

SOCIETY

conditions, so that each one could interpret the story told in music, from the gentle touching strains of the love-story to the storm of passion. Miss Shelby divided with Mr. Mills the honors of the evening with her beautiful selections.

The Baraca class of Calvary Baptist Church held its first annual banquet Friday evening, January 20, in their rooms at the church. Well-directed remarks were given by Rev. W. R. Randle and Rev. James A. Clarke.

Miss Zoe E. McClung entertained a number of friends on Thursday evening at her home, 23 Whitaker street. The hostess was assisted by Miss Minnie Hiller, who assisted by Miss Minnie Hiller.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stumberg. On Saturday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. R. E. Muckley, 344 Mills street, Portland, a very quiet wedding took place.

At the joint installation of Prospect Camp No. 149, W. O. W., Astra Circle and Winona Circle, Women of Woodcraft, held Thursday evening at Woodmen Hall, Seiling-Hirsch building.

ing by the students, were delightful features, as well as a recitation by Miss Grace. The room was decorated with Oregon holly. About 50 guests were present.

Mrs. W. J. White entertained the staff of Myrtle Union, No. 7, Order of Washington, at her home in Sellwood, on Tuesday evening. Progressive whist was played until a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stevens, of Seattle, are spending their honeymoon in Portland. The bride was formerly Miss Louise Heape, of Newcastle, Pa.

A beautifully appointed dinner was given by Miss Grace Warren on Friday evening. The guests who enjoyed Miss Warren's hospitality were Miss Hazel Dolph, Miss Estay Bryan, Miss Kate Woolsey, Miss Kathleen Burns, Mr. Marion Dolph, Mr. Tom Robertson, Mr. Fred Strong, Mr. Holbrook and Mr. George Warren.

On Monday evening, January 18, at their home, 114 East Sixteenth street, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Stewart celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary. Progressive whist was played, the prizes being won by Mrs. Culpin, Mr. Miller, Mrs. Tomlinson and McCullough.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Scott entertained in delightful style on Friday, in honor of the Christian Endeavor Society of First Cumberland Presbyterian Church. A pleasing programme was given, and the evening was highly enjoyed by the young people.

The Daisy Whist Club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. E. V. Hickling on Monday evening, January 18. Prizes were won by Mrs. Orth and Miss Anna Mathiesen.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Sewall leave Monday evening for New York combining pleasure with business. They will go by way of California and the Southern route.

The monthly social and business meeting of the San Great Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian Church, Twelfth and Alder streets, was held Monday evening, the affair being well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stumberg. On Saturday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. R. E. Muckley, 344 Mills street, Portland, a very quiet wedding took place.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stumberg. On Saturday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. R. E. Muckley, 344 Mills street, Portland, a very quiet wedding took place.

about 40 of their friends on Friday, the guests spending the evening very pleasantly at 90.

WEDDINGS. Cox-Pfingst. William A. Cox, of this city, the general agent for the Chicago & North-West Railway, was married at Louisville, Wednesday, January 11, to Miss Josephine A. Pfingst.

A handsome wedding was solemnized last night at 8 o'clock at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, when Miss Josephine A. Pfingst and William A. Cox were married by the Rev. Dr. John K. Mason.

On Monday evening, January 18, at their home, 114 East Sixteenth street, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Stewart celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Scott entertained in delightful style on Friday, in honor of the Christian Endeavor Society of First Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

The Daisy Whist Club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. E. V. Hickling on Monday evening, January 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Sewall leave Monday evening for New York combining pleasure with business.

The monthly social and business meeting of the San Great Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian Church, Twelfth and Alder streets, was held Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stumberg. On Saturday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. R. E. Muckley, 344 Mills street, Portland, a very quiet wedding took place.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stumberg. On Saturday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. R. E. Muckley, 344 Mills street, Portland, a very quiet wedding took place.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stumberg. On Saturday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. R. E. Muckley, 344 Mills street, Portland, a very quiet wedding took place.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stumberg. On Saturday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. R. E. Muckley, 344 Mills street, Portland, a very quiet wedding took place.

LADIES' SILVERFIELD'S FOURTH AND MORRISON. Our Great Annual Clearance Sale. Continues to offer the grandest bargains from the most up-to-date, stylish and exclusive line of wearing apparel and furnishings for ladies, in the City of Portland.

The Greatest Selling of FINE FURS At Clearance Sale Prices. This greatest saving opportunity of the year is drawing to a close. Never before and never again will such incomparable values in dependable furs be offered.

75c Neckwear 33c. A collection of the daintiest, fluffiest Neckwear for ladies ever placed in a special sale, the latest creations in Battenberg, lace, silk and chiffon collars, tailored stocks and turnovers, bows and four-in-hand ties.

Home, Sweet Home, ended the enjoyable entertainment. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Park arrived from Eugene on Friday. Mrs. J. J. Murphy is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. B. Caswell, at Walla Walla.

On Friday, January 21, at 8 P. M., the Ohio Society will entertain the members of the Pennsylvania Society in the hall in the Marquam Building, eighth floor. The invitation has been accepted by the officers of the Pennsylvania Society.

One of the most delightful of recent card parties was given by Mrs. Max Melcher on Thursday at the Concordia Club in honor of Miss Heyman, of Tacoma. The game of 500 was played and handsome prizes were awarded to Miss Ackerman, Miss Harris and Miss Mal Hirsch.

On Wednesday evening, January 18, the wedding of Miss Clara Ludorf, of Indianapolis, to Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Dreyer, of this city, was celebrated at the home of Mrs. J. A. Lewis, wife of the pastor, in presence of a large number of guests.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Newburg announce the engagement of their daughter, Minnie Louise, to Samuel C. Jagger, of this city. The wedding is to take place the early part of February.

EVERYTHING MADE OF FURS. will be found in our stock or will be manufactured to your order. We carry only the genuine Alaska Seal-skins, which we produce in correct effects with a finish and style that is found exclusively in our productions.

VANCOUVER MAN WEDS DULUTH GIRL IN PORTLAND. MR. AND MRS. W. C. STUMBERG. On Saturday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. R. E. Muckley, 344 Mills street, Portland, a very quiet wedding took place.

COMING EVENTS. The members of the Scottish Rite are with much pleasure looking forward to their next or third at home to be given at the cathedral on Morrison and Lowndes streets, Thursday, January 25, when it is expected a large number will be in attendance.

KEISTER'S Ladies' Tailoring College. ALISKY BUILDING 265 Morrison St. To be well dressed is the desire of every woman. How to be so is a problem to many. To meet this problem the Keister Ladies' Tailoring College was first instituted in St. Louis.