This Men's Store

Sixth-Street Annex—First Floor.

One of the hardest tasks we've had to perform in the upbuilding and bettering of our storekeeping has been to get the growth of this business balanced. Folks got the notion that Olds, Wortman & King's was a woman's store—and so it is—of course, a woman's store, the best not only in Portland, but in all the West. But 'tis just as thoroughly

A MEN'S STORE.

The best in town. Men's goods, chosen by men experts in men's wear. Shown carefully and as men like to be shown, by men. Polite, obliging fellows. In a store apart from women's goods, right handy to the 6th-street entrance. Manned by men, for men, and women who buy for men. In season and out we've advertised for men's trade for years—told honest truths about honest goods for all sorts of men. For a time it seemed a hopeless case—hopeless as putting down the end of our steel-frame building with your head. But after a while we won—men's trade—by the thousands. And now, when we advertise bargains like these for men, they come for 'em or send. They'll be here Monday in thongs, and all week, or send their wives, sisters, mothers, sweethearts. They'll all be here—bet a cookie—come and see. MEN'S EXTRA SPECIALS FOR THE WEEK OF MONDAY, JANUARY 23:
