasantly entertained on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. C. Pederson, at her home on Grant street.

The Kennington Club was entertained by Mrs. Alden, at 12 Twenty-second ******************************

WEDDINGS. Muir-Gibbs.

Alexander Muir and Miss Kate A. Gibbs, daughter of the late ex-Governor Addison

The benefit dance given by St. Mary's Aid Society for St. Joseph's Home for the Azed was a successful event of Tuesday evening. The dance was largely attended and decidedly pleasant. The officers of the society, who received the guests, are as follows: President, Mrs. D. W. Baker; vice-president, Mrs. John Barrett: treasurer, Miss Mary McKay; secretary, Mrs. W.-T. Graham; collector, Mrs. F. Barrett.

The Wishbone Whist Club was delightfully entertained at the home of the music of the lightfully entertained at the home of the president. Mr. Gus Camer, on Thursday evening, January 5. The Misses Cramer and Miss Brown and the Messus, Baker and Mr. Ralph W. Hoyt at the plane, the bridal party entered the rooms, which were artistically fentoened with long ropes of cedar and further decorated with Oregon holly, in Indian baskets and cep-Per Jara. After the simple, impressive ceremony the coupie received congratulations and best wishes of about 150 rejaper jars. After the simple, impressive ceremony the couple received congratulations and best wishes of about 150 relatives and friends. Many of Portland's oldest families were represented by those present. The dining-room, a green bower of Winter follage, with the table decoof Winter follage, with the table deco-rated by a large centerpiece of pink carni-tions and smilex, lighted by unshaded pink candles, was a most pleasing picture. The guests were received by Mrs. Glibs, assisted by Mrs. Charles W. Gibbs, of Wallace, Idaho; Miss Kate Cusic, Mrs. J. S. Meek and Mrs. George A. Cooper, Miss Anna Farrell and Miss Anna Sam-uel pieces of elaborate needlework and a set of hand-painted plates, the gift of the Oregon Ceramic Club, of which the bride was a charter member.

was a charter member.

The bride's gown was of heavy but soft white silk, the matron of honor wearing cream net and pink brocade. The bride's mother wore black peau de sole with lace.

Mr. and Mrs. Mulr will spend some time at Mrs. Packard's cottage at Seaside, and will be at home at Mount Tabor after

Lawrence-Hoyt,

The home of Mrs. B. El Hoyt, 681 East Ash street, was the scene of a beautiful home wedding on last Thursday evening. January II, the occasion being the marriage of ber daughter Myrtle to Mr. Wilse M. Lawrence.

The house was beautifully decorated throughout, the color scheme being white throughout, the color scheme being white and green.

Miss Fleeta Magers presided at the piano, and to the beautiful strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March the bridal party took their position in the parlor under an artistic canopy of trailing ity and Oregon holly, intermingled with white flowers.

and Oregon helly, intermingled with white flowers.

The beautiful and impressive ring service was performed by Rev. Mr. Heppe, of Centenary Methodist Church, in the presence of a large concourse of friends, Jesse Dunbur samp very effectively, 'Oh, Promise Me,' The bride is a very pratty brunette, and was charming in her soft dress of white voile. She carried a bouquet of superb roses, tied with tulle.

After receiving the congratulations of their friends the young couple went to their new home at Twenty-fourth and Weidler streets.

stylish and comfortable. 2- We handle only the best

ALASKA SKINS

which we make up in the best style of the Furrier's art. Let us quote you a price on one of these Garments. We carry every other known Fur of value, and our prices are most reasonable.

H. Liebes &

288 Morrison St., Portland

Exclusive Manufacturing Furriers. J. P. Plagemann, Manager.

SEND FOR CATALOGUE.

126 2d St., bet. Alder and Wash. OUR ENTIRE STOCK OF REDUCED PRICES Fur Stoles In Sable, Chinebilla, Black Lynx, Persian Black Marten, etc.

Fur Boas In Sable, Fox, White Fox, White Fox, White Thibet, Black Marten, Alaska Bear, Mink, etc. ALASKA SEALSKIN COATS, PERSIAN LAMB COATS, OTTER AND BEAVER COATS.

NEAR SEAL COATS, ASTRACHAN COATS. FUR MUFFS, FUR CAPES, FUR CAPS AND GLOVES, FUR CARRIAGE ROBES

Leading and Reliable Furriers